¶ When the Pharises sawe that, they sayd to his Disciples: why eateth youre master with Publycans and synners? When Iesus hearde that, he sayde vnto them: the whole neade not the Pharise, but they that are sicke. Soe & learne what I meaneth: I haue plea- sure in mercy, and not in offryng. For I am Mercie and not come to call the ryghtewys, but the synners to repentaunce.

¶ Then came the Disciples of John to him sayinge: why do we & the Pharises faste often, but thy Disciples faste not? And Iesus sayd vnto the: can the weddinge chylde moine as long as the bydegrome is with them? The tyme wyll come when the bydegrome shall be taken from them, & then shall they faste. No man peceth an olde garment with a pece of newe cloothe. For then taketh he awaye the pece agayne from the garment, & the rent is made greater. Nether do men put new wyne into olde vessels, for then the vessels breake, & the wyne runneth out, & the vessels perishe. But they put new wyne into new vessels, and so are bothe saued together.

¶ Whyle he thus spake vnto the, beholde ther came a certayne ruler, and worshipped him, sayinge: my daughter is euē now deceased, but come & lay thy hand on her & she shall lyue. And Iesus arose and folowed hym with his Disciples. And beholde a woman whych was diseased with an yllue of bloode, xij. yeres, came behinde him & touched the hem of his besture. For she sayd in her selfe: if I may touche but euen his besture only, I shall be safe. When Iesus turned hym aboute, & behelde her sayinge: Daughter be of good comforte, thy fapth hath made the safe. And the ruler of the house, which setteth at peace the chylde, and he sayde vnto them: get you hence, for the mayde is not deed, but slepeth. And they laughted hym to scozne. As sone as the people were gathered aboute, he went in & toke her by the hande, and the mayde arose. And this was noyed through out all that lande.

¶ And as Iesus departed thence, two blynde men folowed hym cryinge and sayinge: O thou sonne of Dauid haue mercy on vs. And when he was come home, the blinde came to him. And Iesus sayde vnto them: Beleue ye are cured, that I am able to do this? And they sayde vnto hym: ye Lord. Then touched he their eyes, sayinge: acordeyng to youre fapth be it vnto you. And their eyes were opened. And Iesus charged them sayinge: se that no man knowe of it. But they as sone as they were departed, spred abroad his name through out all the lande.

¶ As they went out, beholde, they brought to him a dome man possessed of a deuyll. And as sone as the deuyll was cast out, the domine spake. And the people marueyled, sayinge: it was neuer so sene in Israel. But the Pharises sayde: he casteth out deuylls, by the power of the chefe deuyll.

The xiii. Chapter.

The same daye went Iesus out of his house/and sat by the see syde / and moche people resorted vnto hym, so grettly þ he went/ & sat in a shippe, and all the people stode on the shoore. And he spake many thynges to the in synmyltytudes/ sayig: Beholde, the sowre wet forth to sow. And as he sowed, some fell by the wayes syde/ & the fowles came & deuoured it by. Some fell by the stony ground where it had not moche erth/and auaile it spronge by, because it had no depth of erth: and when the sunne was by it caught he it, and for lacke of rotyng wydded awaye. Some fell amonge thornes / & the thornes spronge by and chooked it. Parte fell in good ground/ and brought forth good frute: some an hundred fold/ some sixtye fold some thirtie folde. Whosoener hath eares to heare let him eare.

And the disciples came and sayde to hym: why speakest thou to the in parables? He answered and sayde vnto them / it is geuen vnto you to knowe the secretes of the kyngdome of heuen / but to them it is not geuen.

For whosoever hath to him shall be geue:
and he shall haue aboundance. But whosoeuer hath not: from him shalbe taken awayne euen that he hath. Therefore speake I to the in synilitude: for though they se / they se not:
& hearinge they heare not: neither vnderstaude.
And in them is fulfilled the Prophecy of Esaies / which prophesye sayth: with þe eares ye shall heare and shall not vnderstande / and with þe eyes ye shall se / & shall not perceaue.
For this peoples hertes are waxed grosse / and their eares are dull of heyringe / & their eyes haue they closed lest they shuld se with their eyes / and heare with their eares / and shulde vnderstaude with their hertes / & shuld tourne that I myght heale them.

But blessed are your eyes, for they see: & your eares, for they heare. Verely I saye unto you, / many prophetes / and perseynt men haue desired to see those thynges which ye see / & haue not sene the: & to heare those thynges which ye heare / & haue not herd the. Heare ye therfore the symilitude of the sower. Whosoeuer heareth the worde of the kyngdom & vnderstandeth it not / ther cometh the euyl man & catcheth away the which was sowne in his hert. And this is he which was sowne by the way syde. But he that was sowne in the stony grounde / is he which heareth the the worde and vnderstandeth it: whych also bereth fruite and byngeth forth / some an hundred folde / some sixtye folde / and some Another synilitude put he forth into the sayinge: I the kyngdome of heauen is lyke unto a mā which sowd good seed in his feld. B But whyll men * slept there came hys foo & * This slepe sowd tares amonge the wheate/ & went hys signifieth / the men haue of uous mā hath done this. Then the seruantes worlde.

saye vnto him: wylt thou then that we go & weede them oute? But he sayd: nay/ lest whyll ye go aboute to weede out þe tares/ ye plucke hysse also with them the wheate by þe roottes: let bothe growe to gether tyll haruest come/and in tyme of haruest/ I wyl saye to the reuers/ gather ye fyrst the tares/ and bynde the in sheues to be brynt: but gather the wheete into my barn.

¶ Another parable he put forth vnto them say-inge: The kyngdome of heauē is lyke vnto a gayne of mustard seede/ which a man taketh and soweth in his felde/ which is the leest of all seedes. But when it is growne / it is the greatest amonge yerbes/ and it is a tree: so the byrddes of the ayre come and byde in the boughes of it.

Another symplitude sayde he to them. The kyngdome of heauē is lyke vnto leuē which a woman taketh and hydeth in. iij. peckes of of meale, tyll all be leuend.

All these thinges spake Iesus vnto þe people by similitudes / & with oute similitudes spake he nothyng to the / to fulfill þe which was spoken by the Prophet saying: * I wyll open my mouth in similitud / & wyll speake forth thynges which haue bene kepte secreete from the begynnyng of the worlde. ¶ Mat. xiii. c.

¶ Then sent Iesus the people away / & came home. And his disciples came vnto hym / saying: declare vnto vs the synillitide of the tares of the feilde. Then answered he & sayd to them. He that soweth the good seed is the sonne of mā. And the feilde is the worlde. And expounded.

And the chyldren of the kyngdome / they are the good seed. And the tares are the chyldren of the wycked. And the enemy that soweth them / is the deuyl. The haruest is the ende of the worlde. And the reapers be the Angells. For euery as the tares are gathered & brynt in the fyre: so shall it be in the ende of this worlde. *The sonne of man shall sende forth his Angells / and they shall gather out of his kyngdome all thynges that offende / and the which do inquite / and shall cast them into a furnes of fyre. There shall be waylinge and gnaughting of teth. *Then shall the iuste men shine as bryght as the sonne in the kyngdom of their father. Whosoever hath eares to heare / let him heare.

*Agayne the kyngdom of heauen is lyke vnto treasure hidde in the felde / the which a man fyndeth and hideth: and for tope therof goeth & selleth all he hath / & buyeth the felde. Agayne the kyngdome of heauen is lyke to a marchant that seeketh good pearles / which whē he had founde one p̄cious pearle / wēt and sold all that he had / and bought it.

Agayne the kyngdom of heauen is lyke vnto a net cast in to the see / & geathereth of all kyndes of fyshes: which when it is full / men drawe to lande / & sytte & geather & good in to busses / & cast the bad away. So shall it be at the ende of the worlde. The Angells shall come out & seuer the bad from the good / & shall cast the into a furnes of fyre: there shall be waylinge and gnaughting of teth.

Jesus sayde vnto them. vnderstande ye all these thynges: They sayde: ye Lorde. Then sayde he vnto them: wherfore euery scribe that is taught vnto the kyngdome of heauen is lyke an housholder / which buyeth forth / out of his treasure / thynges bothe newe and olde.

And it came to passe whē Jesus had synclid these similitudes / & he departed thence / & came in to his awne countre / & taught the in their synagoges / in to moche / & they were astonysed and sayde: whence cometh all this wysdome & power vnto him? Is not this the Carpenters sonne? Is not his mother called Mary: and his brethren be called James & Joscs and Simon and Judas? And are not his sisters all here with vs? Whence hath he all these thynges. And they were offended by hym. Then Jesus sayde to them / a prophete is not without honoure / saue in his awne countre / and amonge his awne kynne. And he did not many myracles there / for there be belees sake.

John is taken and headed. Christ feberly spue thou. sende men with. v. louses and two synthes / and appeareth by nyght vnto his disciples vpon the see.

¶ The xliij. Chapter.

At that tyme Herode the tetrarche cha heard of the fame of Jesus and sende vnto his seruantes: this is John the Baptiste. He is synen a gayne from deeth and therfore are soche myracles wrought by him. For Herode had taken John & bound him / & put him in prison for Herodias sake / his brother Philipps wyfe. For John sayd vnto him: it is not lawfull for the to haue her. And when he would haue put hym to deeth / he feared the people / because they counted him as a prophete.

But when Herodes byrth daye was come the daughter of Herodias dalled before the / & pleased Herode. wherfore he promysed to an othe / that he wolde geue her whatsoeuer she wolde aske. And she beyng informed of her mother before / sayde: geue me here John Baptistes head in a platter. And the kynge sojowed. Neuerthelesse for his othes sake / & for their sakes which sate also at the table / he commaunded it to be geuen her: & sent & beheaded John in the prison / and his heed was brought in a platter and geue to the damsell / & she brought it to her mother. And his disciples came and toke by his body / & buried it: and went and tolde Jesus.

When Jesus hearde / he departed thence by shyppe into a desert place out of the waye. And when the people had hearde therof / they folowed hym a fote out of their cyties. And Jesus went forth & sawe moche people / and his herte dyd melle vpon them / and he healed of the those that were sycke. When eue was come / his disciples came to him saying: this is a deserte place / & the daye is spent: let the people departe / that they maye go in to the towne / and buye them bytalles. But Jesus sayde to them: They haue no neade to go away. Geue ye them to eate. Then sayde they vnto him: we haue here but. v. louses and two synthes. And he sayde: bringe the hither. And he commaunded the people to syt downe on the grasse / and toke the. v. louses & the. ii. synthes / & looked vp to heauen and blessed / & brake & gaue the louses to his disciples / & the disciples gaue the to the people. And they dyd all eate / & were sufficed. And they gathered vp of the gobets that remayned. xij. baskets full. And they that ate / were in nombre about. v. men / besyde women and chyldren.

*And streyght waye Jesus made his disciples enter into a shyppe / and to goo ouer besyde him / whill he sent the people awaye. And as soon as he had sent the people awaye / he went by into a mountayne alone to praye. And whē night was come / he was there him selfe alone. And the shyppe was now in the middes of the see / and was toost with waues / for it was a contrary wynde. *And in the fourth watche of the nyght Jesus cam vnto them watchyng on the see. And when his disciples sawe hym watchyng on the see / they were troubled / saying: it is some spyte / and cryed out for feare. And streyght waye Jesus spake vnto them saying: be of good cheare / it is I / be not afrayed.

Peter answered hym / and sayd: master / yet thou be he / byd me to come vnto the on the water. And he sayd: come. And when Peter was come doune out of the shyppe / he walched on the water / to go to Jesus. But when he sawe a myghty wynde / he was afrayed. And as he beganne to syncke / he cryed saying: master saue me. And immediatly Jesus stretched forth his hand / & caught him / & sayd to him: Thou of lytell fayth / wherfore diddest thou doubt? And as soon as they were come into the shyppe / the wynde ceased. Then they were in the shyppe / came and worshipped hym / saying: of a trithe thou arte the sonne of God. And when they were come ouer / they went into the lande of Genazareth. And when the men of the place had knowledge of him / they sent out into all that countre rounde about / and brought vnto him all that were sycke / & besought him / that they myght touche the hemme of his besture only. And as many as touched it were made safe.

¶ Christe teacheth his disciples / & rebuketh the scribes and pharisees for transgressinge Gods commaundment thorow their awne tradicions. The thyng that goeth into the mouth defyleth not the man. He defyleth the woman of Cananes daughter / healeth the multitude with. v. louses & a fewe synthes feberly. xij. men / besyde women and chyldren.

Then came to Jesus Scribes and Pharisees from Jerusalem saying: why do thy disciples transgresse the tradicions of the elders? for they wete not their handes when they eate bred. He answered & sayde vnto them: why do ye also transgresse the commaundment of God / thorow poure tradicions? For God commaunded saying: honoure thy father & mother and he that curseth father or mother shall suffer deeth. But ye saye: euery man shall saye to his father or mother: that which thou desyrest of me to helpe the with / as geue God: so shall he not honoure his father or his mother. And thus haue ye made / that the commaundment of God is without effecte / thorow poure tradicions. Ypocrites / wel prophesied of you sayas saying: this people draweth nye vnto me with their mouthes / & honoureth me with their lippes / how be it their hertes are farre from me: but in hayne they worshyppe me wth chynge doctrynes / which are nothyng but mens precepts.

And he called the people vnto him / & sayd to them: heare and vnderstande. That which goeth into the mouth / defyleth not the man: but that which cometh out of the mouth / defyleth the man.

Then came his disciples / and sayde vnto him: perceauest thou not how that the pharisees are offended in hearing this saying? He answered and sayde: all plantes which my beauty father hath not planted / shall be plucked hy by the rotes. Let the alone / they be the synners & the blinde leaders of the blinde. If the blinde leade the blinde / both shall fall into the dyche.

Then answered Peter & sayd to him: declare vnto vs this parable. Then sayde Jesus: are ye yet without vnderstandinge? perceaued ye not / & whatsoeuer goeth in at the mouth / descendeth doune into the belly / & is cast oute into the draught? But those thynges which procede out of the mouth / come fro the herte / and they defyle the man. For out of the herte cometh euill thoughtes / murder / breaking of wordlocke / whoredom / the este / false witness / ryng / blasphemye. These are the thynges which defyle a man. But to eate with vnwashed handes / defyleth not a man.

* And Jesus went thence / & departed into the colles of Tyre and Sydon. And beholde a woman which was a Cananite cam out of the same colles / & cryed vnto hym saying: haue mercy on me Lorde thou sonne of Dauid / my daughter is vyciously bered with a deuyl. And he gaue her neuer a worde to answer. Then cam to him his disciples / and besought him saying: sende her awaye / for she foloweth vs crying. He answered / & sayde: I am not sent / but vnto the lost shepe of the house of Israel. Then she cam & worshipped hym / saying: master helpe me. He answered & sayde: it is not good / to take the chyldrens bredde / and to cast it to the dogges. She answered & sayde: trithe Lorde / neuerthelesse the dogges eate of the cromes / which fall fro their masters table. Then Jesus answered & sayde vnto her. O woman greate is thy fayth / thou shalt see thy daughter made whole euen at that same houre.

Then Jesus went awaye from thence / & cam nye vnto the see of Galile / & went by in to a mountayne & sat doune there. And moche people came vnto him / hauinge with them / halt / blinde / donne / maimed / and other many: and cast them doune at Jesus fete. And he healed them / in to moche that the people wōd / to se the the dome speake / the maimed whole / the halt to go / & the blinde to se. And they glorified the God of Israel.

Then Jesus called his disciples to him / & sayde: I haue compassyon on the people because cause they haue continued with him notwithstanding they haue nought to eate: and I will not let the departe fastynge / lest they perishe in the waye. And his disciples sayd vnto him: whence shoulde we get so moche breade in the wilderness / as shoulde suffice to greate a multitude? And Iesus sayde vnto them: how many loaves haue ye? And they sayde: seuen / and a leaue lytle fyshes. And he commaunded the people to sit downe on the grounde: and toke the seuen loaves / and the fyshes / and gaue thankes / and brake them / and gaue to his disciples / and the disciples gaue them to the people. And they had all eate and were sufficed. And they toke vp of the broken meate that was left: six baskettes full. And yet they that ate were fiftie men / besyde women and chyldre. And he sent awaye the people / and toke Chyppes / and came into the parties of Magdala.

The Pharisees requyre a token. Iesus warneth his disciples of the Pharisees doctrine. The confession of Peter. The heres of heauen. The saythfull must beare the crosse after Christ.

The xvi. Chapter.

Then came the Pharisees and Sadducees / and byd temple him / despying him to shewe them some sygne fro heuen. He answered & sayde vnto them: At euen ye saye / we shall haue sayre wedder and that because the skye is reed: and in the morning ye saye / to daye shalbe soule wedder / and that because the skye is cloudy & reed. Ye pprophesye / ye can discerne the falsion of the skye: & can ye not discerne the signes of the tymes? The stowarde nacton & aduourous seketh a sygne / & there shall no nother sygne be geue vnto the but a sygne of the prophet Jonas. So lette he the & departed.

And when his disciples were come to the other syde of the water / they had forgottē to take bread with the. Then Iesus sayde vnto them: Take hede & beware of the leuē of the Pharisees & of the Sadducees. And they thought in thei selues sayig: because we haue brought no bread wth vs. When Iesus vnderstode that / he sayd vnto them: Ye of lytell faith / why are your myndes cumbered because ye haue brought no bread? Do ye not yet perceaue / neither remember those. b. loaves when there were. b. men / & how many baskettes toke ye vp? Whether the. b. loaves whē there were fiftie. & how many baskettes toke ye vp? Why perceaue ye not then / that I spake not vnto you of bread / when I sayde / beware of the leuē of the Pharisees & of the Sadducees? When vnderstode they / how that he had not the beware of the leuē of bread: but of the doctrine of the Pharisees / and of the Sadducees.

When Iesus cam into the coostes of the cite which is called Cesarthylstppē / he asked his disciples sayinge: whō do men saye of the sonne of man am I? They sayde / some saye that thou arte John Baptiste / some Elias / some Jeremias / or one of the prophetes. He sayde vnto the: but whom saye ye that I am? Simon Peter answered & sayde: Thou arte Christ the sonne of the lyvinge God. And Iesus answered & sayde to hym: happy arte thou Simon the sonne of Jonas / for I sette a bloud bath not opened vnto the / but my father which is in heuē. And I saye also vnto the: thou arte Peter / & vpon this roche I will byde my congregaciō. And the gates of hell shall not pteuaile agaynst it. And I wil geue vnto the / the keyes of the kyngdom of heuē: whatsoeuer thou bynde on erthe / shall be bounde in heuē: & whatsoeuer thou loose on erthe / shalbe loosed in heuē.

Then he charged his disciples / that they shoulde tell no mā / that he was Iesus Christ. From that tyme forth Iesus began to shewe vnto his disciples / how that he must go vnto Ierusalem / & suffer many thinges of the elders / & of the hye Pryetes / & of the Scribes / & must be kyled / & rylē agayne the thyrde daye. But Peter toke him a syde / and began to rebuke him sayig: master sauer thy selfe / this shall not come vnto the. Then turned he about / & sayde vnto Peter: come after me Satan / thou offendest me / because thou sauourest not goodly thinges / but wordly thinges.

Iesus then sayde to his disciples. If eny mā wil folowe me / let him forsake him selfe / & take vp his crosse / and folowe me. For who soeuer will saue his lyfe / shall lose it. And who soeuer shall lose his lyfe for my sake / shall fynde it. What shall it ppoct a man / though he shoulde wyne all the whole worlde / yf he loose his awne soule? Or els what shal a man geue to rede me his soule agayne wth all? For the sonne of man shall come in the gloze of his father / wth his angels: & then shall he rewarde euery mā accordyng to his dedes. Wherfor I saye vnto you / some ther be amonge them that here stande / whych shall not taste of deeth / tyll they shall see the sonne of man come in his kyngdome.

The transfiguration of Christ vpon the mount of Caluary. He healeth the lunatyke / & payeth tribute.

The xvii. Chapter.

And after. b. dayes Iesus toke Peter and James & John his brother / & brought the vp into an hye mountayne out of the waye / and was transfigured before them: and his face was as the sunne / and his clothes were as whyte as the lyght. And beholde they appered vnto the / Moses & Elias / talkyng to him. Then answered Peter & sayd to Iesus: master here here is good beyng for vs / if thou wilt / leet vs make here. iij. tabernacles / one for the / & one for Moses / & one for Elias. Whyl he yet spake / beholde a bright cloude shadowed the. And beholde there came a voyce out of that cloude sayig: this is my beare sonne / in whom I deylte / heare him. And when the disciples heard that / they fell on their faces and were looze astrayed. And Iesus came & touched them / and sayde: arylē and be not astrayed. And when they looked vp / they saw no man / saue Iesus only.

And as they came doune from the mountayne / Iesus charged them sayig: se that ye shewe the vison to no man / vntyll the sonne of man be rylē agayne from deeth. And his disciples asked of him / sayig: why then saye the Scribes / & Elias muste fyrst come? Iesus answered & sayde vnto them: Elias shall fyrst come / and restore all thynges. And I saye vnto you that Elias is come already / and they knewe him not: but haue done vnto hym whatsoeuer they lusted. In lyke wyse shall also the sonne of mā suffer of the. Then the disciples perceaued the he spake vnto the of John Baptiste. And when they were come to the people / ther came to hym a certayne man / and kneled doune to him / & sayd: Master haue mercy on my sonne for he is lunaticke: & is soze bered. And oft tyme he falleth into the fyre / and oft into the water. And I brought hym to thy disciples / & they coulde not heale him. Iesus answered & sayd: O generation saythles & croked: how longe shall I be wth you: how longe shall I lustre you? bring him hyther to me. And Iesus rebuked the deuyll / & he cam out of him. And the chyld was healed euen that same houre.

Then came the disciples to Iesus secretly / & sayde: why coulde not we call him out? Iesus sayd vnto the: Because of your vnbelefe. For I saye verely vnto you: yf ye had sayd as a grayne of musterd seed / ye shoulde saye vnto this mountayne / remoue hence to yonder place / & he shuld remoue: neither shuld eny thyng be impossible for you to do. How be it this kynde goeth not out / but by praye and fastyng. As they passed the tyme in Galile / Iesus sayde vnto the: the sonne of man shal be betrayed into the handes of men / and they shall kyll him / & the thyrde daye shall he rylē agayne. And they sorowed greatly.

And when they were come to Capernaum / they that were wont to geather polle money / cam to Peter & sayd: Doth your master paye tribute? He sayde: ye. And whē he was come into the house / Iesus spake fyrst to hym / sayig: what thinkest thou Simon? of whō do the kynges of the erth take tribute of polle money? of their chyldren / or of straungers?

Peter sayde vnto him: of straungers. Then sayd Iesus vnto him agayne: When are the chyldren fre. Neuerthelesse: lest we shuld offende the: go to the see / & cast in thyne angle / & take the fyrste that cometh vp: & whē thou hast opened his mouth / thou shalt fynde a pece of twentie pence: & take & paye for me & the.

The teacheth his disciples to be humble & harmeles: to auoyde occasiōs of euell: and one to forgyue anothers offence.

The xviii. Chapter.

At the same tyme the disciples came vnto Iesus sayig: who is the greatest in the kyngdom of heuē? Iesus called a chyld vnto him / & set him in the middes of them / & sayde: wherfor I saye vnto you: except ye tourne / & be come as chyldren / ye cannot enter in to the kyngdom of heuē. Whosoever therfore humble him selfe as this chyld / the same is the greatest in the kyngdom of heuē. And whosoever receaueth siche a chyld in my name / receaueth me. But whosoever offende one of these lytelons / which beleue in me: it were better for him that a myllstone were hanged aboute his necke / & that he were drowned in the depthe of the see. Wo be vnto the wozyde because of offences. How be it / it cannot be auoyded but the offendes shalbe geue. Neuerthelesse wo be to the man / by whom the offence cometh.

Wherfor yf thy hande or thy fote offende the: cut him of & cast him from the. It is better for the to enter into lyfe halt or maymed / rather then thou shouldest haue gettwo handes or two fete / be cast into euerylastyng fyre. And yf also thyne eye offende the / plucke hit oute & caste hit fro the. It is better for the to enter into lyfe with one eye / then hauyng two eyes to be cast into hell fyre. Se the ye despyse not one of these lytelones. For I saye vnto you / that in heuē their angels alwayes beholde the face of my father / which is in heuē. Yf a sonne of man is come to saue that which is lost. How thinke ye? If a man haue an hundred shepe / & one of them be gone astray / doth he not leue nynty & nyne in the mountayns / & go & seke that one which is gone astray? If it happē that he fynd him / verely I saye vnto you: he reioyseth more of the shepe / then of the nynty & nyne which wēt not astray. Euen so it is not the wyll of your father in heuē / that one of these lytelons shoulde perishe.

Wherfor yf thy brother trespass agaynst the. Go & tell him his faute betwene him and the alone. If he heare the / thou hast wonne thy brother: But yf he heare the not / then take yet id the one or two / & in the mouth of two or thre witnesses / all thinges maye be stablyshed. If he heare not the / tell it vnto the congregacion. If he heare not the congregacion /

Whatsoever I saye vnto you, whatsoeuer ye hynde on erth, shall be bounde in heuē. And whatsoeuer ye loose on erth, shall be loosed in heuē. Agayne I saye vnto you, whatsoeuer ye binde on erth, shall be bounde in heuē. And whatsoeuer ye loose on erth, shall be loosed in heuē. For where two or three are gathered together in my name, I will be there in the myddes of them.

Then came Peter to hym, & sayde: master howe ofte shall I forgeue my brother, if he synne agaynst me, leue tymes? Iesus sayde vnto hym: I saye not vnto the leue tymes, but seventy tymes seuen tymes. For wherfore is the kyngdom of heuē likened vnto a certayne kyng, which wolde take a countes of his seruantes. And when he had begone to reche, one was brought vnto hym, which ought hym ten thousand talentes: whom because he had nought to paye, his master commaunded hym to be solde, & his wyfe, & his chyldre, & all he had, & payment to be made. The seruant fell doune & besought hym sayng: Sir, geue me respyte, & I will paye it euery whyle. Then had the Lorde pyte on that seruant, & low- sed hym, and forgaue hym the det.

And the sayde seruant went out & soude one of his felowes which ought hym an hundred pence, and leyed handes on hym, & toke hym by the throte, sayng: paye me that thou owest. And his felowe fell doune & besought hym sayng: haue pacience with me, & I will paye the all. And he wolde not but wet & cast him into prison, tyll he shulde paye the det. Whē his other felow sawe what was done, they were very sorry, and came and tolde vnto their Lorde all that had happened. Then his Lorde called hym and sayd vnto hym: O euill seruant, I forgaue the all that det, because thou praydest me: was it not mete also that thou shouldest haue had compassion on thy felow, eue as I had pyte on the? And his Lorde was wrooth, & deliuered hym to the saylers, tyll he shuld paye all that was due to hym. So I saye vnto you, except ye forgeue with youre hartes, each one to his brother their trespasses, I will not forgeue them.

And it came to passe, when Iesus had synnified those sayngs, he gat hym from wallie, and came into the coostes of Ieruzalem, beyonde Jordan, and moche people folowed hym, & he healed them there.

¶ Then came vnto hym the Pharisees temp- ting hym, & sayng to hym: Is it lawfull for a man to put away his wyfe for all maner of causes? He answered and sayd vnto them: Hane ye not redde, howe he* which made mā at the begynnyng, made the man & woman and sayd: for this thinge, shall a mā leue fa- ther & mother, & cleue vnto his wyfe, & they twayne shall be one flethe. Wherfore now are they not twayne, but one flethe. Let not mā therfore put a sunder, & which hath coupled together. Then sayde the pharisees: why dyd Moses commaunde to geue a tekimo- nial of dyuorcement, and to put her away? He sayde vnto them: Moses because of the hardnes of youre hartes sufferd you to put away youre wyfes: But fro the beginning it was not so. I saye therfore vnto you, who- soeuer putteth away his wyfe (except it be for fornicacion), & marieth another, breake- th wedlocke. And whosoever marieth her which is dyuorced, doeth comyt aduourtry.

¶ Then sayde his disciples to him: yf the ma- ter be so betwene man & wyfe, then is it not good to marry. He sayde vnto the: all men can not away with that saying, save they to whō it is geuen. Ther are chaste, which were so bozne out of their mothers belly. And ther are chaste, which be made of men. And ther be chaste, which haue made them selues chaste. For the kyngdom of heuē sake. He that can take it, let he take it. Then were brought to him yonge chyldren, that he shuld put his handes on them & praye. And the disciples re- buked them. But Iesus sayde: suffer the chyldre, & forbide them not to come to me: for of such is the kyngdom of heuē. And when he had put his handes on them, he departed thence.

¶ And beholde one came, & sayde vnto hym: good master, what good thyng shall I do, & I maye haue eternall lyfe? He sayd vnto hym: why callest thou my good? there is none good but one, & he is God. But yf thou wilt entre into lyfe, kepe the commaundmentes. The other sayde to him: which? And Iesus sayd: breake no wedlocke, & tyll not: steale not: beare not false wytnes: honoure father & mother: and loue thyne neybour as thy selfe. And yf thoue man sayd vnto hym: I haue obserued all the- se thynges from my youth, what lacke I yet? And Iesus sayde vnto hym: yf thou wilt be perfecte, go & sell that thou hast, and geue it to the poore, and thou shalt haue treasure in heuē, & come & folowe me. When he younge mā herde that saying, he went away mour- nyng. For he had grete possessions.

¶ Then Iesus sayd vnto his disciples: were- ly I say vnto you, it is harde for a ryche man to enter into the kyngdom of heuē. And moze ouer I saye vnto you: it is easier for a ca- mell to go through the eye of a needle, then for a ryche mā to enter into the kyngdom of God. Whē his disciples heard this, they were exce- dyngly dyngly amased, sayng: who then can be saued? Iesus behelde the, & sayd vnto the: with men this is impossible, but with God all thynges are possible.

¶ Then answered Peter, & sayde to hym: Beholde, we haue forsake all & folowed the: what shall we haue? Iesus sayde vnto them: verely I saye to you, when the sonne of man shall sit in the seate of his maieste, ye which folowe me in this seconde generacion shall sit also vpon xij. seates, & iudge the xij. trybes of Israel. And whosoever forsaketh houses, or brethren, or sytters, or other father, or mother, or wyfe, or chyldre, or land, for my names sake, he shall receaue an hundred fold, & shall inheret eueryng lyfe. I saye that are spalte shall be laste, & the laste shall be fyrste.

¶ This teacheth by a synnitude that God is better vnto no man, and howe he is alwaye callinge men to his laboure. He teacheth his disciples to be lowlye, & yett with two bynde men their spght.

¶ The kyngdom of heuē is lyke vnto an housholder, which went out early in the moynyng to hyer la- bourers into his vyneyard. And he agreed with the labourers for a peny a daye, & sent the into his vyneyard. And he wet out about the thirde houre, & sawe other standyng ydell in the market place, & sayd vnto the: go ye also into my vyneyard: & whatsoeuer is ryght, I will geue you. And they went their waye. Agayne he went out about the fyrte & synthe houre, and dyd lyke wyse. And he wet out about the eleuenth houre, & founde other standyng ydell, & sayde vnto the: why stande ye here all the daye ydell? They sayde vnto hym: because no man hath hyred vs. He sayde to the: go ye also into my vyneyard, & what- soeuer is ryght, that shall ye receaue.

¶ When eue was come, the Lorde of the vy- neyard sayde vnto his steward: call the labou- rers, and geue the their hyer, begynnyng at the laste, tyll thou come to the fyrste. And they which were hyred about the eleuenth houre, came & receaued euery mā a peny. Then cam the fyrst, supposyng that they shuld receaue moare, & they lyke wyse receaued euery mā a peny. And when they had receaued it, they murmured agaynst the goodman of the house sayng: these laste haue wrought but one houre, & thou hast made the equal vnto vs, which haue born the burthe & heet of the daye. He answered to one of them sayng: stonde I do the no wronge: dydest thou not agree w me for a peny? take that which is thy due, and go thy waye. I will geue vnto this last, as moche as to the. Is it not lawfull for me to do as me lyketh with myne awne? Is thyne eye euill, because I am good? So the laste shal be fyrste, and the fyrste shall be laste. For many are called, and fewe be chosen.

¶ And Iesus ascended to Ieruzalem, and toke the xij. disciples a parte in the waye, & sayde to them: Beholde we goo by to Ieruzalem, and the sonne of man shall be betrayed vnto the chiefe Pryetes, and vnto the Scribes, & they shall condemne him to deeth, and shall deli- uer hym to the gentyls, to be mocked, to be scourged, and to be crucified: and the thirde daye he shall ryste agayne.

¶ Then came to him the mother of Zebedes chyldre with her sonnes, & wo:shippynghim & desyring a certayne thyng of him. And he sayde vnto her: what wilt thou haue? She sayde vnto hym: Graunte that these my two sonnes may sit, the one on thy right hande, & the other on the lyfte hand in thy kyngdom.

¶ Iesus answered & sayde: Ye wot not what ye aske. Are ye able to drynke of the cuppe I drynke of, & to be baptised with the bapty- me that I am baptised with? They answered to him, that we are. And he sayde vnto the: Ye shall drynke of my cup, & shall be baptised with the bapty me that I am baptised with. But to sit on my right hande, & on my lyfte hand, is not myne to geue: but to the for whom it is prepared of my father.

¶ And whē the ten heard this, they dysday- ned at the two brethren: But Iesus called the vnto him & sayde: Ye knowe that the lordes of the gentyls haue dominacion ouer them, and they are great, & exerceyse power ouer the. It shall not be so amōge you. But who- soeuer will be grete amōge you, let him be your mynister: and whosoever wil be chiefe, let him be your seruant, eue as the sonne of man came, not to be ministered vnto, but to minister, and to geue his lyfe for the redem- pcion of many.

¶ And as they departed fro Ihericho, moche people folowed hym. And beholde two blyn- demen syttinge by the waye syde, when they heard Iesus passe by, cryed sayng: Lord, haue mercy on vs. And the people rebuked them, because they shulde holde their peace. But they cryed the moare sayng: haue mercy on vs, thou Lord, which arte the sonne of Dauid. Then Iesus stode still, & called the, & sayde: what wilt ye that I shulde do to you? They sayde to hym: Lord, that oure eyes maye be opened. Iesus had compassion on them, & touched their eyes, & immediately their eyes receaued syght, and they folowed hym.

¶ He ryded into Ieruzalem, & bytwe the marchantes out of the temple, curseth the fyge tre, and rebuketh the Pharisees with the synnitude of the two sonnes of the husbandmen, that slewe suche as were sent vnto them.

¶ The xx. Chapter.

MThen they drew nye vnto Ierusalem / & were come to Bethphage / vnto mount Olgare: then sent Iesus two of his disciples / saying to the: Go into the towne & ye shall fynde an asse bounde / & her colte with her: lose the & bringe the vnto me. And yf eny man saye ought vnto you / saye ye the Lorde hath neede of the: & they shal wape he will let the go. All this was done / to fulfill that which was spoken by the prophete / saying: Tell ye the daughter of Sion: Beholde thy kynge cometh vnto the / meke & syttinge vpon an asse & a colte / the sole of an asse bled to the pocke. The disciples wot & dyd as Iesus commaunded the: & brought the asse & the colte / & put on the thet clothes / & sett him thereon. And many of the people spread their garmentes in the waye. Other cut doune bryanches fro the trees / & strawed the in the waye. Whereouer the people went before / & they also came after / cryed saying: Hosanna to the sonne of Dauid. Blessed be he that cometh in the name of the Lorde. * Hosanna in the highest. And when he was come to Ierusalem / all the cite was moued saying: who is this? And the people sayde: this is Iesus the prophet of Nazareth a cytie of Galilee. And Iesus went in to the temple of God / & cast out all the that soulede & bought in the temple / & ouerthrew the tables of the mony changers / & the seates of the solde dounes / & sayde to the: It is wyrtten / my house shall be called the house of prayer. But ye haue made it a denne of theues. And he blynde & the halt came to him in the temple / & he healed the. When the chiefe prestes & scribes sawe the manueyles that he dyd / & the chyldre crying in the temple & saying: Hosanna to the sonne of Dauid / they dysdayned / & sayd vnto him: hearest thou what these saye? Iesus sayde vnto the: yee haue neuer redde / of the mouth of babes and suckelinges thou hast ordeyned prayer. And he leste the / & went out of the cite vnto Bethanias / & had his abydinge there. In the morninge as he returned into the cite agayne / he hungered / & spied a figge tree thereon / but leues only / and sayde to it: neuer frute growe on the hence forthward. And anon the figge tree withered a waye. And when his disciples sawe the / they marueled saying: How lone is the figge tree withered a waye? Iesus answered / & sayd vnto the: verely I saye vnto you / yf ye shall haue faith and shall not doubt ye shall not only do that which I haue done to the figge tree: but also yf ye shall saye vnto this moystayne / take thy selfe awaye / & cast thy selfe into the see / it shall be done. And what soeuer ye shall aske in prayer (yf ye beleue) ye shall receaue it.

And when he was come in to the temple / the chiefe prestes & the elders of the people / came vnto him as he was teachinge / and sayde by what auctorite doest thou these things? and who gaue the this power? Iesus answered & sayde vnto the: I also will aske of you a certayne questio / which yf ye aswore me / I in lyke wyse will tell you by what auctorite I do these thinges. The baptyse of John: whence was it: fro heuē or of men? Then they reasouned amōge the selues saying: yf we shall saye fro heuē / he will saye vnto vs: why dyd ye not then beleue him? But yf we shall saye of men / then feare we the people. For all men helde John as a prophet. And they answered Iesus & sayd: we cannot tell. And he likewyse sayd vnto the: nether tell I you by what auctorite I do these thinges. I what saye ye to this? A certayne man had two sonnes / & came to the elder & sayde: some go & worke to daye in my vinegarde. He answered & sayd: I will not: but afterwarde repented & wēt. Then came he to the seconde / & sayd lyke wyse. And he answered & sayde: I will go: yet wēt not. Whether of the two shal be the will of the father? And they sayd vnto him: the fyrst. Iesus sayd vnto the: verely I saye vnto you / the publicans & the harlots shall come into the kyngdom of God before you. For John came vnto you in the waye of rightewelsnes / & ye beleued him not: But the publicans & the harlots beleued him. And yet ye (though ye sawe it) were not yet moued to repentaunce / the ye might afterwarde haue beleued him. * Herken another similitude. * Ther was a certayne housholder / which planted a vinegarde / & hedged it rounde about & made a wynepresse in it / & bilt a towre / & let it out to husbandmen / & wēt into a straunge countre. And when the tyme of the frute drew neare / he sent his seruantes to the husbandmen to receaue the frute of it. And the husbandmen caught his seruantes / & bet one / killed another / and stoned another. Agayne he sent other seruantes / moore then the fyrst: & they serued the lyke wyse. But last of all / he sent vnto them his awne sonne saying: they will feare my sonne. But when the husbandmen sawe the sonne / they sayd amōge the selues: * This is the heyre: come / let vs kill him / & let vs take his inheritance to oure selues. And they caught him & thrust him out of the vinegarde / & stowe him. When the Lord of the vinegarde cometh / what will he do to those husbandmen? They sayd vnto him: he will cruelly destroye those euill persons / & will let out his vinegarde vnto other husbandmen / which shall deliuer him the frute at tyme convenient. Iesus sayd vnto the: dyd ye neuer reade in the scriptures: the stone which the builders refused / the same is set in the principall part of the corner: this was the Lordes doinge / & it is mer-

Ismetuous in oure eyes. Therefore saye I vnto you / the kyngdome of God shall be taken from you / and shall be geuen to the Gentyls / which shall bringe forth the frutes of it. And whosoever shall fall on this stone / he shall be broken / but on whosoever it shall fall vpon / it will grynde him to powder. And when the chiefe prestes and pharises hearde these synplytudes / they perceaued that he spake of them. * And they went about to laye handes on him / but they feared the people / because they tooke him as a prophet. The marriage of the kynge sonne. Trybute to be geuen to the Emperour. A hard confutrye the opinion of the Saduces concerning the resurreccyon / and answere the Saduces vnto his questyon. The xxiiij. Chapter. Iesus answered / and spake vnto them agayne / in synplytudes / sayinge: The kyngdome of heuē is lyke vnto a certayne kynge / which maryed his sonne / & sent forth his seruantes / to call the that were byd to the weddinge / and they wolde not come. Agayne he sent forth other seruantes / sayinge: Tell the which are bydden: beholde I haue prepared my dynner / myne oxen & my fatynges are kyllen / & all thynges are redy / come vnto the marriage. But they made lyght of it / & went their wayes: one to his ferme place / another about his marchaundise / the remnaunt toke his seruantes & increased the vngodly and stowe the. When the kynge hearde the / he was wroth / & send forth his warriers & destroyed those murtherers / and bent by their cytie. Then sayde he to his seruantes: the weddinge was prepared. But they which were bydden / were not worthy. So ye therfore out into the hys wayes / and as many as ye fynde byd the to the marriage. The seruantes wēt out into the hys wayes / & gathered to gether as many as they coulde fynde / both good and bad / and the weddinge was furnished wyth gesses. Then the kynge came in / to byset the gesses / & spied there a man which had not on a weddinge garment / & sayde vnto hym: what art thou doynge here / how fortuned it the thou camest in hys ther a hast not on a weddinge garment? And he was euē spechlesse. Then sayde the kynge to his ministres: take a bynde him hand & fote / and caste him into utter darchnes / there shall be wepyng & gnashyng of teth. For many are called and fewe be chosen. * Then wēt the pharises & toke cōfessyō how they myght tangle hym in hys wordes. And they sent vnto him their disciples wyth Herodes seruantes sayinge: * Master / we knowe the thou art true / & teachest the waye of God truly / nether carest thou for any man / for thou cōspyrest not men's estate. Tell vs therfore: how thynkest thou? Is it lawfull to geue trybute vnto Cesar or not? Iesus perceaued their wychednes / & sayde: why tepte ye me ye hypocrites? Let me se the trybute money. And they toke him a peny. And he sayde vnto the: whose is this image & superscripcion? They sayd vnto him: Cesar. Then sayde he vnto the: Geue therfore to Cesar / the which is Cesar: and geue vnto God / that which is Goddes. * When they hearde that / they marueled / and lest him / and went their waye. The same daye the Saduces came to him (which saye that there is no resurreccyon) & asked him sayinge: Master / Moses bade / yf a man dye hauyng no chyldren / that the brother mary his wyfe / and reple by seed vnto his brother. Ther were with vs seuen brydres / & the fyrste married & deceased without yssue / & leste his wyfe vnto his brother. Aftewyse the seconde and the thirde vnto the seuenth. Laste of all the woman dyed also. Now in the resurreccyon whose wyfe shall she be of the seuen? For all had her. Iesus answered and sayde vnto them: ye are deceaued and vnderstanden not the scriptures / nor yet the power of God. For in the resurreccyon they nether mary nor are maryed: but are as the Angells in heauen. As touchyng the resurreccyon of the deed: haue ye not redde what is sayde vnto you of God / which sayth: I am Abrahams God / & Isaac's God / and the God of Jacob? God is not the God of the deed: but of the lyuynge. And when the people hearde that / they were astonysed at hys doctryne. * When the pharises had hearde / how he had put the Saduces to silence / they drew to gether / & one of them which was a doctour of lawe / asked him a questyon tryptyng him & saying: Master which is the chiefe commaundment in the lawe? Iesus sayde to him: Loue the Lord thy God with all thyne herte / with all thy soule / and with all thy mynde. This is the fyrst and the chiefe commaundment. And ther is another lyke vnto this: Loue thyne neybour as thy selfe. In these two commaundmentes hange all the lawe and the pharises. Whyll the pharises were gathered to gether / Iesus asked them saying: what thynke ye of Christ? Whose sonne is he? They sayde vnto him / the sonne of Dauid. He sayde vnto them: how then doeth Dauid in spyte / call hym Lord sayinge: The Lord sayde to my Lord / syt on my ryght hande? * Till I make for a tyme with thyne enemyes thy fote stole. If Dauid call out ende / or caste hym Lord: how is he then his sonne? And no man coulde answere hym agayne one worde: nether durste eny from that daye forth / aske hym any moore questyōs. * Dauid. Christe

Christe speeth two over the Pharisees Scribes and ypocrites / prophesying the destruction of Jerusalem.

The xliij. Chapter.

Ihen spake Jesus to the people / & to his disciples sayng: The Scribes and Pharisees sit in Moses seate. All therfore whatsoever they sayd you observe / that observe and do: but always they do not: for they saye / and do not: they brynde heuy burthens and greuous to be borne / & ley the on mēnes shoulders: but they the selves will not heave at the yoke with one of their syngers. All their woordes they do: for to be sene of mē. They let abynde their phylacteries / & make large borders on their garmentes / & love to syt bypermoste at feastes and to have the chiefe seates in the synagogues / and gretynges in the markettes / & wherein they to be called of men Rabbi.
But ye shall not suffice your selues to be called Rabbi: for one is your master / that hath of the father: is to wit Christ / and all ye are brethren. And do truly teache call no man your father upon the erthe: for there is but one your father / & he is in heave.
Ye not called masters / for there is but one master in heave: & he is Christ. He is greatest among you: whiche you serve. But who men. And whensoever exalteth hym selfe / shall be brought lowe. And he humblyeth hym selfe / shall be exalted. Who be unto you Scribes & Pharisees / ye deuoire widowes houses: & that under a coloure of prayng longe prayers wherefore ye shall receave the greater dānaciō.
Who be unto you Scribes and Pharisees whyche compasse see and blande / to bryng one into your belefe: and whē he is brought ye make hym two folde moare the chylde of hell / then ye your selues are.
Who be unto you blynde gydes / which saye whosoever sweareth by the temple: it is no thyng: but whosoever sweareth by the golde of the temple / he offendeth. Ye soles & blynde: whether is greater / the golde or the temple that sanctifieth the golde? And whosoever sweareth by the aultre / it is nothyng: but whosoever sweareth by the offering that lyeth on the aulter / offendeth. Ye soles and blynde: whether is greater the offering / or the aultre which sanctifieth the offering? Whosoever therfore sweareth by the aultre / sweareth by it / and by all that there on is. And whosoever sweareth by the temple / sweareth by it & by him that dwelleth therein. And he that sweareth by heauen sweareth by the seate of God & by him that sitteth thereon.
Who be to you Scribes & Pharisees ypo-crises / which tryth mynt / anyle / & comyn / and leave the wayghter matters of the lawe byn-done: iudgement / mercy / & sayth. These ought ye to have done / & not to have left the other byndone. Ye blynde gydes which strayne out a gnat and swalow a cammell.

Who be to you Scribes & Pharisees ypo-crises / which make cleane the better syde of the cuppe / & of the platter: but within they are full of bypbery & exccesse. Thou blynde Pha-rise / cleane tryth & ynnelyde of the cup & platter / that the outersyde of the maye be cleane also.

Who be to you Scribes & Pharisees ypo-crises / for ye are lyke unto paynted tombes which appere beautifull outwarde: but are within full of deed bones & of all fylthynes.
So are ye / for outward ye appere righteous unto men / whē within ye are full of ypocrisy and iniquite.

Who be unto you Scribes & Pharisees ypo-crises: ye bylde the tombes of the prophetes / & garnishe the sepulchres of the ryghteous / & saye: yf we had bene in the dayes of our fathers / we wolde not have bene parteners w thē in the bloude of the prophetes. So then ye be wytnesses unto your selues / & ye are the chyliden of the which kylled the prophetes.
fulfill ye likewyse the measure of your fathers. Ye serpētes & generaciō of bypers / how shuld ye scape the dampnaciō of hell:

Wherefore / beholde I sende unto you prophetes / wyse men & scribes / of them ye shall kylle & crucifye: and of the ye shall scourge in your synagogues / and persecute fro cytle to cytle / that upon you maye come all the ryghteous bloude that was shed upon the erthe / fro the bloude of ryghteous Abel / unto that bloude of Zacharias the sonne of Barachias / whō ye slewe betwene the temple & the aultre.
Wherefore I saye unto you / all these thynges shall lyght upon this generacion. Jerusalem / Jerusalem which kyllest prophetes / & stonest them which are sent to the: how often wolde I have gathered thy chyliden together / as the henne gathereth her chychens / under her wynges / but ye wolde not: Beholde your habitaciōn shall be lēte unto you desolate. For I saye to you / ye shall not se me hence forth / till that ye saye: blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lorde. F

Christe speeth his disciples the destruction of the temple: the ende of the world: the tokens of the latter dayes: and warneth them to wake: for the world shall suddenly perishe.

The xliij. Chapter.

Ihen Jesus went out & departed fro the temple: & his disciples came to him / for to shewe him the byldyng of the temple. Jesus sayde unto the: se ye not all these thynges? Wherefore I saye unto

you: the shall not be here lēte one stone by another / that shall not be cast doune.

And as he sat by the moste Olivete / his disciples came unto him secretly sayng. Tell us when these thynges shall be: & what sygne shall be of thy comyng & of the ende of the world?
And Jesus answered & sayd unto the: take hede / for no man deceave you. For many shall come in my name sayng: I am Christ: and shall deceave many. Ye shall heare of warres / & of the fame of warres: but se that ye be not troubled. For all these thynges must come to passe / but the ende is not yet. For naciō shall ryse agaynst naciō / and realme agaynst realme: and ther shall be pestilence / hunger and earthquakes in all quarters. All these are the begynnyng of sorowes.

Then shall they put you to trouble / & shall kylle you: & ye shall be hated of all nations for my names sake. And then shall many be offended / & shall betraye one another / & shall hate one the other. And many false prophetes shall aryse / and shall deceave many. And because iniquite shall have the upper hand / the love of many shall abate. But he that endu-reth to the ende / the same shall be safe. And this glad tynges of the kyngdom: shall be preached in all the world / for a wytnes unto all naciōs: and then shall the ende come.

When ye therfore shall se the abhominaciō that hatheneth desolaciō / spoke of by Daniel the prophet: stande in the holy place: let him that redeth it / understande it. Then lett them which be in Jery / flye into the mountaynes. And let him which is on the house toppe / not come doune to let any thyng out of his house. Neither let him which is in the feld / returne backe to fetch his clothes. Who shall be in those dayes to the that are with chylde / & to the that geue sucke. But praye that your flight be not in the winter / nether on the Sa-bath day. For then shall be great tribulaciō / suche as was not from the beginning of the world to this tyme / nor shall be. Ye & except those dayes shuld be shortned / there shuld be no fleshe saved: but for the chosens sake / those dayes shall be shortned.

Then yf any man shall saye unto you: lo / here is Christ / or there is Christ: beleue it not.
For there shall aryse false christes / & false prophetes / & shall do great miracles & wonders / & so bypde you. In so moche that yf it were possible / the berse electe shuld be deceaved. Take hede / I have tolde you before. Wherefore yf they shall saye unto you: beholde he is in the desert go not forth: beholde he is in the secret places / beleue not. For as the lightynge cometh out of the west / and shyneth into the west: so shall the comyng of the sonne of mā be. For where soever a deed hath is / euē thither will the egles resorte. Immediately after the tribulaciōs of those dayes / shall the sunne be darkened: & the mōne shall not geue her lyght / & the starres shall fall fro heave / & the powers of heave shall moue. And then shall appere the sygne of the sonne of mā in heauen. And then shall all the kynredes of the erth mourne / and they shall se the sonne of mā come in the cloudes of heauen with power & great glorie. And he shall sende his Angels to the grate boyce of a trompette / & they shall gather to gether his chosens / from the tower wyndes / & from the one ende of the world to the other.

Learn a similitude of the figge tree: whē his brāchys are yet tender & his leues syng / ye knowe that sommer is nye. So like wise ye / when ye se all these thynges / be ye sure that it is neare / even at the doores. Wherefore I saye unto you / that this generaciō shall not passe till all these be fulfilled. Heave & erth shall perishe / but my wordes shall abide. But of that daye and houre knoweth no mā / no not the angels of heauen / but my father only.

As the tyme of Noe was / so lykwyse shall the comyng of the sonne of mā be. For as in the dayes before the flood: they byd eate & dryncke / marrye & were married / euē unto the daye that Noe entred into the shippe / & knew of nothyng / till the flood came and toke the all awaye. So shall also the comyng of the sonne of mā be. Then two shall be in the felds / the one shall be receaved / and the other shall be refused. Two shall be gryndinge at the myll / & one shall be receaved / & the other shall be refused. Make therfore / because ye knowe not what houre your master will come. Of this be sure / yf the good mā of the house knewe what houre the thefe wolde come: he wolde surely watche / and not suffre his house to be broken open. Wherefore be ye also ready / for in the houre ye thynke he wolde not: wyll the sonne of mā come. I tell there be any saythfull seruaunt & wyse / whom his master hath made ruler over his houtholde to geue the meate in season comenient: happy is that seruaunt whō his master (when he cometh) shall finde sodopng. Wherefore I saye unto you / he shall make him ruler over all his goodes. But yf that euill seruaunt shall saye in his herte / my master wyll defer his comyng / and begyne to synge his selowes / ye and to eate & to dryncke with the dronchen: the seruaunt master wyll come in a daye when he lokech not for hym / & in an houre he is not ware of / and wyll deuyde him / and geue him his re-warde with ypoctites. And there shall be wepyng and gnashynge of teth.

Of the ten begyns. Of the salutes deliuered to the seruaunts / and of the generall iudgement.

Then

I Then S. Mathew of heauē shall be likened vnto ten virgins / which toke their lampes / & went to mete the bydgrome: fyue of them were folpthe / & fyue were wyle. The folpthe toke their lampes / but toke none oyle with the. But the wyle toke oyle with the in their vessels with their lampes also. Whill the bydgrome tarped / all slombzed & slepte. And euē at mydnyght / there was a crye made: behold / the bydgrome cometh / go out agaynst him. Then all those virgins arose / and prepared their lampes. And the folpthe sayde to the wyle: geue vs of youre oyle for oure lampes goe out. But the wyle answered sayinge: not so / lest ther be not ynough for vs & you: but goo rather to them that sell & by for your selues. And whyll they went to bye / the bydgrome came: & they that were redy / wēt in with him to the weddyng / & the gate was shut by. After wardes came also the other virgins saying: Master master / open to vs. But he answered & sayde: verely I saye vnto you: I knowe not you. Watche therfore: for ye knowe not the daye nor yet the houre / when the sonne of man shall come.

L phetwyle as a certeyne mā redy to take his iorney to a straige countre / called his seruantes & deliuered to the his goodes. And vnto one he gaue .v. talentes / to another .ii. & to another one: to every mā after his abilitie / and streyght waye departed. Then he had receaued the fyue talentes / wēt & bestowed them and wanne other fyue talentes. L phetwyle he had receaued two / gayed other two. But he that receaued that one / went & dygged a pyt in the erth / and hysd his masters money. After a longe season the Lorde of those seruantes came and rekened with the. Then came he that had receaued fyue talentes / & brought other fyue talentes sayinge: master thou deliueredst vnto me fyue talentes: behold I haue gayed with the fyue talentes moo. Then his master sayde vnto hym: well good seruant and faythfull. Thou hast bene faythfull in lytel / I will make the ruler ouer moche: & entre in into thy masters soye. Also he that receaued two talentes / came and sayde: master thou deliueredst vnto me two talentes: behold I haue wone two other talentes with them. And his master sayde vnto hym: well good seruant and faythfull. Thou hast bene faythfull in lytel / I will make the ruler ouer moche / goo in into thy masters soye.

When he which had receaued the one talent came and sayde: master / I considered that thou wast an harde man / whych repest where thou sowdest not / & gatherest where thou strawdest not / & was therfore assayde /

When the sonne of mā cometh in his glorie / & all the holy angels with him / then shall he sit vpon the seate of his glorie / and before him shalbe gathered all nacjōs. And he shall separte the one from another / as a shepherde deuptyeth the shepe from the gootes. And he shall set the shepe on his ryght hande / and the gootes on the lyfte. Then shall the kynge saye to them on hys ryghte hande: Come ye blessed chyldren of my father / inheret ye the kyngdome prepared for you from the begynnyng of the worlde. For I was an hongred / and ye gaue me meate. I thurst / & ye gaue me drynke. I was herbourlesse / & ye lodged me. I was naked & ye clothed me. I was sicke & ye visited me. I was in pelson and ye came vnto me. Then shall the ryghteous answer him sayinge: master / where sawe we the an hongred / and fedd the? or a thurst / and gaue the drynke? when sawe we the herbourlesse / and lodged the? or naked and clothed the? or wē sawe we the sycke or in pelson and came vnto the? And the kyng shall answer and saye vnto the: verely I saye vnto you: in as moche as ye haue done it vnto one of the leest of these my brethren / ye haue done it to me.

When shall the kyng saye vnto them that shalbe on the lyfte hand: departe from me ye cursed / into euerlastynge fyre: which is prepared for the deuyl & his angels. For I was an hongred / and ye gaue me no meate. I thurst / & ye gaue me no drynke. I was herbourlesse / and ye lodged me not. I was naked / and ye clothed me not. I was sycke & in pelson / and ye visited me not.

When shall they also answer him sayinge: master / when sawe we the an hongred / or a thurst / or herbourlesse / or naked / or sycke / or in pelson / & dyd not mystryt vnto the? Then shall he answer them & saye: verely I saye vnto you in as moche as ye dyd it not to one of the leest of these / ye dyd it not to me. And these shall go into euerlastynge payne: & the ryghteous into lyfe eternall.

The Magdalene anoynteth Chryst. They eat the Easter lambe and the supper of the Lorde / Chryst prayeth in the garden / Judas betrayeth hym: Peter curseth of Malcus eate / Chryst is accused by false wytnesses: Peter denyeth hym.

The xxvi. Chapter.

And it came to passe / whē Iesus had finished all these sayings / he sayd vnto his disciples: Ye knowe & after two dayes shalbe ester / & the sonne of mā shalbe deliuered to be crucified. Then assembled togedder the chiefe prestes & the scribes and the elders of the people to the pallice of the hye preste / called Caphas / and helde a counsell / how they myght take Iesus by suttelste and kyll him. But they sayde / not on the holy daye / lest eny bypoure aryle amonge the people.

When Iesus was in Bethany / in the house of Simon the leper / ther came vnto hym a woman / which had an alabastrer boxe of precious oynment / and powred it on his heed / as he sat at the bourde. When his disciples sawe that / they had indignacion sayinge: what neded thys wast? Chys oynment myght haue bene well solde / & geuen to the poore. When Iesus vnderstode that / he sayde vnto them: why trouble ye the woman? She hath wrought a good worke vpon me: for ye shal haue poze folche allwayes with you: but me shal ye not haue all wayes. And in that he catted thys oynment on my bodye / she dyd it to burye me with all. Verely I saye vnto you / where soeuer this gospell shalbe preached throughtout all the worlde there shall also thys that she hath done / be tolde for a memorie of her.

When one of the twelue called Judas Iscariot went vnto the chiefe prestes / & sayde: what will ye geue me? & I will deliuer him vnto you? And they apoynted vnto him thys ty pices of syluer. And fro that tyme he sought oportunitie to betraye hym.

The fyrst daye of twete byred disciples came to Iesus sayinge vnto him: where wilt thou that we prepare for the to eate the paschall lambe? And he sayd: go into the cite / to soche a mā / & saye to him / the master sayeth my tyme is at hande / I will kepe myne ester at thy house with my disciples. And the disciples dyd as Iesus had apoynted them / and made redy the esterlambe.

When the euē was come he sat downe to the table. And as they did eate / he sayd: verely I saye vnto you / one of you shal betraye me. And they were excedynge sorowful / & began euerie one of the to saye vnto him: is it I master? He answered & sayde: he that deppeth hys hande in me in the dish / the same shal betraye me. The sonne of mā goeth as it is wyrtten of hym: but wo be to the mā / by whō the sonne of man shalbe betrayed. It had bene good for the mā / yf he had neuer bene bozne. Then Judas which betrayed hym / answered & sayd: is it I master? He sayde vnto hym: thou hast sayde. As they dyd eate / Iesus toke bread and gaue thankes / brake it / & gaue it to the disciples / and sayde: Take / eate / this is my bodye. And he toke the cup / & thanked / and gaue it them / sayinge: drynke of it euerie one. For this is my bloude of the new testament / that shalbe shedde for many / for the rempyssion of synnes. I saye vnto you: I wyl not drynke hence forth of thys frute of the vyne tree / vntyll that daye / when I shall drynke it new with you in my fathers kyngdome.

When they had sayde grace / they wēt out into mounte oliuete. Then sayde Iesus vnto them: all ye shalbe offended by me thys night. For it is wyrtten: I will smyte the shepe herde / & the shepe of the flocke shalbe scattered abroad. But after I am ryfen agayne / I wyl go before you into Galille. Peter answered / & sayde vnto hym: though all men shulde be offended by the / yet wolde I neuer be offended. Iesus sayde vnto him: verely I saye vnto the / that this same night before the cocke crowe / thou shalt denye me thysse. Peter sayde vnto him: If I shulde dye with the / yet wolde I not denye the. Like wyle also sayde al the disciples.

When went Iesus with them into a place which is called Gethsemane / & sayde vnto the disciples / sit ye here whyll I go and praye yonder. And he toke with hym Peter & the two sonnes of Zebede / & began to wexe sorowfull & to be in an agony. Then sayde Iesus vnto them: my soule is heuy euen vnto the deeth. Cary ye here: & watche with me. And he wēt to praye a lytell aparte / and fell flat on hys face / and prayed sayinge: O my father / yf it possyble / let this cuppe passe from me: neuerthelesse / not as I will / but as thou wilt. And he came vnto the disciples / and founde them a slepe / and sayde to Peter: what / couldest thou not watche with me one houre: watche: and praye / & ye fall not into temptaciō. The spyte is wyllynge / but the fleshe is weake.

When a waye once moare & prayed / sayinge: O my father / yf this cuppe canot passe awaye from me / but that I drynke of it / thys wyl be fulfilled. And he came / & founde the a slepe agayne. For their eyes were heuy. And he leste the & went agayne / & prayed the thysse sayinge the same wordes. Then came he to hys disciples & sayde vnto the: Slepe hence forth a take youre rest. Take heed the houre is at hande / & the sonne of mā shalbe betrayed into the handes of synners. Ryse / let vs be goynge: behold / he is at hande / the same shal betraye me. Whyl he yet spake / lo / Judas one of the twelue / came / & with hym a greute multitude of men.

priests & elders of the people. And he betrayed him / had geue a token / sayinge: whosoever kysse / he same is he / laye handes on him. And forth w all he came to Iesus / & sayde / haile Master: & kysed him. And Iesus sayde vnto hym: frende / wherfore arte thou come. Then came they & layed hand on Iesus & toke him.

And beholde / one of the which were with Iesus / stretched out his hande and drue his swearde / & stroke a seruant of the hie prieste / & smote of hys eare. Then sayde Iesus vnto him: put by thy swearde into hys sheathe.

For all that ley hand on a swearde / shall per rishe with a swearde. Ethen thinkest thou I cannot now praye to my father / & he shall geue me moo then. xij. Legions of angels?
But how then shoulde scriptur be fulfilled: for so must it be. The same tyme sayde Iesus to the multitude: ye be come out as it were vnto a thefe / & sweardes & staves for to take me. I saye daylye teachinge in the temple amōge you / & ye toke me not. All this was done in the scriptures of the Prophetes myght be fulfilled.
Then all the disciples forsole him & fled.
And they toke Iesus & leede him to Cayphas the hie prieste / where the scribes & elders were assembled. And Peter followed hym a farre of / vnto the hie priestes place: and wet in / & late with the seruantes to se the ende.

The chiefe priestes & the elders / & all the cell / sought false witness agaynst Iesus / for to put hym to deeth / but founde none: in so moche that whē many false witnesses came / yet founde they none. At last came two false witnesses / & sayde: this fellowe sayde: I can de stroye the temple of God / & bylde it agayne in thre dayes. And the chiefe prieste arose / & sayde to him: answerest thou nothinge? How is it these beare witness agaynst the? But Iesus helde his peace. And the chiefe prieste answered / and sayde to him: I charge the in the name of the lyvinge God / that thou tell vs / whether thou be Christ the sonne of God. Iesus sayde to him:
thou haste sayd. Neuerthelesse I saye vnto you: hereafter shall ye se the sonne of man sittinge on the right hande of power / and co me in the cloudes of the skye.

Then the hie prieste set his clothes sayinge:
he hath blasphemed: what nede we of any more witnesses? Behold now ye haue hearde his blasphemy: what thinke ye? They an swered and sayde: he is worthy to dye. Then spat they in hys face and buffeted hym with fistes. And other smote him with the palme of their handes on the face / sayinge: tell vs thou Christ / who is he that smote the?

Peter late without in the palace. And a dil tell came to hym sayinge: Thou also wast with Iesus of Galilee: but he denyed before them all sayinge: I woot not what thou sayst.

When he was goone out into the porch / another wenche sawe hym / & sayde vnto the that were there. This fellowe was also with Iesus of Nazareth. And agayne he denyed with an othe that he knewe the man. And af ter a while came vnto hym they that stode by and sayde vnto Peter: surely thou arte euen one of them / for thy speache betrayeth the.
Then began he to curse & to sweare / & he knewe not the mā. And immediatly the cocke crawle. And Peter remembred the wordes of Iesu which sayde vnto him: before the cocke crawle / thou shalt denye me thryse: and went out at the doores and wepte bitterly.

Christ is deliuered vnto Pilate. Judas baggeth him selfe. Christ is crucified amonge the iherusalemites.

The xxv. Chapter.
When the morninge was come / all the chefe priestes and the elders of the people helde a counsaile agaynst Iesus / to put hym to deeth / and brought him bounde and deliuered him vnto Pontius Pilate the debite.

Then when Judas which betrayed hym / sawe that he was condemned / he repented him selfe / and brought agayne the xxx. plates of syluer to the chiefe priestes & elders sayinge: I haue sinned betrayinge the innocēt blood.
And they sayde: what is that to vs? Se thou to it. And he cast doune the syluer plates in the ple & departed / and went a hounge him selfe.

And the chiefe priestes toke the syluer plates & sayd: it is not lawfull for to put the into the treasure / because it is the price of blood. And they toke counsell / & bought with the a potters felde to burye straggers in. Wherfore the felde is called the felde of blood / vntill this daye.
Then was fulfilled / & which was spoken by Jeremy the prophet sayinge: & they toke xxx. syluer plates / the price of hym / & was valued whō they bought of the childre of Israel / & they gaue the for the potters felde / as the Lorde ap pointed me. Iesus stode before the debite: & the debite asked him sayinge: arte thou the king of the Iewes? Iesus sayd vnto hym: thou sayest.
And whē he was accused of the chiefe priestes & elders / he answered nothinge. Then sayd Pilate vnto hym: hearest thou not / how ma ny thinges they laye agaynst the? And he an swered him to neuer a worde: in so moche the debite marueilled greatlye.

At that tyme the debite was wōte to de liuer vnto the people a psoner / whom they wolde desyre. He had then a notable psoner called Barrabas. And when they were gade red together / Pilate sayd vnto the: whether will ye I geue looste vnto you / Barrabas or Iesus which is called Christ? For he knewe well /

well / that for enuie they had deliuered hym when he was set doune to geue iudgement his wyfe sent to hym sayinge: haue thou no thinge to do with this iuste mā. For I haue suf fered many thynges this daye in a dreame about hym. But the chiefe priestes & the elders had perswaded the people / that they shoulde aske Barrabas / and shoulde de stroye Iesus. Then the debite answered & sayde vnto the: whether of the twayne will ye I let looste vnto you?

And they sayd / Barrabas. Pilate sayde vnto the: what shall I do then with Iesus which is called Christ? They all sayde to him: let hym be crucified. Then sayde the debite: what euill hath he done? And they cryed & more sayinge: let him be crucified. Whē Pilate sawe that he preyayled nothinge / but the more busines was made / he toke water & washed hys ha des before the people sayinge: I am innocēt of the blood of this iuste person / & ye shall se.
Then answered all the people & sayd: his blood be on vs / & on our childre. Then let he Bar rabas looste vnto them / and scourged Iesus / and deliuered hym to be crucified.

Then the soundours of the debite toke Iesus vnto the comen hall / & gadjered vnto him al the company. And they stripped him and put on him a purpill roobe / and platted a crowne of thornes and put vpon his heed / & a rede in his ryght hande: & bowed their knees before hym and mocked hym / sayinge: haile kyng of the Iewes: and spitted vnto hym / and toke the rede and smote hym on the heed.

And when they had mocked him / they toke the robe of hym agayne / and put hys owne rayment on him / & ledd him awaye to crucify him. And as they came out / they founde a mā of Cyren / named Simon: hym they compelled to beare his crosse. And when they came vnto the place / called Golgotha (that is to saye / a place of deed mens sculles) they gaue him be neget to dryncke mingled with gall. And whē he had tasted therof / he wolde not dryncke.

When they had crucified hym / they parted his garmentes / & dyd cast lottes: to fulfill that was spoken by the prophet. They deuyned my garmentes amonge the: & vpon my bestire dyd cast lottes. And they late & watched hym there and they set by ouer hys heed the cause of hys deeth writinge. This is Iesus the kyng of the Iewes. And there were two theues crucified with hym / one on the ryght hande and another on the lyfte.

They passed by / & reupled him wagginge their heeddes & sayinge: thou destroyer of the temple of God & byldest it in thre dayes / saue thy selfe. If thou be the sonne of God / come downe fro the crosse. Likewise also the hie priest mockinge him with the scribes and elders sayde: He saued other / hym selfe he cannot saue.

The he be the kyng of Israel: let hym now come downe from the crosse / & we will beleeue him. He trusted in God / let hym deliuer hym now / if he will haue him: for he sayde / I am the sonne of God. That same also the theues which were crucified with him / cast in his teche from the lyfte houre was there beclines ouer all the lande vnto the nynt houre. And about the nynt houre Iesus cryed with a loude voyce / sayinge: Eli Eli lama al bathani. That is to saye: my God / my God / why hast thou forsaken me? Some of the that stode there / when they herde that / sayde: this mā calleth for Helias. And they gatte a sponge / & fylled it full of vineger / & put it on a rede / and gaue hym to dryncke. Other sayde / let be: let vs se whether helyas will comea deliuer him. Iesus cryed agayne with a loude voyce and yelded by the goost.

And beholde the bayle of the temple dyd rent in twayne fro the toppe to the bottome / and the erth dyd quake / & the stones dyd rent and graues dyd open: and the bodies of many saintes which slept / arose & came out of the graves after his resurrection / & came into the holy cite / & appered vnto many. Whē the curion / & they that were with him watchinge Iesus / sawe the erth quake and those thinges which happened / they feared greatly / sayinge: Of a surete this was the sonne of God.

And many women were there / beholdinge him a farre of / which followed Iesus fro Gal ilee / mynistringe vnto hym. Amonge which was Mary Magdalen / & Mary the mother of James & Ioses / and the mother of Zebedes childre. Whē the cur was come there came a man also of Aramathia named Ioseph / which Pilate begged the body of Iesus. Then he late commaunded the body to be deliuered.
And Ioseph toke the body / and wapped it in a cleene linnen clooth / and put it in hys newe tombe / which he had hewen out / euen in the rocke / & rolled a grate stone to the doore of the pulcre and departed. And there was Mary Magdalene & the other Mary sittinge ouer agaynst the sepulcre. The next daye the follo wed the daye of preparinge the Saboth / the hie priests & Pharisees gat the selues to Pilate sayd: Sye / we remembere that this deceauer sayde whyll he was yet aliue. After thre dayes I wyll arise agayne. Comaunde therfore the sepulcre be made sure vntill the thrydd daye / lest paraduetture his disciples come & steale hym awaye & saye vnto the people / he is risen fro the deeth / & the laste erroure be worse then the first. Pilate sayde vnto them. Take watche men: Go and make it as sure as ye can. And they went and made the sepulcre sure with watche men / and sealed the stone.

The first Chapter. †

Ihe begynnyng of the Gospel of Iesu Christ sonne of God/as it is witten in the Propheies/* beholde I sende my messenger before thy face which shal prepare thy way before the. The voyce of a cryer in the wilderness:
* prepare ye the way of the Lorde/make his pathes streight. John dyd baptise in the wilderness/* & preache the baptisme of repentance/for the remission of synnes. And all that lande of Iurte & they of Ierusalem/went out vnto hym/ and were all baptised of himi in Iheruer Jordan/cōfessinge their synnes

John was clothed with camilles here / & in a gerdyll of a shyn about his loynes. And he did eate a locust & wilde honey / & preached sayinge: a stronger then I cometh after me / whose shoe latchet I am not worthy to touche downe & vnloose. I haue baptised you with water: but he shall baptise you in the holy goſt

And it came to passe in those dayes/ [¶] Jesus came fro Nazareth/ a citie of Galile: & was baptised of Iohn in Iordan. And a voice as he was come out of [¶] water: [¶] Iohn saw heauen open/ & the holy goost descendinge vpon him like a doue. And ther came a voyce fro heauen sayinge thou arte my dere sonne in whom I delecte.

And immediately the spere draue him into wildernes: & he was there in þe wildernes .xl. dayes: & was tempted of Sath: & was id wildeberthes. And the angels ministred vnto hym.
After John was take: Iesus came into Gala-file/preachinge þæt Gōspell of þæt kyngdome of God/ & saying: þæt tyme is come/ & þæt kyngdome of God is at hande/ repēt & beleue þæt Gōspell.

As he walked by the see of Galilee/ he sawe Simon & Andrew his brother/ casting nettes into the see for they were fshers. And Jesus sayde vnto them: folowe me/ & I will make you fshers of men. And straight waye/ they forsoke their nettes and folowed hym. And when he had gone a litle further thence/ he sawe James the sonne of Zebede/and John his brother/ euen as they were in the shyppe mendinge their nettes. And anone he called them. And they leest their father Zebede in the shyppe with his hyred seruantes/ and went their waye after him.

And they entred into Capernaum: & straight waye on þe Saboth dayes, he entred in to the synagoge & taught. And they marvelled at his learnynge. for he taught them as one þat had power woth him/and not as the Scribes.

And there was in their Synagoge a man bayed wth an vnclene spirite/ & cryed sayinge: let be/ what haue we to do with the thou Jesus of Nazareth: Arte thou come to deströye vs? I knowe the what thou arte/ euen that holy of God. And Jesus rebuked him sayinge holde thy peace and come out of him. And the vnclene spirite tare hym/ & cryed with a loude boyce/ and came out of hym. And they were all amased, in so moche that they demaunded one of another amöge them selues sayinge: what thing is this?  what newe doctrine is this? For he commaundeth the soule spirites with power/ and they obeie him. And imme-diatly hys fame spread abroade thzough oute all the region borderinge on Galile.

Q. What new beginning is this if we are the meanest now of the world?
A. Yes, but when will it be older

And forth with a lone as they were come out of the Synagoge / they entred into the house of Symon and Andrew / with James and John. And Symons mother in law lay sycke of a feuer. And anone they tolde him of her. And he came and toke her by the hande and lyfte her vp: and the feuer forsoke hy: by and by: and he mynystred vnto them. And at euen when it sonne was downe / they brought to hym all that were dyscaled / and them that were possessed with deuyls. And all the cyyte gaddred to gedder at the doore / and he healed many that were sycke of dyuers diseases.

* And he cast out many deuyls / & suffered not þ deuyls to speake / because they knewe him.
 And in þ moynynge berperly / Iesus arose and went out into a solitary place / and there prayed. And Symō and they that were with hym folowed after hym. And when they had founde him / they sayde vnto him: al men seke for the. And he sayd vnto them: let vs go into the next tounes / that I maye preache there also: for truly I cam out for that purpose.

And he preached in their Synagogs/through out all Galile/and cast the deuils out.

* And ther came a leper to him/ beseeching him/ and kneeled doune bnto hym/ & sayde to him: yf thou wilt/ thou canest make me cleane. Mat. b. 8.
Luke. b. c.
And Iesus had compassion on him/ & put forth his hande/ touched him/ & sayde to him: I will be thou cleane. And asone as he had spoken/immediatly the leprosy departed fro him/ & sent him awaye forthwith & sayde vnto him: See thou saye nothyng to any man: but get the hence/ & shewe thy selfe to the Pryest/ & offer fo: thy cleansing/ those thinges which Moses commaunded/ fo: a testimoniall vnto the. But he (asone as he was departed) begane to tell many thinges/ and to publyshe the dede: in Co moche that Iesus coulde no moze openly entre into the cite/ but was without in desert pla ces. And they came to him fro euery quarter.

Che healeth the man of the palpe/ calleth heu the ched þe worde vnto the^{re}. And there came vnto him þe brought one sicke of þe pallsie boine of former tyme. And because they coulde not come nye vnto hym for pzeale/ they vncouered the rofe of the house where he was. And when they had broken it open/ they let downe the bed wherein the syche of the pallsie laye.

When Iesus sawe thei^r fayth/ he sayde to the sicke of the pallsie/ * Some thy synnes are Luke. v. 26.

And ther were certayne of þe Scribes saytyng there/ and reasonyng in their hertes: how doeth this selowe so blasfeme? Who can forgiue synnes/ but God only? And im-mediatly when Iesus perceaued in his sperte that they so reasoned in them selues/ he sayde vnto them: why thynke ye soche thynges in poure hertes? whether is it easer to saye to the synke of the palsey / thy synnes are forgiuen the: or to saye/ arise take vp thy bed/and walke? * That ye maye knowe that the sonne of man hath power in erth to forgiue synnes/ he spake vnto the synke of the palsey: I saye vnto the / arise and take vp thy bed/and get the hense into thine awne house. And by and by he arose/ toke vp the bed/ and wēt forth befoze them all: in so moche that they were all amased/ and glorifyed God sayinge:
we neuer sawe it on this facyon.

And he went agayne vnto the see/and all the people resorted vnto him/ & he taught them.

And as Jesus passed by he sawe Leuy the sonne of Alphaeus at the receypte of custome & sayde vnto hym: folow me. And he arose & folowed him. And it came to passe as Jesus sate at meate in his house / many publicans & synners sate at meate also with Jesus and his disciples. For there were many folowed him. And whē the Scribes & Pharisees sawe him eate with publicans & synners / they sayde vnto his disciples: how is it / that he eateth & drinketh with publicans & synners? when Jesus hearde that / he sayde vnto them. The whole haue no nede of the physicians / but the synners. I came not to call the ryghte / but the synners to repentaunce.

And the disciples of John & the Pharisees byd faste: & they sayde vnto hym. Why do the disciples of John & of the Pharisees faste / and thy disciples fast not? And Jesus sayde vnto the: can the children of a wedding faste / whils the bydgrome is with the? As longe as they haue the bydgrome with them / they cannot faste. But the dayes will come when the bydgrome shall be taken fro them: then shall they faste in those dayes.

Also no man seweth a peece of newe cloth vnto an olde garment / for then taketh he awaye the newe peece fro the olde / & so is the rent worse. In lyke wise / no man putteth newe wyne into olde vessels: for yf he do / the newe wyne wyne into olde vessels: & the wyne runneth out / & the vessels are marred. But new wyne must be putted into new vessels.

And it chaunced that he went thowto the cozne felde on the Sabbath daye: & his disciples as they went in their waye / begane to plucke the eares of corne. And the Pharisees sayde vnto hym: beholde / why do they on the Sabbath daye / which is not lawfull? And he sayde to the: haue ye neuer rede what Dauid dyd / when he had nede / & was an hongred bothe he & they that were with him? How he went into the house of God in the dayes of Abiathar the hie Priest / and did eate the hallowed loues / which is not lawfull to eate / but for the Priestes only: & gaue also to them which were with hym? And he sayde to them the Sabbath was made for man / & not man for the Sabbath. Wherefore the sonne of man is Lord euen of the Sabbath daye.

And he sayde vnto the mā which had the wyddered hande: arise & stode in the myddes. And he sayde to the: whether is it lawfull to do a good dede on the Sabbath daye / or an euill? to saue lyfe or kylle? But they helde their peace. And he looked roūd aboute on the angry mounyng on the blyndnes of their hertes / & sayde to the mā: stretch forth thine hande. And he stretcht it oute. And his hande was restored / euen as whole as the other.

And the Pharisees departed / and they gaddred a counsell / with the: & beloged to Herode / agaynst hym / that they might destroye him. And Jesus auoyded with his disciples to the see. And a greates multitude folowed hym from Galilee & fro Judee / and from Ierusalem / & fro Iudunias / & from beyonde Iordan / & they that dwelled about Tyre and Sidon / a greates multitude: which whē they had herd what thynges he dyd / came vnto hym.

And he commaunded his disciples / & a shippe shuld waite on him / because of the people / lest they shuld chynge hym. For he had healed many / in somoch that they pressed vpon hym / for to touche hym as many as had plagues. And whē he bndene spyttes sawe him / they fell doune before hym / & cryed sayinge: thou arte the sonne of God. And he strayde charged them that they shuld not bitter hym.

And he went by into a mountayne / & called vnto hym whom he wolde / and they came vnto hym. And he ordeyned the. xii. that they shuld be with him / & that he myght sende the to preache: and that they myght haue power to heale synners / & to cast out deuyls. And he gaue Symon / to name Peter. And he called James & sonne of Zebede & John / James brother / & gaue the Bonarg / to name / which is to saye / the sonnes of thunder. And Andrew / and Philip / & Bartolomew / & Mathew / & Thomas / & James the sonne of Alphaeus / & Caddeus / and Symon of Cana and Judas Iscariot / which same also betrayed hym.

And they came vnto house / and the people assembled togeder agayne / so greatly / & they had not leyfar somoch as to eate byed. And when they that longed vnto him hearde of it / they went out to holde hym. For they thought he had bene besyde him selfe. And the Scribes which came fro Ierusalem / sayde: he hath Belzebub / and by the power of the chiefe deuyll / casteth out deuyls. And he called them vnto him / and sayde vnto them in synnitudes.

How can Satan dryue out Satan? For yf a realme be deuised agaynst it selfe / it realme cannot endure. Or yf a house be deuised agaynst it selfe / that house cannot continue. So yf Satan make insurrection agaynst him selfe and be deuised / he cannot continue but is at an ende. No man can entre into a stronge stronge mans house / and take awaye hys goodes / excepte he spyll bynde & stronge mā / & then spoyle his house. Wherely I saye vnto you / all synnes shall be forgiven vnto mens chyldre / & blasphemy wherwith they blaspheme. But he that blasphemeth the holy goost / shall neuer haue forgiveness: but is in danger of eternall damnacyō: because they sayde / he had an vnclene spete. When came his mother & his brethren / & stode with out / and sent vnto him and called him. And the people late aboute him / and sayde vnto him: beholde thy mother & thy brethren seke for thee without. And he answered the sayinge: who is my mother & my brethren? And he loōrd rōunde about on his disciples / which late in compasse aboute him / & sayde: beholde my mother & my brethren / for whoso euer doeth the wyll of God / he is my brother / my sister and mother.

herde it / Satan cometh immediatly / & taketh it vnto soche awaye & wynde & was sown in their hertes. And likewise they that are sown on the good grounde / are they: which when they haue heard the word / at once receiue it with gladnes / yet haue no rotes in the selues / & so en-dure but a tyme: & anon as trouble & persecucion aryseth for the wordes sake / they fall immediately. And they that are sown amonge here is euen as the thornes / are soche as heare the word: & the care of this worlde & the desyrtynes of ryche and the lustes of other thynges / entre in & chocke the word / & it is made vnfrutfull. And those that were sown in good grounde / are they that heare the word and receaue it / & bringe forth frute / some thirtie folde some forty folde / some an hundred folde.

And he sayde vnto the: is the candle lighted to be put vnder a bushell / or vnder the table / & not rather to be put on a candlestick? For there is nothinge so peryll / that shall not be opened: neither so secret / but that it shall come abroade. If any man haue eares to heare / let hym heare. And he sayde vnto them: take heed what ye heare. With what measure ye mete / with the same shall it be measured vnto you agayne. And vnto you that heare / shall more be geue. For vnto him that hath / shall it be geuen: & from him that hath not / shall be taken awaye / euen that he hath.

And he sayde: so is the kyngdome of God / euen as yf a mā shuld sowe seede in the grounde and shulde sleepe & ryle by nyght & daye: and the seede shuld springe and growe by / he not ware. For the erth bringeth forth frute of her selfe: first the blade / then the eares / after that full corne in the eares. And as sone as frute is brought forth / anone he thowsteth in the syhell / because the heruest is come.

And he sayde: where vnto shall we lyken the kyngdome of God? or with what copari-son shall we copare it? It is lyke a grayne of mustarbleed / which when it is sown in the erth / is the leest of all seedes that be in the erth: but after that it is sown / it groweth by / and is greatest of all perbes: and bereth greates branches / so that the fowles of the ayre maye dwell vnder the shadowe of it.

And with many soche similitudes he pre-ached the word vnto the / after as they myght heare it. And without similitude spake he no thyng vnto them. But when they were a parte / he expounded all thynges to hys disciples. And the same daye when euen was come / he sayde vnto them: let vs passe ouer vnto the other syde. And they left the people and toke hym euen as he was in the ship. And there were also with him other shippes.

And ther arose a great storme of wynde / & dashed the waues into the ship / so that it was full. And full. And he was in the sterne a slepe on a pē lowe. And they awoke hym / & sayde to hym: Master / carest thou not / & we perishe? And he rose up / & rebuked / & wynde / & sayde vnto the see: peace / & be still. And the wynde alayed / & ther folowed a greate calme. And he sayde vnto them: why are ye so fearfull? How is it that ye haue no fayth? And they feared exceedingly / & sayde one to another: what felowe is this? for booth wynde and see obey hym.

¶ The deuylteth the possed from the vnclene spete / the woman from the bloudy pisse / and rapeth the captaynes daughter.

The. v. Chapter. .f.

And they cam ouer to the other syde of the see into the countre of Gadarenites. And when he was come out of the shippe / there met him out of the graues a man possessed of an vnclene spete / which had his abydinge amonge graues. And no man coude bynde him: no nor with cheynes / because he whē he was oft bounde with fetters & cheynes / he plucked the chaynes a sundre / & brake the fetters in peces. Neither coude eny man tame him. And at wayes bothe night & daye he cryed in the mountaynes and in the graues / and bet hym selfe with stones. When he had spyed Iesus a farre off / he rāne & *wooshipped hym / and cryed with a loude voyce & sayde: what haue I to do with thee Iesus the sonne of the most hest God? I requeyre the in the name of God / & thou toymēt me not. for he had sayd vnto him: come out of the man thou foule spete. And he asked him: what is thy name and he answered sayng: my name is Legion / for we are many. And he prayd him instantly / & he wolde not sende them awaye out of the countre.

¶ And ther was there nye vnto the mountayns a greate heerd of swyne feedinge / & all the deuyls besought hym sayng: sende vs in to the heerde of swyne / that we maye enter into the. And anone Iesus gaue them leaue. And the vnclene spete wēt out & entred in to the swyne. And the heerd sterteled / & ran hedling in to the see. They were about .x. thousand / and they were douned in the see. And the swyne heerd fled & toke it in the cite and in the countre. And they came out for to se what had happened: and came to Iesus / & saue him that was hered with the fende and had the Legion / both clothed & in his ryght mynde / and were affrayed. And they that saue it tolde the / how it had hapened to hym that was possed with the deuyl: and also of the swyne. ¶ And they beganne to praye hym / that he wolde departe fro their coost. ¶ And whē he was come into the shippe / he had the deuyl / prayd him / he myght be with him. Howbeit Iesus wolde not suffer him / but sayde vnto him: go home in to

thyne a wne house & to thy frendes / & telwe them what great thinges I haue bath done vnto the / & how he had compassion on the. And he departed / and beganne to publyshe in the cities / what greate thinges Iesus had done vnto him / and all men dyd merueyle.

¶ And ther was a certyn woman / which was diseased of an yllue of bloude .xii. yeres / & had suffered many thinges of many physicions / & had spent all she had / & felte none amende: mēt at all / but wexed worse & worse. When she had herde of Iesus: she came into the preece behinde him / & touchyd his garment / for she thought: yf I maye but touche his clothes / I shall be whole. And straight waye her fountain of bloude was dzyed by / and she felt in her body / that she was healed of the plage.

¶ And Iesus immediatly felt in him selfe / the vertue that went out of him / & touned him round aboute in the preece / & sayde: who touchyd my clothes? And his discipyl sayde vnto him: seyst thou the people thrust the / and yett askest / who did touche me? And he looked round about / for to se her that had done that thynge. ¶ The woman feared & trembled / for she knew what was done with in her / & she came and fell doune before hym / & tolde hym the truth of euery thinge. And he sayde to her: Daughter thy fayth hath made the whole: go in peace / and be whole of thy plage.

¶ Whē he yett spake / ther came fro the ruler of the Synagoge / house / certyne which sayd: thy daughter is dead: why distrest thou the Master eny further? ¶ Anone as Iesus hearde that woide spoken / he sayde vnto the ruler of the Synagoge: be not affrayed / only beleue. And he suffered no man to folowe him moare the Peter & James & John & brother of James. ¶ And he came vnto the house of the ruler of the Synagoge / & saue the woodyng: & them that wepte & wayled greatly / & went in & sayde vnto the: why make ye this a doo? wepe: the mayden is not dead / but slepeth. And they laughyd him to scorne. ¶ Then he put them all out & toke the father & the mother of the mayden / & them that were with him / and entred in where the mayden laye / & toke the mayden by the hande / & sayde vnto her: Calitha / cum: whych is by interpretacion: mayden mayden I saye vnto the / aryse. And straight the mayden arose / and went on her fete. ¶ For she was of the age of twelue yeres. And they were astonied at it out of measure. And he charged the straitly that no man shuld knowe of it / and commaunded to geue her meate.

¶ Christ sendeth his Apostles to heale them that were diseased. Of John and Herode. Of the. v. louch and the. vi. And of the walkynge on the see.

The. vi. Chapter. .f.

And he departed thence / & cam into his a wne countre / & his discipples folowed him. And when the Saboth daye was come / he beganne to teache in the synagoge. And many heard him were astonied / & sayde: from whence hath he these thynges? & what wysdome is this? & is geue vnto him: a luche vertues? & are wrought by his handes? ¶ It is not this? carpenter / the brother of James & Joseph / of Jada & Simon: & are not his sisters here with vs? And they were offended by him. And Iesus sayde vnto them: a prophet is not despised but in his a wne countre / & amonge his a wne kynne / & amonge them that are of the same householde. And he coude there shewe no myracles / but layde his handes vpon a fewe sycke fouliche and healed them and he merueyled at their vnbelefe.

¶ And kynge Herode herde of hym / for his name was spreade abroad / and sayde: John Baptiste is risen agayne from deeth / & therfore myracles are wrought by hym. ¶ Whē he sayde it is Helias: & some sayde: it is a prophet or as one of the prophetes. But when Herode hearde of hym / he sayde: it is John whō I beheaded / he is risen fro deeth agayne. ¶ For Herode him selfe had sent forth & had taken John / & bounde him / & cast him into prison for Herodias sake / which was his brother

Philip's wife. For he had maryed her. John chrysten mynde sayde vnto Herode: It is not lawfull for me to more playnly haue thy brothers wife. Herodias layd waite to take a rode for him / and wolde haue kyled hym / but she could not. ¶ For Herode feared John / knowinge that he was a iust man & an holy: & gaue hym reuerence: and when he hearde hym / he dyd many thinges / & hearde him gladly.

¶ But when a conuenient daye was come: Herode on his byrth daye made a supper to his lordes / captayns & chiefe estates of Galile. And the daughter of the sayde Herodias cam in & daunced / & pleased Herode & them that late at vourde also. ¶ Then the kynge sayde vnto the mayden: aske of me what thou wilt / & I will geue it the. And she swaie vnto hym / whatsoeuer thou shalt aske of me / I will geue it the / euen vnto the one halfe of my kynngdome. And she went forth & sayde to her mother: what shall I aske? And she sayde: John Baptistes heed. And she cam in straight waye with haste vnto the kynge / and asked sayng: I will: thou geue me by and by in a charger the heed of John Baptiste. And the kynge was sorowful: for he was bounde by an othe / and for their sakes whych late at supper also / he wolde not put her beside her purpose. And immediatly he sent the hangman & commaunded hym to be brought in. And he went & beheaded hym in the prison and brought his heed in a charger / & gaue it to the mayden and the mayden gaue it to her mother. And whē his discipples hearde of it / they came and toke by his body / and put it in a tombe.

¶ And the Apostles gaddered them selues together to Iesus / & told him all thyng / booth what they had done / & what they had taught. And he sayde vnto them: come aparte vnto the / to a place / and rest a while. For there were many comers and goers / that they had no leasure to moche as to eate. And he went by thynne out of the waye into a deserte place. But the people spyed them when they departed: & many knewe him / & rāne a fote thither out of all cities / & cam thither before the / & came to gedder vnto hym. And Iesus wēt out & saue moche people / & had compassion on the / because they were like shepe which had no shepherde. And he beganne to teache the many thinges.

¶ And whē the daye was now farre spent / his discipples came vnto him sayng: this is a deserte place / & now the daye is farre passed. let the departe / & they maye go into the countre round about & into the townes / & bye the bread: for they haue nothinge to eate. ¶ He answered and sayd vnto them: geue ye the to eate. And they sayde vnto hym: Shall we go and bye .ij. pennyworth of bread / & geue the to eate? ¶ He sayde vnto the: how many loues haue ye? ¶ So they toke. And whē they had serched / they sayde

And he toke the. b. lounes & the two fyfthes/ & lo- ked by to heauen * and blessed and brake the lounes/ & gaue them to his disciples to put be- fore them: & the two fyfthes he deuided amog them all. And they all byd eate/ & were satis- fied. And they toke by twelue baskettes full of the gobettes and of the fyfthes. And they that ate were about fyue thousand men.

And streyght waye he caused his disciples to go into the thyppe/ & to go ouer the water betoze vnto Bethsayda/ whyll he sent a waye the people. * And asone as he had sent them a waye/ he departed into a moystayne to pray. And when euē was come the thyppe was in the middes of the see/ & he alone on y lande and he sawe thz troubled in rowynge/ for the wynde was contrary vnto thz. And aboute the fourth * quarter of the night/ he came vnto them/ walkinge vpo the see/ and wolde haue passed by thz. Whz they sawe him walkinge vpo the see/ they supposed it had bene a spire & cryed oute: for they all sawe him/ and were afrayed. And asone he talked with thz & sayd vnto them: be of good chere/ it is I/ be not afrayed. * And he went by vnto them into the thyppe & the wynde ceased/ & they were soze amazed in thz selues beyonde measure/ and marueyled. For they remembred not/ of the lounes/ because their hertes were blinded.

And they came ouer/ & went into y lande of Genesareth/ & dyue by into the haue. And asone as they were come out of the thyppe/ streyght they knewe h/ & rane forth throug out all the regyon rounde about/ & began to cry about in beddes all that were syche/ to the place where they hearde tell that he was. And whither soeuer he entred into townes ci- ties/ or villages/ they layde their syche in the streates/ & prayed him y they might touche/ and it were but the edge of his vesture. And as many as touched him/ were safe. I

The. vii. Chapter.

And Pharises came to gedder vnto him/ & diuers of y Scribes/ which came fro Ierusalem. And when they sawe certaine of his disciples eate bread w cōmen handes/ (is to saye/ with vntwelfen handes) they cōplained. For y Pharises & all y Jewes/ excepte they walche their handes ofte/ eate not/ obseruinge y tradicions of y elders. And whz they come fro y market/ excepte they walche/ they eate not. And many other thynges ther be/ which they haue taken vpo thz to obserue/ as y washinge of cuppes/ & cruises/ and of brassen vessels and of tables.

Then asked him the Pharises & Scribes/ whz walche not thy disciples according to the tradicions of the elders/ but eate bread with vntwelfen handes? He answered & sayd vnto them: well prophesied of you ypocri- tes/ as it is wyrtten: * This people hono- reth me with their lippes/ but their herte is farre fro me: In vayne they worchip me/ teaching doctrines which are nothinge but y cōmaun- dementes of men. For ye laye the cōmaunde- ment of God aparte/ & obserue y tradicions of men/ as the washinge of cruises & of cup- pes/ & many other suche lyke thynges ye do.

And he sayd vnto thz: well/ ye cast a syde y cōmaundment of God/ to mayntayne youre awne tradicions. * For Moses sayde/ honoure thy father & thy mother: a whosoouer curseth father or mother/ let hym dye for it. But ye saye: a mā shall saye to father or mother/ Coz ban: whych is/ y thou desyrest of me to helpe the with is geue God. And so ye suffre him no moze to do ought for his father or his mother/ makyng the woide of God of none effecte/ throug youre awne tradicions whych ye ha- ue ordeyned. And many soche thynges do ye.

And he called all the people vnto him/ and sayd vnto thz: herken vnto me/ euery one of y you & vnderstande. * There is nothinge wyrt- out a mā that can desyle hym whz it entredly into him: but those thyngs which procede out of him/ are those whych desyle y man. If eny man haue eares to heare/ let him heare. And when he came to house a waye fro y people/ his disciples asked him of y synnitytude. And he sayd vnto them: are ye so without vnder- standinge? Do ye not yet perceaue/ y what soeuer thyng ye receyue wythout/ entredly into a man/ it canot desyle him/ because it entredly not into his hert/ but into y belly/ & goeth out into y draught that purgeth out all meates.

And he sayd: y desyleth a man whych cometh oute of a man. For fro with in/ euē out of the herte of mā procede euyl thoughtes/ aduouty/ fornicacy/ murther/ theft/ coue- tousnes/ wickednes/ decepte/ vncleennes/ & a wicked eye/ blasphemy/ pryde/ collydnes: all these euyl thynges come fro y in/ & desyle a mā. * And from thence he rose & wēt into the bozbers of Tyre & Sydon: & entred into an house/ & wolde y no man shuld haue knowe. But he coulde not be hyd. For a certayne wo- man whose daughter had a foule spyle heard of him & came & fell at his fete. The woman was a Greke oute of Syrophenicia/ and she besought him that he wolde cast out y deuyll oute of her daughter. And Iesus sayd vnto her: let the chyldren fyrt be fed. For it is not mete to take y chyldrens bread/ and to caste it vnto it vnto whelpes. She answered & sayd vnto him: euē so Master/ neuerthelesse/ y whel- pes also eate vnder the table of y chyldrens crome. And he sayd vnto her: for this sayinge go thy waye/ the deuyll is gone out of thy daughter. And when she was come home to her house/ she founde the deuyll departed/ & her daughter lpyng on the bed.

And he departed agayne fro y costes of Tyre and Sydon/ & came vnto the see of Ga- lile. Thozow the myddes of the costes of the. x. cyttes. And they brought vnto hym one that was blinde & stambled in hys speche/ & prayed him to put his hande vpon him. And he toke him a syde from the people/ & put his fingers in his eares & dyd syt & touchyd his tounge & lokyd by to heauē & sighted/ and sayd vnto him: ephatha/ that is to saye/ be opened. And streyght waye hys eares were opened/ & the stringe of his tounge was loosed/ and he spa- ke playne. And he commaunded them that they shulde tell no man. But the moze he forbad them/ so moche the moare a grete deale they publyfied it: and were beyonde measure astronged/ sayinge: * He hath done all thynges well/ and hath made booth the deffe to heare and the donme to speake. The. viii. Chapter.

In the dayes when ther was a very grete compaigny/ & had nothyng to eate/ Iesus called his dyscyples to him and sayd vnto them: I haue compassion on this people/ because they ha- ue now bene with me. iij. dayes/ and haue no- thinge to eate: and yf I shuld sende thz awaye fastyng to their awne houses/ they shulde faynt by the waye. For diuers of them came from farre. And hys dyscyples answered hym: where shulde a man haue breade here in y wilderness to satiffie these? And he asked them: how many lounes haue ye? They sayde/ seuen. And he commaunded the people to syt doune on the grounde. And he toke the. vii. lo- ues/ gaue thankes/ brake & gaue to hys dis- ciples/ to set before thz. And they dyd set thz before the people. And they had a fewe small fyfthes. And he blessed thz & cōmaunded them also to be set before them. And they ate and were sufficed. And they toke by of the broke meate that was lefte. vii. baskettes full. And they that ate/ were in number aboute fourer thousand. And he sent them awaye. I

And as none he entred into a thyp with his dyscyples/ & came into y parties of Dalmanu- tha. * And the Pharises came forth/ & begāne to dispute with him/ lekinge of hym a sygne fro heauē & temptinge him. And he syghed in his spyte & sayd: why doth this generacō seke a sygne? I saye vnto you/ ther shall no sygne be geuen vnto thys generacō. And he lefte them and went into the thyp a- gayne/ and departed ouer the water.

And they had forgotten to take bread with thz/ nether had they in y thyp with thz moze then one loofe. And he charged them sayinge: Take hede/ & beware of the leuē of y Pha- rises/ & of the leuē of Herode. And they reaso- ned amogge them selues sayinge: we haue no bread. And when Iesus knewe that/ he sayde vnto thz: why take ye thought because ye ha- ue no bread? perceaue ye not yet/ nether vnderstande? Haue ye your hertes yet blinded? Haue ye eyes and se not? & haue ye eares and heare not? Do ye not remembre? When I brake. b. lounes amogge. b. m. How many baskettes full of broke meate toke ye by? They sayd vnto him/ twelue. When I brake. vii. amogge. iij. m. How many baskettes of the leuinges of broken meate toke ye by? They sayd/ seuen. And he sayd vnto them: how is it that ye vnderstande not?

And he came to Bethsayda/ and they brought a blinde mā vnto him/ & desyred him to touche him. And he caught y blinde by the hande/ and leade him out of the toune/ & spat in his eyes & put hys handes vpon hym/ and asked hym whether he sawe ought. And he lokyd by and sayd: I se the men: for I se thz walke/ as they were trees. After that he put his handes agayne vpon his eyes/ and made him see. And he was restozed to his sight/ and same euery mā clerly. And he sent him home to hys house sayinge: nether go into the tou- ne/ nor tell it to eny in the toune. I

And Iesus wēt out & hys disciples into y townes that longe to the cite called Cesarea Philippi. And by y waye he asked his dyscyples sayinge: whō do men saye y I am? And they answered/ some saye y thou arte John Bap- tist/ some saye Ihesus/ & some one of y pzo- phetes. And he sayd vnto thz: but whō saye ye y I am? Peter answered & sayd vnto him/ thou arte very Christ. And he charged thz/ y they shuld tel no man of it. And he begāne to teache thz/ how that the sonne of man must suffre many thynges/ & shulde be reproued of y elders & of the hye prestes & Scribes/ and be kylled/ and after thre dayes aryse agayne. And he spake thz sayinge openly. And Pe- ter toke him a syde/ and began to chide hym. When he tourned aboute / and lokyd on hys disciples/ and rebuked Peter sayinge. Go af- ter me Satan. For thou sauerest not y thyngs of God but the thynges of men.

And he called the people vnto him/ with his disciples also/ & sayd vnto thz. Whoso- uer will folowe me/ let him forlake him selfe & take a take by his croffe / a folowe me. For whosoever will save his life / shall lose it. But whosoever shall lose his life for my sake & the Gospells / the same shall save it. What shall it profit a man / if he should winne all the world & lose his atone soule? or els what shall a man geue to redeme his soule agayne? Whosoever therfore shall be ashamed of me & of my wordes / amonge this aduoutrous & sinful generation: of him shall the sonne of man be ashamed / when he cometh in the glorye of his father with holy angels. And he sayde vnto them: wherely I saye vnto you: There be some of the that stande here / whych shall not taste of death / tyll they haue sene the kyngdome of God come with power.

The .ix. Chapter.

And after .viij. dayes Jesus toke Peter / James & John / & ledde the by into an hye mountayne out of the waye alone / & he was transfigured before the. And his rayment byd shyne / & was made very whyte / euē as snowe: so whyte as no fuller can make vpon the erth. And there apereyd vnto them Mose & Moyses: & they talked with Iesu. And Peter answered and sayde to Iesu: Master here is good beyng for vs / let vs make .iij. tabernacles / one for the / one for Moyses / and one for Ihesus. And yet he wist not what he sayde: for they were aslapyde. And ther was a cloude that shadowed them. And a voyce came out of the cloude sayinge: * This is my deare sonne / heare him. And sodenly they looked rounde aboute them / and sawe no man moze then Iesus only with them.

And as they came doune from the hyll / he charged them / that they shulde tell no man what they had sene tyll the sonne of man were rysen from death agayne. And they kepte that sayinge with them / and demaunded one of another / what p rylinge trā death agayne shuld meane? And they asked hym sayinge: whychen Saye the Scribes / that Ihesus muste fyrt come? He answered & sayde vnto the: * Ihesus verely shall fyrt come & restore all thynges. And also the sonne of man as it is wyrtten / shall suffre many thynges and shalbe set at nought. Mozeouer I saye vnto you that Ihesus is come / and they haue done vnto hym whatsoeuer pleased them / as it is wyrtten of hym.

And he came to his discyples & saue moche people aboute them / and the Scribes dysputynge with them. And theyght waye all p people when they behelde hym / were amased and ran to hym / & saluted hym. And he sayde vnto the Scribes: what dyspute ye with them? * And one of the company answered and sayde: Master I haue brought my sonne vnto the / whych hath a demie spyte. And whensoeuer he taketh hym / he teareth hym / and he cometh / and gnasheth with his teethe / and pyneth awaye. And I spake to thy discyples that they shuld caste hym out / and they coude not.

He answered hym and sayde: O generaciō without fayth / how longe shall I be to you? How longe shall I lustre you? Wrynge hym vnto me. And they brought hym vnto hym. And asone as the spyte sawe hym / he tare hym. And he fell doune on the grounde wailinge and sominge. And he asked hym father how longe is it a goo / sens this hath happened hym? And he sayd / of a chyld: & ofte tymes casteth him into the fyre / & also into the water / to destruye him. But yf thou canst do eny thyng / haue mercy on vs / and helpe vs. And Iesus sayde vnto hym: yf thou couldest beleue / all thynges are possible to hym that beleueth. And theyght waye the father of the chyld cryed with teares sayinge: Lorde I beleue / helpe myne vnbelefe.

When Iesus sawe that the people came runnyng together vnto hym / he rebuked the foule spyte / sayinge vnto hym: Chort domme and desce spyte / I charge the come oute of hym / and entre no moze into hym. And the spyte cryed / and rent hym sore and came out: and he was as one that had bene deyd / in so moche that many sayde / he is deyd. But Iesus caughte his hande and lyfte hym vp: and he rose. And when he was come into the house / his discyples asked hym secretly whych coude not we caste hi out? And he saide vnto them: this kynde can by no nother meanes come forth / but by prayer & fastinge.

And they departed thens / & toke their iorney thowtow Galile / & he wolde not p eny man shuld haue knowe it. For he taught his discyples / & sayde vnto the: * the sonne of man shalbe deliuered into the handes of men / & they shall kyll hym / & after p he is kylld he shall aryse agayne the thryd daye. But they wiste not what p sayinge meāt / & were aslapyde to aske him. And he came to Capernaum. And whē he was come to house / he ased the: what was it p dysputed betwene you by p waye? And they helde their peace: for by the waye they reasoned amonge the selues / who shulde be the cheft. * And he late doune & called twelve vnto him / & sayde to the: yf eny man desyre to be fyrt / the same shalbe last of all / & seruaunt vnto all. And he toke a chyld / & set him in p myddes of the / & toke him in his armes and sayde vnto them: whosoever receaueth eny soche a chyld in my name / receaueth me.

ceaueth me. And whosoever receaueth me / receaueth not me / but him that sent me.

John answered him sayinge: * Master / we sawe one castinge oute deuyls in thy name / whych foloweth vs: & we forbade him because he foloweth vs not. But Iesus sayd forbyd him not. For ther is no man that shall do a myracle in my name / that can fyghtly speake euyl of me. Whosoever is not agast you / is on poure parte. And whosoever shall geue you a cuppe of water to drynke for my names sake / because ye belonge to the / verely I saye vnto you / he shall not lose his * rewarde. And whosoever shall offende one of these lytelons / that beleue in me / it were better for hym / that a myst one were hanged aboute his necke / and that he were cast into the see. Wherfore yf thy hande offende the / cut hym of. It is better for the / to entre into lyte maymed / then hauynge two handes go into hell / into fyre that neuer shalbe quenched / where their woyme dyeth not / and the fyre neuer goeth oute. A phewyle yf thy fote offende the / cut hym of. For it is better for the to go halt into lyte / then hauynge two fete to be cast into hell / into fyre that neuer shalbe quenched: where their woyme dyeth not / and the fyre neuer goeth oute. Euen so yf thyne eye offende p / pluche him oute. It is better for the to go into the kyngdome of God with one eye / then hauynge two eyes to be cast into hell fyre: where their woyme dyeth not / & the fyre neuer goeth oute.

Euery man therfore shalbe salted with fyre. And euery sacrifice shalbe seasoned w salt. Salt is good. But yf the salt be vnlaue / what shall ye salte therwith? Se that ye haue salt in youre selues: & haue peace amonge youre selues / one with another.

The .x. Chapter.

And he rose from thence and went into the coostes of Iurie thowgh the region that is beyonde Iordan. And the people resorted vnto hym a felde: and as he was wont / he taught the agayne. And the Pharysyes came and asked hym a questyon: whether it were lawfull for a man to put awaye his wyfe: to proue him. And he answered and sayd vnto them: * what dyd Moyses byd you do? And they sayde Moyses suffered to wyte a testimonyall of deuocement / and to put her awaye. And Iesus answered and sayd vnto them: for the hardnes of youre hertes he wrote this pcept vnto you. But at the fyrt creatiō God made the man and woman. * And for this thynges sake shall man leue his father and mother &

byde by his wife and they twayne shalbe one fleshe. So then are they now not twayne but one fleshe. Therfore what God hath coupled / let not man separat.

And in the house his discyples asked hym agayne of that matter. And he sayde vnto the: Whosoever putteth awaye his wyfe & marryeth another / breaketh wedlocke to herwarde. And yf a womā forsake her husband and be marryed to another / she commyteth aduoutre. * And they brought chyldren to hym / that he should touche them. And bys discyples rebuked those that brought the. When Iesus sawe that / he was dyspleased and sayd to them: Suffer the chyldren to come vnto me / & forbyd the not. For of such is the kyngdome of God. Wherely I saye vnto you: whosoever shall not receaue the kyngdome of God as a chyld / he shal not entre therein. And he toke the by in his armes / & put his handes vpon them / and blessed them.

* And when he was come into p waye / ther came one runnyng and kneled to hym / & asked hym: good Master / what shall I do / that I maye enheret eternall lyfe? Iesus sayde to hym: why callest thou me good? There is no mā good but one / whych is God. Thou knowest the comāndemētes: breakē not matrimony: kyll not: steale not / here no false witness: defraude no man: honoure thy father & mother. He answered & sayde to him: master al these I haue obserued fro my youth Iesus behelde hym / & had a fauour to hym & sayd vnto him: one thinge is lackinge vnto p. * So sell all that thou hast / and geue to the poore & thou shalt haue treasure in heuē: & folowe me / & take by the croffe. But he was discumforted with that sayinge / & went awaye mournynge / for he had great possesiōs.

And Iesus looked rounde aboute / & sayde vnto his discyples: what an harde thyng is it for the that haue ryches / to entre into the kyngdome of God. And his discyples were astonied at his wordes. But Iesus answered & sayde vnto the: chyldren how harde is it for the / that trust in ryches / to entre into the kyngdome of God? It is easer for a camel to go thowme the eye of an nedle / then trust in thynges for a ryche man to entre into the kyngdome of God. And they were aslōnyed out of measure / sayinge betwene the selues: who then can be saued? Iesus lohed vpon the / & sayde: as with men it is vnpossible / but not with God: for with God all thynges are possible.

And Peter beganne to saye vnto him: Lorde / we haue forsaken all / and haue folowed the. Iesus answered & sayde: wherely I saye vnto you / ther is no man that forsaketh house / or brythen / or sytters / or father / or mother / or wyfe / other chyldren / or landes for my sake

And the Gospellers / which shall not receaue an hundred foole now in this lyfe: houses and brethren / and sisters / and mothers / and chyldren / and landes with persecutions: and in the worlde to come / eternall lyfe. Manye are fyrt / whalbe last: a fyrt / last / fyrt / And they were in the waye goynge by to Iherusalem. And Iesus went before them: and they were amazed / and as they folowed / were asfayde.

And Iesus toke the xij. agayne / a begane to tell them what thynges shuld happē vnto him. * Beholde we go by to Iherusalem / and the sonne of man shalbe deliuered vnto hye p̄yestres and vnto the scribes: and they shall condemne him to deeth / a shall deliuer him to the gentyls: and they shall moche him / and scourge him / a spyt vpon him / and kyll him. And the thyrde daye he shall rylse agayne.

And then James and John the sonnes of Sebede came vnto hym / sayinge: Master: we wolde that thou shouldest do for vs what soeuer we desyre. He sayde vnto them: what wolde ye? I shuld do vnto you? They sayd to him: graunt vnto vs that we maye sytte one on the ryght hande / and the other on the lyfte hande / in thy gloze. But Iesus sayd vnto the: Ye wot not what ye aske. Can ye dryncke of the cup that I shall dryncke of / and be baptised in the baptisme that I shalbe baptised in? And they sayde vnto hym: that we can. Iesus sayde vnto them: ye shall dryncke of the cup that I shall dryncke of / and be baptised with the baptisme that I shalbe baptised in: but to syt on my ryght hande / and on my lyfte hande is not myne to geue / but to them for whom it is prepared.

* And when the x. heard that / they begā to disdayne at James and John. But Iesus called them vnto him / and sayde to them: ye knowe I the which seme to beare rule amonge the gentyls / raygne as lordes ouer the. And they that be greute amonge them / exercepte auctozite ouer the. So shall it not be amonge you / but whosoever of you wyll be greute amonge you / shalbe your minister. And who soeuer wyll be chefe / shalbe seruaunt vnto all. For euen the sonne of mā came not to be ministered vnto: but to minister / and to geue his lyfe for the redemption of many.

And they came to Hierico. * And as he wēt oute of Hierico with his disciples / a great nombze of people: Barthimeus the sonne of Thimeus which was blynde / late by the hye wayes syde beggynge. And when he heard that it was Iesus of Nazareth / he began to crye and to saye: Iesus the sonne of Dauid / haue mercy on me. And many rebuked hym / that he shuld holde hys peace. But he cryed the moore a greute deale / thou sonne of Dauid haue mercy on me. And Iesus stode still / and commaunded him to be called. And they called the blynde / sayinge vnto hym: Be of good comfote: rylse / he calleth the. And he thyrwe awaye hys clooke / and roose a came to Iesus. And Iesus answered / a sayde vnto him: what wilt thou that I do vnto the? The blynde sayde vnto him: Master / that I might see. Iesus sayde vnto hym: go thy waye / thy sayth hath saued the. And by a by he receaued his sight / and folowed Iesus in the waye.

¶ And when they came nye to Ierusalem vnto Bethphage and Bethaniam / besydes mount Olyuete / he sent forth two of hys disciples / and sayde vnto them: Go your wayes into the toun that is ouer agaynst you. And as sone as ye be entred into it / ye shall fynde a coole bounce / wheron neuer man sate: lase hym and brynge hym. And yf eny man saye vnto you: why do ye so? Saye that the Lorde hath neede of hym: and streyght waye he will sende hym hyder. And they went their waye a found a coole tye by a doze with out in a place wher two wayes met / a they lased him. And diuers of the that stode there / sayd vnto them: * what do ye loosynge the coole? And they sayd vnto them euen as Iesus had commaunded the. And they let them go. And they brought the coole to Iesus / and caste their garmentes on him: a he sate vpon him. And many brynge their garmentes in a waye. Other cut doune brynches of the trees / a strowed the in the waye. And they that went before and they that folowed / cryed sayinge: * Hosanna: blessed be he that cometh in the name of the Lorde. Blessed be the kyngdome that cometh in the name of him that is Lorde of oure sauer Dauid: Hosanna in the hyest.

And the Lorde entred into Ierusalem a into the temple. And whē he had looked round about vpon all thynges / and now the eue tye was come / he went out vnto Bethany / with the twelue. And on the morowe when they were come out fro Bethany / he hungered / a spied a fygge tree a farre of hauinge leues / a wēt to se whether he myght fynde eny thyng ther on. But when he came therto / he founde no thyng but leues: for the tyme of fygges was not yet. And Iesus answered and sayde to it: neuer man eate frute of the here after whyll I wolde standith. And his disciples heard it.

And they came to Ierusalem. And Iesus went into the temple / a beganne to cast out the sellers and hyers in the temple / a ouerthyrwe the tables of the money chaungers / and the stoles of them that solde doves: and wolde not wolde not suffre that eny man carped a bell thozow the temple. And he taught sayinge vnto them: * is it not wytt: my house shalbe called the house of prayer vnto all nations? But ye haue made it a den of theues.

And the scribes and hye p̄yestres heard it and sought howe to destrope him. For they feared hym / because all the people marueled at his doctrine. And when eue was come / he wēt out of the cite. * And in the morning as they passed by / they sawe the fygge tree dyed by the rotes. And Peter remembred / a sayde vnto him: master / beholde / a fygge tree which thou cursedest / is withered awaye. And Iesus answered a sayde vnto the: haue cōfydens in God. * Verely I saye vnto you / a whosoever shall saye vnto this mountayne: take awaye thy selfe / a cast thy selfe into the see / a shall not wauer in his herte / but shall beleue those thynges which he sayeth shall come to passe / what soeuer he sayeth / shalbe done to him. Therefore I saye vnto you: * whatsoeuer ye desyre whē ye praye / beleue ye shal haue it / and it shalbe done vnto you. And when ye stande praye / forgeue yf ye haue eny thyng agaynst eny mā: a your father also which is in heuē / maye forgeue you your trespass.

And they came agayne to Ierusalem. * And as he walked in the temple / ther came to him the hye p̄yestres / a scribes / a elders / a sayd vnto him: by what auctozite doest thou these thynges? a who gaue the auctozite / to do these thynges? Iesus answered a sayde vnto the: I will also aske of you a certayne thyng / a answer ye me / and I will tel you by what auctozite I do these thynges. ¶ The baptisme of John / was it from heuen or of men? Answer me. And they thought in the selues sayinge: yf we shall saye fro heuen: he wyll saye / why then dyd ye not beleue hym? but yf we shall saye / of men: then feare we the people. For all men counted John / that he was a be-ried prophete. And they answered a sayd vnto Iesu: we cannot tell. And Iesus answered / and sayd vnto them: nether will I tell you by what auctozite I do these thynges.

¶ The vineparde is let oute. Gene to Cesar a belongeth to Cesar. Of the saducers / of the doctors of lawe. yocrites must be allowed / a offering of ypoys weddowe

¶ And he beganne to speake vnto the in similitudes. A certayne mā plantēd a vineparde / a cōpased it w an hedge / a ordeyned a wyne p̄resse / a bylt a toure in it. And let it out to hye vnto husbandmē / a wēt into a straunge countre. And whē the tyme was come / he sent to the tenantes a senast / a he myght receaue of the tenast of the frute of the vineparde. And they caught hā a bet him / and sent him agayne emptye.

And mozeouer he sent vnto the another seruaunt / a at hym they cast stones a brake hys heed / and sent him agayne all to reuyled. And agayne he sent another / a him they kyllēd: a many other / beeteinge some a kyllinge some.

¶ Yet had he one sonne whō he ioned tenderly / him also he sent at the last vnto the sayinge they will feare my sonne. * But the tenantes sayde amongest the selues: this is he yre: come let vs kyll him / a the inheritance shalbe oures. And they toke hym a kyllēd hym / a cast hym oute of the vineparde. ¶ What shall then the Lorde of the vineparde do? He will come and destrope the tenantes / a let out the vineparde to other. ¶ Haue ye not redde this scripture? * The stone which the bylders byd refuse / is made the chefe stonne in the corner: this was done of the Lorde / and is meruelous in oure eyes. And they went about to take hym / but they feared the people. For they perceaued that he spake that similitude agaynst them. And they left him and went their waye.

* And they sent vnto him certayne of the pharises with Herodes seruantes / to take him in his word. And as sone as they were come they sayd vnto hym: master we knowe that thou arte true / a carest for no mā: for thou confydest not in degre of mē / but teachest the waye of God truly: Is it lawfull to paye tribute to Cesar / or not? Ought we to geue / or ought we not to geue? He vnderstode their simulation a sayde vnto them: Why tempte ye me? Brynge me a peny / a I maye se it. And they brought. And he sayde vnto them: Whose is this ymage and superscrypcyon? And they sayd vnto him / Cesar. And Iesus answered and sayde vnto them: * Then geue to Cesar that which belongeth to Cesar: and to God / that which pertyneth to God. And they meruelled at hym.

¶ Then came the saducers vnto hym / which saye / ther is no resurreccyon. And they asked hym sayinge: * Master / Moyses wroote vnto vs yf eny mans brother dye / a leue hys wyfe behynde him / and leue no chyldren: that then hys brother shuld take hys wyfe / and reyle by seed vnto hys brother. ¶ There were seuen brethren: and the fyrst toke a wyfe / and whē he dyed leest no seed behynde hym. And the seconde toke hy / and dyed: nether leest eny seed. And the thyrde lyke wyse. And seuen had her and leest no seed behynde them. Last of all the wyfe dyed also. In the resurreccyon then whē they shall rylse agayne: whose wyfe shall she be of them? For seuen had her to wyfe. the angels which are in heauē. As touchyng the deed that they shall ryle agayne: haue ye not redde in the booke of Moses: home in the bush the God spake vnto hym sayinge: *I am the God of Abraham and God of Isaac: and the God of Jacob: he is not the God of the deed: but the God of the luyng. Ye are therefore greatly deceaued.

And ther came one of the Scribes that had hearde them disputyng to geder: & perceaued that he had answered them well: and asked hym: whych is the fyrste of all the commaundmentes? Iesus answered hym: the fyrste of all the commaundmentes is. Heare Israel: *The Lorde God is one Lorde. And thou shalt loue the Lorde thy God with all thy hert: and with all thy soule: and with all thy mynde: and with all thy strength. This is the fyrste commaundment. And the seconde is lyke vnto this: *Thou shalt loue thy neghbour as thy selfe. Ther is none other commaundment greater then these.

And the Scribe sayde vnto hym: well master: thou hast sayde the trithe: that ther is one God: & that ther is none but he. And to loue him with all the herte: & with all thy mynde: & with all the soule: & with all thy strength: & to loue a mans neghbour as hym selfe: is a greater thinge then all burnt offerings & sacrifices. And whē Iesus sawe he answered discretly: he sayde vnto hym: *Thou arte not farre from the kyngdome of God. And nomā after that: durst aske hym eny question.

And Iesus answered and sayd: teachyng in the tēple: how saye the Scribes? Chyrt is the sonne of Dauid: for Dauid hym selfe inspyred with the holy goost sayde: The Lorde sayde to my Lorde: / sit on my ryght hande. *till I make thyn enemyes thy fote stole. Then Dauid hym selfe calleth hym Lorde: and by what meanes is he then lvs sonne? And moche people hearde hym gladly.

And he sayde vnto thm in his doctrine: be ware of the Scribes which loue to go in lōge clothynge: and loue saluacions in the market places: and the chiefe seates in the synagoges: and to sit in the bypermoste rōumes at feastes: and deuoure wydowes houses: & that vnder a coloure of lōge prayyng. These shall receaue greater dampnacion.

* And Iesus sat ouer agaynst the treasury: and behelde how the people put money into the treasury. And many that were ryche cast in moch. And ther cam a certayne poore wydowe: & she threwe in two mytes: which make a farthyng. And he called vnto hym his discyples and sayde vnto them: wterly I saye vnto you: that this poore wydowe hath cast moare in: then all they which haue caste into the treasury. For they all dyd cast in of their superfluyte: but she of her pouerte dyd cast in all she had: euen all her luyng. *The ende of the world. The daye and the houre is unknowne.

The xiiij. Chapter.

And as he wēt out of the tēple: one of his discyples sayde vnto hym: Master: se what stones: and what buyldynges are here. And Iesus answered and sayde vnto hym: Seyst thou these greates buyldynges? There shall not be lefte one stone vpon another: that shall not be thowen doune. And as he late on mounte Oluyete: ouer agaynst the tenple: Peter: & James and John: and Andro: asked hym secretly: tell vs: when shall these thinges be? And what is the sygne when all these thinges shall be fulfilled? And Iesus answered them: and began to saye: take hede lest eny man deceaue you. For many shall come in my name sayyng: I am Christ: & shall deceaue many.

When ye shall heare of warre and tydings of warre: be ye not troubled. For soche thinges must nedes be. But the ende is not yet. For ther shall nacyon aryle agaynst nacyon: and kyngdome agaynst kyngdome. And ther shall be erth quakes in all quarters: and famyngment and troubles. These are the begynnynges of sorowes. *But take ye hede to your selues. For they shall bryng you vp to the countels and into the synagoges: and ye shall be beaten: ye and shall be brought before rulers and kynges for my sake: for a testimony vnto them. And the Gospell must fyrste be publisshed amonge all nacjons.

*But when they leade you and present you: take no thought afore hande what ye shall saye: nether ymagin: but whatsoeuer is geuen you at the same tyme: that speake. For it shall not be ye that shall speake: but the holy goost. Ye and the brother shall deliuer the brother to deeth: and the father the sonne: & the children shall ryle agaynst their fathers and mothers: and shall put them to deeth. And ye shall be hated of all men for my names sake. But who soeuer shall endure vnto the ende: the same shall be safe.

*Whereouer when ye see the abhominacyon that he tokeneth desolacion: wherof is spokē by Daniel the prophet: stande where it ought not: let him & reberth vnder stāde. When let the & be in Iurie: fle to the mountaynes. And let hym that is on the house toppe not descende doune into the house: nether entre therein: to fetch eny thyng oute of his house. And let him that is in the felde: not tourne backe agayne vnto the thinges which he leste behynde him: for to take his clothes with hym. And shall he then to them that are with chyld: and to them that geue soucke in those dayes. But that you might be not in the winter. For ther shall be in those dayes such tribulacion: as was not fro the begynnyng of creatures which God created vnto this tyme: nether shall be. And excepte that the Lord shuld shorten those dayes: no man shuld be saued. But for the electes sake: which he hath chosen: he hath shortened those dayes.

*And then: yf eny mā saye to you: lo: here is Christ: lo: he is there: beleue not. For false Christs shall ryle: & false prophets: & shall shewe myracles & wondres: to deceaue yf it were possible: euē the electe. But take ye hede: behold: I haue shewed you all thinges before. *Whereouer in those dayes: after that tribulacion: the sunne shall waxe darke: & the mone shall not geue her lyght: & the starres of heuē shall fall: & the powers which are in heuē: shall moue. And then shall they see the sonne of man comyng in the cloudes: with greates power and glory. And then shall he sende his angels: & shall gather to gether his electe from the fower wyndes: and from the one ende of the world to the other.

*Learne a sylmitude of the figge tree. I whē his brāches are yet tender: & hath brought forth leues: ye knowe that sommer is neare. So in lyke maner: when ye see these thynges come to passe: vnderstand: that it is nye euen at the doores. wterly I saye vnto you: this generation shall not passe: till these thinges be done. Heuē and erth shall passe: but my wordes shall not passe. But of the daye & the houre knoweth no man: no not the Angels which are in heuē: *nether the sonne him selfe: save the father only.

*Take hede: watche & praye: for ye knowe not whē the tyme is. As a mā which is gone into a straunge contrey: and hath lefte his house: and geuē auctoryte to his seruantes: and to euery mā his wythe: and commaunded the porter to watche. Watche therfore: for ye knowe not when the master of the house will come: whether at euen: or at midnyght: whether at the cocke crowyng: or in the daunynge: lest yf he come suddenly he shuld fynde you slepyng. And what I saye vnto you: I saye vnto all men: watche.

*Mary Magdalen anoynteth Christ. The 11. chapter. The 1. verse. Christ is sayd. Peter denyeth him: with many other thynges that were demaunded of Christ.

The xiiij. Chapter.

After two dayes folowed ester: and the dayes of swete byred. And the hye Pryetes & the Scribes sought meanes how they myghte take hym by craft and put him to deeth. But they sayde: not in the feast daye: leest eny busynes aryle amonge the people.

*When he was in Bethania: in the house of Simon the leper: euē as he late at meate: ther cam a womā haunyng an alabastrer boxe of oymēt called narde: that was pure and costly: & she brake the boxe & powred it on is heed. And ther were some that were not cōsent in the selues: & sayde: what neded this waste of oymēt? For it myght haue bene soolde for moze then thre hundred pens & bene geuē vnto the poore. And they grudged agaynst her.

And Iesus sayde: lett her be in rest: why trouble ye her? She hath done a good worke on me. For ye shall haue poore with you all wayes: & when soeuer ye will ye maye do the good: but me ye shall not haue alwayes. She hath done that she coude: she came a foze hande to anoynt my body to this buryng ward. wterly I saye vnto you: wheresoeuer this Gospell shall be preached thowout the whole world: this also & she hath done: shall be rehearsed in remembraunce of her.

*And Judas Iscariot: one of the twelue: went away vnto the hye Pryetes: to betraye hym vnto them. When they herde that: they were gladd: and promysed that they wolde geue hym money. And he sought: howe he myght conueniently betraye him.

And the fyrste daye of swete byred: when men offer the paschall lambe: his disciples sayd vnto him: where wilt thou & we go & prepaire: that thou mayst eate the ester lambe? And he sent forth two of his disciples: & sayde vnto them: Go ye into the cytie: & ther shall a mā mete you beryng a picher of water: folowe him. And whither soeuer he goeth in: saye ye to the good mā of the house: the master at hedy where is the greest chambze: where I shall eate the ester lambe with my disciples. And he will shewe you a greates parlour: paved and prepared: there make ready for vs. And his disciples went forth and came to the cytie and founde as he had sayde vnto them: and made ready the ester lambe.

*And at euē he came with the xij. And as they late at boze and ate: Iesus sayde: wterly I saye vnto you: that one of you shall betraye me which eateth with me. And they beganne to mozne: & to saye to him one by one: is it I? And another sayde: is it I? He answered & sayd vnto them: It is one of the xij. and the same deppeth with me in the platter. The sonne of man goeth: as it is wyrtten of hym: but wo be to that man: by whome the sonne of man is betrayed. Good were it for him: yf that man had neuer bene borne.

And as they ate: Iesus toke byred: blessed and brake and gaue to them and sayd: Take: eate: this is my body. And he toke the cup: gaue thankes: & gaue it to the: & they all branched of it. And he sayde vnto them: This is my bloude of the new Testament which is shed for many. Whereby I saye unto you: I will drinke nomore of this frute of the vyne/ vntyll I drinke it new in the kyngdome of God. And whē they had sayde grace: they went out to mount olyuete.

And Iesus sayd vnto the: All ye shalbe offended thozow me this night: for it is writte: I will smyte the shepherd / & the shepe shalbe scattered. But after I am risen agayne / I will go into Galile before you. Peter sayd vnto him: And though all men shuld be offended / yet wolde not I. And Iesus sayde vnto him: Verely I saye vnto the / this daye euē in this night before I cooke crowe thyse / thou shalt denye me thysse. And he spake holdyng: no / yf I shulde dye with the / I will not deny the. Lk. xxi. 34. & 35. & 36. & 37. & 38. & 39. & 40. & 41. & 42. & 43. & 44. & 45. & 46. & 47. & 48. & 49. & 50. & 51. & 52. & 53. & 54. & 55. & 56. & 57. & 58. & 59. & 60. & 61. & 62. & 63. & 64. & 65. & 66. & 67. & 68. & 69. & 70. & 71. & 72. & 73. & 74. & 75. & 76. & 77. & 78. & 79. & 80. & 81. & 82. & 83. & 84. & 85. & 86. & 87. & 88. & 89. & 90. & 91. & 92. & 93. & 94. & 95. & 96. & 97. & 98. & 99. & 100.

And they came into a place named Gethsemani. And he sayde to his disciples: Syt ye here whyll I go aparte & praye. And he toke with him Peter / James & John / & he began to waxe abashed & to be in an agony & sayd vnto them: My soule is very heuy euen vnto the deeth / tary here and watche. And he went forth a litle and fell doune on the grounde & prayed: If it were possible / I houre might passe fro him. And he sayde: Abba father / all thynges are possible vnto I take awaye this cup from me. Neuerthelesse not that I will: but that thou wilt / be done.

And he cam & founde the slepyng / & sayde to Peter: Simon sleepest thou? Couldst not thou watche with me one houre? watche ye / & praye lest ye entre into tēptacion / I spyce is redy / but the flesch is weake. And agayne he went awaye & prayde and spake the same wordes. And he returned & founde the & slepe agayne for their eyes were heuy: nether wist they what to answer him. And he came the thysse tyme & sayde vnto them: slepe? hens forth / and take youre ease / it is ynough. The houre is come / beholde I sonne of man shalbe deliuered into handes of synners. Kysse by / let vs go. Loke I betraye me / is at hande.

And immediatly whill he yet spake / came Judas one of the twelue / & to him a greates number of people with swordes and staves from the hye p̄restes and scribes & elders. And he that betrayed hym had geuen them a generall token saying: whosoever I do kisse / he it is: take him & leade him awaye warily. And as sone as he was come / he wēt straight waye to him / & sayde vnto him: master master / & kyssed him. And they layde their handes on him / and toke hym. And one of them that stode by / drew out a swerde / and smote a seruant of the hye p̄reste / and cut of his eare.

And Iesus answered & sayd vnto them: ye becomie out as vnto a thefe / & take me / I was dayly with you in the temple teaching / & ye toke me not: but I the scriptures shuld be fulfilled. And they all forsoke him & ranne awaye. And ther followed him a certayne yonge man / clothed in lynnē bypō the bare / & the yongemen caught him / & he leste his lynnē / & fled from the naked. And they leed Iesus awaye to the hyest p̄reste of all: & to him cam all the hye p̄restes / and the elders / and the scribes. And Peter followed him a greates waye of euen into the pallys of the hye p̄reste / and sat with the seruantes / and warmed him selfe at the fyre.

And the hye p̄restes & all the counsell sought for witness agaynst Iesu / to put him to deeth & founde noone. Yet many bare false witness agaynst him / but their witness agreed not together. And ther arose certayne & brought false witness agaynst him sayinge. We herde him saye: I will destroye this temple made with handes / and with in thre dayes I will bylde another / made without handes. But their witness agreed not together.

And the hye p̄reste stode by amōgest the / & asked Iesus sayinge: answerest thou nothinge? How is it that these beare witness agaynst the? And he helde his peace / & answered nothing. Agayne the hye p̄reste asked him & sayde vnto him: Arte thou Christ the sonne of the blessed? And Iesus sayd: I am. And ye shall se the sonne of man syt on the ryght hand of power / & come in the cloudes of heauen. Then the hye p̄reste rent his clothes & sayd: what nede we eny further of witness? Ye haue heard blasphemie / what thincke ye? And they all gaue sentence that he was worthy of deeth. And some begane to spit at him / & to couer his face / & to bete him with fistes / and to laye vnto him / & to reide vnto vs. And the seruantes booted him on the face.

And as Peter was beneth in the pallys / ther cam one of the menches of the hye p̄reste: & whē he sawe Peter warminge him self / he looked on him / & sayde: wast not thou also with Iesus of Nazareth? And he denyed it saying: I knowe him not / nether wot I what thou sayest. And he wēt out into the porche / and the cooke crewe. And a damsell sawe him: & agayne beganne to saye to the / I stode by / this is one of the. And he denyed it agayne. And anone after / they that stode by / sayde agayne to Peter: surely thou arte one of the / for thou arte of Galile / & thy speache agreth therto. And he beganne to curse & to sweare sayinge: I knowe not thys man of whom ye speake. And agayne the cooke crewe / & Peter remembred the worde that Iesus sayde vnto him / before I toke crowe thyse / thou shalt denye me thysse / & he beganne to wepe.

And the p̄llyon of Christ. Of his deeth and burfall. The .xv. Chapter.

And

And anone in the dawninge the hye p̄restes helde counsell wth the elders & the scribes / & the whole congregation & bounde Iesus & ledde him awaye & deliuered hym to Pilate. And Pilate asked hym: arte thou the kynge of the Jewes? And he answered and sayd vnto him: thou sayest it. And the hye p̄restes accused him of many thynges. Wherfore Pilate asked him agayne sayinge: Answerest thou nothinge? Beholde how many thynges they lay vnto thy charge. Iesus yet answered neuer a worde / so that Pilate merueled.

At that feast Pilate was wont to deliuer at their pleasure a prisoner: whosoever they wolde desyre. And ther was one named Barrabas / which laye bounde to them / & made insurrection / & in the insurrection committed murder. And the people called vnto him / and began to desyre accordyng as he had euer done vnto them. Pilate answered them and sayde: Will ye that I loose vnto you the kynge of the Jewes? For he knewe the hye p̄restes had deliuered him of enuy. But the hye p̄restes had moued the people that he shulde rather deliuer Barrabas vnto them.

And Pilate answered agayne / and sayde vnto the: What wyl ye then that I do with him whō ye call the kynge of the Jewes? And they cryed agayne: crucifie hym. Pilate sayd vnto the: What euill hath he done? And they cryed the more feruentlye: Crucifie hym. And so Pilate wyllyng to content the people / loosed them Barrabas / and deliuered Iesus whē he had scourged him / for to be crucified.

And the soudyers ledde him awaye into the common hall / and called together the whole multitude / & they clothed him with purple / & they platted a crowne of thornes & crowned him with all / & begane to salute him. Hail the kynge of the Jewes. And they smote hym on the heed with a rede / and spat vpon him / and worshyped him.

And whē they had mocked him / they toke the purple of him / & put his awne clothes on him and ledde him out / to crucifie him. And they compelled one that passed by / called Simon of Cyrene (which cam out of the selde / and was father of Alexander and Rufus) to beare his croffe. And they brought hym to a place named Golgotha (which is by interpre tacion / the place of deed mens scoules) and they gaue him to drinke / wyne mingled with myre / but he receaued it not.

And when they had crucified hym / they parted his garmetes / castinge lotes for the / what euery man shulde haue. And it was aboute the thirde houre / & they crucified him. And the tittle of his cause was wyrtten: the kynge of the Jewes / and they crucified with him two theues: the one on the ryght hande / and the other on his lyfte. And the scripture was fulfilled which sayeth: he was counted amonge the wycked.

And they that wēt by ragled on him: wagginge their heedes and sayinge: A wyetche / that destroyed the temple / and bylded it in thre dayes: saue thy selfe / & come doune from the crosse. A phewse also mocked him the hye p̄restes amonge them selues with the scribes & sayde: he saued other men / him selfe he cannot saue. Let Christ the kynge of Israel now descende from the crosse / that we maye se and beleue. And they that were crucified with him / checked him also.

And when the sixte houre was come darcknes arose ouer all the erth vntill the nynthe houre. And at the nynthe houre Iesus cryed with a loude voyce saying: Eli / Eli / lama sabachani / which is yf it be interpreted: my God my God why hast thou forsake me. And some of the that stode by / when they heard that / sayd: beholde he calleth for Helias. And one ran and fyllid a sponge full of beneger / and put it on a rede / & gaue him to drinke / sayinge: let him alone / let vs se whether he lyes will come and take him doune.

But Iesus cryed with a loude voyce / and gaue up the goost. And the bayle of the temple dyd rent in two peces / fro the toppe to the bottome. And when the Centurion whych stode before hym / sawe that he so cryed & gaue up the goost / he sayde: truly this man was the sonne of God. And ther were also women a good waye of beholdinge him: amonge whō was Mary Magdalen and Mary the mother of James the lytle / & of Ioses / and Mary Salome: which also when he was in Galile / followed him & mynistred vnto him / and many other women which came by with him vnto Ierusalem.

And now when nyght was come / because it was the euē that goeth before the saboth / Ioseph of Arimathea a noble Councellour / which also looked for the kyngdome of God / came & wēt in boldly vnto Pilate / & begged the body of Iesus. And Pilate merueled that he was already deed / and called vnto hym the Centurion / and asked of him / whether he had bene eny while deed. And when he knewe the trueth of the Centurion / he gaue the body to Ioseph. And he bought a linnen clothe / and toke him doune / and wapped hym in the linnen clothe / and layde hym in a tombe that was hewen out of the sepulchre. And Mary Magdalen and Mary Ioses behelde where he was layde.

And when the Saboth day was past, Mary Magdalen / & Mary Jacoby / & Salome / bought spices / & they myght come & anoyne him. And erly in the morning the nexte daye after the Saboth daye / they came vnto the sepulchre / whē the sunne was ryfen. And they sayde one to another: who shall rolle vs awaye the stone from the doze of the sepulchre? And when they looked / they sawe how the stone was rolled awaye: for it was a very greate one. And they went into the sepulchre / and sawe a younge man sytting on the ryght syde / clothed in a longe white garmēt / and they were abashed. * And he sayde vnto them / be not afrayed: for I am he that was crucified. Beholde the place / where they put him. But goo poure waye / and tell his disciples / & namely Peter: he will go before you into Galilee: there shall ye see him / as he sayd vnto you. & And they went oute quychly and fled from the sepulchre. And when Jesus was ryfen & moztow after the Saboth daye / he appered fyrst to Mary Magdalen / out of whom he cast seue deuyls. And she went and tolde them that were with him / as they mourned & weapte. And though they herde that he was aloue and had appered to her / yet they beleued it not. * After that / he appered vnto two of the in a straunge gygure / as they walked & went into the cōuntry. And they went & tolde it to the remanēt. And they beleued them nether.

After that / he appered vnto the eleue as they late at meate: and cast in their teth their vnbeleue & hardnes of herte: because they beleued not them which had sene him after his resurrection. And he sayde vnto them: * Goo ye into all the worlde / and preache the glad tynges to all creatures / he that beleueth & is baptised / shall be saved. But he that beleueth not / shall be dampned.

And these thynges shall folowe the that beleue. In my name they shall cast out deuyls / & shall speake in newe edges / & shall hyl serentes. And yf they dymke any dedly thyng / it shall not hurte them. & they shall laye their handes on the sycke / & they shall recouer.

So then when the Lorde had spoken vnto them / he was receaued into heauen / & sate him doune on the ryght hand of God. And they went forth / and preached euery where. And the Lorde wrought with them / & confyrmeth the worde with myracles that folowed.

The conception and birth of John the baptist. The conception of Christ. The thankfull langes of Mary and Zachary.

The xlii. Chapter.

There was in the dayes of Herode the kynge of Iudee a certayne Pryete named Zacharyas / of the course of Abia. And his wyfe was of the daughters of Aaron: and her name was Elizabeth. Booth were perfect before God / and walked in all the lawes and ordynances of the Lorde / that no man coulde fynde faulte with them. And they had no chyldre / because that Elizabeth was barre / and booth were well stricken in age.

And it came to passe / as he executed the Pryestes offyce before God / as his course came (accoyding to the custome of the Pryestes offyce) his lot was to burne incense. And he went into the temple of the Lorde / and the whoale multitude of the people were without in prayer whill the incense was aburnyng. And ther appered vnto him an Angell of the Lorde standyng on the ryght syde of the altare of incense. And when Zacharyas sawe him him / he was abashed / & feare cam on him. And the Angell sayde vnto him: feare not Zachary / for thy prayer is heard: * And thy wyfe Elizabeth shall beare the a sonne / and thou shalt call his name John / & thou shalt haue ioye and gladnes / & many shall reioyce at his byrth. For he shall be greate in the sight of the Lorde / & shall nether dymke wyne nether stronge dymke. And he shall be filled with the holy goost / euē in his mothers wombe: & many of the chyldre of Israel shall be tourne to their Lorde God. And he shall go before him in the spyte & power of Elias / to tourne the hertes of the fathes to the chyldre / and the vnbeleuers to the wysdome of the iuste men: to make the people redy for the Lorde.

Matth. xxi.
Luke. xxi.
John. xxi.

And Zacharyas sayde vnto the Angell: wherby shall I knowe this: sayng that I am olde and my wyfe well stricken in yeres. And the Angell answered and sayde vnto hym. I am Gabriel that stande in the presens of God / & am sent to speake vnto the: and to shewe the these glad tynges. And beholde thou shalt be domme / & not be able to speake / vntyll the tyme that these thynges be performed / because thou beleuest not my wordes which shall be fulfilled in their season.

And the people waited for Zacharyas and merueyled that he tarped in the temple. And when he came out / he coulde not speke vnto the: wherby they perceaued that he had sene some visyon in the temple. And he beckened vnto them / & remayned speechlesse.

And it fortuned / as sone as he tyme of his offyce was oute / he departed home into his atome house. And after those dayes / his wyfe Elizabeth conceaued / & byd her lisse tyme monethes sayng: & his wyfe hath God dealte with me in the dayes whē * he looked on me / to take fro me the rebuke that I suffered amonge men. And in the syxe moneth the Angell Gabriel was sent from God vnto a cytie of Galilee / named Nazareth / to a virgin spoused to a mā whose name was Ioseph / of the house of Dauid / & the virgins name was Mary. And the Angell wet in vnto her / & sayde: * Hail full of grace / the Lorde is with the: blessed arte thou amonge women.

Luke. xxi.

When she sawe hym she was abashed at his sayng: and cast in her mynde what manner of salutation that shoulde be. And the Angell sayd vnto her: feare not Mary: for thou hast founde grace with God. Lo / thou shalt conceaue in thy wombe / and shalt beare a sonne / & shalt call his name Jesus. He shall be greate / & shall be called the sonne of the hest. And the Lorde God shall geue vnto hym the seate of his fathes Dauid / & he shall raygne ouer the house of Iacob for euer / and of hys kyngdome shall be none ende.

Then sayde Mary vnto the Angell: How shall this be / sayng I knowe not a man? And the Angell answered & sayd vnto her: The holy goost shall come vpon the / & the power of the hest shall ouer shadowe the. * Therfore also that holy thyng whych shall be borne / shall be called the sonne of God. And beholde thy cofen Elizabeth she hath also conceaued a sonne in her age. And this is her syxe moneth / though she be called barren: for with God can nothinge be vnpossible. And Mary sayde: beholde the hande mayden of the Lorde / be it vnto me euē as thou hast sayde. And the Angell departed from her.

And Mary arose in those dayes / & went into the mountayns with haste / into a cytie of Iudee / & entred into the house of Zachary / & saluted Elizabeth. And it fortuned / as Elizabeth hearde the salutation of Mary / the babe sprōge in her belly. And Elizabeth was fylled with the holy goost / & cryed to a loude voyce / & sayde: Blessed arte thou amonge the women & blessed is the frute of thy wombe. And whence hapeneth this to me that the mother of my Lorde shoulde come to me? For lo / as sone as the voyce of thy salutiō sounde in myne eares / the babe sprange in my belly for ioye. And blessed arte thou that beleuest: for those thynges shall be performed whych were tolde the fro the Lorde. And Mary sayde:

My soule magnifyeth the Lorde. And Magnificat my sprete reioyseth in God my sauiour. For he hath looked on the poore degre of his hande mayden. Beholde now fro hence forth shall all generacions calle me blessed. For he is myghty hath done to me greate thynges / and holpe is his name. And his mercy on the that feare him thozow out all generacions. He sheweth strenght / with his arme / he scattereth them that are proude in the ymaginacyon of their hertes. He putteth doune the myghty from their seates / and exalteth them of lowe degre. He fylleth the hongry w good thynges: & sendeth awaye the ryche emptye. He remembreth mercy: and helpeth his seruants Israel.

Euē as he promysed to oure fathes / Abrahāham and to hys seede for euer. And Mary abode with her aboute a .iiij. monethes / and retourned agayne to her atome house.

Elizabethes tyme was come that she shoulde be deliuered / and she brought forth a sonne. And her neyghboures and her cofins hearde tell how the Lorde had shewed great mercy vpon her / and they reioyced with her.

And it fortuned the eyght daye: they came to circuncise the chyld: and called hys name Zacharyas / after the name of his fathes. How be it his mother answered and sayde: not so / but he shall be called John. And they sayd vnto her: to her: Ther is none of thy kynne / that is named with this name. And they made signes to his father / how he wolde haue hym called. And he asked for wytyng tables and wrote saying: his name is John. And they marvelled all. And his mouthe was opened immediately / & his tonge also / & he spake lawdyng God. And feare came on all them that dwelt nre vnto them. And all these saynges were nroffed abroade througout all the hyl countre of Iurie and all they that herde the sayde them bp in their hertes saying: what manner chyld shall this be? And the hande of the Lord was with him.

Matth. xxi.
Luke. xxi.

And his father Zacharias was filled with the holy goost / and prophesied saying.

Benedictus Blessed be the Lord God of Israel / for he hath visited and redeemed his people.

And hath reysed by an hoine of saluacion vnto vs in the house of his seruaunt Dauid. Euen as he promysed by the mouth of his holy prophetes which were lens the woordes began. That we shuld be saued fro oure enemies & from the handes of all that hate vs.

To fulfill the mercy promysed to oure fathers / and to remember his holy couenant.

* And to performe the othe which he swore to oure father Abraham / for to geue vs.

That we deliuered oute of the handes of oure enemies / myght serue him with oute feare / all the dayes of oure lyfe / in such holynes & ryghtewlnes as are accept before him. And thou chyld shalt be called the prophete of the hest: for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord / to prepare his wayes: And to geue knowledge of saluacion vnto his people / for the remission of synnes. Throughe the tender mercy of oure God / whereby the

* dape syngge from an hpe hard bystedds.

To geue lycht to the that late in darcknes and in shadowe of deyth / & to gyde oure fete into the waye of peace. And the chyld grew and waxed stronge in spete / and was in wilderness / tyll the dape came wher he shuld thewe him selfe vnto the Israelites.

And when the ryght dape was come that the chyld shuld be circumcised / his name was called Iesus / which was named of the Angell before he was conceaued in the wombe.

And when the tyme of their purificacion (after the lawe of Moyses) was come / they brought him to Hierusalem / to present hym to the Lord / as it is wyrtten in the lawe of the Lord: every man chyld that syll openeth the matrix / shalbe called holy to the Lord / and to offer (as it is sayde in the lawe of the Lord) a payre of turtle doves or two yonge pignons. And beholde ther was a man in Hierusalem whose name was Symeon. And the same man was iuste & feared God & longed for the consolacion of Israel & the holy goost was in him. And an answer was geuen hym of the holy goost / that he shulde not se deyth / before he had sene the Lordes Chylde. And he came led Bethitem / because he was of the house & synage of Dauid / to be tared with Mary his spoused wyfe which was with chyld.

And it soztuned whill they were there / her tyme was come that the chyld be deliuered.

And she broughte forth her son / & syll begotten sonne / and wrapped hym in swadlynge clothes / & layde hym in a manger / because ther was no coume for them within the tyme.

And ther were in the same region shepherdes abpyng in the feild and watchyng their flocke by nyght. And lo the angell of the Lord stode harde by them / and the brightnes of the Lord shone rounde aboute the / & they were soze afrayed. But the angell sayde vnto the: Be not afrayed / for beholde / I bringe you tynges of grete toye / that shall come to all the people: for vnto you is borne this dape in the cytie of Dauid / a sauoure which is Chylde the Lord. And take this for a sygne: ye shall synde the chyld swabed & layed in a manger. And streight waye ther was with the angell a multitude of heuynly sowdysers / laudynge God and saying: Glory to God on hpe / and peace on the erth: & vnto men reioysing.

And it soztuned / as sone as the angels were gone a waye from the into heuen / the shepherdes sayde one to another: let vs go euil vnto Bethitem / & se this thyng that is hapened / which the Lord hath shewed vnto vs. And they came with haste and founde Mary and Ioseph and the babe layde in a manger. And when they had sene it / they published abrode the saynges which was tolde the of the chyld.

And all the hearde it / wondred at those thynges which were tolde the of the shepherdes. But Mary kept all those saynges / and pondered them in her hert. And the shepherdes returned / prayngge and laudynge God for all that they had herde and sene / euen as it was told vnto them.

And when the ryght dape was come that the chyld shuld be circumcised / his name was called Iesus / which was named of the Angell before he was conceaued in the wombe.

And when the father and mother brought in the chyld Iesus / to do for hym after the custome of the lawe / then toke he hym by tri his armes and sayd. Lord / now lettest thou thy seruaunt departe in peace accordyng to thy promys. For mine eyes haue sene the sauoure sent from the. Which thou hast prepared before the face of all people. I lycht to lighten the gentyls / and the glory of thy people Israel.

And his father and mother marvelled at those thynges which were spok of him. And Symeon blessed them / and sayde vnto Mary his mother: beholde / this chyld shalbe the fall and resurrection of many in Israel / & a signe which shalbe spok agaynst. And mozeouer the sworde shall pearce thy soule / that the thoughtes of many hert maye be opened.

And ther was a prophetesse / one Anna / the daughter of Phanuel of the trybe of Aser: which was of a grete age / & had lyeu with an husbande. vii. yeres fro her virginite. And she had bene a widowe aboute. lxx. yeres / which went neuer out of the temple / but serued God with fastynge and prayer nyght & dape. And as sone as they had performed all thynges accordyng to the lawe of the Lord / they returned into Galile to their awne cite Nazareth. And the chyld grew and waxed stronge in spete / and was fylled with wysdome / and the grace of God was with him.

And his father and mother went to Hierusalem euery yere at the feste of euer. And when he was. xii. yeres olde / they went vp to Hierusalem after the custome of the feste.

And wher they had fulfilled the dayes / as they returned home / the chyld Iesus boode styll in Hierusalem unknowing to his father and mother. For they supposed he had bene in the company / and therfore came a dayes toney and sought hym amonge their kynfolke and acquaintance. And when they founde hym not / they went backe agayne to Hierusalem / & sought him. And it soztuned after. iij. dayes that they founde him in the temple / sytynge in the middes of the doctours / both hearyng them and poyngge them. And all that heard him / marvelled at his wst and answers.

And when they sawe him / they were astonyed. And his mother sayde vnto him: sonne / why hast thou thus dealte with vs? Beholde thy father & I haue sought the / for owenge / And he sayde vnto the: how is it that ye sought me? wist ye not that I must goo aboute my fathers busines? And they vnderstode not the

The prachpge / baptyme / and psonment of John the baptyme of Christ / and a rehercall of the generation of the fathers.

The. iij. Chapter.

In the fyftene yere of the raygne of Tiberius the Emperoure / Pontius Pilate beyng lestenant of Iurie / & Herode beyng tetrach of Galile / and his brother Philip tetrach in Iudea and in the region of Traconites / and Isanias the tetrach of Abylene / when Anna and Cayphas were the hie prestes the woide of God came vnto John the sonne of Zacharias in the wyldernes. And he came in to all the countres aboute Iordan / prayngge the baptyme of repentance for the remission of synnes / as it is wyrtten in the boke of the saynges of Malas the prophet which sayeth

The voyce of a cryar in wyldernes: prepare the waye of the Lord / make his pathes straight. Every valley shalbe fylled / and every mountayne and hyl shalbe brought lowe. And croked thynges shalbe made straight: & rough wayes shalbe made smoth: & all fleshe shall se the sauoure sent of God.

And when he sayde he to the people that were come to be baptised of him. O generation of bypers / who hath taught you to fye from the wrath to come? Byngge forth due frutes of repentance: & begynne not to saye in youre selues / we haue Abraham to oure father. For I saye vnto you: God is able of these stoncs to reysse by chyldren vnto Abraham. Now also is the are leyde vnto the rote of the trees: so that euery tree which bynggeth not forth good frute / shalbe betweene boune / and caste in to the fyre.

And the people asked him sayinge: what shall we do then? He answered and sayde vnto them: He that hath two cotes / lett hym parte with hym that hath none: and he that hath meate / lett hym do lyke wyse.

Then cam ther publicans to be baptised / and sayde vnto him: What shall we do? And he sayde vnto them: requyre no moze then that which is appoynted vnto you.

The soudpours lpe wyle demaunded of him sayinge: and what shall we do? And he sayde vnto them. Do violence to no man: ne ther trouble any mā wrongfully: but be content with youre wages.

Jesus is led in to the wilderness, and fasteth all ¶ some of his temptation: overcometh the devill, goeth into Galile, preacheth at Nazareth, and Capernaum: the Jewes despise him: the devill his knowledge hym: he cometh in to Peters house, healeth his mother in lawe, and doth great miracles.

Allus then full of þe holy good reof the spyzte into wyldernes / and was xi. dayes tempted of þe deuyll.

And the deuill toke him into an hie mountayne/and shewed him all the kyngdom of Iewyde euē in the twinklyng of an eye. And the deuill sayde vnto him: all this power will I geue the euery whit & the glory of the: for that is deliuered to me and to whosoever I wyll, I geue it. If thou therfore wilt worshyppe me/ they shal be all thynne. Iesus answered him and sayde: hence from me Satan. for it is wyrtten: Thou shalt honoure & Lorde thy God and him only serue.

¶ And Iesus returned by the power of

Daughter of Syche whych they toke: & so was also James & John & sonnes of Zebede which were partners to Simon. And Jesus sayde vnto Simo: feare not: for hence forth thou shalt catche me. And they brought & shippes to lande: & forsooke all: and folowed him.

* And it fortuned as he was in a certayne cite: beholde: ther was a ma full of leprosy: & whē he had spyed Jesus: he fell on his face: & besought him saying: Lorde yt thou wilt: thou canst make me cleane. And he stretched forth his hand: & touched him saying: I will: be thou cleane. And immediately the leprosy departed fro him. And he warned hym: that he shuld tell no man: but that he shuld go: & shewe him selfe to the Pryest: & offer for hye cleansynge accordyng as Moyses commaundement was: for a wytnes vnto them.

But so moche the more wēt ther a same abroade of hym: & moche people came to gether to heare: & to be healed of hym: of their infirmities. And he kepte him selfe aparte in the wyldernes: & gaue him selfe to prayer.

* And it happened on a certayne daye: that he taught: and ther sate the Pharises and doctors of lawe: which were come oute of all countres of Galile: Jurie: & Jerusalem. And the power of the Lord was to heale the.

* And beholde: men brought a man lyinge in a bed: which was takē with a palse: & fouge meanes to bryng him in: and to laye him before Jesus. And when they coulde not fynde by what waye they might bryng him in: because of the palse: they wēt vp on the toppe of the house: & let him doune thozow the tpyng: herbyd & all: in hymdes before Jesus. When he sawe their fayth: he sayde vnto him: man: thy synnes are forgyuen the. And the Scribes & Pharises began to thinke saying: What fellowe is this: which speaketh blasphemy?

* Who can forgyue synnes but God only?

When Jesus perceaued their thoughtes: he answered & sayde vnto the: What thyng ye in youre hert: whether is easer to saye: ryse & walke: But ye maye knowe that & sonne of mā hath power to forgyue synnes on erth: he sayde vnto the syche of the palse: I saye to the: arise: take vp thy bed: and go home to thy house. And immediately he rose vp before the: & toke vp his bed where on he laye: & departed to his atone house prayng God. And they were all amazed & they lauded God: and were fylled with feare saying: We haue sene strange thynges to daye.

* And after that he went forth and saue a publican named Leuy: sytting at a receypte of custome: & sayde vnto him: folow me. And he lefte all: rose vp: & folowed him. And that same Leuy made him a great feast at home in his atone house. And ther was a great company of publicans & of other & sate at meate with him. * And the Scribes & Pharises murmured agaynst his disciples: sayinge: whye eat ye and drynke ye with publicans & synners? Jesus answered and sayde vnto them: They that are whole nede not of a physicion: but they that are syche. I came not to call the ryghtewys: but synners to repentance.

Then they sayde vnto hym: why do thy disciples of John fast often and praye: & thy disciples of the Pharises also: and thye eat & drynke? And he sayd vnto the: Can ye make the chylde of the weddinge fast: as long as the bydgrome is present with them? The dayes wyl come: when the bydgrome shal be taken awaye from the: then shall they fast in those dayes.

Then he spake vnto the a synnystude: No man putteth a pece of a newe garment: in to an olde besture: for yt he do: then breaketh he the newe: & the pece that was taken out of the newe: agreeth not with the olde. Also: no mā poureth newe wyne into olde vessels: for yt he do: the newe wyne breaketh the vessels: & runneth out it selfe: & the vessels perishe. But newe wyne must be poured into newe vessels: & both are preserued. Also: no mā bynkeheth olde wyne: straght waye can awaye to newe: for he sayeth: & olde is pleasaunter.

Heerwith the disciples: that plucked the eares of corne: he heareth the mā with the wythred hand: chooseth his twelve Apostles: maketh a sūete sermon: and teacheth to do good for euell.

The vi. Chapter.

It happened on an after Saboth: that he wēt thozow the cornefeld: and that his disciples plucked the eares of corne: & ate: and rubbed them in their handes. And certayne of the Pharises sayde vnto them: Why do ye that which is not lawfull to do on the Saboth dayes? And Jesus answered them and sayde: Haue ye not redde what Dauid dyd: when he hym selfe was an hungred: and they whych were with hym: how he went into the house of God: & toke and ate the loues of halowed byed: & gaue also to them which were with him: which was not lawfull to eate: but for the Pryest only. And he sayde vnto them: The sonne of man is Lorde of the Saboth daye.

* And it fortuned in another Saboth: that he entered into the synagoge & taught. And ther was a man whose ryght hand was byed vp. And the Scribes & Pharises watched him: to se whether he wolde heale on the Saboth daye: & they myght fynde an accusation agaynst hym. But he knewe their thoughtes: & sayde to the man which had the wydded hand: Arise vp: & stande forth in the myddes myddes. And he arose & stepped forth. Then sayde Jesus vnto the: I will aske you a question: whether is it lawfull on the Saboth dayes to do good: or to do euill: to saue lyfe: or to destrye it? And he behelde them all in copasse: & sayde vnto the mā: Stretche forth thy hande. And he dyd so: & his hande was re-stored: & made as whole as the other. And they were fylled full of madnes: & conuined one to another: what they myght do to Jesus.

* And it fortuned in those dayes: that he wēt out into a mountayne to praye: and continued all nyght in prayer to God. And as sone as it was daye: he called his disciples: and of them he chose twelue: whych also he called Apostles. Simon whom he named Peter: & Andrew his brother: James and John: Philip and Bartlemew: Mathew & Thomas: James & sonne of Alpheus & Simon called Zelotes: and Judas James sonne: & Judas Iscariot: which same was the traytoure.

* And he came doune with them and stode in the playne felde with the company of his disciples: & a greute multitude of people out of all parties of Jurie and Jerusalem: & fro the see coste of Tyre & Sidon: which came to heare him: and to be healed of their dys-eases: and they also that were bered with soule spytes: & they were healed. And all the people prealed to touche him: for there went vertue out of him: and healed them all.

And he lyfted vp his eyes vnto his disciples: and sayde: Blessed be ye: for yours is the kyngdom of God. Blessed are ye that hunger now: for ye shalbe satisfied. Blessed are ye that wepe now: for ye shal laugh. Blessed are ye when men hate you: & thurst you oute of their companye: and raple: and abhorre your name as an euyl thyng: for & sonne of mānes sake. Weloyle ye then: & be gladder: for beholde: youre rewarde is greute in heu-en. * After this manner thei fathers en-treated the Prophetes.

But woe be to you that are ryche: for ye haue therin youre consolacion. Woe be to you that are full: for ye shal hōger. Woe be to you that now laugh: for ye shal wepe and wepe. Woe be to you when all men praye you: for ye do so to hye their fathers to the false prophetes.

But I saye vnto you whych heare: Love youre enemyes. Do good to them which hate you. Blesse the & curse you. And praye for the which wōgfullye trouble you. And vnto hym & myterth the on & one cheke: offer also the other. And hym & taketh awaye thy gowne: forgyd not to take thy coote also. Geue to every mā that asketh of the. And of hym that taketh awaye thy good: aske the not agayne. * And as ye wolde that men shuld do to you: so do ye to them lyke wyse.

If ye loue the which loue you: what thanke are ye worthy of? For the very synners loue their louers. And ye do for them whych do for you: what thanke are ye worthy of? For the very synners do euill the same. If ye lende to them of whome ye hope to receaue: what thanke shal ye haue: for the very synners lende to synners to receaue as much agayne. Wherefore: loue ye youre enemyes: do good & lende: loyngge for nothyng agayne: & youre rewarde shalbe greute: and ye shalbe & chyl-dren of the hyst: for he is kynde vnto the vni-kynde and to the euyl.

* Be ye therfore mercyfull: as youre father is mercyfull. * Judge not: & ye shal not be iudged. Condemne not: and ye shal not be condemned. For geue: and ye shalbe forgyuen. Geue: and it shalbe geuen vnto you: good measure: pressed doune: Waken to gether and runnyng ouer: shal men geue into youre bosomes. * For with what measure ye mete: with the same shal men mete to you agayne.

And he put forth a synnystude vnto them: Can the blynde leade the blynde? Do they not both then fall into the dyche? The dysciple is not about his master. Euery man shalbe perfect: euill as his master is. Why seyst thou a moote in thy brothers eye: & considerest not the beame that is in thyne atone eye? Or ther how cannest thou saye to thy brother: Brother: let me pull out the moote that is in thyne eye: whē thou perceauest not the beame that is in thyne atone eye? Yporrite cast oute the beame out of thyne atone eye: & thou shalt see perfectly: to pull out the moote out of thy brothers eye.

* It is not a good tree that byngeth forth the euyl frute: neither is that an euyl tree: that byngeth forth the good frute. For euery tree is knowne by his frute. Neither of thornes gather they grapes. A good mā out of the good treasure of his hert: byngeth forth the which is good. And an euyl man out of the euyl treasure of his hert: byngeth forth the which is euyl. For of the aboundance of the hert: bys mouth speaketh.

Why call ye Master Master: and do not as I byd you: whosoever cometh to me: and heareth my saynges: & doth the same: I will shewe you to whome he is lyke. He is lyke a man which bylt an house: and dygged depe & layde the foundacyon on a roche. When the waters arose: the flud bet vpon that house: & coulde not moue it. For it was grounde vpon a roche. But he that heareth and doth not: is lyke a man that without foundacion bylt an house vpon the erth: agaynst which the fludde byd beat: and it fell by and by. And the fall of that house was greute.

The Gospel

¶ He healeth the Captaynes seruants: repleth vp the disciples whom John baptist sent vnto him: commendeth John: and reproveth the Jewes for their vnfaith-fulnes. He seeth wpth the Pharise. ¶ He he woman was dead he sette with her teares: he forgiveth her her synnes.

The 5th Chapter.

¶ When he had ended all his sayings in the audience of þe people / he entered into Capernaum. And a certayne Centurions seruante was sicke & ready to dye / whos he made moche of. And whē he hearde of Iesu / he sent vnto him the elders of the Jewes / beseeching him þe wolde come & heale hys seruante. And they came to Iesus & besought him instancly sayig: He is worthy þe thou shouldest do this for him. For he loueth oure nacyon / and hath bult vs a synagoge. And Iesus went with them.

And when he was not farre fro the house/the Centurion sent frendes to him: saying vnto him. * Lorde trouble not thy selfe: for I am not worthy & thou shouldest enter vnder my roffe, & vnder my eue. I thought not my selfe wo: thy to come vnto the: but saye & worde & my seruaunt shalbe whole. For I my selfe am a man vnder power/and haue vnder me sou:
diers/ & I saye vnto wone: go / and he goeth.
And to another: come: and he cometh. And to my seruaunt, do this: & he doeth it. Why? Iesus herbe this: he merueyled at him / and turned him about & sayd to & people & folowed him: I saye vnto you/ I haue not founde so great fayth/ no/ not in Israel. And they that were sent/ turned backe home agayne/ and founde the seruaunt that was sycke/ whole.

¶ And it fortuneth after that/ that he went into a cytie called Balm / a many of his disciples went with him & moche people. Whē he came nye to the gate of þe cytie: beholde ther was a deed mā carped out which was þe only sorme of his mother / & she was a wydowe / & moche people of the cytie was with her. And when the Lord sawe her / he had compassion on her, and sayde vnto her: wepe not. And he wēt & touched the coffyn / and they that bare him / stode still. And he sayde: Yonge man, / saye vnto the / aryse. And the deed late by / beganne to speake. * And he deliuered hym to his mother. And there came a feare on the all. And they glorified God sayinge: a greate p̄phet is risen amonge vs / & God hath bilessed his people. ¶ And this rumoz of hym went forth throughout all Iurie / & thorow out all the regions which lye rounde about.

And þe disciples of Iohn shewed hym of all these thyngs. And Iohn called vnto hym two of his disciples/ & sent the to Iesus sayinge: Wite thou be þe Guilde come: or shall we loke for another? When þe men were come vnto him they sayde: John baptiste sent vs vnto þ saying: Arte thou he þ shulde come: or shall we waite for another? And at þ same tyme he cured many of their infirmities & plagēs/& of euill sp̄ytes/and vnto many that were blinde he gaue syghe. And J̄hus answered/& sayd vnto thē: Go youre wayes and tewe John what thinges ye haue sene & harde/ how that the blinde se/ the halt go/ the lepers are cleansed/ the deafe heare/ the deede a ryse / to þ poore is þ glad tydinges preached/ & happy is he that is not offended by me.

When þe messengers of John were departed/þe bega to speake into þe people of John what wēt þe out into þe wyldernes for to se:
went þe to se a rede waken with the wynde: But what wēt þe out for to se: A mā clothed in soft raimēt: Beholde they whith are gogeously appatelled/and þue delcately / are in kynges courtes. But what went þe forth to se: A Þrophete: Ye I saye to you/ a moare then a Þrophete. Thys is he of whom it is writte: Behold I sende my messenger before thy face/ to prepare thy way before the. For I saye unto you: a greater Þrophete then John/ amonge womens child: is ther none: & Nevertheless one that is less in the kyngdome of God/ is greater then he. I

And all the people that hearde the publickans justified God were baptysed wth the baptisme of John. But the Pharisees and Scribes despised the counsell of God agaynst them selues and were not baptised of him.

And the Lord sayd: nether bnto shall I ly-ken y^e men of this generacion/ & what thinge are they lyke? They are lyke bnto childeⁿ sictyng in the market place/ & cryinge one to another/ & sayng: we haue piped bnto you/& ye haue not daunced: we haue mourned to beholde a mā which is a glotte/ & a dryncher of wyne/ a frende of publicans and synners.

Yet is he wyrdome iustified of his chyldeⁿ.

¶ And one of the Pharisees despised him: for he would eate with him. And he went into the Pharisees house: & sat downe to meate. And behold a woman in the city, which was a synner, as soone as she knewe that Iesus sat at meate in the Pharisees house, she brought an alabaſter boxe of oynment: & she stoode at his fete behynde him to wepyne: & beganne to walsh his fete with teares, and dyd wype the with the heares of her heed, & kyſed his fete, and anoynted them with oynment.

knowne who & what manner woman this is which toucheth him/ for she is a synner. And Jesus answered & sayde vnto him: Simon I haue some what to saye vnto thee. And he sayd:

had nothinge to paye he forgauē the bothe.
Which of the two tell me / wll loue him moost?
Simon answered and sayd: I suppose / that he to whom he forgauē moost. And he sayde vnto him: Thou hast truly iudged.

¶ And he turned to the woman & sayde vnto Simon: Seest thou this woman? I entered in to thy house / & thou gauest me no water to my fete: but she hath washed my fete wth tea-res & topped the with the heeres of her heed.
Thou gauest me no kysse: but she / sence the tyme I came in / hath not crased to kysse my fete. Wth yne heed with oyle thou dydest not anointe: but she hath anointed my fete wyth synnes are forgiven her: for she loued moche loue. And he sayde vnto her / thy synnes are forgiuen the. And they that sate at meate wth him / beganne to saye wth in them selues: What is this which forgiueth synnes also?

And he sayd to the woman: Thy sayth hath saued the: Go in peace

The 6th Chapter.

And it fortuned after that / that he him selfe went throughe out cyties and townes / preachinge / and he-winge the kyngdome of God / and the twelve with him. And also certayne we-men, whych were healed of euell spytes / & infirmities: Mary called Magdalen / out of whom went seuen deuyls / and Ioanna the wyfe of Chusa Perodres the warde / & Susanna & many other: which ministered vnto the of their substance. I. * Whē moche people were gathered to gether / & were come to him oute of all cyties / he spake by a synnysitude. And some went out to seme his seede: and as he soweth some sell by the waye syde / and it was trouē vnder fete / and the soules of the apper deuou-red it by. And some sell on stone / and as stone as it was spronge by / it withered awaye / because it lacked moyllur. And some sell amonge thornes / and the thornes sprange by with it / and choched it. And some sell on good grounde and sprange by / and bare fruite / an hundred foolde. And as he sayd these thyngs / he cryed ye that hath eares to heare / let him heare.

And his disciples asked him saying : what manner similitude is this? And he sayde: *¶ to you is it given to knowe the secretes of the kingdom of God: but to other in similitudes:

that when they se they shuld not se / and whē they heare they shuld not understande.

The synulptude is this. The seede is the woorde of God. Those þ are besyde the way/are they that heare / and afterwarde cometh the deuyll and taketh awaye the woorde oute of their hertes lest they shuld beleue and be saued. They on þ skōnes/ are they which whē they heare/ receaue þ woorde with ioye. But these haue no rotes/ which for a whyle be ieue/ and in tyme of temptaciō go awaye. And þ which sell amōge thornes/ are they whych heare/ and go forth/ & are chokyd with cares and with ryches/ and voluptuous spūinge/ & brynge forth no frute. That in þ good ground/are they which with a good and pure herte/heare the woorde and kepe it and bynge forth frute with patience. Ʒ

* Do ma lighteth a candell / & cotereth it vnder a beuell / nether putteth it vnder the table but setteth it on a cabell like / that they that enter in / maye se the lyght. No thinge is in secret that shall not come aboode : Nether any thinge hyd, that shall not be knowe / & come to lyght. Take hede therfore how ye heare.

For whosoever hath / to hym shalbe geuen: he shal receiue And whosoever hath not / to him shalbe taken: he shal be cast out. & same which he supposed to be hath, shal be geue &c.

Then came to him his mother and his brethren, and could not come at him for the people. And they tolde him saying: Thy mother and thy brethren stande without, a wolde see the. He answered and sayde vnto them: my mother & my brethren are these which heare the worde of God and do it.

¶ And it chafsed on a certayne daye that he went into a shippe & his disciples also / & he sayde vnto the: Let vs go ouer vnto the other syde of the lake. And they Lanchted forth. And as they sayled, he fell a slepe / and there arose a storme of winde in the lake / and they were fylled with water / & were in leopardey. And they went to him & awoke him sayinge: Master Master / we are loost. Then he arose & rebuked & wynde & the tēpest of water / and they ceased / and it waxed calme. And he sayde vnto the: where is youre fayth? They feared and wondred sayinge one to another: what felowe is this? for he commaundeth both the wyndes & water / & they obey him. And they sayled vnto the region of the Gaderenites / which is ouer agaynst Galile.

And as he went out to land, ther met hym a certayne mī out of þ cītie, which had a deuill longe tyme / & ware no clothes / nether abode in eny house: but amonge graues.
D. iij. When

When he sawe Iesus he cryed / & fell downe before him / & with a loude voyce sayd: what haue I to do with the Iesus the sonne of the God most high? I beseeche the toment me not. When he commaunded the soule spete to come out of h. m. For ofte tymes he caught him / & he was bounde with chaynes / & kept with fetters: and he brake h. bondes / & was carryed of the sence / into wyldernes.

¶ And Iesus asked him saying: what is thy name? And he sayd: * Legion / because many deuyls were entred into hym. And they besought him / that he wolde not commaunde the to go out into the depe. And ther was there by an heerde of many swyne / fedyng on an hyll and besought him / that he wolde suffer them to enter into them. And he suffered them. When went the deuyls out of the ma / and entred into the swyne: And the heerd toke their course and ran heedlyng into the lake / and were choaked. When the heromen sawe what had chaunted / they fled & tolde it in the cite and in the billages.

And they came out to se what was done: & came to Iesus / and founde the man / oute of wh. the deuyls were departed / sitting at the fete of Iesus / clothed & in his ryght mynde / & they were a prayde. They also which sawe it tolde the by what meanes he that was possessed of the deuyl / was healed. And all the whole multitude of the cōtrey of h. Gaber-nites / besought him / & he wolde departe fr. th. for they were take w. greute feare. And he wet his waye / & preached thozow out all the cytye what great thynges Iesus had done vnto him.

And it fortuneth when Iesus was come agayne h. the people receaued him. For they all waited for hym: * And beholde ther came a man named Jairus / and he was a ruler of h. synagoge / and he fell downe at Iesus fete / & besought him that he wolde come into hys house / for he had but a daughter only / vpon a twelue yere of age / and she laye a byng. And as he went the people thronged him. And a woman hauynge an issue of bloud twelue yeres / which had spent all her substance amonge Physicians / nether coulde be holpen of eny / came behinde him / & touched the hem of his garment / & immediately her issue of bloud stancheth. And Iesus sayde: who is it that touched me? When euery ma denyed / Peter & they h. were w. him / sayde: Master / the people thrust the and bere the: and saye it thou who touched me? And Iesus sayd: So me body touched me. For I perceaued h. vertue is gone oute of me. When the woman sawe that she was not h. / she came trembling / & fell at his fete / & tolde him before all h. people for what cause she had touched him / and how she was healed immediatly. And he sayde vnto her: Daughter be of good comforte. * Thy sayth hath made the whole / go in peace.

¶ Whill he yet spake / there came one fr. the rulers of the synagogs house which sayde to him: thy daughter is deed / diseale not h. matter. When Iesus hearde that / he answered the father / saying: * Feare not / beleue only & she shalbe made whole. And when he cam to the house he suffered no ma to go in with him / saue Peter / James and John / & the father & the mother of the mayden. Euery body weep & sorowed for her. And he sayde: Wepe not: for she is not deed / but slepeth. And they knew him to scoone. For they knew that she was deed. And he thrust the all out / & caught her by the hande: and cryed saying: Mayde aryse. And her spete came agayne / and she rose straight waye. And he commaunded to geue her meate. And the father & h. mother of her were astonied. But he warned them that they shuld tell no man what was done.

¶ He sendeth out the. x. Apostles to preache. Herode beareth tell of him. He feareth Iesus thousand m. with Iesus loues & two synners / the disciples chosse him to be the sonne of God: he transfigured him selfe vpon the mounte / he preache the possesed / and teacheth hys disciples to be lowly. They desyre vengeance / but he reproveth them.

Iden called he h. xi. to gether and gaue the power / & auctorite ouer all deuyls / & that they might heale diseases. And he sent the to preache the kyngdom of God / & to cure the sick. And he sayde to the: Take nothyng to lucher you by h. waye: * nether staffe / nor scrype / nether bread / nether money / nether haue two cotes. And whatsoeuer house ye enter into there abyde & thence departe. And whosoever wyll not receaue you / wh. ye go out of that cite / shake of the very dust from youre fete / for a testimony agaynst them. And they wet out / and went thozow the townes / preaching the gospel and heaenge euery where.

And Herode the tetrarch hearde of all that was done by him / and douteth / because it was sayde of some / that John was risen agayne from death: and of some / that Iesus had appered: and of some / that one of h. olde Prophetes was risen agayne. And Herode sayd: John haue I beheaded: who then is this of whom I heare suche thynges? And he desired to se him.

And the Apostles returned: and tolde him what what great thynges they had done. * And he toke them & wet alpe into a solitary place / nye to a cytye called Bethsaida. And h. people knewe of it / & folowed him. And he receaued them / & spake vnto them of the kyngdome of God & healed the that had nede to be healed. And when h. daye beganne to weare awaye / then came the twelue & sayd vnto him: sende the people awaye / that they maye go in to h. townes and billages rounde about & lodge / & get meate / for we are here in a place of wyldernes. But he sayde vnto them: Geue ye the to eate. And they sayde: We haue no mo but fyue loues and two synners / except we shuld go & bye meate for all this people. And they were aboute a fyue thousande men. And he sayde to his disciples: Cause the to sit downe by fifties in a company. And they dyd so / and made them all sit downe. And he toke h. fyue loues / & the two synners / & looked vp to heuen / and blessed them / and brake / and gaue to the disciples / to lett before the people. And they ate / & were all satisfied. And there was take bp of h. remayned to the / twelue baskettes full of broken meate.

* And it fortuneth as he was alone praying / his disciples were with hym / & he asked the saying: Who saye the people h. I am? They answered & sayd: John Baptist: Some saye Iesus. And some saye / one of the olde Prophetes is risen agayne. He sayde vnto them: Who saye ye that I am? Peter answered and sayde: thou arte the Christ of God. And he warned & commaunded the that they shuld tell no ma that thinge saying: h. the sonne of ma must suffer many thynges / and be reproued of the elders / & of the hye prestes and scrybes & be slayne / and the thirde daye rise agayne.

And he sayde to them all / yf eny man wyll come after me / let him denye hym selfe / and take by his crose dayly & folowe me. * Who soeuer wyll saue hys lyfe / shall lose it. And whosoever shall lose his lyfe for my sake / the he shalbe saued. For what auantageth it a man to wyne the whole worlde yf he loose hym selfe / or runne in damage of hym selfe? For whosoever is ashamed of me / and of my saynges: of him shall I be ashamed / & of my father / & of the holy angels. And it folowed about an. viij. dayes after those saynges / that he toke Peter / James / & John & went by into a mountayne to praye. And as he prayed / the fashion of his countenance was chaunged / & his garment was whyte & gloone. And behold two men talked with him / and they were Moles and Iesus which appered gloriously / & spake of his departinge / which he shuld ende at Ierusalem: Peter & they that were w. him / were heuy w. slepe. And when they woke / they sawe hys gloie / and two men standynge with him.

And it chaunted as they departed fr. him / Peter sayde vnto Iesus: Master / it is good beyng here for vs: Let vs make thye tabernacles / one for the & one for Moles / & one for Iesus: & wist not what he sayde. Whyll he thus spake / there came a cloide & shadowed them / and they feared when they were come vnder the cloide. And there came a voyce out of the cloide saying: This is my beare sonne / heare him. And as sone as h. voyce was past / Iesus was founde alone. And they kept it cloose: & tolde no man in those dayes eny of those thynges which they had sene.

And it chaunted on the nexte daye as they came downe from the hyll / moche people met him. And beholde a man of the cōpany cryed out saying: Master / I beseeche the beholde my sonne / for he is all that I haue: and se / a spete taketh him & suddenly he cryeth / and he teareth him that he cometh agayne / and with moche payne departeth fr. him / wh. he hath rent him / & I besought thy disciples to cast him oute / & they coulde not. Iesus answered and sayd: O generation w. out sayth / & croked how longe shall I be w. you? & shall I suffice you? Byng the sonne hynder. As he yet was a commynge / the sence rent him and tare hym. And Iesus rebuked the vnclene spete / and healed the chyld / and deliuered him to his father. And they were all amazed at the myghty power of God.

¶ Whyll they wozed euery one at all thyngs which he dyd / he sayde vnto his disciples: Let these saynges synke downe into youre eares / the tyme wyll come / when the sonne of ma shalbe deliuered into the handes of men. But they wist not what that worde meant / and it was h. from them / that they understode it not. And they feared to aske him of h. saynges.

* Then ther arose a disputacion amonge the who shuld be the greatest. When Iesus perceaued the thoughtes of th. herces / he toke a chyld / & set him hard by him / & sayde vnto the: Whosoever receaueth this chyld in my name / receaueth me. And whosoever receaueth me / receaueth him / & sent me. For he h. is least amonge you all / h. same shalbe greatest.

And John answered and sayd: Master we sawe one castinge oute deuyls in thyn name / & we forbaide hym / because he foloweth not with vs. And Iesus sayd vnto him: forbyde hym not. For he h. is not agaynst vs / is w. vs.

And it folowed when the tyme was come that he shuld be receaued by / then he set his face to go to Ierusalem / & sent messengers before

The quene of the south shall ryle at iudgement/ with the men of this generation/ & cōdempe the: for she came fro the ende of the world/ to heare the wysdome of Salomon. And behold a greater then Salomon is here. The men of Ninute shall ryle at the iudgement/ with this generation: & shall cōdempe them: for they repented at the preachynge of Jonas. And behold a greater then Jonas is here.

¶ No mā lighteth a candell/ and putteth it in a psey place/ nether vnder a buswell: but on a candellsticke/ that they that come in maye se the lyyght. The lyyght of thy body is & eye. Therfoze when thyne eye is synge: then is all thy body full of lyyght. But yf thyne eye be euill: then shall all thy body be full of darcknes. Take hede therfore that the light which is in the/ be not darcknes. For yf all thy body shall be lyyght/ hauinge no parte darcke: then shall all be full of light/ euen as when a candell doeth lyyght the with his brightnes.

And as he spake/ a certayne Pharise besought him to dyne with hym: and he went in & late doun to meate. When the Pharise sawe that/ he marueyled that he had not fyrst wsshed before dyner. And the Lorde sayde to him: ¶ Now do ye Pharises/ make cleue & out syde of the cup/ and the platter: but poure inwardes partes are full of rauensynge & wyckednes. Ye toles/ dyd not he that made that which is without: make that which is within also: neuerthelesse geue almosse of & ye haue and beholde all is cleue to you. But wo be to you Pharises/ for ye tithe & mynt & rewe/ & all manner erbes/ & palle ouer iudgement & the loue of God: & these ought ye to haue done & yet not to haue left the other undone.

¶ Wo be to you Pharises: for ye loue the hypermort feates in the synagoges/ & greetynge in the markets. ¶ Wo be to you scribes & Pharises hypocrites/ for ye are as graues which appere not/ & the men that walke ouer them are not ware of them. ¶ When answered one of the laweares/ & sayd vnto hym: Master/ thus sayynge thou puttest vs to rebuke also: ¶ When he sayde: wo be to you also ye laweares: for ye lade me with burthenes greuous to be borne/ & ye poure selues touche not & packes with one of your fingers. ¶ Wo be to you: ye bylde the sepulchres of the prophetes/ & your fathers killed them/ truly ye beare witness/ that ye allowe the dedes of your fathers: for they killed them/ and ye bylde their sepulchres.

they shall see & persecute: that the bloude of all prophetes/ which was shed fro the beginning of the world/ maye be requyred of this generation/ fro the bloud of Abel vnto the bloud of Zachary/ which perished betwene the altare & the temple. ¶ Therly I saye vnto you: it shall be requyred of this nation.

¶ Wo be to you laweares: for ye haue taken awaye the keye of knowledge/ & entered not in your selues/ & them & came in ye forbad. ¶ When he thus spake vnto them/ the laweares and the Pharises begā to were busye about him/ and to stop his mouth with many questions/ sayynge wayte for him/ and sekynge to cathe some thyng of his mouth/ wherby they myght accuse hym.

¶ The leuen of the Pharises/ which comforted hym bycyples agaynst persecution warneth them to beware of couetousnes/ by the synillude of a certayne ryche man: he wyl not haue the to hange up & carthly thynges/ but to watch and to be ready agaynst hyr commynge.

The xii. Chapter.

¶ So they gathered to gether an innumerable multitude of people (in so moche & they trood one another) he began to saye vnto his disciples: fyrst of all beware of the

¶ I saye vnto you my frendes: be not afrayde of them that kyll the body/ and after & haue no moare that they can do. But I will shewe you/ whom ye shall feare. ¶ Feare hym which after he hath kyllēd/ hath power to cast into hell. Yee I saye vnto you/ him feare. Are not fyue sparowes bought for two farthynges? And yet not one of them is forgotten of God. Also eue the very herres of poure heedes are nombred. ¶ Feare not therfoze: ye are moare of value then many sparowes.

¶ I saye vnto you: whosoever confesteth me before men/ euen him shall the sonne of man confesse also before the angels of God. And he that denyeth me before me: shall be denyed before the angels of God. And whosoever speaketh a worde agaynst the sonne of mā it shall be forgeuen him. But vnto him & blasphemeth & holy goost/ it shall not be forgeuen. ¶ When they byynge you vnto the synagoges/ & vnto rulers and officers/ take no thought how or what thyng ye shall answer or what ye shall speake. For & holy goost shall teache you in the same houre/ what ye ought to saye.

with me. And he sayde vnto hym: Man/ who made me a iudge or a deuyder ouer you? ¶ Therfoze he sayde vnto the: take hede/ & beware of couetousnes. ¶ For no mannes lyfe standeth in the aboundance of the thynges which he possedeth. And he put forth a synpylltude vnto the sayynge: The grounde of a certayne ryche man brought forth frutes plentyfouly/ and he thought in hym selfe sayynge: what shall I do/ because I haue no roume wher to bestowe my frutes? And he sayde: This will I do. I will destroye my barnes/ & bylde greater/ & therin wyl I gadder all my frutes/ & my goodes: and I wyl saye to my soule: Soule thou hast moche goodes layde by in stooze for many year/ take thyne ease: eate/ drynke/ & be merry. But God sayde vnto him: Thou folle/ this night wyl they fetch awaye thy soule agayne fro the. ¶ When whose shall those thynges be which thou hast prouided? So is it with him that gadreth riches: & is not riche in God.

¶ And he spake vnto his disciples: ¶ Therfoze I saye vnto you: Take no thought for your lyfe/ what ye shall eate: nether for your body/ what ye shall put on. The lyfe is moare then meate/ & the bodye is moare then rayment. Consyde the rauens/ for they nether sowe nor reye/ which nether haue stooze house nor barne/ and yet God feedeth them. ¶ How moche are ye better then soules. Which of you with takynge thought can adde to his stature one cubyt? ¶ If ye then be not able to do & thys which is least: why take ye thought for the remnaunt? ¶ Consyde & lylles how they growe: they laboure not: they spyn not: and yet I saye vnto you/ & Salomon in all this royalte/ was not clothed lyke to one of these.

¶ If the grasse which is to daye in the felde/ & to morowe shall be cast into & somace/ God so clothe/ how moche moze wyl he clothe you/ & ye endured idylle sayth: And as he not what ye shall eate or what ye shall drynke/ nether clyme ye by an hye: for all soche thynges the herben people of the world seke for. ¶ Your father knoweth that ye haue neede of soche thynges. ¶ Therfoze seke ye after the kyngdome of God/ and all these thynges shall be mynystred vnto you. ¶ ¶ Feare not ytell floocke/ for it is your fathers pleasure/ to geue you a kyngdome. ¶ Sell & ye haue/ & geue almes. And make you bagges/ which were not olde/ & treasure & sayeth not in heuen/ wher no thefe cometh/ nether moth corupteth. For wher your treasure is/ there wyl your hertes be also.

& knocketh/ they maye open vnto him. ¶ Happy are those seruantes/ which the Lorde wyll he cometh shall fynde wakynge. ¶ Therly I saye vnto you/ he wyl gyrdde him selfe about & make the to syt doun to meate/ & walke by & mynyster vnto them. And yf he come in the seconde watche/ & yf he come in the thyrde watche/ & shall fynde the so/ happy are those seruantes. ¶ This vnderstonde/ & yf & good man of the house knewe what houre & these wolde come/ he wolde surely watche: & not suffer his house to be broke by. ¶ Be ye prepa red therfoze: for the sonne of man wyl come at an houre when ye thynke not.

¶ When Peter sayd vnto him: Master/ tell me: how oft shal thy synpyltude vnto vs/ or to all me? And & Lorde sayde: ¶ If there be any sayth full seruant & wyfe/ whom his Lorde shall loushe/ which make ruler ouer his household/ to geue them their due of meate at due season: happy is that seruant/ who hys master when he cometh/ shall fynde so doyng. ¶ Of a trouth I saye vnto you: & he wyl make hym ruler ouer all euill agree to & he hath. But & yf & euyl seruant shall saye ¶ I am in his hert: & yf master wyl deferre his cont to sende on the mynge/ and shall begynne to smyte the seruant: but theruadnes & maydens/ & to eate & drynke & to be dronche: the Lorde of & seruant wyl come in a daye when he thynketh not & at an houre when he is not ware/ & wyl deuyde hym/ & of this world: wyl geue hys rewarde to the vnbeleuers. ¶ Therly the doc

The xiiij. Chapter.

Iher were present at the same season that shewed him of the Galileans/ whose bloude pplate megled with their awne sacryfice. And Iesus answered/ & sayde vnto them: Suppose ye the these Galileans were greater synners then all the other Galileans/ because they suffered suche punishment? I tell you naye: but except ye repent/ ye shall all like to the peryshe. Of those xxiij. byon which the toure in syloe fell/ & flemme the/thinke ye that they were synners aboue all mē that dwel in Jerusaleim? I tell you naye: But excepte ye repent/ ye all shall lyke to the peryshe.

+ We put forthe this similitude: a certayne mā had a fygge tree planted in his byncparde & he came & sought frute thereon/ and founde none. Then sayde he to the dyeller of his byncparde: beholde/ this thye yeare haue I come & sought frute in this fygge tre/ & fynde none: cut it doune: why combyeth it to grounde: and he answered & sayde vnto hym: Lorde let it alone this yeare also/ tyll I bygge rounde aboute it/ & donge it/ to se whether it will beare frute: & yf it beare not then/ after the cut it doune. And he taught in one of the synagoges on the Saboth dayes. And beholde ther was a woman which had a fyete of infirmite. xxiij. yeares: & was bowed to gether/ & coude not lyste by her selfe at all. When Iesus sawe her/ he called her to hym/ & sayde to her: woman thou arte deliuered from thy dysfale. And he layde his handes on her/ and immediatly she was straght/ and glorified God. And the ruler of the synagoge answered with indignacyon (because that Iesus had healed on the Saboth daye) and sayde vnto the people. Ther are fyve dayes in whych men ought to worke: in them come and be healed/ and not on the Saboth daye.

Then answered hym the Lorde/ and sayde: ypocryte/ doth not eache one of you on the Saboth daye/ lowse his oxe or his asse from the stall/ & leade hym to the water? And ought not thys daughter of Abraham/ whom Satan hath bounde lo. xxiij. yeares/ be lowsed fro this bonde on the Saboth daye? And when he thus sayde/ all his aduersaries were ashamed/ and all the people reioysed on all the excellent dedes/ that were done by hym.

Then sayde he: what is the kyngedome of God lyke? or wherto shall I compare it? It is lyke a grayne of mustard seede/ whych a mā toke and sowed in his garden: and it grew & waxed a greate tree/ and the foules of the ayre made nestes in the braunches of it.

And agayne he sayde: wherunto shall I liken the kyngedome of God? it is lyke leuen/ whych a woman toke/ and hydde in thye busshels of flour/ tyll all was thozow leuened. And he went thozow all maner of cyties and townes teachinge/ and comynginge towards Jerusaleim. Then sayde one vnto hym: Lorde/ are ther feawe the that shal be sauēd? And he sayde vnto the: stryue in youre felues to enter in at the strypte gate: for many I saye vnto you/ will seke to enter in/ and shall not be able.

* When the good mā of the house is rylen by/ and hath shet to the doze/ ye shall be begonne to stande withoute/ & to knocke at the doze sayinge: Lorde Lorde/ open vnto vs: and he shall answer & saye vnto you: I knowe you not wher ce ye are. Then shal ye begin to saye: we haue eaten in thy presence & droncke/ & thou hast taught in oure stretes. And he shall saye: I tell you I knowe you not whence ye are: departe from me all ye workers of iniquite. Where shalbe weyinge & gnawinge of teth/ when ye shall se Abraham and Isaac & Jacob/ and all the pphetes in the kyngdome of God/ & youre felues thurst oute at dozes. And they shall come from the east & from the west/ & fro the north & from the southe/ and shall syt doune in the kyngdome of God. And beholde/ there are last/ whych shalbe fyrst: And ther are fyrst whych shalbe last.

The same daye there came certayne of the pharises and sayde vnto hym: get the out of the waye/ and departe hence: for herode will kyll the. And he sayd vnto them. Go ye and tell the fore/ beholde I cast oute deuyls and heale the people to daye and to morowe/ and the thyrde daye I make an ende. Neuerthelesse/ I must walke to daye and to morowe/ & the daye followinge: for it can not be/ that a pphete perishe any other whete/ saue at Jerusaleim.

* Jerusaleim/ Jerusaleim/ which killest the pphetes/ & stonest the that are sent to the: how often wolde I haue gathered thy chyldre to gether/ as the hen gathered her nest under her wynges/ but ye wold not. Beholde youre habytacion shalbe left vnto you desolate. For I tell you/ ye shall not se me anytill the tyme come that ye shall saye/ blessed is he that comyth in the name of the Lorde.

Jesus eateth with the pharise/ healeth the droppyn upon the Saboth. teacheth to be lowly/ telleth of the greate supper/ & warneth them that wyl folowe hym/ to laye their accomptes before what it wyl cost them. The tale of the earch.

The xliij. Chapter.

And it chaunced that he went into the house of one of the pharises/ to eate bread on a Saboth daye: & they watched hym. And beholde ther was a mā before hym/ whych had a dyspoyse. And Iesus answered & spake vnto the laweys and pharises sayinge: is it lawfull to heale on the Saboth daye? And they helde their peace. And he toke hym & heale hym/ and let hym go: and answered them sayinge/ whych of you shall haue an asse or an ore fallen into a pyt/ and wyl not straght waye pull hym out on the Saboth daye? And they coude not answer hym agayne to that.

He put forthe a similitude to the guests/ wher he marked how they pleased to the best roumes/ & sayd vnto the: when thou arte bidden to a weddinge of any man/ syt not doune in the best roume/ lest a more honorable mā then thou be bidden of hym/ and he that hade bothe hym & the/ come and saye to the: geue this mā roume/ and thou then beginnewith shame to take the lowest roume. But rather wher thou arte bydden/ go & syt in the lowest roume/ & wher he that hade the commeth/ he maye saye vnto the: frinde syt by myr. Then shal thou haue worshipp in the presence of them that syt at meate with the. For whosoever exalteth hym selfe/ shalbe brought lowe. And he that humbleth hym selfe/ shalbe exalted.

Then sayde he also to him that had helpeyd hym to dner: I wher thou makest a dner or a supper/ call not thy frendes/ nor thy brether/ nether thy kynsmen/ nor thy neyghbours: lest they bydde the agayne/ & thy recompence be made the. But when thou makest a feast/ call the poore/ the maymed/ the lame & the bynde/ and thou shalt be happy/ for they cannot recompence the. But thou shalt be recompensed at the resurrection of the iuste men.

When one of them that sate at meate also heard that/ he sayde vnto hym: happy is he that eateth bread in the kyngdome of God. Then sayde he to him: A certayne man ordeined a greate supper/ & hade many/ & sent his seruaunt at supper tyme/ to saye to the that were bidden/ come: for all thynges are now ready. And they all at once beganne to make excuse. The fyrst sayd vnto hym: I haue bought a ferme/ and I must nedes go & se it/ I praye the haue me excused. And another sayd: I haue bought fyve yokes of oxen/ and I go to plowe the/ I praye the haue me excused. The thyrde sayd: I haue maryed a wyfe/ and therfore I cannot come. And the seruaunt went/and brought his Master wyde thersof. Then was the good man of the house dyspleased/ & sayd to his seruaunt: Go out quickly into the stretes & quarters of the cite/ and brynge in hyder & poore & the maymed & the halt & the bynde. And the seruaunt sayd Lorde it is done as thou commaundest & yet there is roume. And the Lorde sayd to the seruaunt: Go out into the hys wayes & hedges/ & cōpel the to come in/ that my house maye be fylled. For I saye vnto you/ that none of those men whych were bidden/ shall tast of my supper.

Then went a greate cōpany with hym/ and he turned & sayde vnto the: I & a mā come to me/ & hate not his father & mother & wyfe and chyldren/ and brether/ and systers/ nor reour/ and hys awne lyfe/ he cannot be my discipyle. And whosoever beate not his crosse/ and come after me cannot be my discipyle.

Whych of you disposed to byde a toure/ siteth not doune before and counteth the cost/ whether he haue sufficiēt to perfozme it? lest after he hath layde the foundacyon/ and is not able to perfozme it/ all the beholde it/ beginne to mocke hym sayinge: thys man beganne to byde/ and was not able to make an ende. What king goeth to make batayle agaynst another kyng/ and syteth not doune fyrst/ and casteth in his mynde/ whether he be able with ten thousande/ to mete him that cometh agaynst hym with xx. thousand. Or els whyll other is yet a greate waye of/ he wyl sende ambassatours/ and desyre peace. So lyke wyse one of you that forsaketh not all that he hath/ can be my discipyle.

* Salt is good/ but yf salt haue losse hyr saltnes/ what shal be seasoned ther with? It is nether good for the sande nor yet for the donge byll/ but men cast it out at the dozes. He that hath eares to heare/ let hym heare.

The louyng meter of God is openly set forth in the parable of the hundred shepe/ & of the loue pwas lost

The xlv. Chapter.

When reioysed vnto hym all the pharisees and synners/ for to heare hym. And the pharises and scriybes murmured sayinge: We receaue nothyng but to his cōpany synners/ and eateth with them. Then put he forthe thys symilitude to them sayinge: what man of you hauinge an hundred shepe/ yf he loose one of them/ doth not leue nynty and nyne in the byldernes/ and go after that whych is loost/ untill he fynde hym? And when he hath founde hym/ he putteth hym on his shuldres with ioye: And asone as he cometh home/ he calleth to gether his louers and neyghbours sayinge vnto them: Reioyse with me for I haue founde my shepe whych was loost. I saye vnto you/

And he sayde: A certayne man had two sonnes / & the yonger of them sayde to his father: father geue me the parte of the goodes to me belongeth. And he deuoyded vnto them his substance. And not long after / the yonger sonne gaddered all p. he had to gedet / & toke his sojney into a farre countre / and there he wasted his goodes in ryetous luyng. And when he had spent all that he had / ther arose a greatederth thowow out all that same lade / he began to lacke. And he went & claued to a cytesyn of p. same countre / which sent him to his felde / to kepe his swyne. And he wolde ther I haue synned agaynst heuē & before p.

& am no moze worthy to be called thy sonne / make me as one of thy hyred seruantes. And he arose and went to his father. And when he was yet a greate waye of / hys father sawe him / & had compasyon / & ran & fell on his neck & kysed hym. And the sonne sayd vnto hym: father / I haue synned agaynst heuē / & in thy sight / & am no moze worthy to be called thy sonne. But his father sayd to his seruantes: byngge forth that best garment and put it on him / & put a ringe on his hande / & shooes on his fete. And byngge hyder that fatted cause & kill hym / & let vs eate and be mery: for this my sonne was deed / and is alpye agayne / he was loste / & is now founde. And they began to be mery. The eldēt brother was in the felde / & whē he came & dytwe nye to p. house / he herde minstrelsy & dauncyng / & called one of his seruantes / & asked what those thynges meane. And he sayde vnto him: thy brother is come / & thy father had killed p. fatted cause / because he hath receaued him safe & sounde.
And he was angry / & wolde not go in. Then came his father out & entreated him. He answered & sayde to hys father: Lo these many yeres haue I done thy seruice / nether haue at any tyme thy complayment / & yet gauest thou me / neuer so muche as a kyd to make mercy with my louers: but as soon as this thy sonne was come / whych hath deuoyded thy goodes with harlots / thou haste for his pleasure killed p. fatted cause. And he sayd vnto him: Sonne / thou wast euer with me / and all that I haue is thynne: it was mete that we shuld make mery and be glad: for thys thy brother was deed / and is alpye agayne: and was loste / and is founde. I.

The parable of the wyched mammon. Not one tyle of Gods wordes shal perishe. Of the p. hewpse and
p. Lazarus.

The xlii. Chapter.

And he sayd also vnto his discyples. I ther was a certayne ryche mā / whych had a steward / that was accused vnto him / that he had wasted his goodes. And he called hym: and sayd vnto him: How is it that I heare this of the? Deus a comptes of thy stewardshippe: for thou mayst be no longer steward. The steward sayd to hym selfe: what shall I do? for my master will take a waye fro me the steward-shippe. I can not bygge / and to bygge / I am shamed. I wote what to do / that when I am put out of the stewardshippe / they maye receaue me into their houses.

Then called he all hys masters detters / & sayd vnto the fyrst: how moche owest thou vnto my master? And he sayd an hondred connes of oyle. And he sayd to him: take thy byll / & syt doune quychly and wyte sytpe. Then sayd he to another: what owest thou? And he sayd: an hondred quarters of wheate. He sayd to him: Take thy byll / and wyte soure scorde. And the Lorde commendeth the vnsteward because he had done wyse. For the chyliden of thys worlde are in therr kynde / wyse then the chyliden of lyght. And I saye also vnto you: make you frendes of p. wyched mammon / & whē ye shall departe / they may re-ceauē you into euertlasting habitacions. I.

He that is saythfull in p. whych is less the same is saythfull in moche. And he p. is vn saythfull in p. least: is vn saythfull also in moche. So then yf ye haue not ben saythfull in p. wyched mammon / who will beleue you in that wyche is true? And yf ye haue not bene saythfull in another mannes busynesse: who shall geue you your awne? No seruante ca-serue. I. masters / for other he shall hate p. one as loue the other / or els he shall lene to p. one dyllyte p. other. Ye ca not serue God & mammon. I. these thynges herde the pharysees also whych were couetous / & they mocked hym.

And he sayd vnto the: Ye are they whych dyllyte your selues before men: but God hath weyde your hertes / for that whych is hyghlye elected amonge men / is abhominable in the syght of God. I.

The lawe

The lawe and the prophetes ragged vntyll the tyme of John: and sence that tyme p. kingdome of God is preached / & euery man strpeth to go in. Soner shall heuen & erth perishe then one tytle of the lawe shall perishe. Whosoever forsaketh his wyfe & ma-rreth another / breaketh matrimony. And eu-ry man whych marreth her p. is deuoyded fro her husbände / committeth adoutry also.

Ther was a certayne ryche man / whych was clothed in purple and syne byrre / & eated deliciously euery daye. And there was a cer-tayne begger named Lazarus / whych laye at his gate full of soores despyng to be re-ceyued with the cromes whych he sell fro the ryche mānes boorde. Neuerthelesse / he dogged came and licked hys soores. And it soytuned that the begger dyed / and was carryed by the angelles into: Abrahams bosome. The ry-che man also dyed / and was buryed.

And beinge in hell in tormētes / he lyfte vp his eyes and sawe Abraham a farre of / & Lazarus in his bosome / & he cryed & sayd: father Abraham / haue mercy on me / & sende Lazarus / & he maye byppe the tyme of his synger in water / & cole my tēge: for I am tourmentēd in this flame. But Abraham sayd vnto hym: Sonne / remēber that thou in thy lyfe tyme / receauedst thy pleasure / & contrary wyse Lazarus payne. Now therfore is he cōsōrted / & thou art punished. Beyond all this / betwene you and vs ther is a grate space set / so p. they whych wolde go from hence to you cannot: nether maye come from thence to vs.

Then he sayd I praye the therfore father / send him to my fathers house. For I haue fy-ue brethren: for to warne the lest they also come into the place of torment. Abraham sayd vnto him: they haue Moses & the Prophetes lett them heare the. And he sayd: maye father Abraham / but yf one came vnto them from the deed / they wolde repent. He sayde vnto hym: If they heare not Moses and the Prophetes / nether wyll they beleue / though one rose from deeth agayne.

Therforth his disciples to aspyde occasions of euill / one to forgyue another / & to trust in God and no mā to presume in his awne wyse. He healeth the ten lepers / & preacheth of the latter dayes / and of the ende of the worlde.

The xlii. Chapter.

Then sayde he to hys discyples / it ca-not be auoyded but that offences wyll come. Neuerthelesse wo be to hym thowow whom they come. Ye were better for him that a myllstone were haged aboute his necke / & that he were cast into the see / then that he shulde offende one of these lytle ones. Take heed to your selues. I. if thy brother trespas agaynst the / rebuke him and yf he repēt / forgyue him. And though he synne agaynst the seuen tymes in a daye / & seuen tymes in a daye tourne agayne to the sayinge: it repenteth me / forgyue him.

And the Apostles sayde vnto the Lorde: increase oure sayth. And the Lorde sayde: yf ye had sayth lyke a grayne of mustard seed / & I shuld saye vnto thys cynamme tree / plucke thy selfe by the rootes / and plant thy selfe in the see: he shoulde obey you.

Who is it of you yf he had a seruante plo-winge or sedinge catel / that wolde saye vnto him when he were come from the felde: Go quychly and syt doune to meate: & wolde not rather saye to hym / dyesse wherwith I maye sup / and gydde by thy selfe and serue me / tyll I haue eaten & dronken: & afterwarde / eate thou / and dlynke thou? Woeth he thā he that seruaunt because he dyd that whych was cō-maunded vnto hym? I crowe not. So likewise ye / when ye haue done all those thynges whych are commaunded you saye / we are vn-profitable seruantes. I. we haue done that whych was oure duty to do.

And it chaunced as he went to Jerusalem / that he passed thowow Samaria and Galilee.
And as he entred into a certayne toun / ther met him ten men p. were lepers. Whych stode a farre of & put forth their voyces and sayde: oure Jesu master / haue mercy on vs. I. whē he sa-we them / he sayde vnto them: Go and shewe your selues vnto p. prestes. And it chaunced as they went / they were censed. And one of the / when he sawe that he was censed / turned backe agayne / & wyth a loude voyce prayfed God / & fell doune on his face at his sete / and gaue him thākes. And p. same was a Sama-ritane. And Jesus answered & sayde: are ther not ten censed? But wher are those nyne?
Other are not founde that returned agayne / to geue God prayse saue only this strainger.
And he sayde vnto him: arysse / & go thy waye thy sayth hath made the whole. I.

When he was demaunded of the phar-ises / whē the kingdome of God shuld come. he answered them & sayde: The kingdome of God cometh not with waytyngge for. Nether lone God with shall men saye: Lo here / so there. For beholde the kingdome of God is with in you.

And he sayde vnto the discyples: the dayes will come / when ye shall despye to se one daye of the sonne of man / & ye shall not se it. And they shal saye to you: Se here / Se there. So not after them / nor folowe them / for as the lyghtenyngge that apereth out of p. one parte of heuen: and thyneth vnto the other parte of heauen: So shall the sonne of man be in his dayes. But fyrst must he suffre many thynges / and be refused of this nacion.

belongeth vnto chyldren. Whiche answereth the ruler/and promyseth rewarde vnto all such as suffer losse for his sake/ and folowe hym. The bynde man is refored to his syght.

The xliij. Chapter.

He put forth a synnitytude vnto the/ synnitytude that men ought alwayes to praye & not to be wery/sayinge: Ther was a Judge in a certayne cytle/ whych feared not God neither regarded man. And ther was a certayne we-dowe in the same cytle/ whiche came vnto him sayinge: auenge me of myne aduersary. And he wolde not for a while. But afterwarde he sayde to him selfe: though I feare not God nor care for man/ yet because this wedowe troubleth me/ I will auenge her lest at laste she come & hagge on me. And the Lorde sayd heare what the byrghtewes Judge sayeth.
And shall not God auenge his electe/ whych suffre daye and nyght vnto hym/ ye though he deferre them? I tell you he will auenge them and that quickly. Neuerthelesse/ whē the sonne of mā cometh/ suppose ye/ that he shall fynde sayth on the erth.

And he put forth this synnitytude/ vnto certayne which trusted in them selues & they were perfecte/ and despyled other. And men went by into the temple to praye: & one a Pharisee & the other a publican. The Pharisee stode & prayed thus with him selfe. God I thanke the that I am not as other men are/ extorsio-ners/ vnjuste/ aduouters/ or as this publican I fast twyse in the weke. I geue tythe of all that I possesse. And the publican stode a farre of/ & wolde not lyfte up his eyes to heauē/but smote his brest sayinge: God be mercyfull to me a synner. I tell you this man departed home to his house iustified moare then the other. For euery man that exalteth him selfe/ shall be brought low: And he that humbleth him selfe/ shall be exalted.

They brought vnto him also babes/ that he shulde touche the. Whē his disciples sawe that/ they rebuked the. But Iesus called the vnto him/ & sayde: Suffer chyldren to come vnto me/ & forbydde them not. For of soche is the kyngdome of God. Verely I saye vnto you: whosoever receaueth not the kyngdome of God as a chyld: he shall not enter therein.

And a certayne ruler asked hym sayinge: goodmaster: what ought I to do/ to obayne eternall lyfe? Iesus sayde vnto him: why cal-lest thou me good? None is good/ saue God only. Thou knowest the commaundementes: Thou shalt not commit aduoutry: thou shalt not kyll: thou shalt not steale: thou shalt not beare false wytnes: Honoure thy father and thy mother. And he sayde all these haue I kept fro my yowthe. Whē Iesus hearde the sayde vnto him: Yet lackest thou one thinge.
Sell all that thou hast/ & distribute it vnto the poore/ & thou shalt haue treasure in heauen/ and come/ & folowe me. Whē he hearde that/ he was heuy: for he was very ryche.

When Iesus sawe hym moorne/ he sayde:
with what dyscualte shall they that haue ryches/ enter into the kyngdome of God: it is easier for a camell to go thowowe a needles eye/ then for a ryche man to enter into the kyngdome of God. Then sayde they the hearde that. And who shall then be saued? And he sayde: Chynges whych are impossible wyth men are possible wyth God.

Then Peter sayde: Lo we haue lefte all/ & haue folowed the. And he sayde vnto them: Verely I saye vnto you/ ther is no mā that leaueth house/ other father & mother/ other byrthen/ or wyfe/ or chyldren for the kyngdome of Goddes sake/ whych same shall not receaue moche moare in thys worlde: and in the worlde to come/ lyte euerylastinge.

He toke vnto him the twelue/ and sayde vnto them. Beholde we go by to Ierusalem/& all shall be fulfilled that are wyrtten by the Prophetes of the sonne of man. He shall be deliuered vnto the gentyls/ & shall be mocked and shall be despytfully entreated/ and shall be spetted on: and whē they haue scourged him/they will put him to deeth/ and the thyrde daye he shall aryse agayne. But they vnderstode none of these thinges. And this sayinge was hyd from them. And they perceaued not the thynges whych were spoken.

* And it

And it came to passe/ as he was come nye vnto Hierico/ a certayne bynde man sat by the waye syde begginge. And when he hearde the people passe by/ he asked what it meant.
And they sayde vnto hym/ the Iesus of Nazareth passed by. And he cryed sayinge: Iesus sonne of Dauid. haue thou mercy on me. And they which went before rebuked hym/ that he shuld holde his peace. But he cryed so moche the moare/ thou sonne of Dauid haue mercy on me. And Iesus stode still/ & commaunded him to be brought vnto him. And whē he was come neare/ he asked him sayinge: what wilt thou that I do vnto the? And he sayde: Lorde that I maye receaue my syght. Iesus sayde vnto him: receaue thy syght: thy sayth hath saued the. And immediatly he sawe/ and folo-wed him/ praylinge God. And all the people/when they sawe it/ gaue laude to God.

Of Zachary/ and the ten seruantes to whom the talentes were deliuered. Christ rydeth to Ierusalem/and wepech ouer it.

The xlv. Chapter.

He entered in a wylde thowowe Ple-rico. And beholde/ ther was a man named Zachary/ whiche was a ruler amonge the Publicans/ & was ryche also. And he made meanes to se Iesus/what he shuld be: & coulde not for the p-cease/ because he was of a lo stature. Wherfore he ran before/ & clymed by into a wylde figge tree/ to se him: for he shulde come the waye.
And when Iesus cam to the place/ he looked by/ and sawe him/ and sayd vnto him: Zachary/ come doune attyce/ for to daye I must abyde at thy house. And he came doune hastely & receaued him ioyfully. And whē they sawe the they all groundged sayinge: He is gone in to tary with a man that is a synner.

And Zachary stode forth and sayd vnto the Lorde: beholde Lorde/ the haile of my good-des I geue to the poore/ and yet I haue done eny man wronge/ I will refozte hym sower solde. And Iesus sayd to him: this daye is be-althe come vnto thys house/ for as moche as he also is become the chyld of Abraham. For the sonne of man is come to seke and to saue that which was losse.

As they hearde these thinges/ he added ther to a synnitytude/ because he was nye to Hierusalem/ and because also they thought that the kyngdome of God shuld shortly appere.
He sayde therfore: A certayne noble man went into a farrre countre/ to receaue hym a kyngdome/ and then to come agayne. And he called his ten seruantes and deliuered the ten pounde/ sayinge vnto the: by and sell till I come. But his citelens hated him/ and sent messenger after hym sayinge: we will not haue this man to raygne ouer vs.

And it came to passe/ when he was come agayne & had receaued his kyngdome/ he ed-maunded these seruantes/ to be called to him (to whom he gaue his money) to wit what euery mā had done. Then came the first/ saying Lorde/ thy pounde hath encreased te pp-ue. And he sayd vnto him. Well good seruant because thou wast saythfull in a very lytel thinge/ take thou auctoryte ouer ten cy-pes. And the other came sayinge: Lorde thy pounde hath encreased fyue pounde. And to the same he sayde: & he thou also ruler ouer fyue citis.

And the thyrde came & sayde: Lorde beholde here thy pounde/ whych I haue kepte in a napkin/ for I feared the/ because thou arte a stryde man: thou takest by the thou saydest not doune/ & repest that thou dydest not sowe. And he sayde vnto him: Of thynne a wylde month/ Iudge I the thou euyl seruant. W-west thou that I am a stryde mā rasinge by that I sayde not doune/ & reppunge that I dyd not so we? wherfore then gauest thou my money into the banke/ that at my conuynge I might haue requyred mine a wylde vassage

And he sayde to the that stode by: take fro him that pounde/ & geue it him that hath ten pounde. And they sayde vnto hym Lorde he hath ten pounde. I saye vnto you/ that vnto all them that haue/ it shall be geuen: a fro him that hath not/ euen that he hath shall be taken from him. Wherfore those myne enemyes/whych wolde not the I shuld raygne ouer the byngge bydder/ & ster them before me. And when he had thus spoken/ he proceded forth before/ ascendinge by to Ierusalem.

And it fortuned/ when he was come nye to Bethphage & Bethany/ besides mount Oli-uete/ he sent two of his disciples sayinge: go ye into the towne whych is ouer agaynst you.
In the which asone as ye are come/ ye shall finde a colte tyed/ wheron yet neuer mā sate.
Louse him and bynge him hyer. And ye eny man aske you/ why that ye lowse hym: thus saye vnto him/ the Lorde hath nede of hym.

They that were sent/ went their waye and founde/ euen as he had sayde vnto them. And as they were alofinge the colte/ the owners sayde vnto them: why lowse ye the colte?
And they sayde: for the Lorde hath nede of hym. And they brought hym to Iesus. And they cast their rayment on the colte/ and sette Iesus thereon. And as he went/ they spydde their clothes in the waye.

And when he was now come/ where he shuld go doune fro the mount Oliuete/ the whole multitude of the disciples bega to reioyce/& to laude God with a loude voyce/ for all the myracles that they had sene/ sayinge: blessed be the kyng that cometh in the name of the Lorde: peace in heauen/ & glory in the hyest.

And

And some of the Pharisees of the company sayd vnto hym: Master rebuke thy disciples. He answered & sayde vnto the: I tel you yf these wuld holde their peace/the stones woulde crye. And whē he was come neare/he behelde the cite/& wept on it sayinge: If thou haddest knowe those thinges which beloge vnto thy peace/cul at this thy tyme? But now ge vnto thy peace they hydde fro thyne eyes. For the dayes hereafter shall come vpon the/that thy enemies shall cast a banke aboute the/and compass the rounde/& kepe the in on euery syde/& make the euen with the grounde/with thy children which are in the. And they shall not leue in þ one stone vpon another/ because thou knowest not the tyme of thy visitacion.

And he went in to the temple/& beganne to cast out them that solde therein/ and thim that bought sayinge vnto them: it is writtē: my house is the house of prayer: but ye haue made it a den of theues. And he taught dayly in the tēple. The hye Priestes and the scribes and the chiefe of the people went about to destroye hym: but coulde not fynde what to do. For all the people stache by him/& gaue him audience.

¶ They aske Christ one question/and he askerh them another. The parable of the vnygarde. Of trybute to be geuen vnto Cesar/ and how Christ stoppeth the mouthes of the iudices.

¶ As it fortuneth one of those dayes as he taught þ people in the tēple he preached the gospell: the hye Priestes & the scribes came with the elders & spake vnto him sayinge: Tell vs by what auctorite thou doest these thynges? ether who is he that gaue þ this auctorite? He answered and sayde vnto them: I also wil aske you a question/ and answer me. The baptisme of Iohn: was it from heauen or of men? And they thought with in them selues sayinge: yf we shall saye from heauen: he wil saye: why then beleue ye hym not? But and yf we shall saye of men/ all the people wyl stone vs. For they be perswaded that Iohn is a prophete. And they answered that they coulde not tell whence it was. And Iesus sayde vnto them: nether tell I you by what auctorite I do these thinges.

¶ When beganne he to put forth to þ people this synnitylde. ¶ A certayne man planted a vynegarde/& let it forth to sermers/& went him selfe into a straunge countre for a greate season. And whē the tyme was come/ he sent a seruaunt to his tenautes that they shuld geue him of the frutes of the vynegarde. And the tenautes dyd bet him/& sent him awaye empty. And agayne he sent yet another seruaunt. And they dyd bet him/& soule entrea-ced him also/& sent him awaye emptye. ¶ So reouer/ he sent the thyrd to/ and hym they wounded/ and cast oute. ¶ Then sayde þ lord of þ vynegarde: what shall I do? I will sende my deare sonne/ him peradventure they will reuerence/ when they se him.

¶ But when the sermers sawe hym/ they thought in the selues sayinge: this is þ heire/ come let vs kyll hym/ that the inheritaunce maye be oures. And they cast hym out of the vynegarde/ and kyled hym. ¶ Now what shall the lord of the vynegarde do vnto thim? He will come and destroye these sermers/& wyl let out hys vynegarde to other. ¶ When they hearde that/ they sayde: God forbid.

¶ And he behelde the and sayde: what meaneth this then that is writtē: the stone that the bylders refused/ the same is made þ heed corner stone? ¶ Whosoever stumbe at þ stone shall be broken: but on whosoever it fall vpo/ it wyl grinde hym to powder. And the hye priestes and the scribes the same houre wēt about to laye handes on him/ but they feared the people. For they perceaued that he had spoken this synnitylde agaynst them.

¶ Then came to him certayne of the Saducees which denye that ther is eny resurreccion. And they asked him sayinge: Master/ Moyses wrote vnto vs/ yf eny manes brother dye hauinge a wyfe/ & þ same dye without issue: that then his brother shulde take his wyfe/ & rayse vp sēde vnto hys brother. ¶ Her were seuen brethren/ & the fyfste toke a wyfe/ and dyed without chyliden. And the seconde toke the wyfe/ & dyed chylidlesse. And the thyrde toke her/ & in lyke wyse the residue of the seuen/ & left no chyliden behinde them/ & dyed. Last of all the woman dyed also. ¶ Now at the resurreccion whose wyfe of them shall she be? For seuen had her to wyfe.

¶ Iesus answered and sayde vnto the. The chyliden of this worlde many wyues/ & are married/ but they which shal be made worthy to enioye that enioye that worlde and the resurreccion fro deeth/ nether many wyues nether are married: no/ yet ca dye eny moare. For they are equall vnto the angels: & are the sonnes of God in as moche as they are the chyliden of þ resurreccion. And that the deeth shall ryle agayne/ euen Moyses synnitylde besydes the bulke/ when he sayde: the Lord God of Abraham and the God of Isaac/ and the God of Jacob. For he is not the God of the deeth/ but of them which liue. For all lyue in him. ¶ Then certayne of the Pharisees answered and sayde: Master thou hast wel sayde. And after that durst they not aske him eny question at all.

¶ Then sayde he vnto them: how saye they that Christ is Dauides sonne? And Dauid him selfe sayeth in the boke of the Psalmes: The Lord sayde vnto my Lord/ sit on my ryght hande/ tyll I make thyne enemies thy fote stole. Senge Dauid calleth him Lord: how is he then his sonne?

¶ Then in þ audyence of all the people/ he sayde vnto his disciples: beware of þ scribes/ which desyre to go in toge clothynges: & loue greetings in the marketes/ and the hyest leates in the synagoges & the chiefe roumes at feastes/ which deuoure widowes houses and that binder a coloure of longe prayinge: the same shall receaue greater damnacion.

¶ Christ commendeth the poore wyddowes/ telleth off þ destruction of Ierusalem/ of false teachers/ of the troubles and troubles for to come/ of the ende of þ worlde/ and of hys awne commyng.

The xx. Chapter.

¶ As he behelde/ he sawe þ ryche men/ how they cast in their offerynges into þ treasury. And he sawe also a certayne poore wyddowe/ which cast in thyrer two mytes. And he sayde: of a trouth I saye vnto you/ this poore wyddowe hath put in moare then they all. For they all haue of their superfluyte added vnto þ offeringe of God: but she/ of her penury hath cast in all the substance that she had.

¶ As some spake of the temple/ how it was garnished with goodly stones & Jewels/ he sayde: ¶ The dayes wyl come/ when of these thynges which ye se/ shall not be lefte stone vpon stone/ that shall not be thowen doune. And they asked hym sayinge: Master when shall these thinges be/ & what signe wyl therbe when suche thinges shall come to passe.

¶ And he sayde: take hede/ þ ye be not deceaued. For many wyl come in my name saying I am he: and the tyme draweth neare. Followe ye not them therfore. But when ye heare of warre and disencion: be not afrayed. For these thynges mst fyrt come: but the ende foloweth not by & by. ¶ Then sayd he vnto the: ¶ Nacion shall ryle agaynst nacion/ & kyng-domes agaynst kyngdomes/ and greate ethyquakes shalbe in all quarters/ and hunger/ and pestilence: & fearful thinges. And greatesygnes shall ther be from heauen.

¶ But before all these/ they shall laye their handes on you and persecute you/ delqueringe you bp to the synagoges & into prison/ and byyngge you before kynges & rulers for my names sake. And this shall chaunce you for a testimoniall. Let it sticke therfore faste in your hert/ not once to stody before/ what ye shall answer: for I wil geue you a mouth and wysdome/ where agaynst/ all your aduersaries shall not be able to speake no/ resist. Ye & ye shalbe betrayed of youre fathers and mothers/ and of youre brethren/ & kynsmen/ and louers/ and some of you shall they put to deeth. And hated shall ye be of all men for my names sake. Yet ther shall not one be re of youre heeddes peryshe. ¶ Wyth your patience possesse youre soules.

¶ And when ye se Ierusalem beseged wyth an hoste/ then vnderstande that the desolacion of the same is nye. ¶ Then let them which are in Ieremye fflye to the mountaynes. And let them which are in the myddes of it/ departe oute. And let not them that are in other countreys/ enter ther in/ for these be the dayes of vengeance/ to fulfill all that are writte. But wo be to them that be with chyliden/ & to them þ geue sucke in those dayes: for ther shalbe greate trouble in the lande/ and wraoth ouer all this people. And they shall fall on the edge of the swearde/ and shalbe led captiue/ into all nacjons. And Ierusalem shalbe troden vnder fote of the gentylis/ vntyll the tyme of the gentylis be fulfilled.

¶ And he shewed them a synnitylde: beholde the fygge tree/ and all other trees/ when they shout forth their buddes/ ye se & knowe of your awne selues that sommer is then nye at hand. So lyke wyse ye (when ye se these thinges come to passe) vnderstande/ that the kyngdome of God is nye. ¶ Whereby I saye vnto you: this generacyon shall not passe/ tyll all be fulfilled. ¶ Heauen & erth shall passe: but my wordes shall not passe. ¶

Take heed to your selves/lest your herbes be overcome with settinge & dyes hennes and cares of this world: and that daye come on you vnwares. For as a snare shall it come on all them that lye on the face of the earth. Watche therfore continually & praye/ that ye maye obtayne grace to stee all this that shall come/and that ye maye stande before the sonne of man.

John. vii. 2.

In the daye tyme/ he taught in the temple and at nyght/ he went out/ and had abidinge in the mount olivete. And all the people came in the morninge to hym in the temple/ for to heare hym.

Christ is betrayed. They ate the easter labe. The institution of the sacrament. They sturpe who shalbe greatest/ he reproveth the: he prayeth the tymes upon the mount. They take hym and bringe him to the hye pries house: Peter denpeth hym thre tyme/ they bringe hym before the counsell.

The xxii. Chapter.

In the feast of swete bread dyne nye whych is called easter/ and the hye pries & scribes sought how to kill him/ but they feared the people.
Then entred Satan into Judas/ whose sy-name was Iscariot (whych was of the nobye of the twelve) & he went his waye & cōmuned with the hye pries & officers how he myght betraye him to the. And they were glad: & promised to geue him money. And he consented/and sought oportynite to betraye hym vnto them when the people were awake.

Math. xxii. 2.
Mark. xii. 2.

When came the daye of swete bread/ whiche of necessitye the easter labe must be offered.
And he sent Peter & John sayinge: go & prepare vs the easter labe/ & we maye eate. They sayde to him. Where wilt thou/ that we prepare? And he sayde vnto the. Beholde whiche ye be entred into the citie/ there shall a man mete you bearinge a picher of water/ him folowe into the same house that he entred in/ & saye vnto the good man of the house. The master sayeth vnto the: where is the guest chamber/where I maye eate mine easter labe with my disciples? And he shal shewe you a greete parloure paved. Ther make redy. And they went and founde as he had sayde vnto them: & made redy the easter labe.

Math. xxi. 2.
Mark. xii. 2.

And whiche houre was come/ he sate doune and the twelve Apostles with hym. And he sayde vnto them: I haue inwardly despyed to eate this easter labe with you before that I suffre. For I saye vnto you: hence forth I will not eate of it any moore/ vntill it be fulfilled in the kyngdome of God. And he toke the cup and gaue thankes/ and sayd. Take this/ and drinke it amonge you. For I saye vnto you: I will not drynke of the frute of the vyne/vntill the kyngdome of God be come.

Math. xxi. 2.
Mark. xii. 2.
Luke. xii. 2.

And he toke bread/ gaue thankes/ & gaue to them/ sayinge: This is my body whych is geuen for you. This do in the remembraunce of me. After this also/ when they had supped/ he toke the cup sayinge: This cup is the newe testamēt in my blood/ whych shall for you be shedde.

Yet beholde/ the hande of him that betrayeth me/ is with me on the table. And the sonne of man goeth as it is apointed: But who beto that man by whiche he is betrayed. And they began to enquire amonge them selves/ whiche of them it shoulde be/ that shoulde do that.

And ther was a stryfe amonge them/ whiche of the shoulde be take for the greatest. And he sayde vnto the: the kynges of the gentylis raygne ouer them/ and they that beare rule ouer them/ are called gracious lordes. But ye shall not be so: But he that is greatest amonge you/ shalbe as the youngest: and he that is cheefe/ shalbe as the mynister. For whether is greater/ he that sitteth at meate: or he that serueth? Is not he that sitteth at meate? And I am amonge you/ as he that ministereth. Ye ate they which haue bydden with me in my tēptations. And I apoint vnto you a kyngdome as my father hath appoynted to me: that ye maye eate and drynke at my table in my kyngdome/ and lye on seates/ and iudge the twelue trybes of Israel.

Math. xxi. 2.
Mark. xii. 2.
Luke. xii. 2.

And the Lord sayde: Simon/ Simon beholde Satan hath despyed you/ to sylte you/ as it were wheate: but I haue prayed for the/ that thy fayth faile not. And when thou arte con-uerced/ strengthe thy brethren. And he sayde vnto hym. Lord/ I am redy to go with the into prison/ to death. And he sayde: I tell the Peter/ the cocke shall not crowe thys daye/ tyl thou haue thre denyed I thou knowest me.

Math. xxi. 2.
Mark. xii. 2.
Luke. xii. 2.

And he sayde vnto them: when I sent you without wallet and scrippe & shoes: lacked ye any thinge? And they sayd/ no. And he sayd to them: but now he that hath a wallet let him take it by/ and likewise his scrippe. And he that hath not/ let him sell his coate and bye one. For I saye vnto you/ that yet that whych is wyrtten/ must be performed in me: euen with the wyrtten was he nomi-nyed. For those thynges whych are wyrtten of me/ haue an ende. And they sayde: Lord/beholde here are two sweardes. And he sayde vnto them: it is enough.

Math. xxi. 2.
Mark. xii. 2.
Luke. xii. 2.

And he came out/ & went as he was wote to mounte Olivete. And the disciples folo-wed hym. And when he came to the place/ he sayde to the: praye/ lest ye fall into temptaciō.

And he gate him selfe from them/ about a stones cast/ & kneled doune/ & prayed/ saying Father if thou wilt/ withdrowe this cup from me. Nevertheless/ not my will/ but thine be fulfilled. And ther appeared an angell vnto him from hym from heauen/ confortynge hym. And he was in an agony/ and prayed somwhat lo-ger. And his sweate was lyke dropes of bloud/ trichlynge doune to the grounde. And he rose by from prayer and came to his disciples/ and founde them slepyng/ for sozow/and sayde vnto them: why slepe ye? Wylt and praye/ lest ye fall into temptaciō.

Whyll he yet spake/ beholde/ ther came a cōpany/ & he that was called Judas one of the twelue/ went before them/ and praised nye vnto Iesus to kysse hym. And Iesus sayd vnto him: Judas/ betrayest thou the sonne of man with a kysse? When they whych were about him sawe what wolde folow/ they sayd vnto him: Lord/ shall we smite with swerde? And one of the smote a seruant of the hye prieste of all/ a smote of his ryght eare. And Iesus answered & sayd: suffre ye thus/ for so the scripture is fulfilled. And he touched his eare/ and healed him.

Then Iesus sayde vnto the hye pries & rulers of the temple and the elders whych whych were come to him. Be ye come out/ as vnto a thete with swerdes & staves: when I was dayly with you in the temple/ ye stretched not forth handes agaynst me. But thys is euen your very houre/ and the power of darknes. Then toke they hym/ & ledde hym/and brought hym to the hye pries house.
And Peter folowed a farr of.

When they had kyndled a fyre in the myd-des of the palyse/ & were set doune to gether Peter also sate doune amonge the. And woke of the wenches/ behelde him as he sate by the fyre/ & set good eye syght on him & sayde: this same was also with hym. When he denied him sayinge: woman I knowe hym not. And after a lytell whyle/ another sawe hym and sayde: thou arte also of the. And Peter sayde: man I am not. And about the space of an houre after/ another affirmed sayinge: verely euen thys fellowe was with him/ for he is of Galile. & Peter sayde: man I wote not what thou sayest. And immediately whyll he yet spake/ the cocke crowe. And the Lord turned backe and looked vpon Peter. And Peter re-membred the wordes of the Lord/ how he sayde vnto him/ before the cocke crowe/ thou shalt denye me thre tyme. And Peter went out/and wepte bitterly.

And the men that stood about Iesus/ mocked him/ & smote hym/ & blyndfolded hym/ & smote his face. And asked him sayinge: arte thou that smote the? And many other thynges despyfullye sayd they agaynst him.

And aboute as it was daye the elders of the people and the hye pries & scribes/ came to gether/ & ledde him into their counsell sayinge: arte thou herseyd? tell vs. And he sayde vnto them: yf I shall tell you/ ye wylt not beleue. And yf also I aske you/ ye wylt not answer me/ or let me go. Hereafter shall the sonne of man lye on the ryght hand of the power of God. When sayde they all: arte thou then the sonne of God? He sayd to them: ye saye that I am. When sayde they: what neede we any further witness? We oure selves haue herde of his awne mouth.

Jesus is brought before Pilate and Herode. The women make lamentation for him. He prayeth for his enemyes/ forgiveth the thete vpon his ryght handes/and dyeth on the crosse/ and is buried.

The xxiii. Chapter.

And the whole multitude of the arose/ & ledde him vnto Pilate. And they began to accuse hym sayinge: we haue founde thys fellowe peruer-tinge the people/ and forbyddynge to paye tribute to Cesar/ sayinge/ that he is a kynge of the Jewes. And Pilate appoyled hym sayinge: arte thou a kynge of the Jewes? He answered him and sayde: thou sayest it. When sayde Pilate to the hye pries/ and to the people: I fynde no faulte in this man. And they were mooze scarce sayinge. We moueth the people/teachynge thow out Jewry/ and begainne at Galile/ euen to this place.

Math. xxiii. 2.
Mark. xii. 2.
Luke. xii. 2.

When Pilate hearde mencion of Galile he asked whether the mā were of Galile. And asone as he knewe that he was of Perodes iurisdiction he sent him to Perode/ which was also at Jerusalem in those dayes. And when Perode sawe Iesus/ he was exceedingly glad for he was desyrous to see him of a longe season/ because he had hearde many thynges of hym/ and trusted to haue sene some myracle done by him. Then questioned he with hym of many thynges. But he answered hym not one worde. The hye pries & scribes/stode forth and accused him straptly. And he rod with his men of warre/ despised hym/ and mocked him/ and arrayed hym in whyte/ and sent him agayne to Pilate. And the same daye Pilate and Herod were made frendes to gether. For before they were at variance.

Math. xxiii. 2.
Mark. xii. 2.
Luke. xii. 2.

And Pilate called to gether the hye pries
and the rulers/ & the people/ and sayde vnto them: ye haue brought this man vnto me/ as one that peruerced the people. And beholde/ I haue examined him before you/ & haue founde no faulte in this man/ of those thynges where of ye accuse him. Do not yet Perode. For I sent you to hym: and lo nothinge worthy of death is done to him. I will therfore chaster him/ & let him louse. For of necessitye/ he must haue let one louse vnto them at that feast.

Math. xxiii. 2.
Mark. xii. 2.
Luke. xii. 2.

And all the people cryed at once sayinge:
away with him/ & deliuer to vs Barababas: whych for insurrection made in the cite & mother was call in prison. Pilate spake agayne C. ii. to them to the wyllynge to let Iesus loose. And they cried saying: Crucify him/ Crucify him. He sayde vnto the the thyrde tyme. What euill hath he done? I fynde no cause of death in hi.

Math. xxvi. c. And they cryed w a loude voyce/ a requyred that he myght be crucyfyed. And the voyce of them and of the hye p[re]stes p[re]uayled.

Math. xxvi. c. And Pilate gaue sentence that it shuld be as they requyred & let loose vnto them/ him for insurreccion and mo[r]ther/ was cast into p[re]son/ wh[er]e they despyed: & deliuered Iesus.

Math. xxvi. c. And as they ledde him a waye/ they caught one Symon of Syrene/ cōmyng out of the felde: & on hym layde they the crosse/ to beare it after Iesus.

Math. xxvi. c. And there folowed him a grete cōpany of people & of wemen/ whiche wemen bewayled & lamented him. But Iesus turned backe vnto the/ & sayde: Daughters of Ierusalem/ wepe not for me: but wepe for your selues/ & for your chyldre. For beholde/ & dayes wil come/ when men shall saye: * happy are & baren & the wombes that neuer bare and the pappes which neuer gaue sucke. When shall they be- gonne to saye to & mountaynes/ fall on vs: & to the hylls/ couer vs. For yf they do this to a grene tree/ what shalbe done to the drye.

Math. xxvi. c. And there were two euill doers ledde with him to be clayne. * And when they were come to & place/ which is called Caluary/ ther they crucifyed him/ & & euill doers/ one on & right hande & the other on & lefte.

Math. xxvi. c. When sayde Iesus: father forgiue them/ for they wote not what they do. And they parted his rayment/ & cast loottes. And the people stode & behelde.

Math. xxvi. c. And & rulers mocked him with the saying he holpe other men/ let hym helpe him selfe/ yf he be Christ & chosen of God. The soldiers also mocked him/ and came and gaue him be- neger and sayde: yf thou be that kynge of the Jewes saue thy selfe. And his superscrip[ti]o[n] was wrytten ouer him/ in Greke/ in Latin/ & in Hebreu: This is the kynge of the Jewes.

Math. xxvi. c. And one of the euill doers which hanged/ rayled on him sayinge: If thou be Christ saue thy selfe and vs. The other answerd and re- buked him sayinge: Whether fearest thou God because thou arte in the same damnac[i]o[n]? we are righteously punished/ for we recea- ue accordyng to oure dedes: But this man hath done nothinge amysse. And he sayd vnto Iesus: Lorde remeber me when thou comest into thy kyngdome. And Iesus sayde vnto him: Merely I saye vnto & / to daye shalt thou be with me in * Paradyse.

Math. xxvi. c. And it was about the sixt houre. And there came a darcknes ouer all the lande/ vntyll & mynth houre/ and the sonne was darckened.

Math. xxvi. c. And & bayle of the cōple dyd rent eu[e]r thozow

Math. xxvi. c. the myddes. And Iesus cryed with a grete voyce and sayd: father/ into thy handes I comende my sp[ir]ite. And when he thus had sayd he gaue up the goost.

Math. xxvi. c. When the Centurion sawe what had happened/ he glorified God sayinge: Of a surety this mā was perfecte. And all the people that came to gether to that syght/ beholdinge the thynges whych were done/ smote their brestes/ & returned home.

Math. xxvi. c. And all his acquaintaunce/ and the wemen that folowed hym from Galile/ stode a farte of beholdinge these thynges.

Math. xxvi. c. And beholde ther was a man named Ioseph/ a counsellour/ and was a good mā and a iuste/ & did not consent to the coucell & dede of them/ which was of Aramathia/ a cite of the Jewes: whych same also wyped for the kyngdome of God/ he went vnto Pilate and begged & body of Iesus/ & toke it downe/ & wapped it in a linnen clooth/ & layed it in an hewe toyle/ wherin was neuer man before layed.

Math. xxvi. c. And & daye was & Saboth euen/ & the Saboth daye on. The wemen & folowed after which came with him from Galile/ behelde the sepulchre & how his body was layed.

Math. xxvi. c. And they returned & prepared odoures and oymntes: but rested the Saboth daye/ accordyng to the commaundment.

Math. xxvi. c. The women came to the graue/ & first openeth vnto the two disciples that go towarde Emmaus. And in the myddes of all his dysciples/ openeth their vnder- standyng in the scriptures/ & giveth them a charge/ & ascended by to heauen.

Math. xxvi. c. The xxviii. Chapter. * I morowe after & Saboth/ cryd in the morninge/ they came vnto & toyle & brought & odoures whych they had prepared & other wemen.

Math. xxvi. c. And they founde & stone rowled awaye fro & sepulchre/ & went in: but founde not the body of the Lorde Iesu. And it happened/ as they were amased therat: Beholde two men stode by them in whynge bestures. * And as they were afrayde/ and bowed downe their faces to the erth/ they sayd to them: whych seke ye the leuyng amonge the dede? He is not here: but is risen. Remember how he spake vnto you/ when he was yet with you in Galile/ sayinge: that the sonne of man must be deliuered into the handes of synfull men/ & be crucified/ and the thyrde daye rise agayne.

Math. xxvi. c. And they remembred his wordes/ & return- ed fro the sepulchre/ & tolde all these thynges vnto the eluen & to all the remanant. * It was Mary Magdalen and Joanna/ & Mary Jacobi/ and other that were with them/ whiche tolde these thynges vnto & Apolles/ and their wordes semed vnto them sayng things/ nether beleued they the. When arose Peter and ran vnto the sepulchre/ & stowped in and sawe the linnen clothes layde by them selfe/ and toke/ and departed woldyng in hym selfe at that whych had happened.

Math. xxvi. c. And beholde/ two of them went that same daye to a toun whych was from Ierusalem about thre scoore forlonges/ called Emmaus/ and they talked to gether of all the thynges that had happened.

Math. xxvi. c. And it chaunced/ as they commened to gether and reason- ed/ that Iesus him selfe dyd neare/ & went with them. But their eyes were holden/ that they coude not knowe hym.

Math. xxvi. c. And he sayde vnto them: What maner of communicaciōs are these that ye haue one to another as ye walke/ and are sadde? And the one of them named Cleophas/ answered and sayde vnto hym: arte thou only a strainger in Ierusalem/ and haste not knowen & thynges whych haue chaunced therein in these dayes? To whom he sayd: what thynges?

Math. xxvi. c. And they sayd vnto him: of Iesus of Nazareth whych was a Prophet/ myghty in dede and word before God/ and all the people.

Math. xxvi. c. And how the hye p[re]stes/ and oure rulers deliuered hym to be condemned to death: and haue crucyfyed hym. But we trusted that it shuld haue bene he that shuld haue de- liuered Israel. And as touchyng all these thynges to daye is euen the thyrde daye/ that they were done.

Math. xxvi. c. Ye and certayne wemen also of oure com- pany made vs altonyed/ whych came cry- vnto the sepulchre/ and founde not his body: and came sayinge/ that they had sene a visi- on of angels/ whych sayde that he was aliue.

Math. xxvi. c. And certayne of them whych were with vs/ went their waye to the sepulchre/ and founde it euen so as the wemen had sayde: but hym they sawe not.

Math. xxvi. c. And he sayde vnto them: O folles and slowe of herte to beleue all that the Prophetes haue spoken. Ought not Christ to haue suf- fered these thynges/ and to enter into his glo- ry? And he began at Moses/ and at all the Prophetes/ and interpreted vnto them in all scriptures whych were wrytten of him.

Math. xxvi. c. And they dyd nye vnto the toun whych they wet to. And he made as though he wolde haue gone further. But they constrained hym sayinge/ abyde with vs/ for it draweth to- wardes nyght/ and the daye is late passed.

Math. xxvi. c. And he went in/ to tary with them.

Math. xxvi. c. And it came to passe as he sat at meate with them/ he toke bred/ blessed it/ brake & gaue to them. And their eyes were opened & they knewe hym: and he banyshed out of their syght.

Math. xxvi. c. And they sayde betwene them sel- ues: dyd not oure hertes burne with in vs/ whyll he talked with vs by & waye/ and as he opened to vs the scriptures? And they tooke by the same houre/ & returned agayne to Ierusalem/ and founde the eluen gathe- red to gether/ and them that were with them whych sayde: the Lorde is risen in dede/ and hath apared to Simon. And they tolde what thynges was done in the waye/ and how they knewe him in breakyng of bred.

Math. xxvi. c. As they thus spake. * Iesus hym selfe & stode in the myddes of them/ and sayde vnto them: peace be with you. And they were abaf- fied and afrayde/ supposyng that they had sene a sp[ir]ite. And he sayde vnto them: why are ye troubled/ and why do thoughtes arys in your hertes? Beholde my handes and my fete/ that it is euen my selfe. Handle me and se: for sp[ir]ites haue not fleshe and bones/ as ye se me haue. And when he had thus spoken he shewed them his handes and his fete. And whyll they yet beleued not for loye and won- d[er]/ he sayde vnto them: Haue ye here any meate? And they gaue him a pece of a broy- led fiske/ and of an hony combe. And he toke it/ and ate it before them.

Math. xxvi. c. And he sayde vnto them. These are the wordes which I spake vnto you whyll I was yet with you: that all must be fulfilled which were wrytten of me in the lawe of Moses and in the Prophetes/ and in the Psalmes: * When opened he their wyttes/ that they myght vnderstand the scriptures/ and sayde vnto them: Thus is it wrytten/ and thus is behoued Christ to suffer/ and to rise agayne from death the thyrde daye/ and that repen- tance and remission of synnes shuld be p[re]s- ented in his name amonge all nac[i]o[n]s/ & must be begynne at Ierusalem. And ye are wytnesses of these thynges. And beholde/ I will sende the promes of my father vnto you.

Math. xxvi. c. * But tary ye in the cite of Ierusalem/ vntyll ye be endewed with power from an hye. And he ledde them out into Bethany/ and sp[er]te by his handes and blessed them. * And it came to passe/ as he blessed them/ he departed from the/ and was carryed by into he- uen. And they worshipped him/ and returned to Ierusalem with grete loye/ & were cō- tinually in & temple prayyng & lau- dinge God: Amen.

The Gospell of Sayncte John.

The enelastynge byt of Christ and how he becom me man. The testimony of John. The callinge of An drew. Peter. &c.

The first Chapter.

In the begynnyng was the worde: & the worde was with God: and the worde was God. The same was in the begynnyng with God. All things were made by it: and without it, was made nothinge that was made. In it was lyfe: & the lyfe was the lyght of men: & the lyght shyneth in the darcknes but the darcknes comprehended it not.

There was a man sent from God: whose name was John. The same came as a witness to beare witness of the lyght: that all men through him myght beleue. He was not that lyght: but to beare witness of the lyght. That was a true lyght which lyghteth all men: that came into the worlde. He was in the worlde: and the worlde was made by hym: and yet the worlde knewe hym not.
He came amonge bys a wone: and bys a wone receaued hym not. But as many as recea ued hym: to them he gaue power to be the sonnes of God in that they beleued on bys name: which were borne, not of bloude, nor of the will of the fleshe, nor yet of the will of man: but of God.

And the worde was made fleshe and dwelt amonge vs: and we sawe the glory of it: as the glory of the only begotten sonne of the father: which worde was full of grace and verite.

John bare witness of hym and cryed sayinge: This was he of whome I spake: he that cometh after me: was before me: be cause he was per then I. And of bys fulnes haue al we receaued: euen grace for grace.

For the lawe was geuen by Moyses: but grace and trithe came by Jesus Christ.
No man hath sene God at any tyme. The only begotten sonne: which is in the bosom of the father: he hath declared him.

And this is the recoorde of John: when the Jewes sent Priestes and Leuites fro Je rusalem: to aske hym: what arte thou? And he confessed and denyed not: & sayde playnly I am not Christ. And they asked hym: what then arte thou? He sayde: I am not. And he sayde: I am a prophete. And he answered no. Then sayd they vnto him: what arte thou? that we may geue an answer to them that sent vs: What sayest thou of thy selfe? He sayde: I am a voyce of a cryar in the wilder nes: make straight the waye of the Lord:
as sayde the prophete Esaias.

And they which were sent: were of the Pharises. And they asked hym: and sayde vnto him: why baptisest thou then if thou be not Christ, nor a prophete? John answered thē sayinge: I baptise with water: but one is come amonge you: whom ye knowe not:
he it is that cometh after me: whose sho latter I am not worthy to vnloose. These things were done in Bethabara beyonde Jeru salem: where John doth baptise.

The nexte daye John sawe Jesus com myng vnto him: and sayde: beholde the lambe of God: which taketh awaye the synne of the worlde. This is he of whom I sayd.
After me cometh a man: which was before me: for he was per then I: and I knewe him not: but that he should be declared to Is rael: therefore am I come baptysinge with water.

And John bare recoorde sayinge: I sawe & spake: & sende from heuen: and he bnto a dove: and abyde vpon him: and I knewe hym not. But he that sent me to baptise in water: the same sayde vnto me: upon whom thou halt se the spete descende and tary vpon hym: the same is he which baptiseth with the holy goost. And I sawe and bare recoorde that this is the sonne of God.

The nexte daye after John stode agayne: and two of bys disciples. And he behelde Je sus as he walked by: and sayde: beholde the lambe of God. And the two disciples hearde hym speake and folowed Jesus. And Jesus turned about: and sawe them folow ing: & sayd vnto them: what see ye? They sayd vnto him: Rabbi (which is to saye by interpretacion: Master) where dwellest thou?
He sayde vnto them: come and se. They came & sawe where he dwelt: and abode with him that daye. For it was about the tenth houre.

One of

One of the two which bearde John speake and folowed Jesus: was Andrew Simon Peters brother. The same folowe bys brother Simon: & sayde vnto hym: we haue founde the messias: which is by interpretacion: anointed: and brought hym to Jesus. And Jesus behelde him and sayde: thou arte Si mon the sonne of Jonas: thou shalt be called Cephas: which is by interpretacion: a stone.

The daye folowynge Jesus wolde go into Galile: & founde Philip: and sayd vnto him: folowe me. Philip was of Bethsaida: & cite of Andrew and Peter. And Philip founde Nathanael: and sayde vnto him: we haue founde hym of whome Moyses in the lawe: and the prophetes dyd wyte. Jesus & sonne of Joseph of Nazareth. And Nathanael sayd vnto hym: can there any good thyng come oute of Nazareth? Philip sayde to him: come and se.

Jesus sawe Nathanael comynge to hym:
and sayde of him: beholde a ryght Israelyte:
in whom is no guyle. Nathanael sayde vnto hym: where knewest thou me? Jesus an swered: and sayde vnto him: before that Phi lip called the: when thou wast vnder the figge tree: I sawe the. Nathanael answered and sayd vnto him: Rabbi: thou arte the sonne of God: thou arte the kynge of Israel. Jesus an swered and sayde vnto him: because I sayde vnto the: I sawe the vnder the figge tree: thou beleuest. Thou shalt se greater things then these. And he sayde vnto him: verely: verely: I saye vnto you: hereafter shall ye see heuen open: and the angels of God ascendynge and descendynge ouer the sonne of man.

Christ turneth the water into wyne: and dyueth the byers & sellers out of the temple.

The ii. Chapter.

In the thyrde daye: was ther a ma ryage in Cana a cite of Galile: & the mother of Jesus was there.
And Jesus was called also and his disciples vnto the maryage. And when the wyne fayled: the mother of Jesus sayde vnto him: they haue no wyne. Jesus sayd vnto her: woman: what haue I to do with the? myne houre is not yet come. His mother sayde vnto the mynstres: whatsoeuer he sayeth vnto you: do it. And ther were standynge there: sytt waterpottes of stone after the maner of the purifyng of the Jewes: containynge two or thre syttins a pece.

And Jesus sayde vnto them: fyl the water pottes with water. And they fylled the vnto the top. And he sayde vnto them: drawe out now: & beare vnto the gouernour of the feaste.
And they bare it. When the ruler of the feaste had taked the water that was turned vnto wyne: and knewe not whence it was: but the mynstres which drew the water knewe: he called the bydegrome: and sayde vnto hym: All men at the begynnyng: sett forth good wyne: and when men be dronke: then that which is worse. But thou hast kept backe the good wyne: vntill now.

This begynnyng of myracles dyd Jesus in Cana of Galile: and shewed his glory: and his disciples beleued on him. After that he descended into Capernaum: & his mother:
and his brethren: and his disciples: but con tinued not manye dayes there.

And the Jewes efter were ruen at hande:
and Jesus went vp to Jerusalem: and founde syttynge in the temple those that solde oren and shepe and doves: & chaungers of money.
And he made a scourge of small cordes: and droue the all out of the temple: with the shepe & oren: & powred out the chaungers money: and ouerthrew the tables: and sayde vnto the that solde doves: haue these things hence: & make not my fathers house an house of mar chandys. And his disciples remembred: how that it was wyten: the zeale of thyne house hath euen eaten me.

Then answered the Jewes and sayde vnto hym: what token shewest thou vnto vs: seynge that thou dost these thynges? Jesus answered & sayde vnto them: destroye this temple: and in thre dayes I will reare it vp agayne. Then sayde the Jewes vnto him: peres was this temple abydynge: & wilt thou reare it vp in thre dayes? But he spake of the temple of his body. As sone therfore as he was rylen fro deeth agayne: bys disciples remembred that he thus sayde. And they beleued & scrip ture: and the wordes which Jesus had sayde.

When he was at Jerusalem at easter in the feaste: many beleued on his name: whē they sawe his myracles which he dyd. But Jesus put not hym selfe in their handes: because he knewe all men: and needed not: that any man should testifie of him. For he knewe what was in man.

The comunyng of Christ w Nicodemus. The doctryne and baptysme of John: and what witness he beareth of Christ.

The iii. Chapter.

Ther was a man of the Pharises na med Nicodemus a ruler amonge the Jewes. He came to Je sus by nyght: and sayde vnto hym.
Rabbi: we knowe thou arte a teacher which arte come from God. For no man coulde do suche myracles as thou doest: except God were with hym. Jesus answered & sayd vnto him: verely verely I saye vnto the: except a man be borne a newe: he cannot se the kyngdom of God. Nicodemus sayde vnto him: how can a man be borne when he is olde: can he enter into

into his mothers wombe & be boꝝe agayne?
 ¶ Except a man be boꝝe of water & of the spryte, he cannot enter into the kyngdome of God.
 That which is boꝝe of the fleshe is fleshe: & that which is boꝝe of the spryte / is spryte.

 boꝝe a newe. The wynde bloweth where he lysteth / & thou hearest hys sounde: but canst not tell whẽce he cometh & whether he goeth.
 So is every man that is boꝝe of the spryte.
 And Nicodemus answered and sayde vnto him: how can these thynges be? Iesus answered & sayde vnto him: arte thou a master

After these thynges cam Iesus & hys disciples into the Jewes land / & ther he hausted with thē & baptised. And John also baptised in Enon besydes Salim / because ther was moche water there / & they came & were baptised. ¶ For John was not yett call into prison.

20 And ther arose a questio betwene Johns disciples and the Jewes aboute purifyinge. And they came vnto John/ & sayde vnto him: Rabbi, he that was in the beyonde Jordan/ to whō thou barest wytnes. Beholde he came baptiseth/ & all men come to hym. John answered/ & sayde: a mā can receaue nothyng at all except it be geuē him from heauen. Ye poure selues are witnessles/ how that I saye of the cytie/and came vnto him.

And in þe meane whyle his disciples prayed him saying: Master, eate. He sayde vnto the:
I haue meate to eate/ that ye knowe not of.
Then sayde the disciples betwene the selues: hath eny mā brought him meate: Iesus sayd vnto them: my meate is to do the wyll of him

¶ Many of the Samaritans of that cytle belueued on him / for the saying of the woman / which testified: he tolde me all thynges that euer I dyd. Then when the Samaritans were come vnto him they besought hym / & he wolde tary with them. And he abode there two dayes. And many moo belueued because of his awne wordes / and sayde vnto the woman: Now we beleue not because of thy sayinge: for we haue herde hym oure selues / and knowe that thys is euē in dede Christ the sauioure of the worlde. F

After two dayes he departed thence / and went awaye into Galile: * And Iesus hym selfe testified that a Prophete hath none ho-noure in his owne countre. Then as sone as he was come into Galile / the Galileans re-creaued hym whych had sene all the thynges that he dyd at Ierusalem at y^e least. For they wēt also vnto the feast daye. And Iesus cam agayne into Cana of Galile / wher he turned the water into wyne;

¶ And yet was a certayne ruler/ whose sonne was lycke at Capernaum. As sone as the same herde that Iesus was come out of Jewry into Galile/ he wēt vnto him/ and besought him/ that he wolde descende / & heale hys sonne. For he was euen readye to dye. Then sayde Iesus vnto hym: excepte ye se signes & wonderes/ ye cannot beleue. The ruler sayde vnto him: Syr come awayne or euer that my chyldre dye. Iesus sayd vnto him: Go thy waye/ thy sonne lyueth. And the man beleued the wordes that Iesus had spoken vnto him/ and went his waye. And anon as he went on his waye his seruantes met him / & tolde him sayinge: thy chyldre lyueth. Then enquired he of them the houre when he beganne to amende. And they sayde vnto hym: Yester daye the seuenth houre/ the feuer lefte hym. And the father knewe that it was the same houre in which Iesus sayde vnto him: Thy sonne lyueth. And he beleued / & all hys housholde. This is agayne the seconde myracle that Iesus dyd/ after he was come oute of Jewry into Galile.

¶ He healeth the man that was lycerought a thyrle pers. The Jewes accuse him, he answereth for hym selfe, and reproveth them.

where as you stepped in / was made whole of whatsoeuer disease he had. And a certayne man was there / which had bene dysleasid. xxxviij. yerres. whē Jesus sawe him / he knewe that he now had bene dysleasid / he sayde vnto him. Wylt thou be made whole? The synke man answered him: Syr I haue no man whē I am dysleasid / to put me into the pole. But in the meane tyme / whyll I am aboute to come / another steppeth downe before me. And Jesus sayde vnto him: ryse / take vp thy bedd & walke. And immediatly the man was made whole / & toke vp his bedd / & went. And the samedaye was s̄ Saboth daye. The Jewes therfore sayde to hym that was made whole. It is the Saboth daye / it is not lawfull for the to carry thy bedd. He answered the: he that made me whole / sayde vnto me: take vp thy bedd / & get the. Then asked they hym what man is that which sayd vnto the / take vp thy bedd and walke. And he that was healed / wist not who it was. For Jesus had gotten him selfe awaye / because s̄ ther was p̄sence of people in the place.

And after that / Jesus founde hym in the temple / & sayde vnto him: beholde thou arte made whole / synne no moore / lest a worde thynge happen vnto the. The man departed & tolde the Jewes that it was Jesus / whych had made him whole. & And therfore the Jewes dyspersecuted Jesus / & sought s̄ meanes to see him / because he had done these thyngs on s̄ Saboth daye. And Jesus answered the: my father worketh hiddely / & I worke. Therfore the Jewes sought s̄ moare to kill hym / not only because he had broke the Saboth / but sayde also that God was his father and made him selfe equall with God.

Then answered Jesus & sayde vnto them: verely / verely / I saye vnto you: the sonne can do nothyng of him selfe / but that he seeth s̄ doeth the sonne also. For the father loveth s̄ sonne / and wherewith hym all thynges whatsoeuer he hym selfe doeth. And he will shewe hym greater workes then these / because ye shuld marvaile. For I knowe as the father rapeth vp the deed / & quyketh the / euē to the sonne quyketh whom he wyl. Neither iudgeth the father eny man: but hath commytted all iudgement vnto the sonne / because that all men shuld honoure the sonne / euē as they honoure the father. He that honoureth not the sonne / s̄ same honoureth not s̄ father which hath sent hym. Verely / verely / I saye vnto you: he that heareth my wordes / & beleueth on him that sent me / hath euēlastyng lyfe / and shall not come into dampnacyn: but is scaped from death vnto lyfe.

Verely / verely / I saye vnto you: the tyme shall come / & now is / when s̄ the deed shall heare s̄ voyce of the sonne of God. And they that heare / shall lyue. For as the father hath lyfe in him selfe / so I knowe he geueth to the sonne to haue lyfe in him selfe: and hath geuen hym power also to iudge / in that he is the sonne of man. Marvaile not at this: s̄ houre shall come in / which / all that are in s̄ graues / shall heare his voyce: and shall come forth: they that haue done good vnto s̄ resurrection of lyfe: and they that haue done euill / vnto the resurrection of dampnacyn. I can of myne owne selfe do nothyng at all. As I heare / I iudge: and my iudgement is full / because I seeke not myne owne wyl / but the wyl of s̄ father which hath sent me. If I beare wytnes of my selfe / my wytnes is not true. There is another s̄ beareth wytnes of me / and I am sure that the wytnes which he beareth of me / is true.

Ye sent vnto John / & he bare wytnes vnto the trueth. But I receaue not the recoorde of man. Neuerthelesse / these thynges I saye / that ye myght be safe. He was a burnyng / & a wyngyng lyght / & ye wolde s̄ a season haue reioysed in his lyght. But I haue greater wytnes then the wytnes of John. For the workes which the father hath geuen me to fynde: the same workes s̄ I do / beareth wytnes of me / that the father sent me. And s̄ father hym selfe which hath sent me / beareth wytnes of me. Ye haue not hearde his voyce at eny tyme / nor ye haue seene his shap: wherto hym wordes haue ye not abyding in you. For whō he hath sent hym / ye beleue not.

Soeache s̄ scriptures / for in the p̄scripturē ye haue eternall lyfe: & they are they whych testify of me. And yet will ye not cometo me / that ye might haue lyfe. I receaue not prayse of men. But I knowe you / that ye haue not the loue of God in you. I am come in my fathers name / and ye receaue me not. If another shall come in his owne name / hym wyl ye receaue. How can ye beleue which receaue honoure one of another / and se he not the honoure that cometh of God only? Do not thinke that I wyl accuse you to my father. There is one that accuseth you: euē Moses in whō ye trust. For had ye beleued Moses / ye wolde haue beleued me: for he wrote of me. But saynge ye beleue not hym / saynge: how shuld ye beleue my wordes? Jesus seeth s̄ synne thowshid men departe / & they shuld not make him dysynge / & saye: s̄ soueraynly beareth of his wordes. The carnall are offended at him.

And whē they had founde hym on s̄ ocher syde of the see / they sayde vnto hym: Rabbi / whē camest thou hyder? Jesus answered the: and sayde: verely / verely / I saye vnto you: ye seke me / not because ye sawe the myracle: but because ye ate of s̄ loaves / & were fylled. Labour not for the meate which perysheth / but for the meate that endureth vnto euēlastyng lyfe / which meate the sonne of man shall geue vnto you. For hym hath God the father sealed.

Then sayde they vnto him: what shall we do s̄ we myght worke the workes of God? Jesus answered and sayde vnto them. This is the worke of God / that ye beleue on him / whō he hath sent. They sayde vnto him: what shal we do / that we maye see s̄ signes wherewith thou then / that we maye se a beleue the? I what doest thou worke? Dure fathers dyspersecuted Hanna in the desert / as it is writte: He gaue them breed from heauen to eate. For the breed of God is he which cometh downe from heauen / and geueth lyfe vnto the worlde.

When they had eate enough he sayde vnto his disciples / gather vp the broken meate that remaineth: that nothyng be lost. And they gathered it to gether / and fylled twelue bassettes with the broken meate / of the s̄ue bary loaves: which broken meate remayned vnto them that had eate. Then the men / whē they had seene the myracle s̄ Jesus dyspersecuted: this is of a trueth the p̄phete that shuld come into the worlde. I whē Jesus perceaued s̄ they wolde come / & take him by to make him dysynge / he departed agayne into a mountayne hym selfe alone. And whē euē was come his disciples went vnto the see & entred into a shippe / and went ouer the see vnto Capernaum. And anon it was darcke / & Jesus was not come to them. leueth on me / hath euertlastyng lye. I am b bzed of lye. Your fathers dyd eate Manna in the wyldernes and are dede. Chys is that bzed which cometh from heauen that he which eateth of it / shulde also not dye. I am that lyeuynge bzed which came doune from heauē. If eny man eate of this bzed / he shall liue for euer. And the bzed that I will geue / is my fleshe / which I will geue for the lye of the worlde.

And the Jewes stroue amogethem selues saying: How can this selow geue his fleshe to eate? Then Iesus sayde vnto the: I wene-ly / herely I saye vnto you / except ye eate the fleshe of sonne of mā & drynke his bloude / ye shall not haue lye in you. Whosoever ea-teth my fleshe & drynke my bloude / hath eternall lye: & I will rayse him bp at I last daye. For my fleshe is meate in dede: & my bloude is drynke in dede. He that eateth my fleshe & drynke my bloude / dwelleth in me and I in him. As the lyeuynge father hath sent me / euen so I lye by my father: and he that eateth me shall lye by me. Chys is b bzed which cam from heauē: not as your fathers haue eaten Manna & are dede. He b eateth of this bzed / shall lye euer.

These thynges sayd he in the synagoge as he taught in Capernaum. Many therfoze of his disciples: whē they had herde this / sayde: this is an harde sayinge: who can abyde the hearyng of it? Iesus knewe in hym selfe / b his disciples murmured at it / and sayd vnto he: Doth thys offend you? What and yf offende you? ye shall se the sonne of mā ascende by where he was before: It is b spete b quycheneth / the fleshe profecteth nothinge. The wordes b I speake vnto you / are spete and lye. But there are some of you that beleue not. For Ie-sus knewe from the beginninge / which they were that beleued not / & who shulde betraye him. And he sayd: therfoze sayde I vnto you: that no mā can come vnto me / except it were geuen vnto him of my father.

After that / Iesus went about into

hym. The Jewes tabernacle feast redy. The worlde can not hate you. But me it hateth: because I testify of it / that b woꝝkes of it are euill. So ye bp vnto this feast. I will not go bp yet vnto this feast / for my tyme is not yet full come. These wordes he sayde vnto the: & abode still in Galile. But as sone bp vnto the temple and taught. And b Jewes marueyled saying: How knoweth he the scriptures / seynge that he neuer learned? Iesus answered them / & sayde: My doctrine is not myne: but his that sent me: If eny man wyll whether it be of God / or whether I speake of my selfe. He b speaketh of him selfe / secketh his atone prayse. But he b secketh his prayse that sent him / the same is true & no bzythē.

Iesus knewe in hym selfe.

Whyd not Moses geue you a lawe / & yet none of you b hepech the lawe: why go ye about to kyll me. The people answered & sayde to hym: thou hast the deuill: who goeth aboute to kyll the? Iesus answered & sayde to them: I haue done one woꝝke / & ye all maruayle.
Moses therfoze gaue vnto you circūcysion not because it is of Moses: but of b fathers.
And yet ye on the Saboth daye / circūcysse a man. If a mā on the Saboth daye receaue circūcysion without bꝛeakynge of b lawe of Moses: whyd ye not at me / because I haue made a man euer whyt whoale on the Sa-both daye? Iudge not after b bitter apꝛaue: but Iudge ryghtewys Iudgement.

Then sayde some of them of Ierusalem: Is not this he whom they go about to kyll? Be-holde he speaketh boldly / & they saye nothing to him.

to him. Do the rulers knowe in dede b this is very Chyist? How beit we knowe this mā whence he is: but whē Chyist cometh / no mā shall knowe whence he is.

Then cryed Iesus in b tēple as he taught saying: ye knowe me / and whence I am ye knowe. And yet I am not come of my selfe / but he that sent me is true / whom ye knowe not. I knowe him: for I am of him / & he hath sent me. Then they sought to take hym: but no mā layde handes on him / because his tyme was not yet come. Many of the people beleued on him & sayde: whē Chyist cometh / will he do moore myꝛacles then this mā hath done?

The Pharises hearde that b people murmured suche thynges about him. Wherfoze the Pharises and hye pꝛiestes sent ministers for to take hym. Then sayde Iesus vnto the: Yet am I a lytell whyle to you / & then go I vnto him b sent me. Ye shall seke me / & shall not fynde me: & where I am / thither can ye not come. Then sayde the Jewes be-twene them selues: whither wyll he go / that we shall not fynde him? I wyll he go amonge the gentyls which are scattered all abꝛoade / & teache the gentyls: What maner of saying is this that he sayd: ye shall seke me / & shall not fynde me: and where I am thither can ye not come?

In the last daye / b great daye of the feast Iesus stode and cryed sayinge: If eny man thyrst / lett him come vnto me & drynke. He that beleueth on me / as sayeth the scripture out of his belly shall flowe ryuers of water of lye. Chys spake he of the spete whych they that beleued on hym / shulde receaue. For foz b holy goost was not yet there / because that Iesus was not yet glorified.

Many of the people / when they hearde this saying sayd: of a truth this is a prophet: other sayde: this is Chyist: some sayde: shall Chyist come out of Galile? Sayeth not b scripture that Chyist shall come of the seed of Dauid: & oute of the toun of Bethleem where Dauid was? So was ther dysencion amonge the people about him. And some of the wolde haue taken him: but no mā layde handes on him. Then came the mynisters to the hye pꝛiestes & Pharises. And they sayd vnto him: why haue ye not brought him? He seruautes answered: neuer man spake as this mā doeth. Then answered the Phar-ises: are ye also dysceaued? Doth eny of the rulers or of b Pharises beleue on hym? But the comen people which knowe not b lawe: are cursed. Nicodemus sayde vnto them: He that came to Iesus by nyght / & was one of them. Doth our lawe Iudge eny mā before it heare hym / and knowe what he hath done?
They answered and sayd vnto him: arte thou also of Galile? Searche and loke / for out of Galile aryseth no pꝛophete. And euery man went vnto his atone houle.

A woman is taken in adoutry / Chyist deluereyth her. The freedom of loche as folowe I byll: whē they accuse to haue the deuill with him / and go aboute to stone hym.

The. viij. Chapter.
And Iesus went vnto mounte oly-uete / & ery in the moꝝnyng came agayne into the temple and all the people cam vnto hym / and he late doun & taught the. And the Scribes & Pharises bzought vnto him a woman takē in aduoutry / & set hyr in the myddes & sayde vnto him: Mafter / this womā was takē in aduou-try / eue as b dede was adouynge. Moses in lawe commaunded vs that suche shulde be stoned. What sayest thou therfoze? And thys they sayde to tempt him: b they myght haue wherof to accuse him. Iesus stouped doun / and with his synger wꝛote on the grounde.
And whyll they continued askynge him / he lyste him selfe bp / & sayde vnto the: let him b is amonge you without synne / cast the fyrst stone at her. And agayne he stouped doun & wꝛote on the grounde. And as sone as they hearde that / they wēt out one by one / b eldest fyrst. And Iesus was lefte alone / & the womā standynge in the myddes. When Iesus had lyste by hym selfe agayne / and sawe no man / but the woman / he sayde vnto hir: woman where are those thine accusars? Hath no mā condempned the? She sayde: No mā Lorde.
And Iesus sayde: Wether do I condēpne the.
Go / and synne no moare.

Then spake Iesus agayne vnto the sayig: go I am the lyeht of the worlde. He b foloweth me / shall not walke in darcknes: but shall haue b light of lye. The Pharises sayde vnto him: thou bearest recorde of thy selfe / thy recorde is not true. Iesus answered & sayde vnto the: though I beare recorde of my selfe / yet my recorde is true: for I knowe whence I cam & whither I go. But ye canot tell whēce I come and whither I go. Ye Iudge after the fleshe / I Iudge no man. And yet I Iudge / my Iudgement is true. For I am not alone: but I & the father b sent me. It is also wꝛyitten in your lawe / that the testimony of two men is true. I am one b beate wytnes of my selfe / & the father that sent me / beareth wytnes of me. Then sayde they vnto hym: where is thy father? Iesus answered: ye neither knowe me / nor yet my father. If ye had knowen me / ye shulde haue knowen my father also. These wordes spake Iesus in b testury / as he taught in the temple / and no man layde handes on him / for his tyme was not yet come.

Then sayde Iesus agayne vnto them:
I go

¶ I go my way / & ye shall see me / & shall dye in youre synnes. Whither I go / thither can ye not come. Then sayde the Jewes: will he kill him selfe / because he sayth: whither I go / thither can ye not come? And he sayde vnto them: ye are frō beneth / I am frō aboue Ye are of this world / I am not of this world.
I sayd therfore vnto you / that ye shall dye in youre synnes. For except ye beleue that I am he / ye shall dye in youre synnes.

Then sayd they vnto him, who arte thou? And Iesus sayde vnto the: Cu? the very same thyng that I saye vnto you. I haue many thynges to saye/ and to iudge of you. Ye & he þe sent me is true. And I speake in þe world/ those thynges which I haue hearde of hym. How beit they vnderstode not that he spake of his father. Then sayd Iesus vnto the: whē ye haue lyft vp an hē the sonne of mā/ then shall ye knowe that I am he / & that I do no thyng of my selfe; but as my father hath taught me/ euē so I speake: and he that sene me/ is with me. & he father hath not lefte me alone/ for I do all wayes those thynges that please hym. ¶ As he spake these wordes/ many beleueyd on him.

¶ Then sayde Iesus to those Jewes which belueued on hym. If ye continue in my wordes/then are ye my very disciples / & shall knowe the trueth : & the trueth shall make you free.
¶ They answered hym: we be Abrahams seede/and were neuer bonde to any mā: why sayest thou then / ye shall be made fre.

Roma. vi. 1. Jesus answered the: berely / berely I saye
 p. Met. 4. d. vnto you / that whosoever comyteth synne / ¶ is the seruaunte of synne. And the seruaunt abyedeth not in þe house so; euer: But þe sonne abyedeth euer: If þe sonne therfore shall make you fre, then are ye fre in dede. I knowe that ye are Abrahams seede: but ye seke meanes to kill me / because my sayings haue no place in you. I speake that I haue sene wþ my father: and ye do that which ye haue sene id youre father. They answered and sayde vnto him: Abraham is oure father. Iesus sayde vnto them, If ye were Abrahams chyldren ye wolde do the dedes of Abraham. But now ye go aboute to kyll me / a man that haue tolde you the truthe whych I haue herde of God: this dyd not Abraham. Ye do þe dedes of youre father. Then sayde they to him: we were not borne of fornicacyon. We haue one father / which is God. Iesus sayde vnto them: yf God were youre father / then wolde ye loue me.
 For I proceeded forth and come from God.
 Nether came I of my selfe / but he sent me.
 Why do ye not knowe my speache? Euþ because ye cannot abyde þe hearing of my word.

Ye are of your father the deuyll/and the lustes of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the begynnyng/ and abode not in the trueth / because there is no trueth in him. whē he speaketh a lye/ then speaketh he of his a'tone. for he is a lyar/ and a father therof. And because I tell you the trueth/therfore ye beleue me not.

¶ Why if you can rebuke me of synne? If I saye þe trueth/why do not ye beleue me? *He þe is of God heareth Goddes wordes. I. Ye therfore heare the not/because ye are not of God. Then answered the Jewes and sayd vnto him: Saye we not well that thou arte a Samaritan and hast þe deuyll? Iesus answered: I haue not the deuyll: but I honour my father/ & ye haue dishonoured me. I seeke not myne owne prayle: but ther is one that seeketh and iudgeth.

Merely bereft I came vnto you / yf a man kepe my sayings / he shall neuer be deeth.
Then sayde the Jewes to hym, Now knowe we that thou hast the druyll. Abrahā is deeth / and also the Prophetes: and yet thou sayest / yf a mā kepe my saying / he shall neuer taste of deeth. Arte thou greater then our father Abraham / which is deeth: and the Prophetes are deeth. Whom makest thou thy selfe.

Jesus answered: If I honour my selfe/myne honour is nothinge worth. It is my father that honoureth me/ wherch ye saye/ is poure God/ and ye haue not knowe him: but I knowe him. And ye I shuld saye/ I knowe hym not/ I shulde be a lyar lyke vnto you.
But I knowe him/ and kepe his sayinge.

Your father Abraham was glad to see my daye: he sawe it and reioyced. Then sayde the Jewes vnto him: thou arte not yet. I perceiue olde; and hast thou sene Abraham? Iesus sayde vnto the Jewes: verely verely I saye vnto you: yet Abraham was. I am. Then toke they by stones to caste at him. But Iesus hid him selfe and went out of the temple.

Chris maketh the man to se þ was bozne blynde.
The ix. Chapter.
As Iesus passed by / he sawe a man which was blynde from hys birth. And his disciples asked him sayinge: Master / who dyd synne:
this man or his father & mother / that he was bozne blynde: Iesus answered: Neither hath this man synned / nor yet his father and mother: but that the woorkes of God shulde be shewed on him. I must woрке the woorkes of him þ sent me / whill it is daye. * & he night cometh when noman can woрке. As longe as I am in the woilde / I am the lycht of the woilde.

As sone as he had thus spokē / he spatte on the the grounde and made claye of the spetle / he rubbed the claye on the eyes of the blinde / he sayde vnto him: Go wiche the in the pole of Spiot, which by interpretation, signifyeth sent. He went his way & washed and came agayne seynge. The neyghbours & they had sene him before how & he was a begger/sayde: is not this he & sate & begged? Some sayde: this is he. Other sayde: he is lyke him.

But he him selfe sayde: I am euē he. They sayde vnto hym. How are thyne eyes opened then? He answered and sayde. The man þ is called Iesus/made claye/and anointed myne eyes/a sayde vnto me. Go to the pole Siloe and wesse. And I went and wessed and re-ceaued my syght. They sayd vnto him: where is he? He sayde: I can not tell.

Then brought they to þe Pharisees / hym & a tyeell befoze was bynde: for it was þe Sa-bath day when Iesus made the claye & opened his eyes. Then agayne the Pharisees also asked hym how he had receaued his syght. He sayde vnto the: He put claye vpon myne eyes & I washed / & do se. Then sayde some of the Pharisees: thys mā is not of God / because he kepereth not the Sabbath daye. Other sayde: how can a man þe is a synner / do suche myra-cles? And ther was stryfe amonge the. Then spake they vnto the bynde agayne: What sayst thou of hym / because he hath opened thyne eyes? And he sayde: He is a Prophet.

But the Jewes dyd not beleue of þe felow/how that he was blynde and receaued hys syght/vntyll they had called the father & mother of him that had receaued his syght. And they asked them sayng: Is this youre sonne/whom ye saye was borne blynde? How doth he now se then? Hys father and mother answered them & sayde, we wote well that this is oure sonne, & þe he was borne blynde: but by what meante he now seyth that can we not tell, oʒ who hath opened his eyes, can we not tell. He is olde ynough/aske him, let him answere for him selfe. Suche wordes spake his father and mother, because they feared þe Jewes. For the Jewes had cōspyr'd all reb-bel that of any man dyd confesse þe he was Christ he shuld be excommunicat out of the synagoge. & therfore sayde his father and mother: he is olde ynough/aske him.

Then agayne called they the man & was blinde / & sayd vnto him: Seue Godd p prayle: we know & this mā is a sinner. He answered and sayde: Whypther he be a sinner oz no / I cannot tell: One thyng I am sure of / that I was blynd / & now I se. Then sayd they to him agayne. What dyd he to the? How opened he thyne eyes? He answered them / I tolde you yer whylle / and ye dyd not heare. Wherefore wold ye heare it agayne? Wylle ye also be his disciples? Then rated they him / & sayd: Thou arte hys dysciple. We be Moles discyples.
 We are sure that God spake wth Moles.

This fellow we knowe not fro whence he is The man answered and sayde vnto them: this is a meruelous thinge that ye wote not wher he is, seeing he hath opened myne eyes.
 For we be sure þ God heareth not synners.
 But ys eny mā be a worshippinger of God a do his will, him heareth he. Sence þ worlde be-ganne was it not heard that eny mā opened the eyes of one that was borne blind. If this mā were not of God, he coulde haue done no thinge. They answered and sayde vnto hym: thou arte all together borne in synne / a dost thou teache vs. And they cast him out.

Jesus hearde that they had excommunicate him: & alone as he had founde hym, he sayde vnto hym: doest thou beleue on the sonne of God? He answered & sayde: I Who is it Lord? & I myght beleue on hym? And Jesus sayde vnto him: Thou hast sene hym, & he it is that talketh to the. And he sayde: Lord I beleue. & worshipped him. & Jesus sayd: I am come vnto iudgement into this worlde: that they which se not myght se, & they which se might be made blynde. And some of the Pharisees which were with him, hearde these wordes & sayde vnto hym: are we then blynde? Jesus sayde vnto them: yf ye were blynde ye shulde haue no synne. But now ye saye, we se, therefore youre synne remaineth.

¶ Christ is the true shepherde / & the doore of the shepe / Some saye: Christ hath the deuill / & is inada / Some saye: he speaketh not the wordes of one that hath the deuill. Because he telleth the truth / the Jewes take by stones to cast at him / call his preaching blasphemie / and go about to take him.

¶ The x. Chapter. †
Verely verely I saye vnto you: he þ entreteth not in by the doze into the shepefolde / but clymeth by some other waye: the same is a thefe & a robber. He þ goeth in by the doze / is þ shepeherde of the shepe: to him the porter openeth / & the shepe heare his voyce / & he calleth hys awone shepe by name / & leadeth the out. And when he hath sent forth hys awone shepe / he goeth before the / & the shepe folowe him: for they knowe his voyce. ¶ A stranger they will not folowe / but will flye from hym: for they knowe not þ voyce of strangers. ¶ This simi-litude spake Iesus vnto the. But they vnder-stode not what thynges they were whych he spake vnto the. ¶ Then sayd Iesus vnto them agayne. Verely verely I saye vnto you: I am the doze of þ shepe. All/euē as many as came before me / are theues & robbers: but þ shepe dyd not heare the. I am þ doze: by me yf any ma enter in / he shall be safe / & shall go in & out & fynde pasture. ¶ He these cometh not but for to steale / & kill / and destroye. I am come that they myght haue lyfe / and haue it more abundantly. †

I am the good shepheerd. The good shepheerd giveth his life for the shepe. An hyred servaunt / which is not a shepherd / neither the shepe are his owne / seyth the wolfe comynge / & leueth the shepe / & flyeth / and the wolfe catcheth the / & scattereth the shepe. The hyred servaunt flyeth / because he is an hyred servaunt / & careth not for the shepe. I am a good shepheerd / and knowe myne / and am knowne of myne. * As my father knoweth me: euē so know I my father. And I geue my life for the shepe: & other shepe I haue / which are not of this fold. Them also must I bring / that they maye heare my voyce / & that they maye be one flocke and one shepheerde. Therefore doth my father loue me / because I put my life from me / that I myght take it agayne. No mā taketh it from me: but I put it awaye of my selfe. I haue power to put it from me / and haue power to take it agayne: This commaundement haue I receaued of my father. And there was a discorde agayne amonge the Jewes for these saynges / & many of them sayde. He hath the deuill / & is made: why heare ye him? Other sayd / these are not the wordes of him that hath the deuill. Can the deuill open the eyes of the blynde?

And it was at Jerusalem the feaste of the dedicacion / and it was winter: & Iesus walked in Salomons porche. Then came the Jewes crounde aboute him / and sayd vnto him: How longe dost thou make vs doute? If thou be Christ / tell vs playnly. Iesus answered the: I tolde you and ye beleue not. The woordes I do in my fathers name / they beare witness of me. But ye beleue not / because ye are not of my shepe. As I sayde vnto you: my shepe heare my voyce / & I knowe them / and they folow me / and I geue vnto the eternall life / & they shall neuer perishe / neither shall any man plucke them oute of my hande. My father whiche gaue them me / is greater then all / & no mā is able to take them oute of my fathers hande. And I and my father are one.

Then the Jewes agayne toke by stones / to stone hym with all. Iesus answered the: many good woordes haue I shewed you fro my father: for which of the wyll ye stone me? The Jewes answered hym sayinge. For thy good woordes sake we stone the: but for thy blasphemie / & because thou beynge a mā / makest thy selfe God. Iesus answered them. Is it not witten in youre lawe. * I saye / ye are Goddes: If he called them Goddes vnto whō the word of God was spoken (as the scripture can not be broken) saye ye then to hym / whō the father hath sanctified / and sent into the worlde / thou blasphemest / because I sayd I am the sonne of God? If I do not the woordes of my father / beleue me not. But if I do / then though ye beleue not me yet beleue the woordes / that ye maye knowe & beleue that the father is in me / and I in him.

Agayne they wēt aboute to take him: but he escaped out of their hōdes / & went awaye agayne beyonde Jordan / into a place where John befoze had baptised / & there abode. And many resorted vnto him / & sayd. John dyd no miracle: but all thyngs that John spake of this mā / are true. And many beleued on his heare.

Christ raiſeth Lazarus fro death. The hye prestes and pharises gather a counsell agaynst him: he getteth him out of the waie.

The xii. Chapter.

A certayne man was sicke / named Lazarus of Bethania / & sōne of Mary and her syster Martha. It was the Mary which anoynted Iesus with oymment & wyped his fete with her heere / whose brother Lazarus was sicke / & his sisters sent vnto him sayinge. Lord be- holde he whō thou louest / is sicke. When Iesus hearde the / he sayde: this infirmite is not vnto death / but for the laude of God / that the sonne of God might be praysed by the reason of it. Iesus loued Martha and her syster and Lazarus. Then after he had hearde that he was sicke / yet abode he two dayes still in the same place where he was.

Then after the / sayd he to his disciples: Let vs go into Ierusalem agayne. His disciples sayd vnto hym: Master / the Jewes lately sought meanes to stone the / & wilt thou go thither agayne? Iesus answered / are ther not twelue houres in the daye? If a mā walke in the daye / he stōmbleth not / because he seyth the lyght of this worlde. But if a mā walke in the night / he stōmbleth / because ther is no lyght in hym. This sayde he / & after that / he sayd vnto the: oure friende Lazarus slepeth / but I goo to wake him oute of slepe. Then sayde his disciples: Lord if he slepe / he shall do well ynough. How best Iesus spake of his death: but they thought he had spoken of a naturall slepe. Then sayd Iesus vnto the playnly / Lazarus is deed / & I am glad for your sake / for I was not there / because ye maye beleue. Neuerthelesse let vs go vnto him. Then sayd Thomas which is called Didymus / vnto the disciples: let vs also go / for we maye dye with him. Then went Iesus / & a sōunde that he had tyne in his graue foure dayes already. Bethania was nye vnto Ierusalem / aboute twofurlonges of / & many of the Jewes were come to Martha and Mary to comforte the ouer their brother. Martha alone as she hearde that Iesus was comynge / went & met hym: but Mary sat still in the house.

Then sayd Martha vnto Iesus: Lord if thou haddest bene here / my brother had not bene

if I had beene here / my brother had not bene deed: but neuerthelesse / I knowe what soeuer thou askest of God / God wyll geue it the. Iesus sayde vnto her: Thy brother shall ryse agayne. Martha sayd vnto him: I knowe that he shall ryse agayne in the resurrection at the last daye. Iesus sayde vnto her: * I am the resurrection & the life: he that beleueth on me / ye though he were dead / yet shall he liue. And whoso euer lyueth and beleueth on me / shall neuer dye. Beleuest thou this? She sayd vnto him: yee Lord / I beleue that thou art the Christ the sonne of God which shouldest come into the worlde. And as she had so sayde / she went her waye & called Marie her syster secretly sayinge: The master is come & calleth for the. And she as she hearde the / arose quickly / & came vnto hym. Iesus was not yet come into the house: but was in the place where Martha met hym. The Jewes then which were with her in the house & comforted her / when they sawe Mary / that she rose vp hastily / and went out / folowed her / sayinge: She goeth vnto the graue / to wepe there.

Then whē Mary was come where Iesus was / she fell doune at his fete / sayng vnto him: Lord if thou haddest bene here / my brother had not bene deed. Whē Iesus sawe her wepe / and the Jewes also wepe / which came with her / he groined in the spete / & was troubled in him selfe & sayde: Where haue ye layed hym? They sayde vnto hym: Lord come & se. And Iesus wept. Then sayd the Jewes: Beholde how he loued hym. And some of the sayd: coulde not he which opened the eyes of the blynde / haue made also / that this man shuld not haue dyed? Iesus agayne groined in him selfe / & came to the graue. It was a caue and a stone layde on it.

And Iesus sayde: take ye awaye the stone. Martha the syster of him / who was deed / sayde vnto him: Lord by this tyme he styncketh. For he hath bene deed foure dayes: Iesus sayd vnto her: Sayde I not vnto the / that if thou dydest beleue / thou shouldest se the glory of God. Then they toke awaye the stone fro the place where the deed was layde. And Iesus lyfte vp his eyes and sayd: Father I thanke the because that thou hast hearde me. I wot that thou hearest me all wayes: but because of the people that stande by / I sayde it / that they maye beleue / that thou hast sent me.

And when he thus had spoken / he cryed with a loude voyce. Lazarus come forth. And he who was deed / came forth / bounde hande and fote with graue bondes / & his face was bounde with a napkin. Iesus sayde vnto the: loose him / & let him go. Then many of the Jewes which came to Mary / and had sene the thing which Iesus dyd / beleued on him. But some of them went their wayes to the pharises / and tolde them what Iesus had done.

Then gathered the hye prestes & the pharises a counsell & sayd: what do we? This mā doeth many miracles. If we lett hym scape thus / all men will beleue on him / and the Romaynes shall come & take awaye oure citie & the people. And one of the named Cayphas which was the hye prest that same yere / sayd vnto them: Ye perceaue nothinge at all / nor yet consyder that it is expedient for vs / that one mā dye for the people / & not that all the people perishe. This spake he not of hym selfe / but beyng he prest that same yere / he prophesied that Iesus shoulde dye for the people / & not for the people only / but that he shuld gather to gether in one the chyldre of God which were scattered abrode. * fro the daye forth they held a counsell to gether / for to put him to death.

Iesus therfore walched no more openly amonge the Jewes: but wēt his waye thence vnto a cōstrenye to a wilderness / into a cite called Ephraim / & there haunted whys disciples. And the Jewes efter was nye at hand / & many wēt out of the countrey to Ierusalem befoze the efter / to purify the selues. When sought they for Iesus / & spake betwene the selues as they stode in the temple: What thinke ye / seying he cometh not to the feaste. The hye prestes & pharises had geuen a commaundement / that if any man knew where he were / he shuld shewe it / that they myght take him.

Martha anoynteth Iesus fete. Judas murmureth / & sayd vnto Iesus: I wote thou art in Jerusalem.

The xiii. Chapter.

When Iesus sixe dayes befoze efter / came to Bethany where Lazarus was / which was deed & whō Iesus raiſed from death. There they made him a supper / and Martha serued: but Lazarus was one of them that sat at the table with him. Then toke mary a pōunde of oymment called Nardus / perfecte & precious / & anoynted Iesus fete / and wyped his fete with her heere & the house was fylled of the sauer of the oymment. * Then sayde one of his disciples named Judas Iscarioth Simeons sonne / which afterward betrayed him: why was not this oymment tolde for thye hundred pence / & geue to the poore? This sayde he / not that he cared for the poore: but because he was a thefe / & kept the bagge / and bare that which was geue. Then sayde Iesus: Let her alone / agaynst the daye of my buryng she kept it. The poore all wayes shall haue with you / but me shall ye not all wayes haue.

Moche people of the Jewes had knowen / & ledge that he was there. And they came / not for Iesus sake only / but that they myght se Lazarus also whom he raiſed from death. The hye prestes therfore held a counsell that they might put Lazarus to death also because that for his sake many of the Jews went away/and beleued on Iesus.

* On the morrow/moche people that were come to the feast when they heard that Iesus should come to Jerusalem/toke bzaunches of palme trees & went & met him/& cryed Hosanna/blessed is he that in the name of the Lord/commeth kynge of Israel. And Iesus got a poyge alle & sate thereon/ accordeynge to that which was wyrtten: feare not daughter of Syon/beholde thy kynge cometh sitting on an asses coltre. These thynges vnderstode not his disciples at the tyme: but when Iesus was glorified/then remembred they that soche thynges were wyrtten of him/and that soche thynges they had done vnto him. The people that was with him when he called Lazarus out of his graue/& raysed him fro death/bare recoorde. Wherefore met hym the people / because they heard that he had done soche a myracle. The Pharisees therfore sayde amōge them selues perceaue ye how we pzeuayle nothyng: Beholde the worlde goth away after him.

¶ Yet were certayne Grekes amōge them/that came to praye at the feast: the same came to Philip which was of Bethsaida a citie in Galile/& desired him saying: Syr we wolde sayne se Iesus. Philip came & tolde Andrey. And agayne Andrey & Philip tolde Iesus. And Iesus answered them saying: the houre is come that the sonne of man must be glorified.

* Merely verely I saye vnto you/except that wheate corne fall into the grounde and dye/it bydeth alone. If it dye/it bringeth forth moche fruite. He that loueth his lyfe shall destroye it: & he that hateth his lyfe in this worlde/shall kepe it vnto lyfe eternall. If any man minister vnto me / lett hym folowe me and where I am ther shall also my minister be. And yf any man minister vnto me / hym will my father honoure.

¶ Now is my soule troubled / and what shall I saye? Father deliuer me fro this houre: but therfore came I vnto this houre. Father glorify thy name. When cam ther a voyce fro heauē: I haue glorified it & will glorify it agayne. When sayd the people that stode by & heard: it thoundreth. Other sayde an angell spake to hym. Iesus answered & sayde: this voyce cam/not because of me/but for your sakes.

* Now is the iudgement of this worlde: now shall the prince of this worlde be cast out/ And I yf I were lyfte by from the erth/will drawe all men vnto me. This sayde Iesus/ signifyinge what death he should dye. The people answered him: we haue heard oute of the lawe that Christ bydeth euer/& how sayest thou then that the sonne of man must be lyfte by: who is that sonne of man? Then Iesus sayde vnto them: yet a lytell whyle is the lyght with you. Walke whyll ye haue lyght/lest that darcknes come on you. He that walketh in the darcke / wotteth not whither he goeth. Whyll ye haue lyght beleue on the lyght / & ye maye be the chyldren of the lyght.

¶ These thynges spake Iesus & departed/ & hyd him selfe from them. And though he had done so many miracles before them / yet beleued not they on him: & the sayinge of Esaias the prophet myght be fulfilled: & he spake.

* Lord who shall beleue our sayinge? And to who is the arme of the Lord opened? Therfore could they not beleue/because that Esaias sayth agayne: he hath blinded their eyes and hardened their hertes/that they shoulde not se with their eyes/ & vnderstande with their hertes & shoulde be conuerted/and I shoulde heale them. Soche thyngs sayd Esaias when he sawe his gloze/spake of him. Neuerthelesse amōge the chiefe rulers many beleued on him. But because of the Pharisees they wolde not be a knowe of it/lest they shoulde be excommunicat. For they loued the pryde that is geue of men/more then the pryde that cometh of God.

¶ And Iesus cryed & sayde: he that beleueth on me/beleueth not on me / but on him that sent me. And he that seith me / seith him that sent me. I am come a lyght into the worlde: that whosoeuer beleueth on me / shoulde not byde in darcknes. And yf any man heare my word / & beleue not / I iudge him not. For I came not to iudge the worlde: but to saue the worlde. He that refuseth me & receaueth not my wordes/hath one that iudgeth him. The wordes that I haue spoken / they shall iudge him in the laste daye. For I haue not spoken of my selfe: but the father which sent me/he gaue me a commaundment what I shoulde saye/& what I shoulde speake. And I knowe that this commaundment is lyfe euerlastyng. Whatsoeuer I speake therfore/euen as the father bade me/so I speake.

¶ Christ wotteth the disciples fete/telleth them of Judas the traytour/and commaundeth them earnestly to loue one another.

¶ Before the feast of easter when Iesus knewe that his houre was come/that he should departe oute of this worlde vnto the father. When he loued hym which were in the worlde/vnto the ende he loued them. And when supper was ended / after that the deuyl had put in the hert of Judas Iscarioth Simons sonne/to betraye him: Iesus knowinge that the father had geue all thyngs in to his handes/& that he was come fro God/and went to God: he rose from supper/& sayde a syde his upper garmentes/& toke a towell/and geyde hym selfe. After that / he poured water into a bafyn/& began to wash his disciples fete/& to wype them with the towell/wherwith he was geyde.

¶ Then came he to Simon Peter. And Peter sayde to him: Lord shall thou wash my fete? Iesus answered & sayde vnto him: what I do / thou wotest not now / but thou shalt knowe hereafter. Peter sayde vnto him: thou shalt not wash my fete whyll I worlde liue. Iesus answered him: yf I wash the fete / thou shalt haue no part with me. Simon Peter sayde vnto him: Lord / not my fete only: but also my handes & my heed. Iesus sayde to hym: he that is washed / needeth not saue to wash his fete/& is cleane euer whyte. And ye are cleane: but not all. For he knewe hym that was the trayter. Therfore sayde he: ye are not all cleane.

¶ After he had washed their fete/& receaued his clothes/& was set doune agayne/he sayd vnto them: wot ye what I haue done to you? Ye call me master & Lord/& ye saye well/for so am I. If I then your Lord and master haue washed your fete/ye also ought to wash one anothers fete. For I haue geuen you an ensample: that ye shoulde do as I haue done to you. Merely verely I saye vnto you/that seruauant is not greater then his master/neither the messenger greater then he that sent hym.

¶ If ye vnderstande these thynges/happy are ye yf ye do them. I speake not of you all / I knowe who I haue chosen. But the scripture be fulfilled: he that eateth & dryeth with me/hath lyfte vnto his heale agaynst me. Now tell I you before it come: that when it is come to passe ye myght beleue that I am he. Merely verely I saye vnto you. He that receaueth whosoeuer I sende / receaueth me. And he that receaueth me/receaueth him that sent me.

¶ When Iesus had thus sayd/ he was troubled in the spete/& testified saying: verely verely I saye vnto you / that one of you shall betraye me. And then the disciples looked one on another doutynge of whom he spake. Ther was one of his disciples/which leaned on Iesus bosome/whom Iesus loued: to him beckened Simon Peter that he shoulde aske who it was of whom he spake. He then as he leaned on Iesus brest/sayd vnto him: Lord who is it? Iesus answered/ he it is to whom I geue a soppe/whom I haue dypt it. And he wet a soppe / & gaue it to Judas Iscarioth Simons sonne. And after the soppe.

¶ Satan entred into him. When sayd Iesus vnto him: that thou doest/do quychly. What wilt thou now at the table/for what intent he spake vnto hym. Some of the thought/because Judas had a bagge/that he shoulde take oute of agaynst the feast: or he shoulde geue some thyng to the poore. And none of these. But then as he had receaued the soppe/he wet his medially out. And it was night/when he was gone out. Iesus sayde: now is the sonne of man glorified. And God is glorified by hym. If God be glorified by him/God shall also glorify him in himselfe: & shall drawe wayer glozify him.

* We are chyldren/yet a lytell whyle am I with you. Ye shall see me/as I saye vnto you. I saye vnto you/whither I goe / thither can ye not come. Also so you saye I now. A new commaundment geue I vnto you / that ye loue to gether/as I haue loued you / & euen so ye loue one another. By this shall all men knowe that ye are my disciples / yf ye shall haue loue one to another. Simon Peter sayde vnto hym: Lord whither goest thou? Iesus answered hym: whither I go thou canst not folow me now/ but thou shalt folow me afterwarde. Peter sayde vnto hym: Lord / why can not I folowe thee now? I will geue my lyfe for thy sake: Iesus answered him: wilt thou geue thy lyfe for my sake? Merely verely I saye vnto the/the cocke shall not crowe/till thou haue denyed me thrise.

The xliij. Chapter.

¶ And he sayde vnto his disciples: let not your hertes be troubled. Beleeue in God/and beleue in me. In my fathers house are many mansions. If it were not so / I wolde haue tolde you. I go to prepare a place for you. And yf I go to prepare a place for you/I will come agayne/& receaue you euen vnto my selfe & where I am/there maye ye be also. And whither I go ye knowe/& the waye ye knowe.

¶ Thomas sayde vnto him: Lord we knowe not whither thou goest. Also how is it possible for vs to knowe the waye? Iesus sayde vnto him: I am the waye/the truche & the lyfe. And no man cometh vnto the father/but by me. If ye had knowe me/ye had knowe my father also. And now ye knowe him/& haue sene him.

¶ Philip sayde vnto him: Lord shew vs the father/& it sufficeth vs. Iesus sayd vnto him/haue I bene so longe tyme with you: & yett hast thou not knowe me? Philip / he that hath sene me/hath sene the father. And how sayest thou then: shew vs the father? Beleuest thou not that I am in the father/& the father in me? The wordes that I speake vnto you/I speake not of my selfe: but the father that dwelleth in me / is he that doeth the wordes. Beleue me that I am in the father/& the father in me. He that receiue me for the very wordes sake.

he do/because I go vnto my father. And what soeuer ye aske in my name/that will I do/ & the father myght be glorified by the sonne. If ye shall aske any thyng in my name/ I will do it. For if ye loue me kepe my commaundementes/ & I will praye the father/ & he shall geue you another comforter/ that he maye byde in you: euer: which is the sprete of truthe whom the worlde cannot receaue/ because the worlde seeth hym not/ neither knoweth hym. But ye knowe hym. For he dwelleth in you/ & shalbe in you. I will not leaue you comfortlesse: but will come to you. Yet a lytell while and the worlde seeth me no moare: but ye shall see me. For I yue & ye shall yue. That daye shall ye knowe that I am in my father/ & you in me/ & I in you. He that hath my commaundementes & keepeth them/ the same is he that loueth me. And he that loueth me shalbe loued of my father: & I will loue him/ & will shewe myne awne selfe to him. Judas sayde vnto him (not Judas Iscariot) Lozde what is the cause that thou wilt shewe thy selfe vnto vs / & not vnto the worlde: Iesus answered and sayd vnto hym: yf a man loue me and will kepe my sayynges/ my father also will loue him/ & we will come vnto hym/ and will dwell with him. He that loueth me not/ keepeth not my sayynges. And the wordes which ye heare/ are not myne/ but the fathers which sent me.

This haue I spoken vnto you beyng yet present with you. But the comforter which is the holy goost (whom my father will sende in my name) he shall teache you all thynges / and byngge all thynges to your remembrance: whatsoeuer I haue tolde you.

Peace I leue with you/ my peace I geue vnto you. Not as the worlde geueth/ geue I vnto you. Let not your hertes be greued/ neither feare ye. Ye haue hearde how I sayde vnto you: I go & come agayne vnto you. If ye loued me / ye wolde verely reioyce / because I sayde I go vnto the father. For the father is greater then I. And now haue I shewed you/ before it come/ & when it is come to passe/ ye myght beleue. Here after will I not talke many wordes vnto you. For the ruler of this worlde cometh/ & hath nought in me. But the worlde maye knowe that I loue the father: therefore as the father gaue me commaundment/ euil so do I. My lete vs go to hence.

The true byne/ the husbandman & the braynche. A doctrine of loue & a sweete comforte agaynst persecucion. Of the .xv. Chapter. I am the true byne / & my father is the husbandman. Every braynche that beareth not frute in me/ he will take awaye. And every braynche that beareth frute/ will he poure / & it maye bringe moare frute. Now are ye cleane shorn the wordes which I haue spoken vnto you. Byde in me / & let me byde in you. As the braynche cannot beare frute of itselfe/ except it byde in the byne: no moare can ye except ye abyde in me. I am the byne/ and ye are the braynches. He that abydeth in me / and I in him/ the same bringeth forth moche frute. For without me can ye do nothing. If a man byde not in me/ he is cast forth as a braynche/ & is withered: and men gather it and cast it into the fyre/ and it burneth. If ye byde in me & my wordes also byde in you: aske what ye will/ and it shalbe done to you. I herein is my father glorified/ & ye beare moche frute/ and be made my disciples.

As the father hath loued me/ euen so haue I loued you. & dwelle in my loue. If ye shall kepe my commaundementes/ ye shall byde in my loue/ euil as I haue kept my fathers commaundementes/ and byde in his loue. These thynges haue I spoken vnto you / that my love myght remayne in you / and that your love myght be full.

This is my commaundement: that ye loue to gether as I haue loued you. Greater love then this hath no man/ then that a man bestowe his lyfe for his frendes. Ye are my frendes/ yf ye do whatsoeuer I commaunde you. Henceforth call I you not seruautes: for the seruaunt knoweth not what his lord doeth. But you haue I called frendes: for all thynges that I haue heard of my father I haue opened to you.

Ye haue not chosen me/ but I haue chosen you and ordeyned / that ye goe and bringe forth frute / and that your frute remayne/ that whatsoeuer ye shall aske of the father in my name/ he shalbe geue it you.

This commaunde I you/ that ye loue to gether. If the worlde hate you / ye knowe that he hated me before he hated you. If ye were of the worlde / the worlde wolde loue hym awne. Now he it because ye are not of the worlde / but I haue chosen you oute of the worlde/ therefore hateth you the worlde. Remember the sayynges that I sayde vnto you: the seruaunt is not greater then the lord. If they haue persecuted me/ so will they persecute you. If they haue kept my sayynges/ so will they kepe yours.

But all these thinges will they do vnto you for my names sake / because they haue not knowen him that sent me. If I had not come and spoken vnto them they shoulde not haue had synne: but now haue they nothyng to cloke their synne with all. He that hateth me/ hateth my father. If I had not done wordes amonge them which none other man did/ they had not had synne. But now haue they sene/ and

Where as ye haue hated both me & my father: euen in the .xv. chap. of Iohn. I saye I myght be fulfilled & is myght in their lawe: they hated me without a cause. But when the comforter is come / whom I will sende vnto you from the father/ which is the sprete of truthe / which procedeth of the father/ he shall testifie of me. And ye shall beare my witness also / because ye haue bene with me from the begynnyng.

Consolacion agaynst trouble. Prayers are herbe. Of the .xvi. Chapter. These thynges haue I sayde vnto you/ because ye shoulde not be offended. They shall excommunicat you: ye the tyme shall come that whosoever killeth you/ will chynke that he doth god service. And such thynges will they do vnto you/ because they haue not knowen the father neither yet me. But these thynges haue I tolde you/ that when that houre is come/ ye myght remember then/ that I tolde you so. These thynges sayde I not vnto you at the begynnyng because I was present with you.

But now I go my waye to hym that sent me / & none of you asketh me: whither goest thou? But because I haue sayd suche thinges vnto you/ your hertes are full of sorowe. Wherefore I tell you the truthe / it is expedient for you that I go awaye. For yf I goe not awaye/ that comforter will not come vnto you. But yf I departe / I will sende hym vnto you. And when he is come / he will re-buke the worlde of synne/ and of ryghtwysnes/ & of iudgement.

Of synne. I saye they be not on me: I go to my father / & ye shall see me no moare: of iudgement/ because the chiefe ruler of this worlde/ is iudged all ready.

I haue yet many thynges to saye vnto you: but ye cannot beare them awaye now. When he is come/ I mean the sprete of truthe/ he will leade you into all truthe. He shall not speake of hym selfe: but whatsoeuer he shall heare/ that shall he speake / and he will shewe you thinges to come. He shall glorify me/ for he shall receaue of myne & shall shewe vnto you. All thinges that the father hath are myne. Wherefore sayde I vnto you/ & he shall glorify because he taketh of myne and shewe vnto you.

After a while ye shall see me/ & agayne after a while ye shall see me: for I go to the father. When sayd some of his disciples betwene them selues: what is this that he sayth vnto us/ after a while ye shall see me/ & agayne after a while ye shall see me: and that I go to the father. They sayde therefore: what is this that he sayth after a while? we cannot tell what he sayth. Iesus perceaued that they would saye that as he sayde vnto them: This is it that enquyre of betwene your selues / & I sayde after a while ye shall see me / and agayne after a while ye shall see me. Verely verely I saye vnto you: ye shall wepe & lament and the worlde shall reioyce. Ye shall sorowe: but your sorowe shalbe turned to ioye.

A woman whiche travaileth hath sorowe/ because her houre is come: but as soon as she is deliuered of the chyld / she remembereth no moare the anguryshe/ for ioye that a man is borne into the worlde. And ye now are in sorowe: but I will see you agayne/ and your hertes shall reioyce/ & your ioye shall no man take fro you. And in that daye shall ye aske me no question. Verely verely I saye vnto you/ whatsoeuer ye shall aske the father in my name/ he will geue it you. Hitherto haue ye asked nothinge in my name. Aske & ye shall receaue it: that your ioye maye be full.

These thynges haue I spoken vnto you in prouerbes. The tyme will come when I shall no moare speake to you in prouerbes: but I shall shewe you playnly fro my father. At that daye shall ye aske in myne name. And I saye not vnto you that I will speake vnto my father for you. For the father hym selfe loneth you/ because ye haue loued me/ and haue beleued that I came out fro god. I went out from the father/ and cam into the worlde: & I leue the worlde agayne/ and go to the father.

His disciples sayde vnto him: lo now speakest thou playnly / & thou blest no prouerbe. Now knowe we that thou understandest all thynges/ and needest not that any man shoulde aske thee any question. Wherefore beleue we that thou comest fro god. Iesus answered the: Now ye do beleue. Behold the houre & the daye/ and is all ready come that ye shalbe scattered euery man his wayes/ and shall leaue me alone. And yet am I not alone. For the father is with me.

These wordes haue I spoken vnto you that in me ye myght haue peace. For in the worlde shall ye haue tribulacion: but he of good cheare/ I haue overcome the worlde.

The most hartly & longge prayer of Christ vnto his father/ for all such as receaue the truthe.

Of the .xvii. Chapter. These wordes spake Iesus & Iyste by his eyes to braue/ & sayd: father I praye that thou glorify thy sonne/ that thy sonne maye glorify the: as thou hast geue him power ouer all flethe/ & he shoulde geue eternall lyfe to as many as thou hast geue him. This is lyfe eternall/ that they myght knowe the that only very god/ & whom thou hast sent Iesus Christ.

I haue glorified the on the erth. I haue fynished the worke which thou gauest me to do. And now glorify me thou father in thyne awne

enquyre of betwene your selues / & I sayde after a while ye shall see me / and agayne after a while ye shall see me. Verely verely I saye vnto you: ye shall wepe & lament and the worlde shall reioyce. Ye shall sorowe: but your sorowe shalbe turned to ioye.

A woman whiche travaileth hath sorowe/ because her houre is come: but as soon as she is deliuered of the chyld / she remembereth no moare the anguryshe/ for ioye that a man is borne into the worlde. And ye now are in sorowe: but I will see you agayne/ and your hertes shall reioyce/ & your ioye shall no man take fro you. And in that daye shall ye aske me no question. Verely verely I saye vnto you/ whatsoeuer ye shall aske the father in my name/ he will geue it you. Hitherto haue ye asked nothinge in my name. Aske & ye shall receaue it: that your ioye maye be full.

These thynges haue I spoken vnto you in prouerbes. The tyme will come when I shall no moare speake to you in prouerbes: but I shall shewe you playnly fro my father. At that daye shall ye aske in myne name. And I saye not vnto you that I will speake vnto my father for you. For the father hym selfe loneth you/ because ye haue loued me/ and haue beleued that I came out fro god. I went out from the father/ and cam into the worlde: & I leue the worlde agayne/ and go to the father.

His disciples sayde vnto him: lo now speakest thou playnly / & thou blest no prouerbe. Now knowe we that thou understandest all thynges/ and needest not that any man shoulde aske thee any question. Wherefore beleue we that thou comest fro god. Iesus answered the: Now ye do beleue. Behold the houre & the daye/ and is all ready come that ye shalbe scattered euery man his wayes/ and shall leaue me alone. And yet am I not alone. For the father is with me.

These wordes haue I spoken vnto you that in me ye myght haue peace. For in the worlde shall ye haue tribulacion: but he of good cheare/ I haue overcome the worlde.

The most hartly & longge prayer of Christ vnto his father/ for all such as receaue the truthe.

Of the .xvii. Chapter. These wordes spake Iesus & Iyste by his eyes to braue/ & sayd: father I praye that thou glorify thy sonne/ that thy sonne maye glorify the: as thou hast geue him power ouer all flethe/ & he shoulde geue eternall lyfe to as many as thou hast geue him. This is lyfe eternall/ that they myght knowe the that only very god/ & whom thou hast sent Iesus Christ.

I haue glorified the on the erth. I haue fynished the worke which thou gauest me to do. And now glorify me thou father in thyne awne alone selfe with the glory which I had with the father: the per the world was. I have declared the name unto the men which thou gauest me: that is me oute of the world. Whyne they were and thou gauest the me / and they have kept the that thou hast saynges. Now they knowe that all thinges mercifull: for whatsoeuer thou hast geue me / are of the father. I have geuen unto them the wordes which thou gauest me / and they have receaved the / and knowe surely that I came out from the: and do beleue that thou bydest send me.

I praye for the: and praye not for the world: but for them which thou hast geuen me / for they are thine. And all myne are thine / and thou art myne / and I am glorified in the. And now am I no more in the world: but they are in the world: and come to the. I praye father kepe in thine alone name / the which thou hast geuen me / that they maye be one / as we are. Whylt I was with the in the world / I kepte them in thy name. Those that thou gauest me / haue I kepte / and none of the is lost: but that lost chyld / that the scripture myght be fulfilled.

Now come I to the: and these wordes speake I in the world: / that they myght haue my toye full in the. I haue geue them thy wordes / and the world hath hated them: because they are not of the world: eny as I am not of the world.
I desire not that thou shouldest take the out of the world: but that thou kepe them from euill. They are not of the world: as I am not of the world. Sanctifie them with thy truth. Thy saying is truth. As thou diddest send me in to the world: / even so haue I sent them into the world: and for their sakes sanctify I my selfe: that they also myght be san-ctified through the truth.

I praye not for them alone: but for them also which shall beleue on me thowome their preachinge: / that they all maye be one / as thou father arte in me / and I in the: that they maye be also one in us / and the world maye beleue that thou hast sent me. And that glory that thou gauest me / I haue geue them: that they maye be one / as we are one. I in the: and thou in me / that they maye be made perfecte in one / and the world maye knowe that thou hast sent me / and haue loved the as thou hast loved me.

Father / I will that they which thou hast geuen me / be with me where I am: that they maye see my glory which thou hast geue me.
For thou lovedst me before the makinge of the world. O righteous father: the very world hath not knowne me: but I haue knowe the / and these haue knowen that thou hast sent me. And I haue declared unto them thy name: and will declare it: that the loue wherwith thou hast loved me / be in them / and that I be in them.

Christ is betrayed. The word of his mouth shal be a sword to the ground. Peter's impiety of which has been. Jesus is brought before Anna and Caiphas the high priest.

The xlvij. Chapter.

When Jesus had spoke these wordes / he went forth with his disciples ouer the brooke Cedron: wher was a garden into the which he entered with his disciples. Judas also which betrayed him / knewe the place: for Jesus ofte tymes resorted thither with his disciples. Judas then after he had receaved abonde of men / and ministers of the hye prestes and Pharises / came thither with lanterns and torches / and sweynes. Then Jesus knowinge all thinges that shulde come on him / went forth / and sayde unto them: whome seke ye? They answered him: Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus sayde unto the:
I am he. Judas also which betrayed him / rode with them. But asone as he had sayde unto them / I am he / they went backe wardes and fell to the grounde. And he asked them agayne: whom seke ye? They sayde: Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus answered: I sayd unto you / I am he. If ye seke me / lett these goe: for I have sayde: that the sayinge myght be fulfilled which he spake: of the which thou gauest me / haue I not lost one.

Simon Peter had a swerde / and drew it / and smote the hye prestes seruant / and cut of his ryght eare. The seruantes name was Malchus.
Then sayde Jesus unto Peter: put up thy swerde into the sheath: shall I not drynke of the cup which my father hath geuen me?
Then the company and the captaynes and ministers of the Jewes toke Jesus and bounde him / and led him awaye to Anna: for he was la-therlawe unto Caiphas which was the hye preste the same yere. Caiphas was he that gaue counsell to the Jewes: that it was expedient that one man shulde dye for the people.

And Simon Peter folowed Jesus / and another disciple: that disciple was knowne of the hye preste / and went in with Jesus into the palace of the hye preste. But Peter stode at the dore without. Then went out that other disciple which was knowne unto the hye preste / and spake to the damsell that kept the dore / and brought in Peter. Then sayde the damsell that kept the dore unto Peter: arte not thou one of this manes disciples? He sayde: I am not.
The seruantes and the ministers stode there / and had made a fyre of coles: for it was colde and they warmed them selues. Peter also stode amonge them and warmed him selfe.

The hye preste asked Jesus of his disciples and of his doctrine. Jesus answered him: I speake openly in the world. I neuer taught in the secret: and in the temple whither all the Jewes resorted / and in secrete haue I sayde nothinge:

why askest thou me? After the which hearde me / what I sayde unto the. Beholde they can tell what I sayd: why he had thus spoke / one of his ministers which stode by / smote Jesus on the face sayng: answerest thou the hye preste so? Jesus answered him: If I haue euill spoken / beare witness of it: euill: if I haue well spoken / why smytest thou me? And Annas sent him bounde unto Caiphas the hye preste.

Simon Peter stode and warmed him selfe.
And they sayde unto him: arte not thou also one of his disciples? He denyed it / and sayde: I am not. One of the seruantes of the hye prestes (his colyn whose eare Peter smote of) sayd unto him: didst not thou see I stand with him? Peter denyed agayne: and immediately the cocke crewe. Then led they Jesus fro Caiphas into the hall of iudgement. It was in the morninge / and they them selues went not into the iudgement hall lest they shuld be defiled: but that they myght eate the paschall lambe. Pilate then went out unto them / and sayde: what accusacio-n sayd vnto him? If he were not an euill doer we wolde not haue deliuered hym vnto the.
Then sayd Pilate vnto them: take ye hym / and iudge him after youre alone lawe. Then the Jewes sayde vnto him: It is not lawfull for us to put eny man to death. That wordes of Jesus myght be fulfilled: which he spake / signifyinge what death he shuld dye.

Then Pilate entered into the iudgement hal-lagayne / and called Jesus / and sayd vnto him: arte thou the kynge of the Jewes? Jesus answered: sayd thou that of thy selfe / or byd other tell it the of me? Pilate answered: Am I a Jewe?
Whyne alone naci and hye prestes haue deli-uered vnto me. What hast thou done? Jesus answered: my kynngdome is not of this world. If my kynngdome were of this world they wolde my ministers surely fyghe: that I shulde not be deliuered to the Jewes: but now is my kynngdome not fro hence. Pilate sayde vnto him: arte thou a kynge then? Jesus answered: thou sayst that I am a kynge. For this cause was I borne / and for this cause came I into the world: that I shulde beare witness vnto the truth. And all that are of the truth heare my voyce. Pilate sayd vnto him: what thyng is truth? And wher he had sayd that / he went out agayne vnto the Jewes / and sayde vnto them: I fynde in him no cause at all. Ye haue a custome: that I shulde deliuer you one loue at ester. Whylt ye that I loue vnto you the kynge of the Jewes? Then cryed they all agayne sayng: Not hym but Barabbas: that Barabbas was a robber.

Christ is crucified. He commendeth his mother vnto John. Heareth his bloude and is buried.

The xlvij. Chapter.

Then Pilate toke Jesus and scourged him. And the souldiers wounde a croune of thornes / and put it on his head. And they dyd on him a purpie garnet / and sayd: hayll kynge of the Jewes: and they smote him on the face. Pilate wet forth agayne and sayde vnto the: beholde I bynge him forth to you: / that ye maye knowe: / that I fynde no faulte in hym. Then came Jesus forth wearinge a croune of thorne / and a robe of purple. And Pil-late sayde vnto them: beholde the man. When the hye prestes and mynisters sawe hym / they cryed sayng: crucify him / crucify him. Pilate sayde vnto the: Take ye him and crucify him: for I fynde no cause in him. The Jewes answered him: We haue a lawe: and by oure lawe he ought to dye: because he made him selfe the sonne of God. Wher Pilate hearde the sayinge he was the more afrayde / and went agayne into the iudgement hall / and sayde vnto Jesus: wher arte thou? But Jesus gaue him none answer.
Then sayde Pilate vnto hym: Speakest thou not vnto me? Knowest thou not that I haue power to crucify the / and haue power to loose the? Jesus answered: Thou couldest haue no power at all agaynst me: except it were geue the from above. Therefore he that deliuered me vnto the / is more in synne. And from thence forth sought Pilate meane to loose hym: but the Jewes cryed sayng: yt thou let hym go thou arte not Celsars frende.
For whosoever maketh hym selfe a kynge / is agaynst Celsar.

Wher Pilate hearde the sayinge / he brought Jesus forth / and late doune to geue sentence / in a place called the pavement: but in the Hebrie tonge / Gabbatha. It was the Saboth euen which falleth in the ester fest / and aboute the syxte houre. And he sayd vnto the Jewes: be-holde your kynge. They cryed: awaye with him / awaye with him / crucify him. Pilate sayde vnto the: shall I crucifie your kynge? The hye preste answered: we haue no kynge but Celsar. The deliuered he hym vnto them: to be crucified.

And they toke Jesus / and led hym awaye And he bare his crosse / and wet forth into a place called the place of deed mens sculles / which is named in Hebrie / Golgotha. Wher they crucified him / and two other with him / on either syde one / and Jesus in the myddes.
And Pilate wrote his tyle / and put it on the crosse. The writinge was: Jesus of Nazareth kynge of the Jewes. And his tyle red many of the Jewes. For the place where Jesus was crucified / was nye to the ctyte. And it was written in Hebrie / Greke and Latyn. When sayde the hye prestes of the Jewes to Pilate: wryte not kynge of the Jewes: but that he sayde I am kynge of the Jewes. Pilate answered:
what I haue wrytten / that haue I wrytten.

¶ When the souldiers/whē they had crucified Iesus/toke his garmētes & made foure partes/to euery souldier a parte/& also his coote. The coote was without seme/wrought byd thowme out. And they sayde one to another. Let vs not deuide it; but cast lotes who shall haue it. That s scripture myght be fulfilled whych sayth. *They departed my raiment amonge the;/ & on my coote byd cast lotes. And the souldiers byd soche thinges in dede.

Then stode by the crosse of Iesus his mother/& his mothers syster Mary the wyfe of Cleophas/& Mary Magdalene. Whē Iesus sawe his mother/& his disciple stondinge whē he loued/he sayde vnto his mother: womā be holde thy sonne. Then sayde he to his disciple: beholde thy mother. And from that houre the discipple toke her for his awne.

¶ After that when Iesus perceaued that all thynges were performed: that the scripture myght be fulfilled: he sayde: I thys. Then stode a vessel full of beneger by. *And they filled a sponge w beneger/& wounde it about with sfope/& put it to hys mouth. None as Iesus had receaued of beneger/he sayde: It is fulfilled/& bowed his heed/& gaue up the goost. The Jewes then because it was the Sabbath euen/that s bodies shuld not remayne byd s crosse on s sabbath daye/soz that sabbath daye was an hye daye) besought Pilate that thei legges might be bynde & that they might be taken doune. Then came s souldiers & byake the legges of the fyrst/& of s other whiche was crucified with Iesus. But when they came to Iesus/& sawe s he was deed already they byake not his legges: but one of s souldiers with a speare/thrust hym into s syde/& soz with came ther out blood and water.

And he that sawe it/bare recorde/& his recorde is true. And he knoweth s he sayth true & ye myght beleue also. These thynges were done s the scripture shuld be fulfilled. *Ye shall not byake a bone of hym. And agayne another scripture sayeth: they shall loke on hym/whē they pearled. *After s Joseph of Aramathia (whych was a discipple of Iesus: but secretly for feare of s Jewes) besought Pilate s he might take doune s body of Iesus. And Pilate gaue him licence. And ther came also Nicodemus whiche at s beginninge came to Iesus by night/& brought of myrrour aloes mingled together aboute an hundred pounde waight. Then toke they s body of Iesu/and wounde it in lynnē clothes with s oboures/as the maner of the Jewes is to bury. And in s place where Iesus was crucified/was a garden/& in the garde a newe sepulcre/wherin was neuer mā layde. There layde they Iesus because of the Jewes Sabbath euen/soz the sepulcre was nye at hande.

¶ The resurrection of Christ whiche appeareth to Mary Magdalene to all his disciples to their greates comfort.

The xx. Chapter.

¶ The morow after s Sabbath daye/cā Mary Magdalene cry whē it was yet darke/vnto s sepulcre/& sawe s stone take awaye from s tounge.

Then we rāne/& came to Simon Peter & to s other discipple whē Iesus loued/& sayde vnto the. They haue take awaye s Lozde out of the tounge/& we canot tell where they haue layde him. Peter went forth & that other discipple & came vnto the sepulcre. They ranne dothe together/& that other discipple byd out rāne Peter/& came fyrst to the sepulcre. And he stooped doune & sawe the lynnē clothes lyinge/ yet wēt he not in. Then came Simon Peter folowinge hym/& wēt into s sepulcre/& sawe the lynnē clothes lye/& the naphyn that was aboute his heed/not lyinge with s lynnē clothe/ but wapped to gether in a place by it selfe. Then went in also that other discipple whiche came fyrst to the sepulcre/& he sawe * & beleued. For as yet they knewe not the scriptures that he shulde rse agayne from deeth. And the disciples went awaye agayne vnto their awne home.

¶ Mary stode without at s sepulcre weepinge. And as she wept/she bowed her selfe into s sepulcre & sawe two angels in whyte sittinge/the one at the heede the other at the fete/where they had layde the body of Iesus. And they sayde vnto her: womā why wepest thou? She sayde vnto the: for they haue take awaye my Lozde/& I wote not where they haue layde him. Whē she had thus sayde/she turned her selfe backe & sawe Iesus standinge & knewe not s it was Iesus. Iesus sayd vnto her: womā why wepest thou? Whom seekest thou? She supposinge s he had bene a gardener/sayde vnto h. S yf thou haue bozne him here tell me wher thou hast layde him? I maye fetch him. Iesus sayde vnto her: Mary. She turned her selfe/& sayd vnto him: Rabboni/whiche is to saye master. Iesus sayde vnto her: * touche me not/soz I am not yet ascended to my father. But go to my bretheren & saye vnto them/I ascende vnto my father & your father/to my God & your God. Mary Magdalene came & tolde the disciples s she had sene the Lozde/and that he had spoken soche thinges vnto her.

¶ The same daye at nyght/whiche was s morow after s Sabbath daye/when s doores were shut/where s disciples were assembled to gether for feare of the Jewes/came Iesus and stode in s myddes/& sayd to the: peace be with you. And when he had so sayde/he shewd vnto the his handes/and his syde. Then were the

were the discipples glad when they sawe the Lozde. Then sayde Iesus to the agayne: peace be with you. As my father sent me/euen so sende I you. And when he had sayde that/he byethed on them & sayde vnto them: Receaue s holy goost. Whosoever s synnes ye remit they are remitted vnto the. And whosoever s synnes ye retayne/they are retayned.

¶ But Thomas one of the twelve/called Didymus/was not with them when Iesus came. The other disciples sayd vnto him: we haue sene the Lozde. And he sayde vnto the: except I se in his handes s pynt of s naphyn/& thrust my hande into his syde/I will not beleue. And after viij. dayes agayne hys disciples were in s Thomas with them. Then came Iesus when s doores were shut/& stode in the myddes & sayde: peace be with you.

¶ After that sayde he to Thomas: bringe thy synger hether a se my handes/and bringe thy hande & thrust it into my syde/& be not sayth lesse/but beleuinge. Thomas answered and sayde vnto him: my Lozde/& my God. Iesus sayde vnto him. Thomas/because thou hast sene me/therfore thou beleuest: happy are they that haue not sene/and yet beleue.

¶ And many other signes byd Iesus in the presence of his disciples/whiche are not written in thys boke. These are written that ye myght beleue/that Iesus is Chyyst s sonne of God/& that in beleuyngge ye myght haue syle thowme his name.

¶ He appeareth to hys disciples agayne by the see of Cyperias and commaundeth Peter earnestly to fede hys shepe.

The xxi. Chapter.

¶ After that Iesus shewed hym selfe agayne/at s see of Cyperias. And on thys wyle shewed he hym selfe. There were to gether Simon Peter & Thomas/whiche is called Didymus/& Nathanael of Cana a cite of Galile/& the sonne of Zebedee/& two other of the disciples. Simon Peter sayde vnto the: I go a fyllingge. They sayde vnto him: we also will go with s.

¶ They went their waye & entred into a shippe straght waye/& that night caught they nothinge. But whē s morninge was now come Iesus stode on s shore: neuertheless the disciples knewe not s it was Iesus. Iesus sayde vnto the: s yss/haue ye enymeate? They answered hym/no. And he sayd vnto the: cast out s net on s right syde of s ship/& ye shall fynde. They cast out/and anon they were not able to byawe it for the multitude of fyllhes.

¶ Then sayde the discipple whē Iesus loued vnto Peter: It is s Lozde. When Simon Peter hearde that it was the Lozde/he gyrd his mantell to him (for he was naked) & sprange into the see. The other disciples came by ship for they were not farre from lande/ but as it were two hondred cubites/& they drew the net with fyllhes. None as they were come to lande/they sawe hoot coles and fyllhe layd theron/& byed Iesus sayde vnto the: bringe of the fyllhe whiche ye haue now caught. Simon Peter stepped forth and drew the net to londe full of greete fyllhes/an hondred & lxxij. And soz all ther were so many/ yet was not the net broken. Iesus sayde vnto them: come & dyne. And none of the disciples durste aske him: what arte thou? For they knewe that it was the Lozde. Iesus then came and toke byed/and gaue them/and fyllhe lye: wyse. And thys is now the thyrde tyme that Iesus appered to hys disciples/ after that he he was risen agayne from deeth.

¶ When they had dyed/Iesus sayde to Simon Peter: Simon Joanna/ louest thou me more then these? He sayde vnto him: ye Lozde thou knowest that I loue the. He sayd vnto him: sene my lābes. He sayde to hym agayne the seconde tyme: Simon Joanna/ louest thou me? He sayde vnto him: ye Lozde thou knowest that I loue s. He sayde vnto him: sene my shepe. He sayde vnto him s thyrde tyme: Simon Joanna/ louest thou me? And Peter sorrowed because he sayde to him s thyrde tyme louest thou me/& sayde vnto him: Lozde/ thou knowest all thinge/ thou knowest that I loue the. Iesus sayde vnto hym: sene my shepe.

¶ Wherely berely I saye vnto the/when thou shalt yong/ thou gerdest thy selfe/& walkest whither thou woldest: but when thou arte olde/ thou shalt strecthe forth thy hande & another shall gyde the/& leade the whither thou woldest not. That spake he signifyinge by what deeth he shuld glorifye God.

¶ And whē he had sayde thus/he sayd to him: I folowe me. Peter turned about & sawe s discipple whom Iesus loued folowinge/whiche also lened on his byest at supper a sayd: Lozde whiche is he that shall betraye the. Whē Peter sawe him/he sayde to Iesus: Lozde what shall he here do? Iesus sayde vnto him: If I will haue hym to tary tyll I come/ what is that to the? folowe thou me. When went this sayinge a broode amonge the byethen/ that s discipple shulde not dye. Yet Iesus sayde not to him/he shall not dye: but s I will that he tary tyll I come/ what is that to the? The saynges/ and wrote these thynges. And we knowe/that his testimony is true. ¶ There are also many other thinges whiche Iesus byd vnto this place. the whiche ye they shuld be written euery one of these bookes that shuld be written.

He tolde the byest that he was Iesus and wyse.

¶ I suppose s two/ the coude not contayne s booke shuld be written s this is a figurative speche whych both signyfy s thers was many thynges noo to me discipple is he/ whych testifyet/ of these thynges. And we knowe/that his testimony is true. ¶ There are also many other thinges whiche Iesus byd vnto this place. the whiche ye they shuld be written euery one of these bookes that shuld be written.

The Actes of the Apostles written by Sayncte Luke the euangelyst/whych was present at doynges of them.

The ascensyon of Chryst/whych was chosen in the Heade of Judas.

The first Chapter.

In the former treatise (Weave frende Theophylus) I haue written of all that I sawe begonne to do and teache vntill the daye in whych he was taken vp/ after that he/ thowhe the holy goost/ had geuen commaundementes vnto the Apostles/ whych he had chosen: to whiche also he shewed him selfe alpye after his passion by many tokens/ apperynge vnto them fourtye dayes/ & speakinge of the kyngdome of God/ & gathered the to gether/ *and commaunded them/ that they shuld not departe from Iherusalem: but to waite for the promysse of the father wherof ye haue herde of me. For Iohn baptised with water: but ye shal be baptised with the holy goost/ and that with in this fewe dayes. When they were come to gether/ they asked of hym sayinge: Lorde wilt thou at this tyme/ restore agayne the kyngdome to Israel? And he sayde vnto them: It is not for you to knowe the tymes/ or the seasons whych the father hath put in his owne power: but ye shal receaue power of the holy goost whych shall come on you. And ye shall be wytnesses vnto me in Iherusalem/ and in all Jewrye and in Samaria/ & euen vnto the worldes ende.

And when he had spoken these thynges/ whyll they behelde/ he was taken vp/ and a cloude receaued hym vp oute of their syght. And whyle they looked stedfastly vp to heuē as he wēt/ beholde two men stode by them in whyte apparell/ whych also sayde: ye men of Galile/ why stande ye gasinge vp into heauē? This same Iesus whych is taken vp fro you into heuē/ shall so come/ as ye haue sene him go into heauen. Then returned they vnto Iherusalem from mount Bether/ whych is nye to Iherusalem/ cōtēnyng a Sabbath dayes iorney. And when they were come in/ they wēt vp into a parler/ wher abode both Peter and James/ Iohn and Andrey/ Philip and Thomas/ Bartlemew and Mathew/ James the sonne of Alpheus/ & Simon Zelotes/ and Judas James sonne. These all cōtynued with one accord in prayer and supplicacyon with the women and Mary the mother of Iesu/ and with his brethzen.

And in those dayes Peter stode vp in the middes of the disciples and sayde (I nōumbe of names that were to gether/ were aboute an hondred and twentye) Ye men & brethzen this scripture must haue nedes ben fulfilled whiche the holy goost thowhe by mouth of Dauid spake before of Judas/ whiche was gyde to them that toke Iesus. For he was nōmbered with vs and had obtayned fellowship in thys mynistracyon. And the same hath now possessed a plat of grounde with the rewarde of inquite/ and when he was hanged/ blast a sonde in the myddes/ and all hys bowels gushyd oute. And it is known vnto all the inhabitants of Iherusalem: in so moche that felde is called in their mother tonge/ Acheldama/ that is to saye/ the bloud felde.

It is writte in the booke of Psalmes: hys habitacion be boyde/ & a woman be dwellinge therein: & hys dischordyke let another take. Wherfore of these men whiche haue cōpanyed with vs/ all the tyme that the Lorde Iesus went in and oute amonge vs/ begynnyng at the baptyme of Iohn vnto that same daye that he was taken vp fro vs/ must one be ordeyned to be a wytnes with vs of hys resurrection.

And they apoynted two/ Ioseph called Barsabas (whose surname was Iustus) and Mathias. And they prayed sayinge: thou Lorde whiche knowest the hertes of all men/ shewe whether of these two thou hast chosen that the one maye take the roume of this ministrye & Apostleshippe/ from whiche Judas by transgression fell/ that he myght go to his owne place. And they gaue forth their lottes/ and the lot fel on Mathias/ and he was counted with the eleuen Apostles.

The commyng of the holy goost. The sermon of Peter before the congregacion at Iherusalem/ and the increase of the saythfull.

The seconde Chapter.

When

When the first daye was come/ they were all in one accord to gether in one place. And sodenly ther came a sounde fro heuē/ as it had bene the comyng of a myghty wynde/ and it fylled all the house where they sate. And there appered vnto them clouen tonges/ lyke as they had bene fyr/ and it sate vpon each of the: & they were all fylled with the holy goost/ and beganne to speake with other tonges/ euen as the sprete gaue them utteraunce.

And ther were dwellinge at Iherusalem/ Jewes/ deuoute men whiche were of all nacys vnder heuē. When this was noyed aboute the multitude came to gether and were astonyed/ because that euery man hearde them speake his awne tounge. They wondered all & marueyled/ sayinge amonge the selues: beholde/ are not all these whych speake/ of Galile? And how heare we euery man his awne tounge wherin we were bozen? Parthians/ Medes & Elampres/ and the inhabitants of Mesopotamia/ of Iury/ & of Capadocia/ of Pontus & Asia/ Phrygia/ Panphilia/ & of Egypte/ & of the parties of Lybia whych is besyde Syrene/ & straungers of Rome/ Iewes and conuerteres/ Grekes & Arabians: we haue herde the speake with our awne tonges & greates wothes of God. They were all amased/ & woozed sayinge one to another what meaneth thys? Other mocked them sayinge: they are full of newe wyne.

But Peter stepped forth with the eleue/ and yft vp his voyce/ & sayde vnto them: Ye men of Jewrye/ & all ye that inhabite Iherusalem: be this knowe vnto you & with poure eares heare my wordes. These are not dyshen/ as ye suppose: for it is yet but the thyrde houre of the daye. But this is that whiche was spoken by the Prophete Iohel: It shalbe in the last dayes sayth God: of my sprete I will powze out vpon all fleshe. And poure sonnes & poure daughters shal prophesy and poure yonge men shal se visions/ & poure olde men shal dreme dremes. And on my seruantes/ & on my hande maydes I will powze out of my sprete in those dayes/ & they shal prophesy. And I will shewe wonders in heauē aboue/ & tokens in the erth beneth/ bloud and fyr/ & the vapour of smoke. The sunne shalbe turned into darcknes/ & the moone into bloud before that greates & notable daye of the Lorde come. And it shalbe/ that whosoever shall call on the name of the Lorde/ shalbe saued.

Ye men of Israel heare these wordes. Iesus of Nazareth a man approued of God amonge you with myracles/ wonders & sygnes whych God dyd by hym in the myddes of you/ as ye poure selues knowe: hym haue ye taken by handes of vnrightewys persones/

after he was deliuered by determinat cōfession & foreknowledge of God/ and haue crucified & slayned him whom God hath rayssed vp & lowed the sorowes of deeth/ because it was impossible that he shuld be holden of it. For Dauid speaketh of him. Afore hāde I sawe God alwaies before me: for he is on my right hande/ that I shuld not be moued. Therfore dyd my hert reioyce/ and my tonge was glad. Moreouer also my fleshe shal rest in hope/ because thou wilt not leue my soule in hell/ nether wilt suffer thine holpe/ to se corrupcion. Thou hast shewed me the wayes of life/ & shalt make me full of toyce with thy countenance.

When a brethzen/ let me frely speake vnto you of the patriarche Dauid: for he is both deed & buryed/ & hys sepulchre remaineth vnto this daye. Therfore seinge he was a Prophet/ & knewe that God had sworne with an othe to him/ that the fruite of his loyns shuld sit on his seat/ in the thyrde shulde ryl agayne in the fleshe/ he sawe before: a spake of the resurrection of Chryst/ that his soule shulde not be left in hell: nether hys fleshe shulde se corrupcion. This Iesus hath God rayssed vp/ wherof we all are wytnesses.

Sence now that he by the right hande of God exalted is/ & hath receaued of the father the promysse of the holy goost/ he hath shed forth that which ye now se & heare. For Dauid is not ascendid into heuē: but he sayde. The Lorde sayde to my Lord sit on my right hande vntill I make thy foes thy fote stole. So therfore let all the house of Israel knowe for a surety/ that God hath made & saue Iesus whom ye haue crucified/ Lorde and Chryst.

When they hearde this they were pricked in their hertes/ & sayd vnto Peter & vnto the other Apostles: Ye men & brethzen/ what shal we do? Peter sayde vnto them: repent and be baptised euery one of you in the name of Iesus Chryst for the remission of synnes/ and ye shal receaue the gyfte of the holy goost. For the promysse was made vnto you & to poure chylidren/ and to all that are a farr/ euen as many as the Lorde oure God shall call. And in many other wordes bare he wytnes & exhorted them sayinge: Saue poure selues from this vntowarde generacion. Then they that gladly receaued his preachinge/ were baptised: and the same daye/ ther were added vnto them aboute thre thousande soules.

And they continued in the Apostles doctrine & fellowship/ and in breakinge of bred/ & in prayer. And feare came ouer euery soule. And many wonders & signes were shewed by the Apostles. And all that belued kept the selues to gether/ & had all thinges in comen/ & solde their possessions and goodes/ & departed the to all men/ as euery man had neede. And they continued

Salomons porche. And of other durst no man tope him selfe to the: neuer the later he people magnified them. The numbze of them that belued in the Lozde bothe of men and wome grew moare and moare: in so moche he they brought the sicke into the strettes/ and layde them on beddes and palletes/ that at the left waye the shadowe of Peter whē he came by/myght shadowe some of them. There came al to a multitude out of the cities round about/vnto Ierusalem/ bryngynge syche folkes/ & the whych were heald wth ouerlone spetes.
And they were heald euery one.

Then the chiefe prest rose vp & all they that were with him (whych is the secte of the Saducees) and were full of indignacion/ and layde handes on the Apostles/ & put thē in comen pzeon. But the angell of the Lozde by nyght opened the pzeon dozes/ and brought them forth/ and sayde: go/ steype forth/ and speake in the temple to the people all the wordes of this lyfe. When they hearde he/ they entred into the temple eryn in the mornynge & taught.

The chiefe prest came & they that were with him/ & called a counsell to gether/ and all the elders of the chyliden of Israel/ & sent to the pzeon to fet them. When the ministres came and founde thē not in the pzeon/ they returne & tolde sayinge: he pzeon founde we thut as sure as was possibie/ and the keepers stan dinge without befoze the dozes. But whē we had opened/ we founde no man with in. Whē the chiefe prest of all & the ruler of the temple & the prestes hearde these thinges/ they dou ted of them/ wher vnto this wolde growe.

Then came one and shewed them: beholde the men that ye put in pzeon/ stande in the tem ple/ & teache the people. When went the ruler of the temple with ministres/ & brought thē without violence. For they feared the people/lest they shuld haue bene stoned. And when they had brought them/ they set thē befoze the counsell. And the chiefe prest asked the sayinge whyd not we strayte commaunde you that ye shuld not teache in this name? And beholde ye haue filled Ierusalem with youre doctrine & ye intende to brynge this mans bloud vpon vs.

Genel. xxv. a. 1. Peter and the other Apostles answered & sayde: *We ought moare to obey God then men. The God of oure fathers rayled vp Je sus/ whom ye slewe and hanged on tre. Whom hath God lyfte vp wth his ryght hand/ to be a ruler & a sauiour/ for to geue repentance to Israel & for geuenes of synne. And we are his recorde concerninge these thinges & also the holy goost whom God hath geue to them that obey him. When they hearde that/ they claued a vnder: a sought meanes to sle the.
Then stode ther by one in the counsell/ a Pha risee named Gamaliel/ a doctoure of lawe/had in auctorite amonge all the people & co maunded to put the Apostles a lyde a lyell space/ & sayde vnto them: men of Israel take hede to youre selues what ye entende to do as touchinge these me. Befoze these dayes rose vp one Theudas boasting hym selfe/ to whō resorted a nobze of men/ about a foure hon dred which was slayn/ & they all which bele ued hym were scattered & brought to nought. After this man/ arose ther by one Judas of Galile in the tyme when trybut begyn/ and drewe awaye moche people after him. He also perished: & all euen as many as harkened to him are scattered & brought to nought.

And now I saye vnto you: restraune youre selues from these men/ let them alone. For yf the counsell of this wo: he be of men/ it will co me to nought. But yf it be of God ye canot destroie it: lest haply ye be founde to stryue agaynst God. And to hym they agreed/ and called the Apostles/ and bet them/ and com maunded that they shulde not speake in the name of Iesu/ and let them go.

And they departed fro the counsell/ reioy cynge that they were counted worthy to suf fere rebuke for his name. And dayly in the temple and in every house they ceased not/ teaching and preachinge Iesus Christ.

Whychers (or deacons) are ordeined in the congre gation to do seruyce in necessary thynges of the body that the Apostles maye occupye vpon the worde of God. Steuen is accused.

The vii. Chapter.

In those dayes as the numbze of the disciples grewe/ ther arose a grud ge amonge the Grekes agaynst the Hebrewes/ because their *wyddowes were despised in the dayly ministringe. Then the twelue called the multitude of the disci ples to gether & sayde: it is not mete that we shuld leaue the worde of God and serue at tables. Wherfoze bryche loke ye out amonge you seven men of honest repute & full of the holy goost and wysdome/ whych we maye apoynte to this needfull busyn. But we will geue oure selues continually to prayer and to the ministracion of the worde. And the sayinge pleased the whoale multitude. And they chose Steuen a man full of fayth and of the holy goost/ & Philip/ & Prochorus/ and Nicanor and Timon/ and Permenas/ and Nicholas a conuerter of Antioche. Which they set befoze the Apostles/ and they prayed and *layde their handes on them.

And the worde of God encreased/ and the numbze of the disciples multiplied in Ieru salem greatly/ and a great company of the prestes were obedyent to the sayth. And Steuen full of fayth and power/ dyd great wondres and myracles amonge the people.
Then the

we haue hearde hym speake blasphemous wordes agaynst Moyses/ and agaynst God.
And they moued the people and the elders & the scribes/ and came vpon hym and caught him/ & brought him to the counsell/ & brought forth false witness which sayde. This man ceaseth not to speake blasphemous wordes agaynst this holy place and the lawe: for we hearde hym saye: this Iesus of Nazareth shall destroie this place/ and shall chaunge the ordinaunces which Moyses gaue vs. And all that sate in the counsell/ looked stedfastly on him/ and sawe hym face as it had bene the face of an Angell.

the hardneded Iews/ and is stoned vnto death.

The vii. Chapter.

When sayde the chiefe prest: is it eue

And God was with him/ & deliuered him out of all his aduersities/ and gaue him fauoure and wysdome in the syght of Pharaos kynge of Egypt whych made hym gouernour ouer Egypt/ and ouer all his housholde.

*Then came there a deth ouer all the lande of Egypt & Canaan/ and great affliction/ that our fathers founde no sustenance. But whē Jacob hearde that ther was come in Egypt

he sent oure fathers first. *And at the secōde tyme Ioseph was knowne of hym brychen/and Iosephs shired was made knowe vnto Pharaos. When sent Ioseph & cauled hym fa ther to be brought & all his kynne/ the score & x. *souls. And Jacob descended into Egypt and dyed bothe he and oure fathers/ and were translated into Sichem/ and were put in the sepulchre that Abraham bought for money of the sonnes of Emor/ at Sichem.

When the tyme of the pzonics due nye (which God had woyn to Abraham) & people grew & multiplied in Egypt/ tyll another kynge arose which knewe not of Ioseph. The same dealede cruelly with oure kynred & euill intreated oure fathers/ and made thē to ca out their younge chyliden/ that they shulde not remayne alyue. The same tyme was Mo of God/ whych was noryshed by in hym fa thers house thre moneths. When he was call out/ Pharaos daughter coke him by/ and no rished hym by for her awne sonne. And Moses was learned in all maner wysdome of the Egyptians/ and was myghty in dedes and in wordes.

And when he was full forty yere olde/ it came into hym hert to viset hym brychen/ the chyliden of Israel. And when he sawe one of them suffice wronge/ he defendes hym/ & auen ged hym quarell that had the harme done to hym/ and smote the Egyptian. For he suppo sed hym brychen wolde haue vnderstande/how that God by his handes shulde saue the But they vnderstode not.

And the next daye he shewed hym selfe vn to them as they stroue/ and wolde haue set them at one agayne sayinge: Syes/ ye are brychen/ why hurte ye one another? But he that dyd his negghboure wronge/ thrust hym awaye sayinge: who made the a ruler and a iudge amonge vs? What wylt thou sayll me/as thou dydest the Egyptian yester daye?
*Then fled Moses at that sayinge/ and was a stranger in the lande of Madian/ where he begat two sonnes.

And whē xl. yeres were expired/ ther ap pered to him in the wyldernes of mounte Sy na/ an Angell of the Lozde in a flame of fyre in a bushe. When Moses sawe it/ he wōdzed at the syght. And as he drew neare to beholde/the voyce of the Lozde came vnto hym: I am the God of thy fathers/ the God of Abraham the God of Isaac/ & the God of Jacob. Mo ses trembled & durst not beholde. Then sayde the Lozde to him. *Put of thy shooes/ for the place where thou standest is holy grounde. I haue perfectly seene the affliction of my people which is in Egypt/ and I haue heard their groynge/ and am come doune to deliuer

to deliuer them. And now come and I will sende the into Egypte.

This Moses whom they soughte sayinge: who made the a ruler and a iudge: the same God sent bothe a ruler and a deliuerer/ by the handes of the Angell whych appered to hym in the bush. And the same brought them out of the wylde wondres & signes in Egypt/ & in the red see & in the wyldeynes. xl. yeares. Whys is that Moses whych sayde vnto the chyldre of Israel: * A Prophet shall the Lorde poure God rayle by vnto you of youre brethren/ lyke vnto me/ hym shall ye heare.

This is he that was in the congregacyō/ in the wyldeynes with the Angell whych spake to him in the mounte Synay/ & with oure fathers. Whys mā receaued the woide of lye to geue vnto vs/ to whō oure fathers could not obeie/ but cast it fro the/ and in their hertes turned backe agayne into Egypte/ sayinge vnto Harō: * make vs Godd/ to go before vs. For this Moses brought vs out of the lande of Egypte/ we wote not wat is become of hym. And they made a calfe in those dayes/ & offered sacryfice vnto the ymage/ & reforsed in the woikes of their awne handes.

Then God turned hym selfe & gaue them by that they shulde wot/ the starres of the skye/ as it is written in the boke of the Prophetes. * Ye of the house of Israel/ gaue ye to me sacryfices & meateofferings by the space of xl. yeares in the wyldeynes? And ye toke vnto you the tabernacle of Moloch/ & the starre of your God Remphan/ figures whych ye made to worshippe the. And I will translate you beyond Babylon.

Oure fathers had the tabernacle of witness in the wyldeynes/ as he had apointed them speakinge vnto Moses/ that he shuld make it accordynge to the fashion that he had sene. Whych tabernacle oure fathers receaued/ & brought it in with Josue into the possession of the Gentyls whych God dyaue out before the face of oure fathers vnto the tyme of Dauid. Whych founde fauour before God/ & wolde sayne haue made a tabernacle for the God of Jacob. But Salomon bylt hym an house.

Now be it he that is hys selfe of all/ dwelleth not in temples made with handes/ as sayth the Prophet: heauē is my seate/ & erth is my fote stole/ what house will ye bylde for me sayth the Lorde: or what place is it that I shulde rest in/ hath not my hande made all these thynges?

Ye stiffnecked & of uncircumcised hertes and eares: ye haue all wayes reforsed the holy goost: as your fathers dyd/ so do ye. Whych of the Prophetes haue not your fathers persecuted? And they haue slayne them/ whych shewed before of the comminge of that Iust/ whom ye haue now betrayed and moordred.

And ye also haue receaued a lawe by the ordinance of Angels/ and haue not kept it.

When they heard these thynges/ these hertes claued a sunder and they gnashed on him with their tethe. But he beinge full of the holy goost/ looked by steadfastlye with his eyes into heauen/ and sawe the glorie of God/ and Jesus standynge on the ryght hande of God and sayde: beholde/ I se the heuens open/ and the sonne of man standynge on the ryght hande of God. Then they gaue a shoute with a loude voyce/ and stopped their eares & rāne vpon him all at once/ and cast him out of the citie/ & stoned hym. And the wytnesses layde doune their clothes at a ponge manes fete named Saul. And they stoned Steuen callinge on a sayinge: Lorde Jesu receaue my sprete. And he kneeled doune and cryed with a loude voyce: Lorde laye not this synne to their charge. And when he had thus spoken/ he fell a slepe.

Saul persecuted the Chyldren/ The Apostles are scattered abroad. Philip cometh in to Samaria. Simon magus is baptised/ he dyssembleth. Philip baptiseth the chamberlayne.

The viij. Chapter.

Saul had pleasure in his deeth. And at that tyme ther was a great persecution agaynst the congregacyō whych was at Ierusalē/ and they were all scattered abroad theowout the regyōs of Iury & Samaria/ except the Apostles. Then deuout men dyed Steuen/ & made great lamētaciō ouer hym. But Saul made haue of the congregacyō/ and entered into euery house & dyscove out bothe man & woman & thrust the into prison. Howbeit they that were scattered abroad/ went euery where preachinge the woide. Then came Philip into a cite of Samaria/ & preached Christ vnto them. And the people gaue hede vnto those thynges whych Philip spake/ with one accorde in that they heard and sawe the myracles whych he dyd/ for by the name of Jesus cryinge to loude voyce/ came out of many & were possessed of the. And many taken with palsy/ and many that halted/ were healed. And ther was greute ioye in that cite. And ther was a certayne mā called Simon/ which before tyme in the same cite/ sed witchcraftes & bewitched the people of Samaria/ sayinge that he was a man that coulde do greute thynges. Whom they regarded/ fro the lest to the greatest/ sayinge: this felow is the great power of God. And hym they set moche by/ because of longe tyme he had mocked them with sorcery. But as soon as they beleued Philip's preachinge of the kyngdome of God & of the name of Jesus Christ/ they were baptised bothe men and women. Then Simon hym selfe beleued beleued also/ and was baptised/ & continued with Philip/ & wonderd beholdinge the myracles and signes/ which were shewed.

When the Apostles which were at Ierusalē heard saye that Samaria had receaued the woide of God/ they sent vnto the Peter & John. Whych when they were come/ prayed for the that they might receaue the holy goost.

For as yet he was come on none of the: but when they were baptised only in the name of Christ Jesu. Then layde they their handes on them/ & they receaued the holy goost.

When Simon sawe/ that theowout layinge on of the Apostles handes on them/ the holy goost was geue/ he offered the money sayinge: geue me also this power/ that on whom soeuer I put the handes/ he maye receaue the holy goost.

Then sayde Peter vnto hym: thy money perishe with the/ because thou weneest that the gifte of God maye be obtayned with money. Thou hast neith. r parte nor fellowe in the fothe. Wyppye in this busyness. For thy hert is not right in the sight of God. Repent therfore of this thy wickednes/ & praye God that the thought of thine hert maye be forgiven the. For I perceaue that thou arte full of bitter gall/ and wappst in iniquite.

Then answered Simon & sayde: praye ye to the Lorde for me/ that none of these thynges whych ye haue spoken/ fall on me. And they whiche they had testified & preached the woide of the Lorde returned toward Ierusalē & preached the gospell in many cities of Samarias.

Then the Angel of the Lorde spake vnto Philip sayinge: aryse & go towardes midde daye vnto the waye that goeth doune from Ierusalē vnto Gaza which is in the deserte. And he arose and wēt on. And beholde a man of ethiopia which was a chamberlayne/ and of greute auctorite wyth Candace quene of the ethiophians/ and had the rule of all her treasure/ came to Ierusalē for to praye. And as he returned home agayne settynge in his charet/ he rede the prophete.

Then the sprete sayde vnto Philip: go neare & toyne thy selfe to yonder charet. And Philip rāne to him/ & heard him rede the Prophet Elyas/ & sayde: vnderstandest thou what thou redest? And he sayde: how can I/ except thou rede? And he desired Philip that he wold come by & sit with him. The tenoure of the scripture which he rede was this. He was ledde as a shepe to be slayne: & lyke a lambe dome before his shearer/ so opened he not his mouth. Because of his humblenes/ he was not esteemed: who shal declare his generacyō? For his lyfe is taken fro the erthe. The chamberlayne answered Philip & sayde: I praye the/ of whom speaketh the Prophet thys/ of hym selfe/ or of some other man?

And Philip opened his mouth/ & beganne to saye at the same scripture/ & preached vnto hym Jesus. And as they went on their waye/ they came vnto a certayne water/ & the chamberlayne sayde: Se here is water/ what shall I let me to be baptised? Philip sayde vnto him: If thou beleue with all thine hert/ thou mayest. He answered and sayde: I beleue that Jesus Christ is the sonne of God. And he commaunded the charet to stande still. And they went doune bothe into the water: bothe Philip and also the chamberlayne/ and he baptised hym. And as soon as they were come out of the water/ the sprete of the Lorde caught away Philip/ that the chamberlayne sawe hym no moore. And he wēt on his waye reioysinge. But Philip was founde at Azotus. And he walked theowout the countre preachinge in their cities/ tyll he came to Cesarea.

Paul is converted/ and confoundeth the Jewes. Peter baptiseth Tabitha.

The ix. Chapter.

Saul yet brynginge out threatninges & slaughter agaynst the disciples of the Lorde/ went on to the hye priest/ & desired of hym letters to Damascus to the synagoges: that yf he founde any of thys waye whether they were men or women/ he myght bringe the bounde vnto Ierusalē. But as he journeyed & was come nye to Damascus/ suddenlye they shyned about hym a lyght fro heauē/ & he fell to the erth/ & heard a voyce sayinge to him: * Saul/ Saul why persecutest thou me? And he sayd: what arte thou Lorde? And the Lorde sayd: I am Jesus whō thou persecutest/ it shalbe harde for the to sycke agaynst the prycke. And he bothe tressylinge & a stonyed sayde: Lorde what wilt thou haue me to do? And the Lorde sayd vnto him: aryse & go into the cite/ & it shalbe tolde the what thou shalt do.

The men whych journeyed with him/ stood amazed/ for they heard a voyce/ but sawe no man. And Saul arose from the erth/ & opened his eyes/ but sawe no man. Then ledde they him by the hande/ and brought him into Damascus. And he was. in dayes without sight a netherate nor dranche. And ther was a certayne discipule at Damascus named Ananias and to him sayde the Lorde in a visyon: Ananias? And he sayde: beholde I am here Lorde. And the Lorde sayde vnto him: aryse & go into the cite whych is called Strayghet/ and seke in the house of Judas/ after one called Saul of Tarsus. For beholde he prayeth/ & hath sene in a visyon a man named Ananias comminge into him/ and puttinge his handes on him/ that he myght receaue his sight.

Then Ananias answered: Lorde/ I haue heard by many of this mā/ how moche euyl he hath Saul is converted.

And he sayntes he hath done to thy * sayntes at Jerusalem: & here he hath auctoryte of the hye prestes to bynde all & call on thy name. And he sayde unto hym: go thy wayes: for he is a chosen those that be bestell unto me, to beate my name before the Gentyles & kynges & the chyldren of Israel, for I will shewe hym how great thynges he must suffre for my names sake.

Ananias toke his waye and entred into his house, and put his handes on him and sayde: brother Saul, the Lorde that apperyd vnto the in the waye as thou camst, hath sent me, that thou myghtest receaue thy syght and be filled with the holy good. And immediatly he fell fro his eyes as it had bene scales, & he receaued syght & arose and was baptised, and receaued meate & was comforted. Then was Saul a certayne dayes with the discy- ples which were at Damasco. And strenght waye he preached Christ in the Synagoges, how that he was the sonne of God. All that hearde him, were amased & sayde: is not this he that spoyled the whych called on thys name in Jerusalem, & came hyther for pntent that he shuld bynge them bounde vnto hye prestes? But Saul encreased in strenght, & founded & Jewes which dwelt at Damasco aspyninge that this was very Christ.

And after a good whyle, & Jewes toke cost sell to gether, to kyl him. But their sayinge awaye was knowe of Saul. And they watched at the gates daye and nyght to kyl him.

Then the discyple toke hym by night & put him thorow a wall & let hi doune in a basket. And when Saul was come to Jerusalem, he assayed to coule him selfe with the discyple and they were all afrayde of hym, & belued not he was a discyple. But Barnabas toke him & brought him to the Apostles and declared to the how he had sene the Lorde in the waye, & had spoken with hym: & how he had done boldly at Damasco in the name of Iesu. And he had his couersaciō with them at Jerusalem, & quit him selfe boldly in the name of the Lorde Iesu. And he spake and disputed with the Grekes: & they went about to slea hym. But when the brythren knewe of that, they brought hym to Cesarea, and sent hym forth to Barsus. Then had the congregaciō rest thorowoute all Jewye and Galile and Samary, and were edifyed, & walked in the feare of the Lorde, and multiplied by the cō- forte of the holy good.

And it chauned as Peter walked thorowoute all quarters, he cam to the sayntes which dwelt at Lydda. And there he founde a certayne mā named Enas, which had kepte his bed, viij. yeres syke of the palsey. Then sayde Peter vnto hym: Enas Iesus Christ make the whole: arylle and make thy bed.

Enas.

And he arose immediatly. And all that dwelt at Lydda and Saron, saue hym, and tour- ned to the Lorde.

Then was at Joppa a certayne woman (whiche was a discyple named Tabitha, which by interpretaciō is called Dorcas) the same was full of good workes & almes dedes, which she did. And it chauned in those dayes that she was syke and dyed. When they had washed her and layd her in a chāber, because Lydda was nye to Joppa, & the discyple had hearde that Peter was there, they sent vnto him, bespynging him that he wolde not be gre- ued to come vnto them.

Peter arose & came to them. And when he was come, they brought him in to the chā- ber. And all the widowes stode round about him wepyng & shewing the cotes & garni- tes which Dorcas made whill she was with the. And Peter put the all forth & knelt dou- ne & prayde & turned him to the body & sayde: Tabitha, arise. And he opened her eyes, and when she sawe Peter, sat vp. And he gaue her the hande & lyft her vp, & called the saintes & wy- dowes, & shewed her all. And it was knowe thorowoute all Joppa, & many beleued on the Lorde. And it fortuned that he tarped many dayes in Joppa with one Simon a tanner.

The vision that Peter sawe. How he was sent to Cornelius. The brythren also receiue the spyrte, and are baptised.

The x. Chapter.

There was a certayne mā in Cesarea called Cornelius, a captayne of the souldiers of Italy, a deuoute mā, & one that feared God with all his housholde, which gaue moche almes to the people, and prayde God alwaye. The same saue in a vision euidently aboute the mydte houre of the daye, an Angell of God cominge into him, and sayinge vnto hym: Cornelius. When he looked on him, he was afrayde & sayd what is it Lorde? He sayde vnto hym: Thy prayers & thy almes are come vp into re- membrance before God. And now sende me to Joppa, & call for one Simon named also Peter. He lodgeth with one Simon a tanner whose house is by the see syde. He shall tell the what thou oughtest to do. When the Angell which spake vnto Cornelius, was depar- ted, he called two of his housholde seruantes, and a deuoute souldyer of them that waited on hym, and tolde them all the mater, and sent them to Joppa.

On the morowe as they went on their journey & drew nye vnto the cite, Peter went vp vnto the toppe of the house to praye, about the viij. houre. Then were he an hongred, & wolde haue eat. But whyll they made redy. He fell into a trance, and sawe heauen opened and a certayne Tabitha, Dorcas.

And he sayde vnto them: Ye knowe how that it is an vnlawfull thinge for a mā that is a Jewe, to company or come vnto an aliē: but God hath shewed me that I shulde not call any man common or vncleane: therfore came I vnto you without sayinge naye, allone as I was sent for. What therfore, for what in- tence haue ye sent for me.

certayne bestell come donne vnto hym, as it had bene a grete shete, lyng at the, iij. cor- ners, and was let doune to the erth, where in were all maner of, iij. footed beastes of the erth, and beemen & wynges, & foules of the ayre. And ther came a voyce to him: rise, Peter, kyl & ate. But Peter sayde: God forbyd, I haue neuer eat any thinge that is conuenient of vncleane. And the voyce spake vnto him agayne the secōde tyme: what God hath clenfed, that make thou not comē. This was done thys tyme, and the bestell was receaued vp agayne into heauen.

While Peter nased in him selfe what this vision, which he had sene meate, beholde, the men which were sent from Cornelius, had made inquiri: for Sionnys house, & stode before the doye. And called out one and asked whether Simon which was also called Pe- ter were lodged there. Whyll Peter thought on this vision, the spyrte sayde vnto him: be- holde, mē, & he therayse the, & gett downe & go with them, & doute not: for I haue sent them. Peter went downe to the mē which were sent vnto him from Cornelius, and sayde: Beholde, am I whom ye seke, what is the cause wherfore ye are come? And they sayde vnto him: Cornelius the captayne, a iust mā, and one that feareth God, and of good re- port amonge all the people of the Jewes, was warned by an holy angell to sende for thee into his house, and to heare wordes of the. Then called he them in, and lodged them.

And on the morowe Peter went awaye to them, and certayne brythren from Joppa accompanied him. And the thrid daye entred they into Cesaria. And Cornelius waited for the, and had called to gether his kynsmen, & spe- ciall frendes. And as it chauned Peter to come in, Cornelius met him, and fell doune at his feete, and worshipped hym. But Peter toke him vp sayinge: Rise vp, for I am a man. And as he talked with him he cam in, & founde many that were come to gether. And he sayde vnto them: Ye knowe how that it is an vnlawfull thinge for a mā that is a Jewe, to company or come vnto an aliē: but God hath shewed me that I shulde not call any man common or vncleane: therfore came I vnto you without sayinge naye, allone as I was sent for. What therfore, for what in- tence haue ye sent for me.

And Cornelius sayde: This daye now, siff, dayes I fasted, & at the mydte houre I prayde in my house: & beholde, a mā stode before me in bright clothynge, & sayde: Cornelius, thy prayers are heard, & thine almes dedes are had in remembrance in the syght of God. Sende therfore to Joppa, & call for Simon whych is also called Peter. He is lodged in the house of one Symon a tanner by the see syde, the whiche allone as he is come, shall spake vnto the. Then sent I for the immediatly: & thou hast well done for to come. Now are we all here present before God, to heare all thynges that are commaunded vnto the of God.

Then Peter opened his mouth & sayde: Of a truth I perceaue, that God is not parcial, but in all people he that feareth hym, & wor- keth rightewisnes, is accepted with him.

Ye knowe the preachinge that God sent vnto the chyldren of Israel, preachinge peace by Iesus Christ, which is Lorde ouer all, therfore that things, which were published by his workes, shew oute all Jewye, and beganne in Sa- lile, after the baptyme which John preached with the holy good, and with power. Which Iesus went aboute doinge good, & healinge all that were opprelled of the deuils, for God was with hym. And we are witnesses of all thynges whych he dyd in the lande of the Jewes, & at Jerusalem, whom they slew, & hanged on a tree. Him God ressed vp the thrid daye, & shewed him openly, not to all the people, but vnto us wytnes chosen before of God, whych ate & dronke with him, after he arose from the dead. And he commaunded vnto us to preache vnto all people, & testifye, that it is he that is ordeined of God a iudge of quyethe & deed. out them can it be knowne whether we be very Chyrtien or not, no more then we can knowe a tre to be chynge. And they of the circumcisiō whych were asayed, as many as came to Peter, because that on the Gentyls also was shed oute the gyfte of the holy good. For they heare them speake with tonges & magnify God. Then answered Peter: can any mā forbid water, & these shuld not be baptised, whych haue receaued the holy good as well as we? And he commaunded them to be baptised in the name of the Lorde. Then prayde they vnto tary a feawe dayes.

The xi. Chapter.

So the Apostles & the brythren that were thorowoute Jewye heard saye getenes for the wordes of God. And whē Peter was come by to Jerusalem, they of the circumcisiō reasoned with hym sayinge: Thou wentest into men vncircumcised, and ate with them, taught by the ho- ly ghost of the conuersion of the gentyles.

Then Peter began & expounded the thyng in order to the sayinge: I was in the cytye of Joppa prayinge, & in a trance I sawe a vision.

They which were scatterd abroade thow the affliction that arose aboute Steue/walhed thow oute till they came into Phenice and Cyper & Antioche preachinge the worde to no man/but into Jewes only. Some of them were men of Cyper and Syene/whych when they were come into Antioche/spake unto the Grekes/and preached of Iorde Jesus. And the hande of the Iorde was with them/and a greate nombze beleued & turned into the Iorde.

¶ Thynges of these thinges came into the eares of the congregaciō/whych was in Jerusalem. And they sent forth Barnabas that he shuld go into Antioche. Whych when he was come and had sene & grace of God/was glad/and exhorted the all/that with purpose of hert/they wolde continually cleaue unto the Lorde. For he was a goodman/ and full of the holy goost & of saythe: & moche people was added unto the Lorde. Then departed Barnabas to tarsus/for to seke Saul. And when he had founde hym/ he brought hym unto Antioche. And it chaunced that a while ere they had ther conuersacion wth the congregation there/ and taught moche people: in so moche that disciples of Antioche were the first that were called Ch^{ri}sten.

* In those dayes came Prophecie fro Ze. Act. xxi. 11. rusale into Antioche. And ther stode by one of them named Agabus/and signified by the sperte/that ther shuld be great dearth throughout all the world/whych came to passe in the Emprours Claudius dayes. Then the disciples euery man accordinge to his abilitie/purposed to sende recourse vnto the brethren whych dwelt in Ieruzp. whych thinge they also dyd/sent it to the elders/by the handes of Barnabas and Saul.

Herode persecuteth the Christen / killeth Iames his putteth Peter in prison / whom the Lord deliuereth by an Angell. The shamefull death of Herode.

The .xj. Chapter. †

At that tyme Herode the kynge of Iherusalem led forth his hād to bere certayne of the congregacyō. And he kylled James the brother of John with the swerde & because he sawe that it pleased the Jewes, he proceded forth & toke Peter also. Then were the dayes of swete byerd. And whē he had caught him, he put him in prison & deliuered him to iiii. quartillions of souldyers to be kepte/entendynge after eſter to bringe him forth to the people. When was Peter kepte in prison. But prayer was made wth out ceasynge of the congregacion, vnto God for him. And whē Herode wold haue brought hym oute vnto the people, the same nyght slepte Peter bitwene two souldyers, bounde with two chaynes, and the keepers befoze the doze kepte the prison.

And beholde the angell of the Lorde was there present/and a light shyned in the lodge.
And he smote Peter on the syde/ & steryd hym by sayinge: aryse by quickly. And his cheyns fell of from his handes. And the Angell sayd vnto hym: gyste thy selfe and bynde on thy * sandales. And so he doyd. And he sayde vnto hym: cast thy mantle aboute the/ and folowe me. And he came oute and folowed hym/ and wist not/ that it was trithe whych was done by þe Angel/ but thought he had sene a vision.
When they were past the fyrst and the secode watche/ they came vnto the yron gate/ that letheth vnto the cite/ which opened to the by his awne accorde. And they went out & passed thowre one strete/ and by and by the Angell departed from hym.

And when Peter was come to hym selfe/he sayde now I knowe of a suretye/ that the Lorde hath sent his Angel/ & hath deliuered me out of the hande of Herode/ & from all the waytyng

¶ And as he consydzed the thynges he came to þe house of Mary the mother of one *John/ which was called Marke also/ where many were gathered to gether in prayer. As Peter knocked at þe entry doze/ a dāsell came forth to herken/ named Rhoda. And whē she knew Peters boyce/ she opened not the entre for gladnes/ but ran in and told how Peter stood befoze þe entre. And they sayde vnto her: thou arte mad. And she bare theȝe doime that it was euen so. Then sayde they: it is his angel. But Peter contynued knockynge: and when they had opened the doze/ a sawe hym/ they were astonyed. And he beckened vnto theȝe wyth the hande/ to holde their peace/ and tolde them by what meanes þe Lorde had brought him oute of the prison. ¶ And he sayde: go shew these thynges vnto James & to the brethzen. And he departed and went into a nother place.

None as it was daye ther was no lpttell a Peter. When Herode had called for him/and founde him not/he examined the keepers/and cōmaunded the to departe. And he descended from Iewry to Cesarea/and ther aboode. He-rode was displeased wth them of Cyre and Sidon. And they came all at once/and made intercession vnto Blastus the kynges cham-berlen/and besyched peace/because their coun-trei was noysshed by the kynges lande. And vpon a daye appoynted/Herode arayed hym in royall apparell/and set him in his seate/ & made an oracion vnto them. And the people gaue a shoute, sayinge: it is the boyce of a God and not of a man. And immediatly the angel of the Lorde smote him/ because he gaue not God the honour/ & he was eaten of wormes & gaue by the goost. And the worde of God growe & multiplied. And Barnabas & Paul returned to Ierusalem/ whē they had fulfyl-led their offyce/ & toke wth the John/ which was also called Marcus.

Paul and Barnabas are called to preache amonge þ

The xiiij. Chapter.

Here were at Antioche/in the congregation certayne Propheets & teachers: as Barnabas and Simon called Niger/ & Lucius of Crene and Manahen Herode the Tetrarkes nois-felowe/ and Saul. As they ministered to the Lorde & fasted/ the holy gost sayde/ separate me Barnabas & Saul/ for the worke where unto I haue called them. Then fasted they & prayed/ and put their handes on them/ & let them go. And they after they were sent of the holy goost/ came vnto Seleucia/ and from thence they sayled to Cyprius. And when they were come to Solamine / they shewed the worde of God in the synagogues of Iewes.

And they had John to their minister:

When they had gone thozout of Yle into the citie of Paphos/they founde a certayne forcerer/a false prophet which was a Jewe/ & named Barietu/which was wryth of ruler of the countre one Sergius Paulus a prudent man. The same ruler called unto hym Barnabas and Saul/ & desyred to heare the worde of God. But elymas the forcerer (for so was his name by interpretaciō) with stood the/ & sought to turne away the ruler from the sayth. Then Saul which also is called Paul beyng full of holy goost set his eyes on hym/ & sayde ¶ full of all subtiltye & craftynesse of all vyrgheousnes/ thou ceasest not to peruert the strayght wayes of the Lord. And now beholde the hande of the Lord is by the/ & thou shalt be bynde & not se þe sunne for a season. And immediatly ther fell on hym a myste & a darchnes/ & he was aboute sekinge the that shuld leade him by the hande. Then the ruler whē he sawe what had happened/ beleued/ & wondred at the doctrine of the Lord.

When they that were with Paul/were departed by shippe fro Paphus/they came to Perga a citie of Pamphilia: and there John departed from them/ and returned to Jerusalem. But they wandred thozowe the countres fro Perga to Antioche a citie of the countrey of Isidia/ and wēt into the synagoge on the Saboth daye and sate doune. And after the lawe and the Prophetes were redde/ the rulers of the synagoge sent unto the sayinge Ye men and brethren/ yf ye haue any sermon to exhorthe the people/ saye on.

Then Paul stode by and bekened with the hande/ & sayre: Men of Israel/ & ye that feare God/ geue audience. The God of thys people chose oure fathers/ and exalted the people when they dwelt as straungers in the lande of Egypt/ and with a myghty arme brought them oute of it/ and about the tyme of xl. yeares suffred he their maners in the wyldernes. And he destroyed bliuayons in

And after that / they deuyed a kynge / & God gaue vnto them Saul the sonne of Cis / a man of the trybe of Benjamin / by the space of. xI. yeres. And after he had put hym doune / he set by Dauid to be theiſ kynge / of whome he reported sayinge: I haue founde Dauid the sonne of Jesse / a man after myne awne heart / he shall fulfill all my wyll.

in condepyninge him. And when they founde no cause of deeth in him/pet depyed they Pilate to kill him. And when they had fulfilled all that were written of hym/they toke hym doune fro & tree & put him in a sepulchre. But God rayled hym agayne fro deeth/& he was sene many dayes of them whych came with hym from Galilee to Ierusalem. Whych are his witness vnto the people.

And we declare vnto you/how that & promes made vnto & fathers/God hath fulfilled vnto vs their chylde/in that he reysed vp Jesus agayne. & even as it is written in the fyrste psalme: Thou arte my sonne/this same daye begat I the. As concerninge that he reysed hym vp from deeth/nor no more to retorne to corrupcyon/he sayde on this wyse: The holy promyses made to David/I will geue the faithfully to you. Wherfore he saith also in another place: Thou shalt not suffice thine hoyle to be corrupcyō. Howbeit David after he had in hys tyme fulfilled the will of God he slepte/& was layde with his fathers/and sawe corrupcyō. But he whō God reysed agayne/sawe no corrupcyō.

¶ We it knowne vnto you therfore ye men & brethren/that thozow thys man is preached vnto you the forgyuenes of synnes/& that by hym/all that beleue/are iustified fro all thynges from which ye coude not be iustified by the lawe of Moyses. Beware therfore lest & fall on you/whych is spokē of in & Prophet: Beholde ye despyfers & wonder/& peryshe ye: for I do a worke in youre dayes/whych ye shal not beleue/yf a mā wolde declare it you. When they were come out of & Synagoge of the Jewes/the Gentyis besought & they wolde preache the worde to the betwene the Saboth dayes. When the congregaciō was broken vp/many of the Jewes and vertuous couerens folowed Paul & Barnabas/whych spake to them & exhorted them to contynue in & grace of God. And nerte Saboth daye came almoste & whole citie to gether to heare the worde of God. When the Jewes sawe the people/they were full of indignaciō & spake agaynst those thynges whych were spoken of Paul speakinge agaynst it/& raylinge on it. Then Paul and Barnabas wered boide/and sayde: it was mete & the worde of God shuld fyrst haue bene preached to you. But seynge ye put it from you/& thinke youre selues better of euerslange lyfe: so we turne to & Gentyis: for so hath & Lorde commaunded us. I haue made the a lyght to & Gentyis/that thou be saluacion vnto & ende of the worlde.

Act. 13. 46.

The gentylis hearde & were glad and glorified the worde of the Lorde/& beleued: euē as many as were ordeyned vnto eternal life. And the worde of the Lorde was publyshed thozowe oute all the region. But the Jewes moued the worshipfull and honozable men & the chiefe men of the citie/& reysed persecucion agaynst Paul and Barnabas and expelled the oute of their costes. And they thought of the duste of their fete agaynst the/& came vnto Iconium. And the disciples were filled with foye and with the holy goost.

Math. 23. 1. Mark. 11. 1. Luke. 11. 1.

Paul and Barnabas preach at Iconium/ some beleue/ some were by sedition. At Listra they wolde do face to Barnabas and Paul/whych refuse it/and exhorted the people to worshyppe the true God/ Paul is stoned after that cometh he to Derbe/ Lystra Iconium and to Antioche.

The xiii. Chapter.

¶ As it fortuned in Iconium & they went both to gether into & Synagoge of & Jewes/& so spake/that a gret multitude both of & Jewes & also of & Grekes beleued. But & vnbeleuynge Jewes/sterpyd by & inquisited the myndes of & Gentyis agaynst & brethren. Longe tyme a boode they there & quyt the selues boldly with & helpe of the Lorde/whych gaue testimony vnto the worde of his grace/& caused signes & wondres to be done by their handes. The people of the citie were deuyled: and parte helde with the Jewes/and parte with the Apostles.

When ther was a faulte made both of the Gentyis & also of the Jewes/with their rulers/to put them to shame and to stone them they were ware of it/& fled vnto Lystra and Derbe/cities of Lycaonia/& vnto & region lyeth round aboute/& there preached & Gospel. And ther late a certayne man at Lystra weake in his fete/depnge creple fro his mothers wombe/and neuer walkyd. The same hearde Paul preache. Whych behelde hym & perceaued that he had sayth to be whole/and said with a loude voyce: stand vp right on thy fete. And he stert vp/and walked. And when & people sawe/what Paul had done/they lyfte by their boyces/sayinge in & speache of Lycaonia: Goddes are come doune to vs in & lyphes of me. And they called Barnabas Iupiter/& Paul Mercurius/because he was the preacher preacher. Then Iupiter prest/whych dwelt before their citie/brought oren & garlandes vnto the churche porche/& wolde haue done sacrifice with the people.

¶ But when the Apostles/Barnabas & Paul herde that/they rent their clothes/and ran amonge the people/cryng and saying: why do ye this? We are mortall men like vnto you/and preache vnto you/that ye shulde turne from these vanyties vnto the lyvinge God/whych made heauē & erth & the see & all & in the is: the whych in tymes past suffered all nacions to walche in their awne wayes. Neuerthelesse he lette not him selfe withoute wytnes/ in that he shewed hys benefites/ in geuyng vs rayne from heauē and frutefull seasons/fylling oure hertes wth fode/& gladnes. And with these saynges/scale refrayned they the people/that they had not done sacrifice vnto them.

Ther came certayne Jewes fro Antioche and Iconium/& obtayned the peoples consent/& stoned Paul/and drew hym out of & citie/suppouslyng he had bene deed. Howbeit as the disciples stode rounde about him he arose vp and came into the citie. And & nerte daye he departed with Barnabas to Derbe. After they had preached to that citie/and had taught many/they returned agayne to Lystra/& to Iconium & Antioche/& strengthened the disciples soules/exhortynge them to contynue in the sayth/affirmynge that we must thozowe moche tribulacion/entre into the kynghome of God. And they ordeyned them elders by election in euery congregacion/and prayde and fasted/and commended the to God on whom they beleued. And they went thozow out Pisidia & came to Pamphilia/and when they had preached the worde of God in Perga/they descended in to Attalia/& thence departed by shippe to Antioche/ from whence they were deliuered vnto the grace of God/to the worke whych they had fulfilled. When they were come & had gathered the congregacion to gether/they reherced all that God had done by them/& how he had opene the doore of sayth vnto the Gentyis. And there they abode longe tyme with the disciples.

¶ The xv. Chapter. Then came certayne from Jewe/and taught the brethren. Excepte ye be circumcysed after the maner of Moyses/ye cannot be saued. And when ther was ryfen dissencion & disputynge not a lyttel vnto Paul & Barnabas agaynst them. They determined that Paul and Barnabas/and certayne other of them shuld ascende to Ierusalem vnto the Apostles & elders aboute thys questyon. And after they were brought on their waye by the congregacion/they passed ouer Phenices & Samaria/declaringe the conuersion of the Gentyis/and they brought great ioye vnto all the brethren. And when they were come to Ierusalem/they were receaued of the congregacion and of & Apostles and elders. And they declared what thynges God had done by the. Then rose vp certayne of the secte of the Pharises/whych dyd beleue/saying/ that it was nedfull to circumcise them and to enioyne them to kepe & lawe of Moyses. And the Apostles & elders came to gether to reason of this matter.

And when ther was moche disputynge/Peter rose vp & sayd vnto the: Ye men & brethren/ye knowe how that a good whyle agoo/God chose amonge vs & the Gentyis by my mouth shuld heare the worde of the Gospel and beleue. And God whych knoweth the hert/bare them wytnes/and gaue vnto them the holy goost/euen as he dyd vnto vs and he put no difference betwene the & vs/ but with sayth & purified their hertes. Now therfore why tempt ye God/that ye wolde put a yoke on the disciples neckes/whych neither our fathers nor we were able to beare. But we beleue that thozowe the grace of the Lorde & the holyspirt/we shalbe saued/as they do. When all the multitude was peased and gaue audience to Barnabas and Paul/whych tolde what signes and wondres God had shewed amonge the Gentyis by them.

And when they helde their peace James answered saying: Men & brethren/herken vnto me. Simeon tolde how God at & beginning dyd visit & Gentyis/& receaued of the people vnto his name. And to this agreyth & word of the Prophetes/as it is writte. After this I will retorne/& I will byde agayne/the tabernacle of David which is fallen doune/and I will byde agayne/and I will set it vp/that the residue of men myght see after the Lorde/& also & Gentyis. vpon whō my name is named sayth & Lorde/whych doth all these thynges: knowe vnto God are all his wayes fro the beginning of the worlde. Wherfore my sentence is/that we trouble not the which fro amonge the Gentyis/are turned to God: but & we wyte vnto the/that they absteyne the schies from filthynges of ymagines from fornicacion/ from & strangled & fro bloude. For Moyses of olde tyme hath in euery citie that preache him/& he is rede in & Synagogs euery Saboth daye. Then pleased it the Apostles & elders the whole congregacion/to sende chosen men of their awne company to Antioche wth Paul and Barnabas. They sent Judas called also Barsabas/& Syllas/whych were chiefe men amonge amonge the brythren/and gaue them letters in their handes after this maner.

The Apostles/elders & brythren send gre-tynges vnto the brythē which are of Gen-tys in Antioche/Syria and Cilicia. For as moche as we haue hearde & certayne whych departed from vs / haue troubled you wth wordes/and combred your myndes saying: Ye must be circumcysed and kepe the lawe/to whom we gaue no suche commaundement.
It seemed therfore to vs a good thinge/when we were come to gether with one accorde/to sende chosen men vnto you / wth our beloued Barnabas and Paul/men that haue reparaded their lyues for the name of oure Lorde Jesu Christ. We haue sent therfore Judas and Silas/which shall also tell you & same thynges by mouth. For it seemed good to the holy goost & to vs/to put no greuous thyng to you/more then these necessary thynges: & is to saue/that ye abstayne from thynges offered to ymages/from bloud/from stragled and fornicacion. Fro which ye kepe your selues/ye shall do well. So fare ye well.

¶ When they were departed/they cam to An-tioche and gathered & multitude to gether/& deliuered the pistle. When they had rede it/they reioysed of that consolacion. And Judas & Silas beinge Prophetes/exhorted & briefly taught the people wth moche preaching/and strenghted the. And after they had taried there a space/they were let go in peace of the brythē vnto the Apostles. Not wthstandinge it pleased Silas to abyde there still. Paul & Barnabas continued in Antioche teaching & preaching & worde of & Lorde wth other many.

¶ But after a certayne space/Paul sayd vnto Barnabas: Let vs go agayne and visite oure brythē in euery cytie where we haue preached & worde of & Lorde/so how they do.

¶ And Barnabas gaue counsell to take wth them John/called also Marke. But Paul thought it not mete to take hym vnto their company which departed from the at Pamphi-lia/ & went not wth the to the worke. And the diffencion was so warpe betwene them/that they departed a sinder one from the other:
so that Barnabas toke Marke and sayled vnto Cyprus. And Paul chose Silas & departed/depriued of the brythē vnto the grace of God. And he went thowhe all Cyria and Cilicia/establishinge the congregacions.

¶ Timothy is circumcysed. Paul preacheth at Philippos/and ther is he put in prison.

The .xviij. Chapter.

¶ When cam he to Berba & to Lystra.
And beholde a certayne discypyle was there named Timotheus / a yongmanne which was a Jewel-le & beleued: but his father was a Greke. Of whom reported well the brythē of Lystra & of Iconium. The same Paul wolde that he should go forth wth him/and take & circum-cise him because of the Jewes whych were in those quarters: for they knewe all / & his father was a Greke. As they went thowhe the cyties/they deliuered the & decrees for to kepe / ordeyned of the Apostles and elders/whych were at Jerusalem. And so were the congregacions stablished in the sayth / and encreased in numbere dayly.

¶ When they had gone thowhe out Phyligia/& the region of Galacia/and were forbydden of the holý goost to preach the worde in Asia/they came to Mysia/ & sought to go into Bethynia. But the sprete forbad the not. Then they went ouer Mysia/ and came doune to Troada. And a vision appered to Paul in & nyght. There stode a man of Macedonia and prayed him/saying: come in to Macedonia & helpe vs. After he had sene the vision/immediately we prepared to go in to Macedonia/certified & the Lorde had called vs/for to preache the & gospell vnto the. Then tolde we forth fro Troada/ & wth a straight course cam to Samothracia/ & the nexte daye to Neapolum/& fro thence to Philippios / which is & cheste citie in & partes of Macedonia/ & a fre citie.

¶ We were in that citie abidinge a certayne dayes. And on & Saboth dayes we wet out of the citie besydes a ryuer where men were wont to praye. And we sate doune and spake vnto the women which resorted thither. And a certayne woman named Lydia a seller of purple/of the citie of Thyatira/ which worshipped God/gaue vs audience. Whose hert the Lorde opened that she attended vnto the thynges/which Paul spake. When she was baptised and her household/the besought vs saying: If ye thinke & I beleue on & Lorde/come into my house/ & abyde there. And she constrayned vs.

¶ And it fortuned as we went to praye/ & a certayne damsell possessed wth a sprete that prophesied/met vs/which brought her master & maistres moche bauntage wth Prophe-tyng. The same folowed Paul and vs and cryed saying: these men are the seruantes of the most hye God/which we we vnto vs & waye of saluacyon. And thys dyd she many dayes. But Paul not content/turned about and sayde to the sprete. I commaunde the in the name of Jesu Christ / that thou come out of her. And he came out the same houre.

¶ And when her master and maistres sawe that & hope of their gaignes was gone / they caught Paul and Silas / and drowe the into the market place vnto the rulers/ & brought the to the officers saying: these men trouble oure cytie/which are Jewes & preache ordinances/

naunces/ which are not lafull for vs to receiue/nether to obserue/ seinge we are Ro-mayns. And & people ranne on the/ & the officers rent their clothes/ & commaunded the to be beatē wth rodde. And when they had beatē them soze/they cast the into prison/commasdyng the layler to kepe them surely. Which sayler when he had receaued suche commaun-dement/ thrust them into the ynnere prison/ & made their fete fast in the stocks.

¶ At mydnight Paul & Silas prayed/and lauded God. And the prisoners heard them.
And sodenly ther was a grete earthquake/so that the foundacion of & prison was shaken/& by & by all & doores opened/ & euery manes bandes were loosed. When the keeper of the prison waked out of his slepe & sawe the pre-son doores open he drowe oute his swearde and wolde haue kyllid him selfe/supposinge the prisoners had bene fledde. But Paul cried wth a loude voyce saying: do thy selfe no harme/for we are all heere. Then he called for a lyght and sprange in and cam tremblinge/& fell doune before Paul & Silas/ & brought the oute & sayde: Srys what must I do to be saued? And they sayde: beleue on the Lorde Jesu & thou shalt be saued & thy household.
¶ And they preached vnto him the worde of the Lorde/ & to all that were in his house. And he toke the same houre of the nyght & walshed their woundes/ & was baptised wth all & belonged vnto him straight waye. Wth he had brought the into his house/he set meate before them / and toged that he wth all his householde/beleued on God.

¶ And when it was daye/the officers sent & ministers saying: let those men go. The keeper of the prison tolde this sayinge to Paul/the officers haue sent worde to loose you. Now therfore get you here and go in peace. Then sayd Paul vnto the: they haue beatē vs openly vncōdemned/ for all & we are Romayns/& haue cast vs into prison: & now wolde they sende vs awaye pruely? Naye not so/ but let the come the selues & fet vs out. When & ministers tolde these wordes vnto & officers/ they feared when they heard that they were Ro-mayns/ & cam & besought the / and brought the out/and desyred them to departe out of & cytie. And they went out of & prison & entred into & house of Lydia/ & when they had sene the brythē/they comforted them & departed.

¶ Paul cometh to Thessalonica/where the Jewes set the cytie on a roze. Paul escapeth/ & cometh to Athens/where he preacheth the true & unknowne God.

The .xviij. Chapter.

¶ They made their iorney thowhe.
Amphipolis/and Appolonia/they cam to Thessalonica where was a Synagoge of the Jewes. And Paul as his maner was went in vnto them/& the Saboth dayes declared out of the scripture vnto them/ & openinge & allegenge that Christ must nedes haue suffered and risen a-gayne from deeth / and that this Iesus was Christ/whom (sayd he) I preache to you. And some of them beleued & cam and companied wth Paul and Silas: also of the honourable Grekes a grete multitude & of & cheste women/not a fewe.

¶ But & Jewes which beleued not hauyng indignacio/toke vnto them euyl men which were bagabondes/ & gathered a company/ & B set all the cytie on a roze / and made assaut vnto the house of Jason/ & sought to bryng them out to the people. But wth they founde them not/they drowe Jason and certayne bry-thē vnto the heedes of & citie crying: these that trouble the worlde are come hydder alto which Jason hath receaued pruely. ¶ And John. xij. c. these all do contrary to the decrees of Cesar/affirmyng another kyng/ one Iesus. And they troubled the people & the officers of the cytie / when they heard these thynges. And when they were sufficiently answered of Jason & of the other/they let them go.

¶ And the brythē immediately sent awaye Paul and Silas by nyghte vnto Berrea.
Which when they were come thither/they entred in to the Synagoge of the Jewes.
These were the noblest of bythe anidge the of Thessalonica / which receaued the worde wth all diligence of mynde / and searched the scriptures dayly whether those thynges were euen so. And many of them beleued: also of woymfull women which were Grekes/and of men not a fewe. Wth the Jewes of Thessalonica had knowledge that & worde of God was preached of Paul at Berrea/they came and moued the people there. And then by and by the brythē sent awaye Paul to go as it were to the see: but Silas & Ti-motheus abode there still. And they that gy-ded Paul/brought him vnto Athens/and re-ceaued a commaundement vnto Silas & Timo-theus for to come to him at once & came their waye. Wthill Paul wayted for the at Athens/his sprete was moued in him / to se the cytie geuen to woympyng of ymages. When he disputed in the synagoge wth the Jewes/ & wth & deuout persones/and in the market day-ly wth them that came vnto hym. Certayne Philosophers of the Epicures and of the Stoicks/disputed wth him. And some ther were which sayd: what will this babler saye?

¶ Other sayde: he seemeth to be a tydynges brynger of newe deuisties/because he preached vnto them Iesus & the resurreccio. And they toke hym/ & brought hym into Marce stree sayinge: maye we not knowe what this new doctrine wherof thou speakest / is: for thou byngest straunge tydings to oure eares. We wolde know therfore what these thinge meane. For all the Athenians and Strangers which were there / gaue the felix to nothing / els / but ether to tell of to heare new tydings.

Paul stode in the myddes of Marce stete & sayde: ye men of Athens / perceaue that in all thinges ye are to superstitious. For as I passed by and behelde þ maner how ye worshipp your goddes / I founde an altier wherin was writte: vnto the vnknowen God. Whom ye then ignorantly worshipp him thewe I vnto you: God þ made the worlde & all that are in it / seyinge that he is Lord of heauē and erth / he dwelleth not in tempels made wyth handes / nether is worshipped wyth mennes handes / as though he needed of eny thyng / seinge he him selfe geueth lyfe and bryeth to all men euery where and hath made of one bloud all nacions of men / so to dwell on all the face of the erth / and hath assigned befoze / how longe tyme / & also the endes of their inhabitation / that they shuld seke God / yf they myght fele & synde him though he be not farre from euery one of vs. For in him we lyue / moue and haue pourre beinge / as certayne of your sowne Poetes sayd. For we are also his generation. For as moche then as we are generation of God / we ought not to thinke the Godhed is lyke vnto golde / syluer or stone / graue by crasse & ymaginaciō of mā. And the tyme of this ignorance God regarded not. But now he biddeth all men euery were repent / because he hath appoynted a daye / in the which he will iudge the worlde accordinge to ryghtewynesse / by that mā whom he hath apoynted / & hath offered faith to all men. When they hearde of the resurrection fro deeth / some mocked / and other sayd: we will heare the agayne of thys matter. So Paul departed fro amonge the. Howbeit certayne of Christ God men claue vnto Paul & beleued / amonge the which was Dionisius a senatour / and a woman named Damaris / and other with the.

Paul preacheth at Corinthum / continuing there nyete and a half / goeth agayne into Syria / cometh to Ephesus / Cesarea and Antioche. Of Apollos / Aquila and Priscilla.

The xviij. Chapter.

After that Paul departed from Athens & came to Corinth / & founde a certayne Jewe named Aquila borne in Pontus / lately come fro Italie with his wyfe Priscilla / because that the Emperour Claudius had commaunded all Jewes to departe from Rome / & he bytwe vnto the. And because he was of þ same crasse / he abode with them & wrought: their crasse was to make tentes. And he preached in the synagoge euery Saboth daye / & exhorted þ Jewes and the gentylis.

When Silas and Timotheus were come from Macedonia / Paul was constrained by the sperte to testifie to the Jewes that Jesus was very Christ. And when they sayde contrary & blasphemed / he shoke his raiment and sayde vnto the: your bloud vpon your sowne heeddes / & from hence forth I go blamelesse vnto the gentylis. And he departed thence / & entered into a certayne mannes house named Tulus a worshipper of God / whose house ioyned hard to the synagoge. Howbeit one Crispus the chiefe ruler of the synagoge beleued on the Lord with all his household / & many of the Corinthians gaue audiere / & he leued and were baptised.

Then spake the Lord to Paul in the nyght by a visyon: be not afrayde / but speake / and holde not thy peace: for I am with the / & no mā shall muade the that shall hurte the. For I haue moche people in this cite. And he continued there a yere and syre monethes / and taught them the worde of God.

When Gallio was ruler of the countre of Achaia the Jewes made insurrection to one accorde agaynst Paul / & brought him to the iudgement seate / sayng: this fellow conuerleth men to worshipp God contrary to þ lawe. And as Paul was about to open his mouth / Gallio sayde vnto the Jewes: yf it were a matter of wronge / or an euill dede (we Jewes) reason wold that I shulde heare you: but yf it be a question of word / or of names / or of your lawe / loke ye to it your selues. For I will be no iudge in soche matters / & he draue the fro the seate. Then toke all the Grekes holdenes þ chiefe ruler of the synagoge / & smote him befoze þ iudges seate. And Gallio cared for none of those thynges.

Paul after this / tarried there yet a good whyle / & then toke his leaue of the brythre / & sayed thence into Creta / Priscilla & Aquila accompanying him. And he shoke his heed in Cenchrea / for he had a bowe. And he came to Ephesus & lette them there: but he hym selfe entered into the synagoge / and reasoned to the Jewes. When they despyed hym to tary longer tyme with them / he consented not / but had them fare well sayng: I must needs at this feast that cometh / be in Jerusalem: but I will retorne agayne vnto you / yf God will. And he departed from Ephesus & came vnto Cesarea: & ascended and saluted the congregacion / & departed vnto Antioche / & whē he had tarried there a whyle he departed. And went ouer all the countre of Galacia and Phrygia by order / & reuengeinge all the disciples.

And a certayne Jewe named Apollos / borne borne at Alexandria / came to Ephesus / an eloquent mā / and myghty in the scriptures. The same was informed in the waye of the Lord / & he spake feruently in the synagoge / & taught diligently the thynges of þ Lord / & knewe but the baptisme of Iohn only. And the same begā to speake boldly in the synagoge. And when Aquila and Priscilla had heard him / they toke him vnto the & expounded vnto him þ waye of God more perfectly.

And whē he was disposed to go into Achaia / the brythzen wrote exhortynge the disciples to receaue him. After he was come thither / he holpe them moche which had beleued thow grace. And myghtely he ouercame the Jewes / and that openly / thewyng by the scriptures that Jesus was Christ.

Of the xxi. men whom Paul baptised at Ephesus / and what miracles were done by him. Demetrius moueth sedicion in the cite.

The xxi. Chapter.

Fortuned whyll Apollos was at Corinthum / that Paul passed thow the upper costes and came to Ephesus / & founde certayne disciples / & sayde vnto the: haue ye receaued the holy good sence ye beleued? And they sayde vnto hym: no we haue not hearde whether ther be eny holy goost or no. And he sayde vnto the: wherwith were ye then baptised? And they sayd: with Iohns baptyme. Then sayd Paul: Iohn herely baptised with the baptim of repentance / sayng vnto the people that they shuld beleue on him / which shuld come after him: that is on Christ Jesus. Whē they heard that / they were baptised in the name of the Lord Jesus. And Paul layde his handes vpon them / & the holy goost came on them / & they spake with tonges / and prophesied / and all the men were about xxi.

And he wēt into the synagoge / & behaued hym selfe boldly for the space of thre monethes / disputinge and geuynge them exhortacions of the kyngdom of God. When dyuers wered harde herted & beleued not / but spake euill of the waye / and that befoze the multitude: he departed from the / and separed the disciples. And he disputed daily in þ scole of one called Tyrannus. And this contynued by the space of two yeres: so that all they which dwell in Asia / hearde the worde of the Lord Jesus / bothe Jewes & Grekes. And God wrought no small myracles by the handes of Paul: so that from his body / were brought vnto þ sicke / naphyns or partelett / and the diseases departed from them / and the euill spertes went out of them.

Then certayne of the bagabounde Jewes exorcistes / toke vpon them to call ouer them which had euill spertes / the name of þ Lord Jesus sayng: we aduise you by Jesu who Paul preacheth. And ther were sent somes of one Socrus a Jewe and chiefe of þ prestes which dyd so. And the euill sperte answered & sayde: Jesus I knowe & Paul I knowe: but who are ye? And the man in whome the euill sperte was / ranne on them / & ouercame the / and preuagled agaynst them / so þ they fledde out of that house naked & wounded. And this was knowne to all the Jewes & Grekes also / which dwell at Ephesus and feare came on them all / and they magnified the name of the Lord Jesus.

And many that beleued / cam & confessed & shewed their wozeches. Many of the which bled curious crastes / brought their bookes & burned them befoze all men / & they counted the pryce of them / & founde it lxxij thousand & syluer tynges. So myghtely grewe þ worde of God / and preuagled. After these thynges were ended / Paul purposed in the sperte / to passe ouer Macedonia & Achaia / & to go to Jerusalem sayng: After I haue bene there / I must also se Rome. So sent he into Macedonia two of the that nysified vnto hym Timotheus and Crastus: but he him selfe remained in Asia for a season.

The same tyme ther arose no lytell a doctoure that waye. For a certayne mā named Demetrius / a syluer smyth / which made syluer schrynes for Diana / was not a lytell beneficiall vnto the crastes men. Which he called together to the workemen of lyke occupaciō / & sayd: Syrs / ye knowe þ by this crasse we haue bauntage. Moreover ye se & heare þ not alone at Ephesus / but all most thow out all Asia / this Paul hath perswaded & turned away moche people sayng: þ they be not goddes which are made with handes. So þ not only this oure crasse cometh into perrell to be set at nought: but also that þ temple of the grete Goddess Diana shulde be despyled / and her magnifeyence shulde be destroyed / which all Asia and the worlde worshippeth.

When they hearde these saynges / they were full of wrath / and cryed out sayng: Greate is Diana of the ephesians. And all the cite was on a roore / & they rushed into the comen hall with one assent / & caught Gaius and Aristarcus / men of Macedonia / Pauls companions. When Paul wolde haue entred in vnto the people / the disciples suffered him not. Certayne also of the chiefe of Asia which were his frendes / sent vnto hym / besynginge him that he wolde not preace into the comen hall. Some cryed one thyng and some another / & the congregacion was all out of quiet / and þ moare parte knew not wherfore they were come together.

Some

Some of the company bare forth Alexander the Jewes thrusting hym forwardes. Alexander bekened with the hand / & wolde haue geue the people an answer. When they knewe he was a Jewe / ther arose a woman almost for the space of two houres / of all crying: great is Diana of the Ephesians.

When she thus had ceased she people / he sayde: ye men of Ephesus / what man is it that knoweth not how that the cyrre of the Ephesians is a worshipp of a great goddess Diana / & of the ymage which came fro heauen. Seinge then that no mā sayth here agaynst / ye ought to be content / and to do no thing rashly: for ye haue brought hither the same which are nether robbers of churches / nor yet despisers of youre goddess. Wherefore if Demetrius & the craftes men whych are with him / haue eny sayinge to eny man / the same is open / and ther are rulers / let the accuse one another. If ye goo aboute eny other thyng / it maye be determined in a lawfull congregacion. For we are in leopardy to be accused of this dayes busynesse: for as moche as ther is no cause whereby we maye geue a rekenyng of this concourse of people. And when he had thus spoken he let the congregacion departe.

Paul goeth in to Macedonia and into Grece. At Troas he resteth by a deed body. At Ephesus he calleth the elders of the congregacion together / commyng the keepyng of Gods floche vnto them / warneth them of false teachers / maketh his prayer with them / and departeth to shippe.

Chapter.

After the rage was ceased / Paul called his disciples vnto him / & toke hym leaue of the / & departed for to go into Macedonia. And when he had gone ouer those parties / & geuen them large exhortacions / he came into Grece / & there abode iij. monethes. And when the Jewes layde waite for him as he was about to sayle into Syria / he purposed to retorne thowto Macedonia. Ther accompanied him into Asia Sopater of Berea / and of Thessalonias Aristarcus and Secundus / and Gaius of Derba / and Timotheus: & oute of Asia Tychicus and Trophimus. These went before / & tarped at Troas. And we sayled awaye from Philippios after the easter holy dayes / & came vnto the to Troas in fyue dayes / where we abode iij. dayes.

And on the morowe after the Saboth daye his disciples came to gether for to bryake bzyrd / and Paul preached vnto the / redy to departe on the morowe / & continued the preachyng vnto mydnyght. And ther were many lightes in the chamber where they were gathered to gether / & ther sat in a wyndowe a certayne yonge mā named Eutichus / falled into a depe leepe. And as Paul declared / he was the moare ouercome with slepe / & fell doune fro the thyrde lofte / & was taken vp dead. Paul went doune and fell on him / & embraced hym / and sayde: make nothyng a do for his lyfe is in hym. When he was come vp agayne / he brake bzyrd / & talched / and comened a longe whyle euen tyll the moynyng / & so departed. And they brought the yonge man a lyue / & were not a lytell comforted.

And we went a soze to shippe / and towled vnto Asson there to receaue Paul. For so had he apoynted / and wolde him selfe goo a soze. When he was come vnto us to Asson / we toke him in / & came to Mytilenes. And we sayled thence / and cam the nexte daye ouer agaynst Chios. And the nexte daye we arriued at Samos / and taried at Trogon. The nexte daye we came to Myleton: for Paul had determined to leaue Ephesus as they sayled / because he wolde not spende the tyme in Asia. For he hasted to be (if he coude possible) at Jerusalem at the daye of Pentecoste. Wherefore fro Myleton he sent to Ephesus / and called the elders of the congregacion. And when they were come to him / he sayd vnto the: Ye knowe from the fyrst daye that I cam into Asia / after what maner I haue bene with you at all seasons / scrupinge the Lord with all humblenes of mynde / & with many teares / & temptacions which happened vnto me by laying of awyde of the Jewes / & how I kepte backe nothyng that was profitable: but that I haue shewed you & taught you openly and at home in your houses / witnessyng both to the Jewes / & also to the Grekes / the repentance toward God / & sayth toward oure Lord Jesus.

And now beholde I go bounde in the sprete vnto Jerusalem / & knowe not what shall come on me there / but the holy goost witnesseth in euery cytie sayinge: that bandes & trouble abyde me. But none of those thynges moue me: nether is my lyfe deere vnto my selfe / that I myght fulfill my course with loye / and the ministryacion which I haue receaued of the Lord Jesus / to testifie the Gospell of the grace of God.

And now beholde I am sure hence forth ye all (thowto whō I haue gone preachinge the kyngdom of God) shall se my face no moze. * Wherefore I take you to recozde this same daye / that I am pure from the bloude of all men. For I haue kepte nothyng backe: but haue shewed you all the counsell of God. Take heede therfore vnto youre selues and to all the floche / where of the holy goost hath made you ouer sears / to rule the congregacion of God / which he hath purchasid with his bloude. * For I am sure of this / that after my departyng / shall greuous wolues entre in amonge you / whych whych wyll not spare the floche. Wherefore of youre awne selues shall men aryse / speakinge peruerse thynges to drawe allciples after the. Therfore awake & remēber / by the space of iij. yeres I ceased not to warne euery one of you both nyght & daye with teares.

And now byeth I comende you to God & to the word of his grace / which is able to bilde further & to geue you an inheritaunce amonge all the which are sanctified. I haue desired no mans spuer / golde / or besture. Ye knowe well that these handes haue ministered vnto my necessities / & to the which I were with me. I haue shewed you all thynges / how I so laborynge ye ought to receaue the weakes & to remēber the wordes of the Lord Jesus / how he sayd: it is moze blessed to geue then to receaue.

When he had thus spoken / he kneled doune & prayed to the all. And they wept all about dailly & fell on Pauls necke / & kissed hym / sorrowinge most of all for the wordes which he spake / that they shulde se his face no moze. And they accompanied him vnto the shippe.

Pauls journey by shippe. Of the shippe the Euangeliste and Agabus the prophet / whych warned Paul not to go to Jerusalem / he remayned at Asdon in his purp. & is taken in the temple.

Chapter.

It chaunced that asone as we had launched forth / & were departed from them / we came with a dragght court vnto Choon and the daye folowynge vnto the Rhodes / & fro thence vnto Patara. And we founde a shippe redy to sayle vnto Phenices / and went a bozde & set forth. When appered vnto us Cyprus / & we leste it on the lefte hande / & sayled vnto Solia & cam vnto Cyre. For there the shippe was laden her burthen. And when we had founde bzythen we tarped there vij. dayes. And they tolde Paul thowto the sprete / that he shuld not go by to Jerusalem. And when the dayes were ended / we departed & that oure wayes / and they all brought us on oure waye / with their wyues & chyldren / tyll we were come out of the cytie. And we kneled doune in the shoure & prayde. And when we had takē oure leaue one of another / we toke shippe / & they returned home agayne.

When we had full ended the course from Cyre we arriued at Ptolomaida / & saluted the bzythen / & a bode with the one daye. The nexte daye / we that were of Pauls company departed & came vnto Cesarea. And we entered into the house of Philip the Euangelist / which was one of the seuen deacones & abode to him. The same man had sower daughters charyngs / whych dyd prophesy. * And as we tarped there a good manyng of dayes / there cam a certayne prophet from Iurie / named Agabus.

bus. When he was come vnto us / he toke Pauls gerdell / & bounde his handes & fete / & sayde: Thus sayth the holy goost: so shall the Jewes at Jerusalem bynde the mā & they shal deliuer hym into the handes of the Gentylis.

When we heard this / both we & other of the same place / besought him that he wolde not go by to Jerusalem. Then Paul answered and sayde: what do ye wepyng & breakinge myne herte? I am redy not to be bound only / but also to dye at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus. When we coude not turne hym / we ceased / sayinge: the wyll of the Lord be fulfilled. After those dayes we made oure selues redy / & went by to Jerusalem. Ther went with us also certayne of the disciples of Cesarea / & brought with them one Menas son of Cyprus / an olde disciple with whome we shulde lodge. And when we were come to Jerusalem / the bzythen receaued us gladly. And on the morowe Paul went in with us vnto James. And all the elders came to gether. And when he had saluted them / he tolde by order all thynges / & God had wrought amonge the gentylis by his ministryacion. And when they heard it / they glorified the Lord / and sayd vnto him: Thou seest bzyther / how many thousande Jewes ther are which beleue / and they are all zelous ouer the lawe. And they are informed of the / that thou teachest all the Jewes which are amonge the gentylis / to forsake Moses / and sayd that they ought not to circumcise their chyldren / nether to linge after the customes. What is it therfore? The multitude must nedes come to gether. For they shall heare that thou arte come. * Wherefore this that we saye to the.

* We haue iij. men / which haue a botwe on them. Whem take / & purifye thy selfe with the / and do cost on the / that they maye shawe their heddes and all shall knowe that those thynges which they haue heard concerning the / are nothyng: but that thou thy selfe also walkest & hepest the lawe. For as touchyng the gentylis which beleue / we haue writtē & concluded / that they obserue no soche thynges: but that they kepe them selues from thyngs offered to ydoles / from bloud / fro strangled / & from fornicacion. When the nexte daye Paul toke the men / & purified him selfe with them / and entered into the temple / declaringe that he obserued the dayes of the purification / vntill an offeringe shuld be offered for euery one of them.

And as the seuen dayes shuld haue bene ended / the Jewes which were of Asia when they sawe him in the temple / they moued all the people / and layde handes on him crying: men of Israel / helpe. This is the man that teacheth all

h. Of the image which came from heauen. They made images amonge the Grekes / to thinke to wyne & more aduantage ther by / sayng that they were sent from Jupiter forth of heuen / and that they were not mortall / or subject to death.

* zelous in the lawe / as our mā is ouer his wyf.

all men euery where agaynst the people and the lawe / a this place. Moreover also he hath broughte Seches into the temple / a hath polluted this holy place. For they sawe one Tro-phimus an Ephesian with him in the cytye.
Whom they supposed Paul had brought into the temple. And all the cytye was moued / a the people swarmed together. And they toke Paul and drue hym oute of the temple / and forth with the doores were shut to.

As they went about to kill hym / tydings came vnto the hye captayne of the soudyers / that all Ierusalem was moued. Which immediately toke soudiers a vndercaptaynes / a ranne downe vnto them. When they sawe the hye captayne a the soudiers they leste my-cinge of Paul. When the captayne came nere a toke him / and commaunded hym to be boode in two chaynes / a demaunded what he was / a what he had done. And one cryed this / another that / amonge the people. And when he coulde not knowe a certayntie for the rage / he commaunded hym to be carryed into the castle. And when he came vnto a Grece / it fortuned that he was boorne of the soudiers for the voyce of the people. For the multitude of a people followed after cryinge: a waye with him.

And as Paul shulde haue bene carryed into the castle / he sayde vnto the hye Captayne: maye I speake vnto the? Which sayde: A yee thou speake Greke? Arte not thou that Egyptian which before these dayes made an up-roure / and ledde out into the wyldernes. Iiii. thousande men that were moxtherers? But Paul sayde: I am a man which am a Jewe of Charus a cite in Cilic a Citie of no byle cytye / I beseeche the forre me to speake vnto the peope. When he had geuen him licence / Paul stode on the steppes / and becheden to the hande vnto the people / a ther was made a great silence. And he spake vnto them in the hebreue tonge sayinge.

Paul answered the Jewes / is scourged / and sayde in person agayne.

The xxiij. Chapter

Men / brethren and fathers / heare myne and were which I make vnto you. When they heard he spake in the hebreue tonge to them / they kept a moore silence. And he sayd: I am here by a man which am a Jewe boorne in Charus / a cytye in Cilic: neuerthelesse yet brought up in this cytye / at the fete of Gamaliel / and informed diligently in the lawe of the fathers / a was feruent mynded to God warde / as ye all are this same daye. I persecuted this waye vnto the death byndynge a deliueying into prison bothe men a women / as I chese presit both beare me wytnes / a all the elders of whom also I receaued letters vnto a bye-then / and went to Damascus to byngge the which were there boode vnto Ierusalem for to be punished.

And it fortuned / as I made my journey and was come nye vnto Damascus aboute none that suddenly ther shone from heauen a great lyght rounde aboute me / and I fell vnto the erth / a heard a voyce sayng vnto me. Saul Saul / why persecutest thou me? And I answered: what arte thou Lord? And he sayde to me: I am Iesus of Nazareth whom thou persecutest. And they that were with me / sawe berely a lyght and were afrayde: but they heard not a voyce of him / I spake with me.
And I sayde: what shall I do Lord? And the Lord sayd vnto me: Arise a go in to Damascus and there it shall be tolde the of all thynges which are apointed for the to do. And when I came nothing for a bynghtnes of a lyght / I was ledde by the hande of them that were with me / and came into Damascus.

And one Ananias a perfect man / a as pertaynege to the lawe hauynge good repute of all the Jewes which there dwelt / came vnto me / and stode and sayde vnto me: Brother Saul / looke vp. And I same houre I recea-ued my sight and sawe him. And he sayd: the God of oure fathers hath ordeyned a before / a thou shuldest knowe his will / a shuldest se that which is ryghtfull / a shuldest heare the voyce of his mouth: for thou shalt be byswytnes vnto all men of those thynges / which thou hast sene and heard. And now: why tariest thou? Arise and be baptised / and we the awaye thy synnes / in callinge on the name of the Lord. And it fortuned / when I was come agayne to Ierusalem a prayde in the temple / that I was in a traunce / and sawe him sayng vnto me. Make haste / a get a quychy out of Ierusalem: for they will not receaue thy wytnes that thou bearest of me. And I sayde: Lord they knowe that I prisoned / and bet in euery synagoge that I beleued on the.
And when the bloud of thy wytnes Stephen was shed / I also stode by / a consented vnto his deeth a kept the raiment of the that slewe him. And he sayd vnto me: departe / for I will sende the a farre hence vnto the Gentyls.

They gaue him audience vnto this woode / and then lyfte by their voyces a sayd: a waye with soche a felowe from the erth: it is prytie that he shuld lye. And as they cryed a cast of their clothes / and threwe dust into the ayre / the captayne had him to be brought into the castle / a commaunded hym to be scourged / a to be examined / that he myght knowe wherfore they cryed on hym. And as they bounde hym with charges / Paul sayde vnto a Centurion that stode by: Is it lawfull for you to scourge a man that is a Romayne and vnderstandeth
when

when the Centurion heard that / he went / and tolde the hyer Captayne sayng: What intendest thou to do? This man is a Romayne.

Then the hyer Captayne cam / a sayd to him: tell me / art thou a Romayne? He sayd: Yee. And the captayne answered with a great sore obtayned I this fredd. And Paul sayde: I was fre boorne. Then straght waye departed from him / they which shulde haue examined hym. And the hye Captayne also was afraide / after he knewe that he was a Ro-mayne: because he had bounde him.

On the morowe because he wolde haue knowne the certayntie wherfore he was accused of the Jewes / he tolde him from his bondes / and commaunded the hye prestes a all the counsell to come together / a brought Paul and set him before them.

Paul cometh before the counsell. Debate aryseth amonge the people. the Captayne deliuereth him / God comforteth hym.

The xxij. Chapter

Paul behelde the counsell and sayd: men and brethren / I haue lyued in all good conscience before God vnto this daye. The hye prest Ananias commaunded the that stode by / to smyte him on the mouth. Then sayde Paul to hym: God smyte the thou paynted wall. Sittest thou and iudget me after the lawe: and com-maundest me to be smytten contrary to the lawe? And they that stode by sayde: reuylest thou Gottes hye prest? Then sayde Paul: I wil not byethzen a he was the hye prest.
For it is wytted: thou shalt not curse the ruler of thy people.

When Paul perceaued that the one parte were Saduces / and the other Pharises: he cryed out in the counsell. Men and brethren / I am a Pharisee / a sonne of a Pharisee.
Of the hope and resurrection from deeth / I am Iudged. And when he had so sayde / ther arose a debate betwene the Pharisees a the Saduces / and the multitude was deuyded.
For the Saduces saye that ther is no resurrection / nether angell / nor sprete. But the Pharises graunt bothe. And ther arose a great crye / and the scribes which were of the Pharises parte / arose and stroue sayinge: we synde none euill in this man. Though a sprete or an angell hath apered to hym / lett vs not argue agaynst God.

And when ther arose greute debate / the captayne scarryng lest Paul shulde haue bene plucht a lorde of them / commaunded a sou-diers to go downe / a to take him fro amonge them and to byngge hym into the castle. The nyght following / God stode by him a sayde:
be of good cheare Paul: for as thou hast testified of me in Ierusalem / so must thou beare wytnes at Rome. When daye was come / er-tayne of the Jewes gathered them selues together / and made a bowe / sayinge / that they wolde nether eate nor drynche vntill they had killed Paul. They were about. xl. which had made this conspiracion. And they came to a chefe prest and elders / and sayde: we haue bounde oure selues with a bowe / a we will eate nothyng vntill we haue slayne Paul.

Now therfore geue ye knowledge to the hyer captayne a to the counsell / that he bring him forth vnto vs to morowe / as though we wolde knowe some thyng moze perfectly of him. But we (or euer he come nere) are redy in the meane season to kill him.

When Pauls sisters sonne heard of the sayinge a waye / he went and entred into the castle / and tolde Paul. And Paul called one of the vnder captaynes vnto him / and sayde: byngge this younge man vnto the hye Captaine: for he hath a certayne thyng to shewe him. And he toke him and sayde: Paul a pre-soner called me vnto him / and prayed me to byngge this younge man vnto the / which hath a certayne matter to shewe the.

The hye captayne toke him by the hand a went a parte with him oute of the waye: and asked him: what hast thou to saye vnto me?
And he sayde: the Jewes are determyned to despye the a thou woldest byngge forth Paul to morowe into the counsell / as though they wolde euillre somwhat of him moze perfectly. But folowe not their mynnes: for ther is in waye for him of the mother. xl. men / which haue bounde them selues in a bowe / that they will nether eate ner drynche vntill they haue killed him. And now are they redy / and loke for thy promes.

The hyer captayne let the younge man departe a charged hym: se thou tell it out to no man a thou hast shewed these thynges to me. And he called vnto him two vnder Captaines sayinge: make redy two hundred sou-diers to go to Cesarea a horsemen thre score a ten / a speare men two hundred / at the thirde houre of the nyght. And deliure th? beastes that they maye put Paul on / and byngge him safe vnto Ierusalem: the hye debyte / and moze a letter in this maner.

Claudius Lysias vnto the most myghty ruler Felix / sendeth gretyngs. This man was take of the Jewes / a shulde haue bene killed of the. When came I with soudiers / a reskued him / a perceaued that he was a Romayne.
And when I wolde haue knowne the cause / wherfore they accused him / I broughte hym forth into the counsell. Where perceaued I a he was accused of questions of their lawe: but was not guilty of eny thyng woorthy of deeth or of bondes. Afterwarde when it was shewed

shewed me how the Jewes layde wayte for the ma. I sent him straight wayte to the/ and gave commaundment to his accusars/ yf they had ought agaynst him/ to tell it unto the: fare well. When the soudiers as it was commaunded the/ toke Paul/ & brought him by nyghte to Antipatras. On the morowe they leste the horsemen to go with him/ & returned unto the castle. Whych when they came to Cesarea/ they deliuered the epistle to the debyte/ & presented Paul before him. Whē the debyte had redde the letter/ he asked of what countre he was. And whē he vnderstode that he was of Cilicill/ I will heare the/ (sayde he) whē thyne accusars are come also: & commaunded him to be kepte in Herodes pallys.

Paul is accused before Felix: he answered th for him selfe.

The. xliii. Chapter.

After fyue dayes / Ananias the hye priesse descended / with elders and with a certayne Oratour named Tertullus / & enformed the ruler of Paul. When Paul was called forth/ Tertullus begane to accuse him saying: Seinge that we lyue in great quietnes by the meanes of the/ & that many good thinges are done vnto this nation thowowe thy prouidence: & alowe we euer & in all places most myghty Felix with all thanckes. Not withstandinge / that I be not tedious vnto the/ I praye the/ that thou woldest heare vs of thy curtesy & feare word.

De haue founde this man a pestilent fellowe/ & a mouer of debate vnto all the Jewes thowow out the wo:de/ and a mayntayner of the secte of the Nazarites/ & hath also enforced to pollute the temple. Whem we toke & wolde haue iudged accordinge to oure lawe: but the hye captayne Lysias came vpon vs/ & with great violence toke him awaye oute of oure handes commaundyng his accusars to come to the. Of whom thou mayst (yf thou wilt enquire) knowe the certayne of all these thinges wherof we accuse hym.

The Jewes lyke wyse affirmed / sayinge that it was euen so. Then Paul (after that the ruler hym selfe had beckened vnto him that he shuld speake) answered: I shall with a moare quiet mynde answer for my selfe/ for as moche as I vnderstande that thou hast bene of many yeres a iudge vnto this people / because that thou mayst knowe that there are yet / but. xlii. dayes sence I went vp to Jerusalem for to praye/ & they nether founde me in the temple dysputyng with any man / ether sayyng by the people nether in the Synagoges/ nor in the cytye: Nether can they proue the thinges wherof they accuse me.

But this I confesse vnto the/ that after the waye/ which they call heresy/ so worshipp the God of my fathers/ beleuynge all thinges which are wyttē in the lawe & the Prophectes & haue hope towards God/ that the same resurrection of the dead (which they the selues loke for) also shalbe / both of iust and vniust. And therfore stode I to haue a cleare conscience towards God/ & towards man also.

But after many yeres I came & brought almes to my peple & offeringes in the which they founde me purified in the temple/ nether with multitude/ nor yet with briguetnes/ howbeit there were certayne Jewes out of Asia/ which ought to be here present before the/ & accuse me/ yf they had ought agaynst me: or els lett these same here saye / yf they haue founde any euill doinge in me/ whyll I stode here in the counsell: except it be for thys one voyce/ that I cryed standinge amonge them/ of the resurrection from death am I iudged of you this daye.

Whē Felix hearde these thinges/ he deferde them/ for he knewe very well of that waye/ & sayde: when Lysias the captayne is come/ I will knowe the utmost of youre matters. And he commaunded an vndercaptayne to kepe Paul and that he shuld haue rest/ and that he shuld forbyd none of his acquaintaunce to minister vnto him/ or to come vnto him.

And after a certayne dayes/ came Felix & his wyfe Drusilla which was a Jewess/ & called forth Paul/ and hearde him of the sayth which is toward Christ. And as he preached of ryghteousnes/ temperance/ & iudgement to come/ Felix trembled and answered: thou hast done ynough at this tyme / le parte/ when I haue conuenient tyme/ I will sende for the. He hoped also that money shulde haue bene geue hym of Paul/ that he myght loose him: wherfore he called hym oftenner and comened with him. But after two yeres Festus Porcius came into Felix rounne. And Felix willing to shewe the Jewes a pleasure / leste Paul in prison bounde.

The Jewes accuse Paul before Festus/ he appeareth vnto the Emperoure/ and is sent vnto Rome.

The. xli. Chapter.

When Festus was come into the prouince/ after thre dayes/ he ascended from Cesarea vnto Jerusalem. Then enformed hym the hye priesse and the chiefe of the Jewes of Paul. And they besought hym & despyed fauour agaynst hym/ that he wolde sende for him to Jerusalem: & layde awayte for him in the waye/ to kyll him. Festus answered that Paul shulde be kept at Cesarea: but that he hym selfe wolde shortly departe thither. Let them therfore (sayde he) whych amonge you are able to do it / come doune with vs and accuse him/ yf ther be any faute in the man.

When

When he had tarped there moare then ten dayes/ he departed vnto Cesarea/ & the nexte daye late doune in the iudgement seate/ & commaunded Paul to be brought. When he was come/ the Jewes which were come fro Jerusalem/ came aboute hym and layde many and greuous coplayntes agaynst Paul/ whych they coulde not proue as longe as he answered for hym selfe / that he had nether agaynst the lawe of the Jewes/ nether agaynst the temple / nor yet agaynst Cesar offended any thyng at all.

Festus willinge to do the Jewes a pleasure answered Paul & sayde: wilt thou go to Jerusalem and there be iudged of these thinges before me? Then sayde Paul: I stande at Cesars iudgement seate / where I ought to be iudged. To the Jewes haue I no harme done/ as thou very well knowest. If I haue hurted the/ or comytted any thyng worthy of death I refuse not to dye. If none of these thinges are/ where of they accuse me/ no man ought to deliuer me to them. I appeale vnto Cesar. Then spake Festus with deliberation/ & answered. Thou hast appealed vnto Cesar: vnto Cesar shalt thou go.

After a certayne dayes/ kynge Agrippa & Bernice came vnto Cesarea to salute Festus. And whē they had bene there a good ceason/ Festus reherced Pauls cause vnto the kynge saying: ther is a certayne man left in prison of Felix/ about whom when I came to Jerusalem the hye priesse & elders of the Jewes enformed me/ and despyed to haue iudgement agaynst him. To whō I answered: It is not the maner of the Romayns to deliuer any man/ that he shuld perishe/ before that he which is accused/ haue the accusars before hym/ and haue lycence to answer for him selfe concerninge & cryme layde agaynst him: when they were come hydder/ without delaye on the morowe I late to geue iudgement/ & commaunded the man to be brought forth. Agaynst whō whē the accusers stode by/ they brought none accusacion of soche thinges as I supposed: but had certayne questions agaynst hym of their awne supersticion / and of one Iesus which was dead whome Paul affirmed to be aloue. And because I doubted of soche maner questions/ I asked him whether he wolde go to Jerusalem/ & there be iudged of these matters. Then when Paul had appealed to be kept vnto the knowledge of Cesar/ I commaunded him to be kept/ tyll I myght send him to Cesar. Agrippa sayd vnto Festus: I wolde also heare the man my selfe. To morowe (sayde he) thou shalt heare hym. And on the morowe when Agrippa was come and Bernice with greute pompe/ & were entred into the counsell house with the captaynes & chiefe men of the citie/ at Festus commaundement Paul was brought forth. And Festus sayd: kynge Agrippa/ & all men whych are heere present with vs: ye se this man about whom all the multitude of the Jewes haue bene with me / both at Jerusalem/ and also here/ crying that he ought not to lyue any longer. Yet founde I nothinge worthy of death that he had comitted. Neuerthelesse seynge that he hath appyled to Cesar/ I haue determined to sende him. Of whō I haue no certayne thyng to write vnto my Lord. Wherfore I haue brought him vnto you/ & specially vnto the/ kynge Agrippa/ & after examinacion had/ I myght haue sumwhat to wyte. For me thincketh it vnto reasonable / for to sende a prisoner / & not to shewe the causes which are layde agaynst him.

The. xlii. Chapter.

Agrippa sayd vnto Paul: thou arte permitted to speake for thy selfe. Then Paul stetched forth shāde/ & answered for him selfe. I thinke my selfe happy kynge Agrippa / because I shall answer this daye before the/ of all the thinges wherof I am accused of the Jewes namely because thou art experie in all customes and questions/ which are amonge the Jewes. Wherfore I beseeche the to heare me patiently.

My lyuinge of a chyld / which was at the first amonge myne awne nation at Jerusalem knowe all the Jewes which knewe me fro the begynnyng/ yf they wolde testifie it. For after the most strayest secte of oure laye/ I was a Pharisee. And now I stande & am iudged for the hope of the promys made of God vnto oure fathers: vnto whych promys oure trybes instantly seruyng God daye and nyght hope to come. For which hopes sake/ kynge Agrippa/ am I accused of the Jewes. Why shulde it be thought a thyng incredible vnto you/ that God shuld rayse agayne the dead? I also berefy thought in my selfe/ that I ought to do many contrary thinges/ cleue agaynst the name of Iesus of Nazareth: which thinge I also dyd in Jerusalem. Where many of the sayntes I. But by in prison/ & had recreated auctozite of the hye priesse. And whē they were put to death/ I gaue the sentence. And I punished the ofte in euery synagoge/ and compelled the to blaspheme: & was yet moze mad vpon the/ & persecuted them/ euen vnto strange cities. About which thinges as I went to Damasco with auctozite & licēce of the hye priesse/ eue at middaye (o kyng) I sawe in the waye a lyght from heauē/ about the brightnes of the sunne/ whiche rode about me and them which ioyned with me.

Act. ix. a.
and. xxi. b.

When we were all fallen to the erthe / I heard a voyce speaking vnto me / & saying inthe hebraie tonge: * Saul / Saul / why persecutest thou me? It is harde for the to kicke agaynst the prycke. And I sayde: Who arte thou Lord? And he sayde I am Iesus whom thou persecutest / but rise & stand vp on thy fete. For I haue aperted vnto the for this purpose / to make þ a minister & a witnes both of those thynges which thou hast sene / & of those thynges in the which I will appere vnto the / deliueringe the fro the people / & fro þ gentyls / vnto which nowe I sende the / to open their eyes / that they myght turne fro darcknes to lycht / & from the power of Sathan vnto God / that they may receaue forgeuenes of synnes & inheritaunce amonge the which are sanctified by fapth in me.

Wherfore kynge Agrippa / I was not disobedient vnto the heauyly biffon: but shewed fyrst vnto them of Damasco / and at Jerusalem / & thowout all the costes of Iewry / & to the gentylls / þ they shuld repent / & tourne to God / & do the ryghte woikes of repentance / for this cause the Jewes caught me in þ temple & went about to kyll me. Neuertheles I obtained helpe of God & cōsyned vnto this daye wthne linge bothe to small and to great saying none other thing / then those which þ prophetes & Moses dyd saye shuld come / þ Christ shuld suffer / and that he shuld be the fyrst that shuld rise from deeth / and shuld shewe lycht vnto the people / & to þ gentyls. As he thus answered for hym selfe: Iesus sayde vnto a lowde voyce. Paul / thou arte besydes thy selfe. Moche learninge hath made þ mad. And Paul sayde: I am not mad / most dere Iesus: but speake þ wordes of trueth and sobernes. The kynge knoweth of these thynges / before whome I speke frely: nether thynke I þ any of these thynges are hydden from him. For this thyng was not done in a corner. Kynge Agrippa beleuest thou þ prophetes? I wote well thou beleuest. Agrippa sayde vnto Paul: Sumwhat thou byngest me in mynde for to be come & Christen. And Paul sayde: I wolde to God þ not only thou: but also all that heare me to daye / were / not sumwhat only but altogether soche as I am / except these bondes. And when he had thus spoken / the kynge rose vp / & the debite / and Bernice / and they that late with them. And when they were gone aparte / they talked betwene them selues sayinge: This man doeth nothing worthy of deeth / nor of bondes. When sayde Agrippa vnto Iesus: This man myght haue bene lawfed / yf he had not appeared vnto Cesar.

Paul shippinge towarde Rome / Julius the Captayne interceyth hym curteously / at the last they suiter shippinge.

The xxiij. Chapter.

When it was concluded þ we shuld sayle into Italy / they deliuered Paul & certayne other prisioners vnto one named Julius / an vnder captayne of Cessars souldiers. And we entered into a ship of Adramitici / & lawfed fro land / appointed to sayle by the costes of Asia / one Aristarcus out of Macedonia / of the contrie of Thessalia / beinge wth vs. And þ nexte daye we came to Sidon. And Julius curteously entreated Paul / & gaue him lyberte to go vnto his frendes / & to refresh the hym selfe. And fro thence lanchet we / & sayled harde by Cyprus / because the wyndes were contrarye. Then sayled we ouer the see of Cilicia / and Pamphilia / & cam to Myra a cite in Lycia.

And there þ vndercaptayne founde a shippe of Alexander / ready to sayle into Italy / & put vs therein. And when we had sayled slowly many dayes / & scace were come ouer agaynst Cinydon (because þ winde withstode vs) we sayled harde by the costes of Candy / ouer agaynst Salmo / & w moche woike sayled beyonde it / & cam vnto a place called goodpooze. There wher vnto was a cytie called Lasea. When moche time was spent & sayling was now too perdecous / because also þ we had ouerlonge fasted / Paul put the in remembraunce / and sayde vnto the. Syys / I perceaue that this visage wilbe wth hurtes moche damage / not of the saylinge & ship only: but also of our liues. Neuertheles the vnder captayne beleued þ gouerners the master / better then the thing / which were spokē of Paul. And because the hauf was not comodius to wynter in / many toke counsell to departe thence / yf by any meanes they myght attayne to Phenices & there to wynter / wherch is an hauē of Candy / and seuith to the south west & north west wynde. When the south wynde blew / they supposynge to obtayne their purpose lawfed vnto Sidon / and sayled past all Candy.

But anon after / they arose agaynst the purpose / a flawe of wynde out of þ north east. And whē the ship was caught / & could not resist the wynde / we let her go & drave with þ wether. And we came vnto an yle named Claudia / & had moche woike to come by a boote / which they toke by þ bled helpe / vndergerdinge the shippe / fearinge lest we shuld haue falle into Syrtis / & we let doune a beuell & so were carped. The nexte daye whē we were cōssed wth an exceedinge tēpest / they lightened þ ship / & the thyrde daye we cast out wth oure atone handes / þ eachyng of þ shippe. Whē at the last nether sunne nor starre in many dayes appered & no small tēpest laye vpon vs / all hope þ we shuld be saued / was then taken awaye. Then after longe abstinence / Paul

rode forth in the myddes of them and sayde: Syys / ye shulde haue harkened to me / & not haue lawfed from Candy / nether to haue brought vnto vs this harme & losse. And now I exhorte you to be of good chere. For ther shalbe no losse of any mans lyfe amonge you / save of þ ship only. For ther stode by me this nyght the angell of God / whose I am / & whō I serue / saying: feare not Paul for thou must be brought before Cesar. And lo / God hath geuen vnto the all that sayle with the. Wherfore syys be of good chere: for I beleue God / þ it shalbe euē as it was tolde me. How be it we must be cast into a certayne ylonde.

But when the fourtenth nyght was come as we were caried in Adria about midnyght / the shypmen demed that they appered some countre vnto them: and sounded / and sounde st. xx. faddes. And whē they had gone a lytell further / they sounded agayne / and founde. x. faddes. Then fearynge lest they shuld haue falle on some rocke / they cast. iiii. ankers out of the sterne / and wished for the daye. As the shypmen were about to fle out of the shyp / & had let doune þ bote into the see / vnder a couloure as though they wolde haue cast ankers oute of the for shippe: Paul sayde vnto the vnder captayne and the souldiers: excepte these abyde in þ shyp / ye canot be safe. When the souldiers cut of the rope of the bote / and let it fall awaye.

And in the meane tyme betwixt that and daye / Paul besought the all to take meate / sayinge: this is the fourtenth daye þ ye haue tarped and contynued fasting / receauynge nothing at all. Wherfore I praye you to take meate: for this no dout is for your helth: for ther shal not an here fall from þ heed of any of you. And when he had thus spoken / he toke bread and gaue thanckes to God in pzenlence of the all / and brake it / and beganne to eate. Then were they all of good chere / and they also toke meate. We were all to gether in the shyp / two hundred threescore & sistene soules. And when they had eaten ynough / they lychtēd þ ship / & cast out þ wheate in to the see.

When it was daye / they knew not þ lande / but they spied a certayne hauē wth a banche into the which they were mynded (yf it were possible) to thrust in the ship. And when they had taken vp the ankers / they committed the schies vnto the see / & lawfed þ rudder bondes and hoysed by the mayne sayle to the wynde & drue to lande. But they chaunced on a place / which had the see on bothe the sydes / & thrust in the ship. And the sooze parte sticke fast & moued not but the bynder brake wth the violence of the waues.

The souldiers counsell was to kyll the prisioners / lest any of the / whē he had swome out shulde fle awaye. But þ vnder captayne wyllynge to saue Paul kept them from their purpose / and cōmaunded that they þ coulde swyme shulde cast them selues fyrst into the see / and scape to lā. And the other he cōmaunded to go / some on bozdes / and some on broken peces of the ship. And so it came to passe / that they came all safe to lande.

The vpper burthen not Pauls hande / he herleth Publius father / and preacht Christ at Rome.

The xxv. Chapter.

When they were scaped / then they knewe that the yle was called Milet. And the people of þ countre shewed vs no lytell kynndes: for they kyndled a fyre & receaued vs every one / because of the present rayne and because of þ colde. And when Paul had gathered a bonnell of syckes / and put them in to the fyre / ther came a byper out of the heet and lept on his hande. When the men of þ countre saue the woyme hange on his hande / they sayde amonge them selues: this mā must nedes be a moetheret: whom (though he haue escaped the see) yet benegaunce suffreth not to lye. But he shouke of the bermen into the fyre & felt no harme. How be it they wyped when he shulde haue swolne / or fallen doune deedly. But after they had looked a greace whyle / and saue no harme come to him / they chaunged their myndes / and sayde that he was a God.

In the same quarters the chiefe man of the yle whose name was Publius / had a lordshippe: the same receaued vs / and lodged vs thre dayes curteously. And it fortuned that the father of Publius laye sycke of a ficuer and of a bluddy lixe. To whom Paul entered in and prayde / and layde his handes on hym and healed hym. When this was done / other also which had dyscales in the yle / came and were healed. And they dyd vs great honoure. And when we departed / they laded vs wth thynges necessary.

After thre monethes we departed in a ship of Alexandry / which had wyntred in the yle / whose badge was Castor & Pollux. And whē we came to Cyrcusa / we taried there thre dayes. And from thence we set a compass / & came to Regium. And after one daye & fourth wynde blew / and we came the next daye to Puttolus: where we founde brethren / & were together we recepyed to tary wth them seue dayes / and so came to Rome. And from thence / when the brethren hearde of vs / they came agaynst vs to Apphyorum / & to the thre tauerne. When soche as saw Paul saue them / he thancked God / & wered boide. And when he came to Rome / the vnder captayne deliuered þ prisioners to the chiefe captayne of the host: but Paul was suffered to fortunate and dwell

The Prologe to the Epistle of Saynt Iſ.

Paul to the Romans.

Fas moche as this Epistle is the principall & moost excellent part of the newe Testament: moost pure Euangelion: that is to saye glad tydings and that we call Gospell: and also a light and awaie in vnto the hole scripture: I thinke it meate / p every Christen man not only an owe it by rote & wpothout the booke: but also exercise him selfe therein evermore continually as to the happy lye of the soule. No man verely can rede it to ofte or stude it to well: for the more it is studied the easier it is / the more it is chewed / the plesanter it is / & the more groundely it is searched the pfecter thyng: are to be in it: so great treasure of spiritual thyngs lyeth hyd therein. I will therefore bestow much tyme & labour in this booke.

I will therefore bestowe my labour & diligence / thow this lytell preface or prologue / to prepare awaye in the vnto: so farforth as God shall geue me grace / that it may be the better vnderstande of euery mā. For it hath bene bester to euill bartheims glasse / & woder full drcames of Sophisters / & no mā coude syt out þe entente & meanynge of it. Which neuer thelesse yet of it selfe / is a hyght lgyht / & sufficient to geue lgyht vnto al þe scripture.
 First we must marke diligently the maner of speakynge of the Apostel / and about all thyngs knowe what þe meaneth by the: wordes / the Lawe / Synne / Grace / Faith / Ryghte ouerles / Iellse / Spite / & loke lyke / or els fede thou it neuer to ofte / thou shalt but lose thy labour. This word labour maye not be vnderstande here after the commune maner / & to vse þe auls terme / after the maner of men / or after manys wayes / þe thou woldest saye the lawe here in this place were nothynge but lernynge which teacheth what ought to be done and what ought not to be done / as it goeth with mannes lawe where þe lawe is fulfilled withoutwarde workes onely / though the hert be neuer so farre off. But God indygeth the grounde of the hert / & the thoughtes / & secret mouynges of the mynde / and therefore his lawe requyret the grounde of the hert & loue from the boosome therof / & is not content with the outwarde worke onely / but rebuketh those workes most of all which sprynge not of loue from the ground & loue boosome of the hert / though they appere outwardly neuer so honest & good. As Christ in þe Gospell rebuketh þe pharises about all other þe more open synners / & calleth the hypocrites / that is to saye dissemblers & paynted sepulchres / which pharises yet lyeu nymen in pure / as pertynyng to the outward dedes & workes of the lawe / yea þe aul in the thirde Chapter of hym Epistell vnto the þe philippians confesseth of hym selfe / & touchynge the lawe he was suche a one as no mā coude coplayne on / & not with standyn was yet a murderer of the Christen persecuted the / & tomed the to foote / & he calpelled the to blaspheme Christ / & was all to gether mercuries / as many which now sayne outward good workes are
 For this cause the. xxi. þe salme callith all men lyars / because that no man kepeth the Lawe from the grounde of the hert / neether can hepe it / though he appere outwardly full of good workes.

For all men are naturally inclined vnto euill & hate the lawe: for synne in oure selues vnliust & tediousnes to do good: but lust & delectacion to do euill: Now where no free lust is to do good: there the botome of the heuie faultfulnes is not the lawe: there no doute is also synne & wraith is beferued before God: though there be neuer so great and outwarde Actes & apperance of honeste lymng. For this cause concludeth sapient Paul in the seconde Chapter: that the Jewes are all synners & transgressors of the lawe: though they make men beleue: that ofe ppoerity of outwarde woikes: how that they fulfill the lawe: and sayeth that he onely which doth the lawe: is righteous before God: meaning thereby that no man with outwarde woikes fulfilleth the lawe.

Thou sayst her to the Jewe teachest a man shulde not breake wedlocke/ yett breakest wedlocke thy selfe/ wherein thou iudgest an other man/ the eia conductest thou thy selfe. for thou thy selfe doest euen þ very same thynges which thou iudgest. As though he wolde saye/ thou lyuest outwardly well in the woorkes of the lawe/ add iudgest them that lyue not to. Thou teachest other men/ lest a moote in an other mans eye/ but art not ware of þ beame þ is in thyne awne eye. For though thou kepe þ lawe outwardly with woorkes/ for feare of rebuke/ shame & punishment/ other for loue of reward. vantage & vayne glory/ yett doest thou all without lust & loue towards the lawe/ & haddest leiter & greates deale other toyle do. yf thou dydest not feare the lawe/ yett inwardly in thyne herte / thou woldest that thine were no lawe/ no nor yett Gods the auctor & begerar of the lawe/ yf it were possible/ to paynefull it is vnto the/ to haue thyne appetites refrayned/ & to be kepte doune. Wherefore then it is a plapne conclusion / that thou seest the grounde and botome of thyne herte/ acte an entimpe to the lawe/ whiche preuaileth it now/ that thou teachest an other mā not to steale/ when thou thyne selfe acte a thefe in thyne herte/ and outwardly doest fayne steale yf thou durst/ though that þ outwardly ordres shulde not awaye beynde with so che pprocytes & billimitars/ but breake forth amonge euen as an euyll scabbie or a poebe cannot all wayes be kept in with violence of medicine.

Thou teacheſt an other mā, but teachſt not thy ſelfe, y^e thou woteſt not what thou teacheſt, for thou underſta-deſt not the lawe a ryght/ how that it cannot be fulfilled & ſatiſfied, but with an vnſayued loue & affection/ ſo greatly it cannot be fulfilled with outward dedes & workes outly. Wherefore þ^e lawe encreaſeth ſynne, as he ſayth in þ^e ſcripture The lawe en-creaſeth ſynne. becauſe that man is an enemy to the lawe, for as moche as it requirerh ſo many thinges cleue contrarye to his nature/ whereof he is not able to fulfil one poynte or tytle, as the lawe requirerh it. And therefore are we moare prouoked/ and haue greater liſt to breake it. For which cauſes ſake he ſayth in the ſeuenth Chapter/ that the lawe is ſpiritual/ as though he wolde ſay, of the lawe were theſe thynges but mans doctrine/ it might be fulfilled/ ſatiſfied and ſtylled with outward dedes. But now is the lawe goodly, & no mā fulfillerh it/ excepte þ^e all that he doerh/ ſpringe of loue fro the bowme of the hert. Suche a newe hert & luſty corage vnto the lawe warde/ canſt thou neuer come by requyred perwe of thyne awne ſtrenght & enforſement/ but by the operation & workynge of the ſpyte. For the ſpyte of God only can hope & lawe makeſh a man ſpiritual/ & lyke vnto the lawe/ ſo that now he ſeuerly he doerh no thyng of feare or of incre or van-tages ſake or of payne gloire/ but of a free hert, & of inward liſt. The ſame is ſpiritual/ & to lybe bothe loued and fulfilled of a ſpiritual hert, & therefore of neceſſite requirerh it the ſpyte that maketh a mannes hert free / and geueth hym liſt and courage vnto the lawe warde. Where ſuche a ſpyte is not/ there rymapnerh ſynne/ grudgingne & hate-ſhed agaynſt the lawe/ which lawe neuer the leſſe is good/ ryghteuous and holy.

Acquaynte thy selfe therefore with the manner of keepynge of the Apostles let this now a pfect in thyne hert/that it is not bothe one to do dedes & woorkes of the lawe & to fulfill the lawe. The woork of the lawe is whatsoever to do the dea a man doeth or can do of his owne freewill of his owne proper strenght & ensaunge: Not with standynge though des of the lawe there be neede to grante woorkynge yet as long as they remayne in the herte/vnclaynnes/grudgynge/griefe & to fulfill the lawe to thymmes compulsion toward the lawe to long as all the woorkes vnprofitable/soth & damnable in the lawe are syght of God. This meaneth Paul in the thirde Chapter where he sayth/vp the dedes of the lawe shall no fleshe thynges be iustified in the syght of God. Here by perceived thou that those conuicers are but disceitnes/which teache a man maye must prepare him selfe to grace & to the fauour of God with good woorkes before he haue pfecte & true faith of Christ. Now can they prepare the selfe into the fauour of Gods to that which is good/whyle they the fel lies can do no good/no canot once thinke a good thought or consent to do good/the deuyll boyleth ynne their hertes

Synne. Synne in the scripture is not called that outward worke only compered by the body, but all the whole busines of whatsoever accompanieth man in this world, as it is written upon the outward body, as that wherby the workes springe, as unbeliefe, psonenes, & redines vnto the behests the grounde of the herte, with all the powers, affections, & appetites wherewith we can busynne. And that we saye, that a man then synneth, when he is caried awaye he blouge into synne, all to geather as muche as he is, of that popish inclynacion & corrupt nature wherin he was conceyued & borne. For there is none outward synne compered, except a man be caried awaye all to geather, wth his soule, herte, body, liues & mynde therunto. The scripture loneth singularly vnto the herte, vnto the roote & originall fountainne of all synne, which is unbeliefe in the doctrine of the herte. For as sayeth our lorde Ihesus christ, I syngeth the spire & liueth vnto the outwardes, as unbeliefe only damnethe & hyper saith the spire, psonneth the flesh, & stretcheth by liues vnto the cupil outwardes workes, as happened to Adam and Eua in paradys. Genesis. 3.

For this cause Christ calleth synne unbeliefe, & that notably in the xvi. Chapter of saynt Iohn. The spire sayeth he shall reuenge the worlde of synne, because then beliete not vnto me. And Iohn. 11. he saith. I am the light of the world.

he shall rebuke the woyle of synne, because they beleue not in me. And John. viii. he sayth. I am y^e lycht of y^e world. And therefore in the. xxi. of John he byddeth them, whyle they haue lycht, to beleue in the lycht / that ye maye be the chylidren of lycht; for he that walketh in darcknes wotech not wher he goeth. Now as Christ is the lycht / so is the ignorance of Christ that darcknes wherof he speaketh / in which he y^e walketh, watech not whither he goeth / that is he knoweth not how to wayke a good woyle in the lycht of God, or what a good woyle is. And therefore in the. ix. he sayth, as longe as I am in the woyle, I am the lycht of the woyle. but there cometh nyght whē no mā can woe / whiche nyght is but ignorance of Christ in which no mā can fr to do any woyle that pleureth God. And Paul exhorteth Ephel. iii. that they walke not as other heiden whiche are straungers fr the lycht of God: that is the ignorance that is in the. And agayne in the same Chapter. But off (sayth he) the olde mā which is corrupt thowme the lustes of eygure / that is to saye ignorance. And Rom. xiii. Let vs call awaye the robes of darcknes / that is to saye of ignorance & unbelof. And. i. Petri. I. Fashion not poure shies vnto poure olde lustes of ignorance. And. i. John. i. He that loveth his brother dwelleth in lycht / and he that hateth his brother dwelleth in darcknes & wotech not whither he goeth / for darcknes hath blinded his eyes. By lycht he meaneth the knowledge of Christ by darcknes / the ignorance of Christ. For it is impossible that he that knoweth Christ truly, shoulde hate his brother.

Further more to percerie this thyng more clearly / thou shalt vnderstande / þ it is impossible to surne any surne at all / except a mā breake the surne commandment before. Now is the surne commandment deuised into two verities. The Lorde God is one God. & thou shalt loue thy Lorde God with all thyng þert / in all thy soule / with all thy power and with all thy myght. And the whoule cause why þ surne against any inferiorite / except in þ this loue is not in myne heart / for were this loue myght in my heart & were full & perfect in my soule / it wold here myne heart frō continuing bonds any surne. And the whoule & only cause why this loue is not myght in oure hearts / is that we be true not þ surne partly that oure Lorde God is one God. For will I what these wordes oure Lorde & one God meane / that is to saye / þ I vnderstande that he made all / & ruleth all / & whateuer is done to me / whether it be good or bad / is þet hy myght þ he only is the Lorde that ruleth / & doth it / & will that he to what hyng wille / myne / meane / that is to saye / þ hyng folde countauntes of merce toherwith God hath bounde hyne frō to be myne whylse & all together with all hye power / loue / merce / & myght / then shuld I loue hym with all myne heart / loue / power / & myght / with of that loue eue here þs commandementes. So se þe now that as sayth is the mother of all goodness & of all goodnes / so to be be lofe & grounde & rote of all euill & all euill wordes. If anyl / þe any mā hath forsake surne & is conuerted to þet þe trust in Christ / and to hepe the lawe of God / both fall at a tyme / he cause is / that the firste theiue negligence hath will treade vnder foote as it was promysed vnto Adam. Grace & giftes haue this difference. Grace properly is Gods favour, true wilke or iudgement which of hym growe selfe without deseruinge of vs he beareth to vs wherby he was moued & enclined to graue Christ vnto vs with all his other giftes of grace. Gifte is the holy good & his wyllyng whiche he pouerth into the hartes of the/on whiche he hath mercy whom he fauoureth. Though the giftes of the spyrte encrease in vs daylye & haue not yet their full perfection yet & though they remayne in vs & currell wylles and spynne which fyght agaynst the spyrte so he sayth here in the. vii. chapter / in the. v. to the Galatians & as it was shewen before in the. ix. chapter of Gene. of the debate betwene the womans seed & the seed of the serpent yet neuertheless Goddys fauoure is so greater & so stronger ouer vs for Christes sake / we are counted for full hole & perfect before God. For Goddys fauoure toward vs encreaseth not by selfe recoueringe a tpeill & a tpeill as by the giftes but receaueth vs hole & ail to gether in full loue for Christes sake ouer all other causes & meritauntz because that the giftes of the spyrte and badwylle betwene the spyrte and euyl wylles are begonne in vs all ready.

Of this now understāde thou the. viij. Chap. where Paul accuseth him selfe as a Spinner & yet in the. viij. chap. saith there is no damnation to the that are in Christ & that because of the grise and because the grise of the (pyre) are become in vs. Spinners we are because the flake is not full hylled and mortified. For the will in us mooue as we be in Christ & have the earnest & beginning of the grise & would sayne he pe seete. God in so longyn & knowyn ble unto vs & he wil not loke on so the spinn & neither wil caste it as spinn but wil orde to be a cooyding course betwee us & Christ & according to his promys. which he hath sayne to be. wherill & spinn he full sayne & mortified by de the.

Faith is then a trulye Reddall trust in the fauour of God; whereby we compute sure felices all to gether bnto God; that trust is so surely grounded & stablished in oure hearts; that a man wold not once dute of it; Faith what is though he should dye a thousand tymes therfore. And such trust wrought by the holy goost through faith; maketh a man glad in such benefitts & true herbed bnto God & to all creatures. By the means where of willingly & with out compulsion he is glad & ready to be good to every man; to do stryke for every man; to suffer all thynges; that God may be honoured & praised; which hath geuen him such grace; so that it is impossible to separat good wayes frō faith; such as it is impossible to separat herce & burninge fey. & therfore take heede to thy self; & beware of thys anie fanta syes & imaginacions; which to iudge of faiths good works wold seme wylle; when in trode they are as the blinde of all thynges most foible. A. Saye God that he wold waite safe to worke faith in thysse heres; or else shal thou remayne can none other waye do them to synne and therewith to waite the pryde o: man and to bringe him into the knowlege of him selfe: to impleye & wretchednes that he might desyre helpe. Then he dooth exparte & out and beginneth in the sy. & Chapter to reuenge vnbefele & grose synnes which all men leaue ydolatre/and as the grose synnes of the heben were/and as the synnes now are of all the which lye in ignorance without sayth/and without the fauour of Gods sayth. The wrath of God of heuene appeereth thorow the Gospell vpon all men for theyre vngodlynes & vnholy ynge. For though it be knowen & sayd vnderstande by the creature/that there is but one God yet is nature of hy life with out the sperte & grace so corrupte & so poysoned/that men nether can thynke hym/nether worshippe him/ne ther greeue hym his due honour/but blind the felowes soules with out feelinge in to wofull case/and yettill they come into worshippe in of ymagines & workinge of thamefull synnes which are abhominable & agaynst nature/s more ouer suffer the same vnbeked in other/hauinge delectacion & pleasure therein. In the 6. Chapter. he procedeth further and re buheth all those holy people also which with out luse & loue to the lawe/yeue well on wardly in the face of Ihu/the v condempne other gladly/as the nature of all ypoctites is/to thinke the selues pure in respecte of open synners/s yet hate the lawe vnwarily & are full of couetousnes & enuie & of all vilenies. Mat. 23. These are they which despise the goodnes of Gods accordinge to the hardnes of theyr heertes/here to gether for the selues the wrath of God. For thermore saynt Iohn is a true expounder of the lawe/suffereth no man to be with out synne/and declareth p all they are vnder synne which of frewill and of nature will lye wylly suffereth them not to be better then the ope synners ye be calleth them harde her ted and soche as cannot repent. In the 11. Chapter. he mynglerh both to gether/both the Iewes & the gentyles & sayth that the one is as the other/both synners & no difference betwene the lawe in this only that the Jewes had the worde of God committed vnto them. And though many of them belueed not theron yet in Gods den trath is promysed thereby neither hurtte nor misshede he taketh in his wyte & allegeth the saynge of the 1. Psal. that God might abyde true in his wordes and ouercome when he is misgred. After that he cometh to his purpose agayne & proueth by the scripture. that all men without differce or exceptiō are synners & that by the wordes of I lawe no man is iustified/but that the lawe was gemen to utter & to declare synne onely. Then he becometh & reuerceth the ryghte waye vnto ryghte wronges/wherby what meanes mu must be made ryghte & safe & sayth. There are all synners & with out pynle before Gods must be out their awas/destroyage be made ryghte & thowm sayth in Iohn/wherby hath de serued soche ryghte wronges for vs & is become vnto vs Goddes mercye/for the remission of synnes that are past/therby prouinge I Chyristes ryghte wronges which cometh ouer the lawe sayth/whereby we only. Which rygh te wronges sayth he is now declared thorow the Gospells was iustified of vnto by the lawe & the prophetes. For thermore (sayth he) the lawe is holpe & foinded thorow sayth/though that the wordes therof with all theyr bothe ser wrought to nought and proued not to iustifye.

In the .viij. Chapter (after that note by the .xij. Chapter) the Synues are opened & the waye of faith vnto righte-ousnes (sayd) he beginneth to answere vnto euerie obiection and consideration. And by it he putteth forth those blind reasons whych comenly they saye to iustifye by their owne workes & are made to mane wile they haue & faith only with out workes. And iustifye sayng: Shall men do no good workes & yet faith only iustifie / what needeth a man to do by say to do good workes & putteth forth therfore Abraham for an example / sayng: what dyd Abraham with his workes was all in vayne & his workes to no purpose And so to conclude that Alway with out and before all workes was iustified & made righteous. In so muche that before the waye of circuncision was paynted of & scripture & called righteous by his faith only. Gene. x. & so that he dyd not the waye of circuncision say to helpe ther-by vnto righteousness which yet God commaundeth him to doe & is a good worke of obedience. And in this waye he make some other workes helpe any thinge at all vnto a mans iustifyinge / but as Abrahams circuncision was an outward signe wherby he declared his righteousness which he had by faith & his obedience & referred vnto the will of God & then to be all other good workes outward signes & outward fruites of faith & of the spyte which iustifie not a man / but that a man is iustified all ready before God in ward by the heert/horn faith & thorn the spyte purchased by Christs blood. & re with now & abideth faith & his doctrine of faith afore rehearsed in the .viij. Chap. and wingeeth also testimony of Deuils in the .xij. & so which calleth a man blessed / not of workes but in that his spyte is not reuenged and in that faith is imputed for righteousnes / though he abyde not after made with out good workes / when he is once iustified. & so we are iustified & receive the spyte say to do good workes / neither were it other waye possible to do good workes & excepte we had by it the spyte.

For how is it possible to do any thing well in the sight of God while we are yet in captiuitie & bondage vnder the drayle & the drayle possideth vs all to gether & holdeth once he res/ia that we cannot once consent vnto the will of God. No man therefore can peruent the wyte in doinge good but the sperte must first come & moue him out of hys slepe & wile the thunder of the lawe scare him / the wor him his miserable estate & wretchednes / make him abhorre hate him selfe & to desyre helpe / then cōfōrte him agayne with the pleasant rayne of the Gospell that is to saye / the sweete promyses of God in Christ / here by sayth in him to beleue the promyses. Then when he beleueth & promys / as God was mercifull to promys / so to be true to fulfill them / & will geue him the sperte & strength both to loue the will of God & to worke there after so he me that God gysp which accordyng to the scriptures worketh all in all thynges / woech thus in suffryng / saluacion & healt / & a powerth sayth a belefe / hys to loue Goddys will / & strength to fulfill the same into vs / when as water is powred into a vessel / that of his good will & purpose / not of oure deservynges & merites. Goddes mercy in promysyng / & truly in fulfillyng / his promyses (mercy & not woe oure salues. And the cause to all laude & prayse / to begeten vnto God for his mercy & strength / not vnto vs for oure merites & deservynges. After that he stretcheth his example out agaynst all other good workes of & lawe / & concludeth that the Jewes cannot be Alwayns becom because of vniuersal & hindered only / made lesse by the workes of the lawe / but must in heres Alwayns sayth yf they wilke the right wayes of Abraham / say as moche as Alwayns before the lawe / bothe of Moses and also of circumcision / was thowm sayth made righteous / called the father of all them that beleue / & not of them that worke. Moreover the lawe causeth wrath in as moche as no man can fulfill it wryth louse & luste. And as longe as suche grudgyngs / hate & indignacyon agaynst the lawe remaineth in the hertes / is not taken awaye by the sperte that cometh by sayth so longe / no doute the workes of the lawe / declare evidently that the wrath of God is vpon vs & not fauoure. Wherefore sayth only recyrueth the grace promysed vnto Abraham. And these ensamples were not mynst for Abraham (as only sayth he / but for oure also to reioyn yf we beleue / sayth shalbe rehered lyke wyse for ryghteoulnes / as he sayth in the ende of the Chapter.

In the 2. Chapter he sheweth the cruelties of moines of Catholus are perillous to the conscience / inwards which God hath given us in Iesu Christe in that he gave him to bye for us yet his enemies. Now haue we then the

After that he breketh forth a sunneth at large: & between whence both spynes & righteousnes, death & lyfe come. And he cōpareth Adam & Christ to gether thus: wylle cōsolynge & dysputynge that Christ must needs come as a second Adam to make bo he pers of his righteownes: & to a newe spiritually byth without oure defetyng: & thus as the fyrst Adam made us he: & of spynne & holynesse the bodely generacon without oure defetyng. And hereby is euery duntly knowen & proued to the deir moste: that no man can lyng hym selfe out of spynne vnto righteownes: as more then he coulde haue wylth inde that he was boyme bodely & so that is p. ouer herewith. for as much as th: be: & lare of God which of righte th: id: ha:re holpe: & any thinge coulde haue holpen not only came & brought no helpe wylch by: &nto increas: & spynne becaus: & the euill & popsoned nature is offenred & utterly displeased with the lawe & the more he is fo: bed up th: lawe & becom: is the proued: and see a spe to fulfyll and satisfie by lustes. As the lawe then we se clerly that we muste nedes haue a wyffe to makke vs with bys grace and to helpe nature.

In the vi. be letterly forth the these & principall worke of sayth the batayll of the spyte agaynst the flesh-howe the

to do all oure lynes longe to tame oure bodyes & to compell the members to obeye the spyte & not the appetites: like therby we myghte be lyke vnto Christ & death & resurrection and might fulfil oure baptisme which signifyeth the 13. ap. yme is a moste thinge of spynes and the new lyfe of grace. For this batayle ceaseth not in be vntill the laste breath and vntill we come betwene that synne be letterly claspur by the death of the bodye. ne wold a vs

This thinge (I meane to saue the bodye so farth) we are able to do (sayth he) ifeinge we are vnder grace: and not we haue promyvnder the lawe: what it is not to be vnder the lawe: he him selfe expoundeth. For not to be vnder the lawe is not to be to moue to be vnderstand: that euery man maye do what him listeth. But not to be vnder the lawe: is to haue a free hearte: the luste & sy-ned with the spirit: & that thou haue this inwardly of thyne alone accorde to do that which the lawe commaundeth: in thine remywith oute compulsion: he though there were no lawe. For grace that is to hope: Goddis fauour: bringeth vs to spyrte: with iustitie & maketh vs loue the lawe: so is there nowe no more synne: neither is the lawe nowe any more agaynst vs: with one vs agayn vs: as we wish it. But to be vnder the lawe: is to deale with & worke of the lawe: to worke about: Not to be bit-the spyrte and grace: so longe no doute spyrte rayneth in vs: thowme the lawe: that is to say: the lawe declareth & der the lawe we are vnder spyrte: and that spyrte hath power and dominion ouer vs: ifeinge we cannot fulfyll the lawe: namely in what it mein the heart: so as much as no man of nature fauourerth the lawe: confute it there vnto a delecteth therein. Whych we say ifeinge is exceedinge greater spyrte: that we cannot consent to the lawe: which lawe is nothinge els save the will of god.

¶ This is the ryght freewill that cometh from god the lawe whereof he wryteth unto the ende of this chap. To be under þe fre that is to be free to do good only with inder to lye well without compulsion of the lawe wherfore thys fre dome is spyt of all freewill which becometh not the lawe but minneth that which the lawe requyryth & wher by the lawe is fulfilled that is to wylle and lye a lowe wylle with the lawe is spyled a crucifixe & no more compelleth us no more. neither hath ought to craue of us any more. Euen as though thou were in detre to an other man & were not able to paye / two manner wayes myghtst thou be lord. One waye yf he wolde requyre nothyng of the & kepe thine obligacion. In other waye yf some other good man wolde paye for the & geue þe as much as thou myghtst satisfye thine obligacion with all. Of this wyse hath Christ made þe fre fro the lawe & therfore is this no wyse strictly lye to that wyse do nought but that doeth all thynges & is free from the cravynge & detre of the lawe

In the vs. following he the same with a synecdoche of the state of matrimony. As when the husband dyeth / the wife is as hye lyfeth: & the one loveth & departed fro the other / not that & would shulde not have power to marie but an other man / but rather now by &c of all is the fre & hath power to marie unto an other ma / which she coulde not do before / till she was loveth fro hye / & husband. But so are our consciences bound & in danger to the lawe under the Adā the first as long as he is lyfeth in vs. For the lawe declareth & our hearts are bounde & thus we can not be content fro him. But when he is mortified & hyled by the spryte / then is the conscience free & at liberty / not so that & conscience shall now nought do but now by & of all clepeth unto an other / & is to write. Which a wingeth sayth the traces of lyfe. So now: to be under the lawe / as / not to be able to fulfill the lawe / but to be better to it / as not able to paye that which the lawe requyeth. And to be loosed from the lawe / as to fulfill it / as to paye that which the lawe demaundeth / so that it can now bruce forth are the nought. Consequently Paul declareth more largely the nature of synne and of the lawe both that they owe the lawe synne requyeth moueth by: selfe / and gadeth strength. For the old man and corrupte nature / the moare he is forbidden and hepte under the lawe / the moare offended and displeased therof wylth. For as moche as he cannot paye that which is requyred of the lawe. For synne is hys nature and of him selfe / he cannot but synne. Therefore is the lawe death to hym / tormente and martirdome. Not that the lawe is cruell but because that the cruell nature cannot suffice that which is good / cannot abyde that the lawe shulde requyre of hym any good thyng. & lyke as a lyche man cannot suffice that a man shulde be lyfe of hym to stande / to lye and to do other dedes of an whole man. For whyche cause Augustyn shoulde conclude that where the lawe is under stande and perceived of the beile wylth / there it doeth no moare but bringe synne / and bringe vs into the knowldege of our felices / and thereby hyle vs and make vs bounde unto eternall damnacion and detters of the everlastinge wrath of God / even as he well saitheth and under standeth whose conscience is truly touched of the lawe. Juste the danger were we yet the lawe came that we have not what synne mente / neither yet knowe we the wrath of God upon synners / till the lawe hath been red vs. So seeth thou that a man must have some other thyng / & a better and a ought to behaue the thurs in spirituall thinges: how to teache & preache a rule in the segregacion of Christ: to stur one to another: to suffer all thinges pacyently: to comyt the worke & vengeance to God: in conclusyō how a Christian man ought to behaue him selfe vnto all men: to frendes & to what forner he be. These are the ryght woorkes of a true Christian: which springe out of faith. For faith beneeth not home here: further suffereth any man to be wile: And soe

The Epistle of the Apostle Saynt Paul to the Romaynes.

Paul declareth his love toward the Romaynes, with what the Gospel is with the cause thereof, & rebuketh the besynnes of the flesh.

The first Chapter.

And the seruauit of Iesus Christ called to be an apostle put a parte to preache the Gospel of God, which he promysed afore by his Prophetes in the holy scriptures & make mention of his sonne, the which was begotten of the fader of Dauid, as pertainyng to the flesh: and declared to be the sonne of God, with power of the holy good that sanctifyeth, hence the tyme that Iesus Christ oure Lorde rose agayne from deeth, by whom we haue receaued grace and Apostolicke ppe to bringe all maner hethen people vnto the obeyence of the sayth, that is in his name: of the which hethen are ye a part also, whych are Iesus Christes by vocacion.

To all you of Rome beloued of God and by calling, as sayntes by callinge. Grace be with you and peace from God oure fader, and fro the Lorde Iesus Christ. I thank my God thorow Iesus Christ for you all, because youre sayth is published throughe out all the worlde. For God is my wytnes, whom I serue with my spete in the Gospel of his sonne, that with sayntes/end it out ceasynge I make mencyon of you all, wapes in my prayers, beseechynge that at one tyme or other, a prosperous iorney by the will of God, might fortune me, to come vnto you. For I longe to se you, that I might bestowe amonge you some spirytual gyste, & to strenght you with all that is, that I might haue consolatid to gether with you, throughe the comen sayth, which both ye and I haue. I wolde that ye shuld knowe byethen, how that I haue often tymes purposed to come vnto you (but haue bene lett hytherto) to haue some frute amonge you, as I haue amonge other of the Gentys. For I am deterr both to the Grekes and to them which are no Grekes, vnto the learned and also vnto the vnlearned. As the wyse, as moche as in me is, I am redy to preache the Gospel to you of Rome also. For I am not ashamed of the Gospel of Christ, because it is the power of God vnto saluacyon to all that beleue, namelye to the Jewe, and also to the Gentyle. For by it the ryghtewesnes which cometh of God, is opened, from sayth to sayth. As it is witten: the iust shall lyue by sayth.

For the wrath of God apereth from heauyn agaynst all vngodlynes and vnyghtewesnes of men which withholde the truthe in vnyghtewesnes: it ynge, what maye be knowen of God, that same is manifest amonge them. For God ordeyned it vnto the, so that they must pple chenges: that is to saye, bys ceter, nall power and godhed, are vnderstande and sene, by the workes from the creatioun of the worlde. So that they are without excuse, in as moche as what they knowe God, they glorified him not as God, neyther were thankfull but waxed full of vanities in their imaginations, and their foolish hertes were blynded. When they counted themselves wyse, they became folis and turned the gloze of the immortal God, vnto the similitude of the ymage of mortall man, & of bydes, and foure footed beastes, and of serpentes. Herfoze God lefte theye gaue the by vnto their hertes lustes, vnto vncleannes, to defyle their awne boddyes betwene the selues: whych touned bys truthe vnto a lye, & wo:shypped and serued the creatures moze then the maker, which is blessed for ever. Amen. For this cause God gaue them by vnto shammfull lustes. For euerye themen byd chaunge the naturall vse vnto the vnnaturall. And lyke wyse also the men lette the naturall vse of the womā, & bynt in there lust, one to another. And mak vnto wrought filthynes, & receaued in the selues the rewarde of their erroure, as it was accordeynge.

And as it seemed not good vnto the to be a knowen of God, euerye so God deliuered the by vnto a lea:we mynd, that they shulde do the thinges which were not comly, beinge full of all vnyghteous doynge, of fornication, vncleannes, conuetousnes, malicousnes, full of enmye, moztter, debate, dyspette, euyl condycioned, whysperers, backbiters, haters of God, doers

To the Romaynes. lxiij.

God, doers of wronge, proude, boisters, byngers by of euyl thinges, disobedient to fader and mother, without vnderstandinge, couenaunte breakers, vnloynges, trucebreakers, and merciles. Which men though they knew the ryghtewesnes of God, how theye which comyt loche thinges, are wo:thp of deeth, yet not only do the same, but also haue pleasure in them that do them. The rebuketh the Jewes, which as touchynge spone are lyke the Grekes, in that theye.

The ii. Chapter. Herfoze arte thou inexcusable O man, whosoeuer thou be, that iudgeth. For in that same wherein thou iudgeth another, thou condemnest thy selfe. For thou that iudgeth doest euyl the same selfe thinges. But we are sure that the iudgement of God is accordeynge to truthe, agaynst them which comyt loche thinges. I thinkest thou this O thou man that iudgeth them which do loche thinges, & yet doest euyl the very same, that thou shalt escape the iudgement of God? Eher despytest thou the riches of his goodnes, pargence & longe sufferance: & remembrest not how the kyndnes of God leueth the to repentaunce?

But thou after thyne harde herte & canot repent, heapest the to gether the treasure of wrath agaynst the daye of vengeance, when shalbe opened the ryghtewes iudgement of God, which will rewarde euery man accordeynge to his dedes: & is to saye, ppayle, honoure & immortalite, to the which contynue in good doynge, and selue eternall lyfe. But vnto the that are rebellious and disobey the truthe, & folowe iniquyte, shall come indignaciō and wrath, tribulacion & angur, the byon the soule of euery man that doth euyl: of the Jewe & also of the Gentyl. To euery man that doth good, shall come ppayle, honoure, and peace, to the Jewe & also to the Gentyl. For ther is no parcialyte w God. But whosoeuer hath synned with out lawe, shall perishe, that is with out lawe. And as many as haue the selues synned vnder the lawe, shalbe iudged by the lawe. For before God they are not ryghteous, which heare the lawe, but the doers of the lawe, shalbe iustified. For ye & the Gentyls which haue no lawe, do of nature the thinges cōtayne in the lawe: then they haunye no lawe, are a lawe vnto them selues, which were the dede of the lawe witten in their hertes: whilst their conscience beareth witnes vnto them & also their thoughtes, accusynge one another of transgysynge, at the daye when God shall iudge the secretes of men by Iesus Christ, accordeynge to my Gospel.

Beholde, thou arte called a Jewe, & trustest in the lawe & reioysist in God, & knowest his will, & hast experience of good, & bad, in that thou arte informed by the lawe: & beuest that thou thy selfe arte a gyde vnto thy bynde, a lyyght to them which are in darcknes, an informer of them which lache discrecyon, a teacher of vnlearned, which hast the ensample of that which ought to be knowen, and of the truthe, in the lawe. But thou which teachest another, teachest not thy selfe, & thou preacheest a man shuld not steale, and yet thou stealest. Thou sayst, a man shuld not comyt aduocetry, and thou breakest wedlocke, & thou abhorrest ymages, and robbest God of his honoure. Thou reioysist in the lawe, & thouzow byrelynge the lawe, dishonourest God. For the name of God is euyl spoken of amonge the Gentyls, thouzow ye, as it is witten.

Circumcision vnto a payleth, yf thou siepe the lawe. But yf thou break the lawe, thy circumcisiō is made vncircumcision. Herfoze yf the vncircumcised kepe the right thinges cōtayne in the lawe, shall not his vncircumcision be counted for circumcisiō? And shall not vncircumcision which is by nature, yf it kepe the lawe, iudge the, which beynge vnder the letter and circumcisiō, doest transgrede the lawe? For he is not a Jewe, which is a Jewe outwarde. Nether is that thinge a redresson which is outwarde in the flesh. But he is a Jewe which is hyd within, and the circumcisiō of the herte is the true circumcisiō, which is the spete & not in the letter, whose ppayle is not of men, but of God.

The betwene what preferment the Jewes haue, and that both the Jewes and Gentyls are vnder synne, & are iustified only by the grace of God in Christ.

The iii. Chapter. What preferment? then hath the Jewe? Other what auantageth circumsisiō? Surely very moche, first vnto the, was committed the worde of God. What then though some of the dyd not beleue: that their vnbeleue make the promys of God with out effecte? God forbyd. Let God be true, & all men lyars, as it is witten: that thou myghtest be iustified in thy sayynge, & shuldest overcome, when thou art iudged.

Yf oure vnyghtewesnes make the ryghtewesnes of God moze excellent, what shall we saye? Is God vnyghteous, which callethe vengeaunce? I speake after the manner of men. God forbyd. For how then shall God iudge the worlde? If the bettyle of God appere moze excellent, thouzow my lye, vnto his ppayle, to whom I hence forth iudged as a synner: & saye not rather, as men euyl speake of vs, and as some asseyne that we saye, let vs do euyl that good maye come theroof. Whose damnacon is iust. What sayewe then? Are we better then they? No, in no are not under the lawe: but under grace? God forbid. Remember ye not how that to whomsoever ye comyt your selues as seruantes to obey: his seruantes ye are to whom ye obey: whether it be of synne vnto deeth: or of obedience vnto rightewesnes? God be thanked: that though ye were once the seruantes of synne: ye haue yet obeyed with herte vnto the forme of doctrine wher vnto ye were deliuered. Ye are then made fre fro synne: and are become the seruantes of rightewesnes. I will speake grossly because of the infirmite of your fleshe. As ye haue geue your members seruantes to uncleines & to iniquitie: fro iniquyte vnto iniquyte: euē so now geue your members seruantes vnto rightewesnes: that ye may be sanctified. For when ye were the seruantes of synne: ye were not under rightewesnes. What frute had ye then in tho thinges: wherof ye are now ashamed? For the ende of tho thinge is deeth. But now are ye deliuered fro synne: & made seruantes of God: & haue your frute: & ye shuld be sanctified: & the ende everlastinge life. For the rewarde of synne is deeth: but eternall life is the gyfte of God: thow Jesus Christ oure Lorde.

eternall life is the gyfte of God: thow Jesus Christ oure Lorde.

Christ hath deliuered vs from the lawe and deeth. & out of the fleshe and outwarde man is: and calleth it the lawe of the members.

The vii. Chapter.

Remember ye not brethren (I speake to them that knowe the lawe) how the lawe hath power ouer a man as longe as he endureth: for the woman which is in subiection to a man: is bounde by the lawe to the man: as longe as he lyueth. If the man be deed: he is loosed from the lawe of the man. So then if whill the man lyueth: he couple her selfe to another man: he shalbe counted a wedlocke breaker. But if the man be deed: he is fre fro the lawe: so that she is no wedlocke breaker: though she couple her selfe with another man.

Even so ye my brethren: are deed concerning the lawe by the body of Christ: that we shuld be coupled to another (I meane to the lawe) so him that is rylen agayne from deeth: that we shuld bringe forth frute vnto God. For when we were in the fleshe: the lustes of synne which were stered by the lawe raygned vnto frute in our members: to bringe forth frute vnto deeth. But now are we deliuered fro the lawe and deeth: from that wherunto we were in bondage: that we shuld serue in a newe consuetudine of the sperte: and not in the olde consuetudine of the letter.

What shall we saye then: is the lawe synne? God forbid: but I knowe not what synne meane: but by the lawe. For I had not knowne what lust had meane: excepte the lawe had sayd: thou shalt not lust. But synne took an occasion by the meane of the commaundement: and brought in me all manner of concupiscence. For without the lawe: synne was deed. I once lyued without lawe. But when the commaundement came: synne reyned: and I was deed. And the very same commaundement which was ordeyned vnto life: was made to be vnto me an occasiō of deeth. For synne took occasion by the meane of the commaundement: and so dysceined me: & by the selfe commaundement clewe me. Wherfore the lawe is holy: and the commaundement holy: lust and good.

Was that then which is good: made deeth vnto me? God forbid. Naye synne was deeth vnto me: that it myght appere: how the lawe by the meane of that which is good: had brought deeth in me: that synne which is under the commaundement: might be out of measure synfull. For we knowe that the lawe is spiritual: but I am carnall sold vnder synne: because I wote not what I do. For what I wold: that do I not: but what I hate: that do I. If I do now that which I wold not: I graunte to the lawe that it is good. So then now: it is not I that do it: but synne that dwelleth in me. For I knowe that in me (that is to saye in my fleshe) dwelleth no good thinge. To will is present to me: but I fynde no meane to performe that which is good. For I do not that good thinge which I wold: but that euill do I: which I wold not. Finally if I do that I wold not: then is it not I that do it: but synne that dwelleth in me: doeth it. I fynde then by the lawe: that when I wold do good: euill is present with me. I delite in the lawe of God: concerninge the inner man. But I see another lawe in my members: rebelling agaynst the lawe of my mynde: and subuoyng me vnto the lawe of synne: which is in my members. O wretched man that I am: who shall deliuer me from this body of deeth? I thanke God thow Jesus Christ oure Lorde. So then I my selfe in my mynde serue the lawe of God: and in my fleshe the lawe of synne.

The lawe of the sperte geueth life. The sperte of God maketh vs Gods children and heires with Christ. The aboundant loue of God can not be separated.

The viii. Chapter.

There is then no damnacion to them which are in Christ Jesus: wherby walke not after the fleshe: but after the sperte. For the lawe of the sperte bringeth life thow Jesus Christ: hath deliuered me from the lawe of synne: & deeth. For what the lawe coulde not do in us moche as it was weak: because of the fleshe: that performed

The lawe of the sperte geueth life. The sperte of God maketh vs Gods children and heires with Christ. The aboundant loue of God can not be separated.

There is then no damnacion to them which are in Christ Jesus: wherby walke not after the fleshe: but after the sperte. For the lawe of the sperte bringeth life thow Jesus Christ: hath deliuered me from the lawe of synne: & deeth. For what the lawe coulde not do in us moche as it was weak: because of the fleshe: that performed

synne is the performed God: & sent his sonne in the similitude of synfull fleshe: & by synne damned synne in the fleshe: the rightewesnes requyred of the lawe: myght be fulfilled in vs: wherby walke not after the fleshe: but after the sperte. For they that are carnall: are carnally mynded. But they that are spirituall: are godly mynded. To be carnally mynded: is deeth. To be spirituall mynded: is life & peace. Because that the fleshe mynde is emptye agaynst God: for it is not obedient to the lawe of God: neither can be. So then they that are geuen to the fleshe: cannot please God.

But ye are not geuen to the fleshe: but to the sperte: so that the sperte of God dwel in you. If ther be any man that hath not the sperte of Christ: the same is none of hys. If Christ be in you: the body is deed because of synne: but the sperte is lyfe for rightewesnes sake. Wherfore if the sperte of him that raysed vp Jesus from deeth: dwell in you: euen he that raysed vp your mortall bodies: because that his sperte dwelleth in you.

Therefore brethren we are nowe better: not to the fleshe: to liue after the fleshe. For if ye lyue after the fleshe: ye must dye. But if ye mortifie the dedes of the body: by the helpe of the sperte: ye shal lyue. For as many as are led by the sperte of God: they are the sonnes of God. For ye haue not receaued the sperte of bondage: to feare eny moare: but ye haue receaued the sperte of adoption: wherby we crye Abba father. The same sperte certifieth oure sperte that we are the sonnes of God. If we be sonnes: we are also heires: & heires of the glorie of God: and by hys aneared wherby it is to be that we suffer to gether: & we maye be glorified to gether.

For I suppose that the afflictions of this lyfe: are not worthy of the glorie which shalbe shewed vpon vs. Also the seruent desyre of creatures abyeth to hyng when the sonnes of God shal appere: because creatures are subdued to buyte agaynst their wil: but for his wil which subdueth them in hope. For the very creatures shalbe deliuered fro the bondage of corruption into glorious libertie of the sonnes of God. For we knowe that euery creature groweth with vs also: & triauaileth in payne euen vnto this tyme.

Not they only: but euē we also which haue the first frutes of the sperte: mooue in oure selues a waite for the (adoption) & loke for the deliurancie of oure bodies. For we are saved sayd by hope. But hope that is sene is no hope. For how can a man hope for that which he seeth? But and if we hope for that we se not: then do we with patience abyde for it. The wyse the sperte also helpeth oure in

And he that searcheth the hertes: knoweth what is the meaninge of the sperte: for he maketh intercession for the sayntes accordyng to the pleasure of God. For we knowe that all thinges worke for the best vnto them that loue God: which also are called of purpose. For those wherby he knowe before: he also ordeyned before: that they shuld be lyke fashioned vnto the shap of his sonne: & he myght be the first begotte sonne amonge many brethren. Wherfore which he appoynted before: the also he called: And wherby he called: them also be iustified: which he iustified: them he also glorified. What shall we then saye to these thinges? If God be on oure syde: who can be agaynst vs: which spared not his awne sonne: but gaue him for vs all: how shall he not with hym giue vs all thinges also? Who shall laye any thinge to the charge of Goddes chosen? It is God that iustifieth: who then shall condemne? It is Christ wherby is deed yee rather wherby is rylen agayne: wherby is also on the ryght hande of God: & maketh intercession for vs. Who shall separate vs fro the loue of God? What tribulacion? or anguysh? or persecucion? or other hunger? ether nakednes: ether perrell: ether swearde? As it is wyrtten: for our sake are we kylled all daye longe: and are also counted as shepe apoynted to be slayne. Nevertheless in all these thinges we ouercome strongly thow his helpe that loued vs. Ye and I am sure that neither deeth: neither lyfe: neither Angells: nor rule: neither power: neither thinges present: neither thinges to come: neither he pyllyne: neither loweth: neither any other creature shalbe able to departe vs fro the loue of God: shewed in Christ Jesu oure Lorde.

I speake not these thynges as though the word of God had take none effecte. For they are not all Israelites which came of Israel: neither are they all chyldren of Abraham. But in Isaac shall thy seed be called: this is to saye, they which are the chyldren of the fleshe, are not the chyldren of God. But the chyldren of promys are counted the seede. For this is a worde of promys/aboute this tyme will I come/and Sara shall haue a sonne.

Neither was it so with her only: but also when Rebecca was with chylde by one / I meane by our father Isaac/per the chyldren were borne, when they had nether done good nether bad: that the purpose of God which is by election/myght stande/it was layde vnto her, not by reason of workes, but by grace of the caller: the elder shall serue the younger. As it is sayed: Jacob he loued, but Esau he hated. What shall we saye then? is there any rightewesnes to God? God forbid. For he sayth to Moses: I will shewe mercy to whom I shewe mercy: and will haue compassion on whom I haue compassion. So lieth it not then in a mans will or runninge, but in the mercye of God. For the scripture sayth vnto Pharaoh euen for this same purpose haue I stered the hye to shewe my power on the, & that my name myght be declared thowout all the worlde. So hath he mercy on whom he will/and whom he will he maketh hard herted.

Thou wilt saye then vnto me: why then blameth he vs yet? For who can resist his will? But O man, what arte thou which dispute with God? Shall the worke saye to the worker he made me: or shall thou make me on this sayde? Hath not the potter power ouer the claye? euen of the same lump to make one vessel vnto honoure, and another vnto dishonoure? Euen so, God willinge to shewe his wrath, and to make his power knowne, suffereth with longe patience the vessels of wrath, ordeyned to damnacion, that he myght declare the riches of his glory on the vessels of mercye, which he had prepared vnto glory: that is to saye, of which he called, not of the Jewes only, but also of the gentyls. As he sayth in Osee: I will call them my people, which were not my people: and her beloved, which was not beloved. And it shall come to passe in the place where it was sayd vnto them, ye are not my people: that there shall be called the chyldren of the byrnyng God.

But Elias cryeth concerninge Israel, though the nombre of the chyldren of Israel be as the sande of the see yet shall but a remnant be saved. He synneth the worde hereby, & maketh it short in rightewesnes. For a short worde will God make on erth. And as Elias sayd before: except the Lord of Saboth had left vs seede, we had bene made as Sodoma, and had bene lykened to Gomorra.

What shall we saye then? We saye that the gentyls which folowed not rightewesnes haue ouertaken rightewesnes: I meane the rightewesnes which cometh of sayth. But Israel which folowed the lawe of rightewesnes could not attayne vnto the lawe of rightewesnes. And wherfore? Because they sought it not by sayth: but as it were by the workes of the lawe. For they haue stumbled at the stumbling stone. As it is sayed: Beholde I put in Syon a stumbling stone, and a rocke which shall make men faule. And none that beleue on him, shall be ashamed.

The vnfaithfulness of the Jewes. Two manner of rightewesnes.

The x. Chapter.

Rethers my hertes desyre a prayer to God for Israel is, that they myght be saved. For I beare them record that they haue a seruient mynre to God warde, but not accordyng to knowledge. For they are ignorant of the rightewesnes which is alowed before God, and go about to stablish the their awne rightewesnes, and therfore are not obedient vnto the rightewesnes which is of balye before God. For this is the ende of the lawe, to fulfill all that beleue.

Moses desyreth the rightewesnes which cometh of the lawe, how that the man which both the thynges of the lawe, shall lyue ther. But the rightewesnes which cometh of sayth, speaketh on this wyle. Saye not in thine hert, who shall ascende into heauen, & therfor all that is nothyng els then to fetch Christ downe. Other who shall descende into the depe? (For nothyng els but to fetch vp Christ fro deeth.) But what sayth the scripture? The worde is nye the, eue in thy mouth, and in thine herte.

This worde is the worde of sayth, which we preache. For yf thou shalt knowe the thyng which that Jesus is the Lord, & shalt beleue with thine hert that God raised hym vp from deeth, thou shalt be safe. For the belefe of the hert in sayth, & to knowe let the with the mouth maketh a man safe. For the scripture sayth: whosoeuer beleueth on him, shall not be ashamed.

There is no difference betwene the Jewe & the Gentyll. For one is Lord ouer all, which is ryche vnto all, & call on him. For whosoeuer shall call on the name of the Lord, shall be saved. But how shall they call on him, on whom they beleue not? how shall they beleue on him, of whom they haue not herd? how shall they hear, vnto a preacher? And how shall they preache, except they be sent? As it is written Isent that I written: how beautifull are the feete of them which byrnyng glad thynges of peace, and byrnyng glad thynges of good thynges. But they haue not all obeyed to the Gospell. For Elias sayth: Lord who shall beleue our saynges? So then sayth cometh by hearing, & hearing cometh by the worde of God. But as he haue they not herd? No doubt, their sounde wet out into all landes: & their word into the endes of the worlde.

But I demaunde whether Israel byd knowe or not? If yll Moses sayth: I will prouoke the pou to rage, by them that are no people after that, is holde and sayth: I am sounde of them that sought me not, and haue appered to them that called not after me. And agaynst that he sayth: Israel he sayth, all daye longe haue I stretched forth my handes vnto a people that becurthly not, but I speaketh agaynst me.

All the Jewes are not cast away, therfore I demaunde the gentyls that be called, not to be hys mynde, as dede vnto to be hys Jewes, for the indgements of God are depe and secret.

The xi. Chapter.

Saye then: hath God cast awaye his people? God forbid. For eue I herely am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, & of the tribe of Benjamin. God hath not cast awaye hys people, which he knewe before. The more ye not what the scripture sayth by the mouth of Elias, how he maketh intercession to God agaynst Israel, saying: Lord they haue kylled thy prophetes, & dygged downe thine altars: & I am left on ly, & they seke to my life. But what sayth the answer of God to him agayne? I haue reserved vnto me few thousande men, which haue not bowed the knee to Baal. Euen so at this tyme is ther a remanant left, thowout the electio of grace. If it be of grace, then is it not of workes. For then were grace no more grace. For then were deservyng no longer deservyng. What then? Israel hath not obtained that he sought. No but yet the electio hath obtained it. The remanant are blinded, accordyng as it is written: God hath geuen the spere of byrnyng: eyes that they shuld not se, & eares that they shuld not heare, eue vnto this daye. And Dauid sayth: Let their table be made a snare to take them with all, & an occasion to faule, & a rewarde vnto the.

Let their eyes be blinded that they se not, & eue vnto this daye. I saye then: haue they therfore stumbled, that they shuld but faule only? God forbid. But thowout the faule is saluacion haue ned vnto the gentyls, for to prouoke the wrath of the gentyls all, wherfore yf the faule of the, be thynges of the worlde: and the mynre of the gentyls: how moche more shall the gentyls be moche. Shulde it be so, yf all beleue. I speake to you gentyls, in as moche as I am a Jewe, I will magnify myne office, & I myght prouoke the which are my faule, & myght saue some of the. For yf the castinge awaye of them, be the recoueryng of the worlde: what shall the recoueryng of the be, but yf agayne from deeth? For yf one peece be holy, the whole hepe is holy. And yf the rote be holy, the bryanches are holy also.

Though some of the bryanches be broken of, and thou byrnyng a trye of olyue tree, arte graft in amonge the, & made partaker of the rote and fatnes of the olyue tree, dost not thy selfe agaynst the bryanches. For yf thou dost thy selfe, remember that thou bearest not the rote, but the rote the. Thou wilt saye then: the bryanches are broken of, that I myght be grafte in. Thou sayest well: because of vnbeleue they are broken of, & thou standest stedfast in sayth. Be not hye mynre, but feare sayng, & God spared not the naturall bryanches, lea they also spare not the.

Beholde the kindnes & rigour of God: on the which fell, rigourousnes: but towards the, kindnes: yf thou continue in his kindnes. For as thou shalt be hert of, & they yf they byde not theyll in vnbeleue, shall be graffed in agayne. For God is of power to graffe them in agayne. For yf thou wast cut out of a naturall wilde olyue tree, and wast graffed contrary to nature in a true olyue tree, how moche more shall the naturall bryanches be graffed in their awne olyue tree agayne.

I wolde not that this secrete shulde be hyd fro you my brythen (lest ye shuld be wyle in poure awne consaytes) that partly byrnyng is happened in Israel, by the fulnes of the grace, & be come in: a to all Israel shall be saved. As it is written: & here shall come out of Syon, & of Iherusalem, a lawe, & shall come awaye the byrnyng of Jacob. And this is my cernaunt vnto them, when I shall take awaye their synnes. As concerninge the gospell they are enemyes for your sake: but as touchinge the electio they are loued for the fathers sake. For herely the gyftes and callinge of God are loche, that it cannot repent him of them: for loke, as ye in tyme passed haue not beleued God, yet haue now obtained mercy thowout the vnbeleue: eue so now haue they not beleued the mercy which is happened vnto you, & they also maye obtayne mercy. God hath wrapped all nacjons in vnbeleue, that he myght haue mercy on all.

out? For who hath knowen the mynde of the Lord? Or who was his counsellor? other who hath geue vnto him spyt/that he might be recompensed agayne? For of hym/ & thow to him/ & for him are all thynges. To hym be glorie for ever Amen.

The xij. Chapter.

Philp. ii. c.

True seruenge of God is to be in the body vnto obedience of the lawe of God.

Beseche you therfore brethren/ by the mercifullnes of God/ & ye make youre bodies a quicke sacrifice/ whiche is acceptable vnto God: which is youre resonable seruenge of God & satisfyth not your selues lyke vnto this worlde: but be ye charged in your shape/ by the renuyng of your wittes that ye maye feele what thyng is good/ that acceptable/ & persayete wyll of God is. For I saye (thowome & grace & bnto me geue is) to every man amonge you/ & no man esteeme of hym selfe moare then it becometh him to esteeme/ but & he discretely iudge of himselfe/ accordeynge as God hath deale to every man the measure of sayth.

1. Cor. xii. b. & psal. liij. b.

Prophecie taken here for: & expoundynge of it by the places whiche are expounded & it agrees to the op. places & geue all articles of the sayth

Amos v. & psal. lxx. a. & ierem. lxx. b.

As we haue many members in one body/ & all members haue not one office: so we beynge many/ are one body in Christ/ and every man amonge our selues/ one anothers members. & Seruege that we haue diuers giftes accordeynge to the grace that is geuen vnto vs: yet eny man haue it geft of prophecie/ let hym haue it & it be aggreynge vnto the sayth. Let hym that teacheth/ take heed to his doctrine. Let hym that exhorteth/ geue attendaunce to his exhortaciō. If eny man geue/ let him do it wth singlenes. Let hym that ruleth/ do it wth diligence. If eny man shewe mercy/ let him do it wth cheyryng. Let loue be without dissimulation. Hate & which is eny/ and cleaue vnto that which is good. Be hynde one to another wth brotherly loue. In geuynge honoure/ go one before another. Let not that busynesse which ye haue in hande/ be tedious to you. Be seruen in the spete. Applye your selues to the tyme. Reioyce in hope. Be patient in tribulaciō. Continue in prayer. Distribute vnto & necessitye of & sayntes & be ready to harbour. Blesse them which persecute you: blesse but couerle nor. Be merry wth them that are merry. Wepe wth them that wepe. Be of lyke affectiō one to another. Be not hie mynded: but make your selues equall to them of & lower sorte. Be not wise in your awne opiniōs. Recōpse to no mā eny for eny ill. Despise afoze hande thynges honest in & syght of all men. If it be possible/ how best of your parte/ haue peace with all men. Wery beloued auēge not your selues/ but geue roume vnto the wrath of God. For it is writen: vengeaunce is myne/ & I will rewarde sayth the Lorde. Therefore ye thynke enemye hunger/ sede him: ye thurst/ geue him drynke. For in so doinge thou shalt heape coles of fyre on his heed. Be not overcome of euyl: but overcome euyl wth goodnes.

The obedience of men vnto the rulers. A one fulfilleth the lawe. It is howe to tyme to folowe & to obey the rulers.

The xliij. Chapter.

Euery soule submit him selfe vnto the power of God. For there is no power but of God. The powers that be/ are ordeyned of God. Who soeuer therfore resisteth power/ resisteth the ordinance of God. And they that resist/ shall receaue to the selfe danacyon. For rulers are not to be feared for good workes/ but for euyl. Wilt thou be without feare of the power? Do wel then: & so shalt thou be prayd of the same. For he is the minister of God/ for thy welth. But and ye thou do euyl/ then feare: for he beareth not a sword for nought/ but is the minister of God/ to take vengeaunce on them that do euyl. Wherefore ye must nedes obey/ not for feare of vengeaunce only: but also because of conscience. And euē for this cause paye ye tribute. For they are Goddes ministers/ seruynge for the same purpose. Geue to every man therfore his due: tribute vnto whom tribute belongeth: custōie to whom custōie is due: feare to whom feare is due: honoure to whom honoure pertaineth. Owe nothinge to eny mā: but to loue one another. For he that loueth another/ fulfilleth the lawe. For these commaundementes: thou shalt not comit aduouty: thou shalt not kill/ thou shalt not steale: thou shalt not beare false witness: thou shalt not despyse & so forth (ye there be eny other commaundement) they are all comprehended in this sayynge: Loue thyne neyghbour as thy selfe. Loue hurteth not his neyghbour. Therefore is loue the fullfyllinge of the lawe.

And this also we knowe/ I meane & season/ howe that it is tyme & we shuld now awake out of slepe. For now is our saluacyō neare then whē we beleued. The nyght is passed and the daye is come. Let vs therfore cast away the dedes of darcknes/ and let vs put on the (Armoure) of lyght. Let vs walke honestly as it were in the daye lyght: not in tynge and dymchynge: neether in chamburyng and wantonnes/ neether in styple & enuynge: but put ye on the Lord Iesus Christ. And make not pryncypall for the desyre/ to fulfyll the lustes of it.

And the weakes ought not to be despyed. For mā shuld offend anothers conscience. Agayne/ for outwarde thynges shuld be no man condemne another.

The weakes ought not to be despyed. For mā shuld offend anothers conscience. Agayne/ for outwarde thynges shuld be no man condemne another.

1. c. viij.

The iij. Chapter.

In that is weak in & sayth/ receaue vnto you/ not in disputynge a troublinge bys conscience. One be leueth & he maye eate all thyng. Another which is weak/ eateth carbis. Let not him that eateth/ despyse him that eateth not: And let not him which eateth not/ iudge him that eateth. For God hath receaued hym. What arte thou that iudgest another in iudges leueth? Whether he stande or faule/ that is vnto the ipertayneth vnto his master: ye he that lieth. For God is able to make him stande.

Christian putterly differet by wylde daye & daye. Another mā couereth all dayes alpye. & he that obserueth one daye moze than another/ doth it by the Lordes pleasure. And he that obserueth not one daye inuare then and eateth/ doth it to please the Lorde also. He that eateth/ doth it to please the Lorde with all/ and geueth God thankes. And he that eateth not/ eateth not to please the Lorde with all/ and geueth God thankes. For none of vs lyueth by awne seruante: whether doth any of vs dye by awne seruante? If we lyue/ we lyue to be at the Lordes wyll. And if we dye we dye at the Lordes wyll. Whether we lyue therfore or dye we are the Lordes. For Christ therfore dyed for us/ and rose agayne/ and requied that he myght be Lorde both of dede and quicke.

But why dost thou then iudge thy brother? Why dost thou despyse thy brother? We shalbe all brought before the iudgement seate of Christ. For it is writen: as truly as I lyue sayth the Lorde/ all knees shall bowe to me/ and all tonges shall geue a knowledge to God. So shal every one of vs geue accountes of him selfe to God. Let vs not therfore iudge one another eny moze.

But iudge thus rather/ that no man put a stumblinge blocke or an occasion to faule in his brothers waye. For I knowe and am full certified in the Lorde Iesus that ther is nothinge comen of it selfe: but vnto him that iudgeth it to be comen: to him is it comen. If thy brother be greued by thy meate/ now walke wth thy meate/ for whom Christ dyed. Cause not your & treasure to be euyl spoken of. For the kyngdome of God is not meate & drynke: but rightewynesse/ peace & love in & holy goost. For whosoever in these thinges serueth Christ pleaseeth well God/ & is commended of men.

Let vs folowe the thinges which make for peace/ & thynges wherewith one maye edifye another. And praye not the worke of God for a lytel meates sake. All thynges are pure: but it is euyl for & mā/ which eateth with hurte of his conscience. It is good neether to eate neither/ neether to dymche wyne/ neether eny thyng/ wherby thy brother troubleth/ euen faileth/ or is made weak. Hast thou sayth? haue it with thy selfe before God. Happy is he that condepneth not him selfe in & thyng wherby he alloweth. For he that maketh conscience/ is dymned if he eate: because he doth it not of sayth. For whatsoeuer is not of sayth/ that same is synne.

The fupmyre and scapines of the weakes ought to be to me with all loue and hyndnes/ after the example of Christ.

The xij. Chapter.

Which are stronger/ ought to beare the fraynes of them which are weak. & not to stonde in oure awne consaytes. Let every man please his neyghbour vnto his welth and edifyng. Christ pleased not him selfe: but as it is writen: he is stronge & can beare and theyr manner weaknes. Whatsoeuer thynges are writen: to afoze tyme/ are writen for oure learninge/ that we thowome pacynce & comfote of the scripture/ myght haue hope.

The God of pacience & consolacion/ geue vnto every one of you/ & ye be lyke mynded one to another after the ensample of Christ Iesu: that ye all agreynge to gether/ maye with one mouth prayse God & father of our Lorde Iesus. Wherefore receaue ye one another as Christ receaued vs/ to & prayse of God. And I saye that Iesus Christ was a minister of & circumsion for the truth of God/ to conferme the promyses made vnto the fathers. And let the gentylis prayse God for his mercy/ as it is writen: for this cause I will prayse the amonge the gentylis/ and syng in thy name. And agayne he sayth: reioyce ye gentylis with his people. And agayne/ prayse the Lorde all ye gentylis/ & laude him all nacions. And in another place & sayth: ther shalbe & rote of Jesse/ & he shall ryle to raygne ouer the gentylis: in him shall & gentylis trust. The God of hope fylle you wth all soye and peace in beleuynge: that ye maye & ryche in hope thowome the power of the holy goost. For I myselfe am full certified of you my brethren/ that ye your selues are full of goodnes and fylled wth all knowledge/ & are able to exhorte one another. Wherefore I haue some what boldly writen vnto you/ as one that putteth you in remembraunce/ thowome & grace & is geuen me of God/ that I shuld be the mynister of Iesu Christ amonge the gentylis/ and shuld minister the gladtynges of God/ that the gentylis myght be an acceptable offerynge sanctified by the holy goost. I haue therfore wherof I maye reioyse in Christ Iesu/ in the thinges which pertaine to God. For I dare not speake of any of the

To the Corinthians.

The fyyst Epistle
of Saynct Paul the Apostle to the Cozynthians.

He commendeth the Corinthians / exhorteth them to be of one mynde / and rebuketh the diuision þat was amonge them. Worthy wysdome is folowes before God/for there is no wysda, but in the belyfed crosse of God.

The First Chapter.

Aul by vocacyon an A-postle of Iesus Christ thorow the will of God / and brother Sostenes.

Iunto the congregacion of God which is at Corinthum.
by To them that are sanctified in Christ Jesu/of * saynctes by callenge/ with all þe call on þe to. name of oure Lorde Iesus Christ in every place/both of theys and of oures.

Grace be with you and peace frō God our father, and from the Lorde Iesus Chriſt.

¶ I thanke my God all wayes on youre be halfe/for the grace of God which is geue you by Iesus Christ/ & in all thinges ye are made ryche by him, in all lernynge and in all know ledge/ euen as the testimony of Iesus Christ was cōfirmed in you/ so that ye are behynde in no gyfte/ & wayte for the apperyng of oure Lorde Iesus Christ which shall strenght you vnto the ende/ that ye maye be blamelesse in the daye of oure Lorde Iesus Christ. ¶ For God is saythfull by whom ye are called vnto ¶ I sellpwyppes of his sonne Iesus Christ oure Lorde. I beseeche you brethzen in the name of oure Lorde Iesus Christ/ that ye all speake one thyng & & there be no dissencion amōge you: but be ye knyt to gether in one mynde & in one meanynge: It is shewed vnto me (my brethzen) of you/ by them that are of þe house of Cloe/that ther is strepe amonge you. And this is it that I meane: how that comenige amonge you/one sayeth:I holde of Paul:another I holde of Apollo: the thyrde I holde of Cephas: the fourth I holde of Christ. Is Christ deuided? was Paul crucified for you? ether were ye baptised in the name of Paul?

I thanke God that I christened none of you/but Crispus and Gaius/lest eny quide saye p I had baptised in myne awne name. I baptised also the house of Stephana. Forther-more knowe I not whether I baptised eny man oꝝ no.

For Christ sent me not to baptise / but to preache the Gospel / not wth w^{is}dom of wordes / lest the crosse of Christ shulde haue ^{the preaching of} bene made of none effect. For the preaching ^{the crosse is the} of the crosse is to them that perishe folowes ^{power of God} but vnto vs which are saued it is the power of God. For it is w^{rit}ten: I will destroye the w^{is}dom of the wise / And will cast awaye the vnderstandynge of the prudent. Where is the wise? Where is the scribe? Where is the searcher of this worlde? Hath not God made the w^{is}dom of this worlde folowes?

For when the worlde thowme wysdome knewe not God / in the wysdome of God: it pleased God thowme foliynes of preachinge to saue them that beleue. For the Jewes re-quyre a sygne / & the Grekes seke after wysdome, But we preache Christ crucified / vnto the Jewes an occasyon / of fallynge / & vnto the Grekes foliynes: but vnto them which are called both of the Jewes and Grekes / we preache Christ the power of God and the wyldome of God. For the folpynes of God is wyse then men: & the weakenes of God is stronger then men. Wherfore loke on poure callynge how that not many wyse men after flesche / not many myghty / not many of hye degge are called: But God hath chosen the fo-lyshe thynges of the worlde / to confounde the wyse. And God hath chosen the weake thynges of the worlde / to confounde the myghty.

And byle thynges of the worlde / a thynges which are despysed, hath God chosen / yee and thynges of no reputacyon / for to brynge to nought thynges of reputacyon / that he shoulde reioyce in his presence. And vnto him partayne ye / in Christ Iesu / which of God is made vnto vs wyldome / and also rightewynesse / & sanctifyng and redempcyon.
That accordynge as it is wyrtten: he whych reioyceth / shoulde reioyce in the Lorde.

It is not eloquence and glorious paynted wordes of worldly wysdome that can edifye & churche soules unto Christ: but the playne wordes of the scripture:
for they make mencion of him and his crosse.

The .ii, Chapter.

I am of Apollo / are ye not carnall? What is Paul? what chynge is Apollo? Only mynisters are they by whom ye befeurd / eue as ¶ Lord gaue euery mā grace. I haue plāted/Apollo watred: but God gaue the encrease.
 So then, nether is he ¶ planteth eny thing: neither he ¶ watreth / but God ¶ gaue the en-crease. He that planteth & he ¶ watreth / are nether better then the other. Euery man yet shall receaue his rewarde accordynge to hys labour. We are Goddes labourers / ye are Goddes husband / ye / ye are Goddes byldynge.
 Accordynge to the grace of God geuen vnto me / as a wyfe byder haue I layde the founda-cyon. And another byle thereon. But lett euery mā take hede how he byldeth byd. ¶ For other foundacion can no mā laye / then that which is layde / which is Iesus Christ. If eny mā byle on this foundacion / golde / syluer / pprecious stones: tymber, haye or stobie: eue-ry mannes woche shall appere. ¶ For of the daye shall declare it / and it shall be thewed in fyre. And the fyre shall trye euery mannes woche what it is. If eny mannes woche ¶ he hath byle upon / byre / he shall receaue a re-warde. If eny mānes woche burne / he shall suffice losse / but he shall be safe hym selfe: ne-uerthelesse yet as it were thowow fyre.
 ¶ Are ye not ware that ye are the temple of God / & how that the sprete of God dwelleth in you? ¶ If eny man desyle the tēple of God / hym shall God destroye ¶ For the tēple of God is holy / which temple ye are. Let no man deceauē hym selfe. If eny mā seme wyfe amōge you / let him be a sole in this worlde / that he maye be wyfe. ¶ For the wysdō of this worlde is folyshnes with God. ¶ For it is wyrtten: he compaseth the wyfe in their craftynes. And agayne / God knoweth the thoughtes of the wyfe that they be bayne. Therfoze let no mā reioyce in men. ¶ For all thynges are poures / whether it be Paul / ether Apollo / ether Cephas: whether it be ¶ woild / ether fyre / ether deeth / whether they be p̄sent thynges or thyngs to come: all are poures: & ye are Christes / & Christ is Goddes. ¶

Now therefore there is utterly a fault among you, because ye go to law one with another. Why rather suffer ye not wrong? why rather suffer ye not your selves to be robbed? nay, ye youze selves do wronge; & robbe; & that the vntuetye. Do ye not remember how that the vnrighteous shall not inheret the kingdom of God? Be not deceived. For neither fornicatours / neither worshippers of images / neither who mongers / neither weaklings / neither abusers of the felues with & mēshpnde / neither theues / neither couetous / neither drunkenardes / neither cursed speakers / neither pillers / shall inheret the kingdom of God. And soche were ye heretofore: but ye are washed: ye are sanctified: ye are justified by the name of the Lord Iesus / & by the spirit of our God.

All thynges are lawfull vnto me: but all thynges are not profitable. I maye do all thynges: but I will be vntoought vnder nomis power. Meates are ordeyned for the belly / & the belly for meates: but God shall destroye both it & them. Let not the body be applyed vnto fornicacion / but vnto the Lord: & the Lord vnto the body. God hath rayled by the Lord / & shall rayle by his power.

Whether remember ye not / that your bodies are members of Christ? Shall I now take members of Christ? & make the members of an harlot? God forbid. Do ye not understand that he which coupleth hym selfe with an harlot / is he come one body? For two (sayth he) shall be one fleche. But he that is ioyned vnto the Lord / is one spete.

He fornicatyon. All synnes & a mā dothe / are without the body. But he that is a fornicator / synneth agaynst his awne body. Where knowe ye not how that your bodies are the temple of the holy ghost / which is in you / whō ye haue of God / & how that ye are not your awne? For ye are dearly bought. Therefore glorifye ye God in your bodies and in your spetes / for they are Goddes.

Of marriage / virgynite & wyddowehode.

The viij. Chapter.

Concerning the thynges wherof ye wrote vnto me: it is good for a man / not to touche a woman. Nevertheless to a boyde fornicacion / let every man haue his wyfe: & let every woman haue her husbande. Let the mā geue vnto the wyfe due beneuolence. As the wyfe hath not power ouer her awne body: but the husbande. And as the wyfe & husbande hath not power ouer his awne body: but the wyfe. As the body drawe not your felues one from another / except it be in consent for a time / for to geue your felues to fastynge & prayer. And afterwarde come agayne to the same thyng / lest Satan tempt you for your incontinencie.

This I saye of fauoure / and not of commaundement. For I wolde that all men were as I my selfe am: but every man hath his proper gyfte of God / one after this manner / another after that. I saye vnto the vnmarrid men and wyddowes: it is good for the yf they abyde euen as I do. But and yf they cannot abstayne / lett them marry. For it is better to marry then to burne.

Vnto the marryed commaunde not I / but the Lord: that the wyfe separate not her selfe fro the man. If she separate her selfe / lett her remayne vnmarrid or be reconcyled vnto her husbande agayne. And let not the husbande put away his wyfe from hym.

To the remnaunt speake I a not the Lord. If eny brother haue a wyfe & belueth not / yf he be content to dwell with hym / lett hym not put her away. And if woman which hath to her husbande an insidell / yf he consent to dwell with her / lett her not put hym away. For the vnbelyuynge husbande is sanctified by the wyfe & the vnbelyuynge wyfe is sanctified by the husband. As was your christen bnciene: but now are they pure. But and yf the vnbelyuynge departe / lett hym departe. A brother or a sister is not in subiection to soche. God hath called vs in peace. For how knowest thou o woman / whether thou shalt saue & mā or no? Other how knowest thou o man whether thou shalt saue & woman or no? but euen as God hath distributed to every man.

As the Lord hath called every person / so let him walche: and so orden I in all congregacions. If eny man be called bynne circumsised / lett him abde nothyng thereto. If eny be called vncircumsised: lett hym not be circumsised. Circumcision is nothyng / vncircumcision is nothyng: but the keeping of the commaundementes of God is all together.

Let every man abyde in the same state wherin he was called. Arte thou called a seruauant? care not for it. Nevertheless yf thou mayst be free / vse it rather. For he & is called in the Lord bynne a seruauant is the Lord freeman. As the wyfe be that is called bynne free / is Christ seruauant. Ye are dearly bought / & be not mēnes seruantes. Brethren let every man wherin he is called / therein abyde with God. As concerninge virgyns / I haue no commaundement of the Lord: yet geue counsell / as one & hath obtayned mercie of the Lord to be saythfull. I suppose if it is good for a man so to be. Arte thou bounde vnto a wyfe? seke not to be loosed. Arte thou loosed from a wyfe? seke not a wyfe. But & yf thou take a wyfe as thyselfe / knowe thou synnest not. As the wyfe of a virgin marry / she synneth not. Neuerthelste soche shall haue trouble in their flesh: but I saue you.

This I saye / brethren / the tyme is shorte. It remaineth that they which haue wyues / be as though they had none / and they that were be as though they were not: and they that resoyce / be as though they reioyced not: & they that bye / be as though they possessed not: and they that vse this world / be as though they bled it not. For the fashion of this world goeth away. I wolde haue you without care. The synge mā careth for the thynges of the Lord: how he maye please the Lord. But he & hath married / careth for the thynges of the world: how he maye please his wyfe. There is difference betwene a virgin & a wyfe. The synge woman careth for the thynges of the Lord: & she maye be pure both in body & also in spete. But she that is married / careth for the thynges of the world: how she maye please her husband. This I saye for your profit / not to tangle you in a snare: but for which is honest & comly vnto you / & ye maye quietly cleaue vnto the Lord without separacion.

If eny man thinke that it is vncomly for this virgin / yf she passe the tyme of marriage / and yf so neede requyre / lett hym do what he listeth / he synneth not: lett the be couplyd in marriage. Nevertheless he that purpoeth surely in his herte / hauing none neede: but hath power ouer his awne will: & hath so decreed in his herte / that he will kepe his virgin / both well. So then he & to yneth his virgin in marriage / doth well. But he & to yneth not his virgin in marriage / doth better. The wyfe is bounde to the lawe as long as her husband lyueth. If her husband slepe / she is at liberty to marry with whō she will / only in the Lord. But she is happyer yf she so abyde / in my iudgement. And I thinke herely that I haue the spete of God.

He which is the & vse their liberte to the seruand of othe: and the way how men ought to behaue them toward soch as be weak.

The iij. Chapter.

Aske of thynges dedicate vnto gods / we are sure that we all haue knowledge. Knowledge maketh a man swell: but loue edifyeth. If eny mā thinke & he knoweth eny thyng / he knoweth nothyng yet as he ought to know. But yf eny mā loue God / & same is knowe of him.

To speake of meate dedycat vnto gods / we are sure & ther is none ydill in the world: and that ther is none other God but one. And though ther be that are called Goddes / whether in heauē other in erth (as ther be gods many and lordes many) yet vnto vs is there but one God / which is the father / of whō are all thynges / and we in hym: and one Lord Iesus Christ by whom are all thynges / and we by hym. But every man hath not knowledge. For some suppose that ther is an ydill batyll this house / and eate as a thyng offered vnto the ydole / and so their consciences beynge yet weak / are defyled. Meate maneth is not acceptable to God. Neither yf we eate / are we & better. Neither yf we eate not / are we the worse.

But take hede that your liberte cause not the weak to faule. For yf some man se the which hath knowledge / yf at meate in the ydols temple / shall not the conscience of him be purged / which is weak / be boldened to eate those thynges which are offered to the ydole? And so thowth thy knowledge shall & weak be: & ther perishe for whōm Christ dyed. When ye synne so agaynst the brethren / & wounde their weak consciences / ye synne agaynst Christ: wherfore yf meate hurt my brother / I will eate no fleshe while the world standeth / because I will not hurte my brother.

Loue for beareth the thyng that & maye do by the lawe. He exhorteth the to runne on soch in the course that they haue begonne.

The iij. Chapter.

Am I not an apostle? am I not free? haue I not sene Iesus Christ oure Lord? Are ye not my work in the Lord? If I be not an apostle vnto you / yet am I vnto you. For the seale of my apostleshippe are ye in the Lord. Myne answer to them that aske me / is this. Haue we not power to eate and to drynke? Other haue we not power to leade about a sister to wyfe / as well as other apostles / and as the brethren of the Lord & Cephas? Other only I and Barnabas haue not power this to do? Who goeth a warfare eny tyme at his awne cost? who planteth a vineyarde / & eateth not of the frute? Who sedeth a flocke & eateth not of the mpyche?

Saye I these thynges after the maner of men? Or sayth not the lawe the same alio? For it is wyttē in the lawe of Moses: Thou shalt not mouell the mouth of & ore that treadeth out the corne. Both God take thought for oure sakes: for oure sakes no doute this is wyttē: that he which careth / shulde eate in hope: & that he which thowseth in hope / shulde be partaker of his hope. If welowe vnto you spiritual thynges: is it a great thyng yf we reape your carnall thynges? If other be partakers of this power ouer you / wherfore are not we rather?

Nevertheless we haue not used this power: but suffice all thynges lest we shulde hinder the Gospell of Christ. Doye not understande how that they which minister in the temple/have their synngge of the temple? And they which wayte at the altar/are partakers with the altar. Euen so also dyd the Lorde owayne that they which preache the Gospell/shulde lyue of the Gospell. But I haue used none of these thynges.

De p wretched of loue to his neyghoure/hath his reward. Nether wrote I these thynges that it shuld be so done vnto me. For it were better for me to dye/then that any man shuld take this re-loyngge from me. In that I preache the gospell/I haue nothyngge to reioyce of. For necessity is put vnto me. Who is it vnto me yf I preache not the Gospell? If I do it is a good wyll/I haue a reward. But yf I do it agaynst my will/an office is comitted vnto me. What is my reward then? Merely that when I preache the Gospell/I make the Gospell of Christ free/that I misule not myne auctoryte in the Gospell.

For though I be free fro all men/ yet haue I made my selfe seruaunt vnto all men/that I myght wyne the moo-vnto the Jewes/I be came as a Jewe/to wyne the Jewes. To them that were vnder the lawe/ was I made as though I had bene vnder the lawe/to wyne them that were vnder the lawe. To the p were with out lawe / became I as though I had bene with oute lawe/when I was not w oute lawe as pette pnyngge to God / but vnder a lawe as concernynge Christ/to wyne the that were with oute lawe. To the weakhe became I as weakhe/to wyne the weakhe. In all thyngge I fastyoned my selfe to all men/to saue at the lest wape some. And this I do for the Gospells sake / that I myghte haue my parte therof.

Perceaue ye not how p they which runne in a course/runne all/ yet but one receaueth the reward. So runne p ye maye obtayne. Every man p pouerth masteries/abstyneth fro all thynges. And they do it to obtayne a corruptible crowne:but we to obtayne an vncorruptible crowne. I therfore so runne / not as at an vncertaine thyngge. So syght I/not as one that beatech the ayer: but I tame my body/and byynge it into subiection/ lest after p I haue preached to other/ I my selfe shuld be a cast awaye.

He searcheth them with the ensamples of the olde Testament/and exhorteth them to a Godly conuersacion.

The .x. Chapter.

Brethren I wolde not that ye shuld be ignorant of this / how p oure fathers were all vnder a cloude/ & all passed throgh to see/ & were all baptised vnder Moyses/in the cloude & in the see: & did all eate of one spirituall meate/and dyd all dryncke of one maner of spirituall dryncke. And they dryncke of that spirituall roche that folowed them/ whych roche was Christ. I But in many of them had God no delyste. For they were ouerthrowen in the wyldernes.

These are ensamples to vs. For we shulde not lust after euill thynges/as they lusted. Nether be ye woxypppers of ymages as were some of the accorde as it is wytted: The people late dount to eate a dryncke/ & role by agayne to playe. Nether let vs comit fornicacion* as some of them comitted fornicacion/ & were destroyed in one daye. xxiij. thousande. Nether let vs tempte Christ/ as some of them tempted/and were destroyed of serpentes. Nether murmure ye as some of the murmured & were destroyed of the destroyer.

All these thynges happened vnto them for ensamples/ and were wytted to put vs in remembrance/whom the ends of the worlde are come vpon. Wherfore let them that thyn- neth he standeth/take hede lest he fall. Ther hath none other temptacion taken you/but soche as foloweth the nature of man. But God is saythfull / which shall not suffer you to be tempted aboue your strenght:but shall in the myddes of p temptation make awaye to escape out. I wherfore my deare beloved fle from woxyppinge of ydols.

I speake as vnto them which haue discre- tion/ludge ye what I saye. Is not the cuppe of blessing which we drie/partakynge of the bloude of Christ? is not the brede which we breake/partetakeynge of the body of Christ? because that we (though we be many) yet are one brede & one bodye in as moche as we all are partakers of one brede. Beholde Israel which walketh carnally. Are not they which eate of the sacrifice/partetakers of the altar? What saye I then? that the ymage is eny thyngge? or that it which is offered to ymages is eny thyngge? Nay but I saye/that these thynges which the gentyls offer/they offer to deuyls/ & not to God.

I And I wolde not that ye shulde haue fellowshippe with the deuyls. Ye can not dryncke of the cup of the Lorde/ & of the cup of the deuyls. Ye cannot be p partakers of the Lordes table/and of the table of deuylles. Either all we prouoke the Lorde: Or are we stronger then he? All thynges are lawfull vnto me/ but all thynges are not expedient. All thynges are lawfull to me/ but all thynges edifye not. Let no man seke hys awne profit: but let euery man seke anothers welthe.

What soeuer is solde in the market/that eate/ & aske no questions for conscience sake for the erthe is the Lordes / & all that therein is. If eny of them which beleeue not/ byd you to a to a feast/ & yf ye be disposed to go /whatsoeuer is set before you: eate/ askynge no question for conscience sake. But and yf eny man saye vnto you: this is dedycate vnto ydols/ eate not of it for hys sake & shewed it / & for hurtynge of conscience. The erthe is the Lordes and all that therein is. Conscience I saye/not thynne:but the conscience of that other. For why shulde my liberte be iudged of another mannes conscience. For yf I take my parte with thankes: why am I euill spoken of for that thyng wherfore I geue thankes.

I whether therfore ye eate of dryncke / or whatsoeuer ye do/ do all to the prayse of God. I se ye geue none occasion of euill/nether to the Jewes/nor yet to the getyls/nether to the congregacion of God: euen as I please all men in all thynges/ not sekyng myne awne profit/ but the profit of many/ & they might be saued. folowe me as I do Christ.

He rebuketh them for p abuse and misorde that they had aboute the Sacrament of the body and bloude of Christ/ & bringeth the agayne to the first institution.

The .xi. Chapter.

Comende you brethren that ye remember me in all thynges/ & kepe the ordinaunces euen as I deliuered them to you. I wolde ye knew that Christ is the heed of euery man. And the ma is the womans heed. And God is Christes heed. Every man praynge of prophesyinge hauing eny thyngge on his heed/ shameth hys heed. Every woman that prayeth of prophesith bare headed/difhonesteth hys heed. For it is euen all one/and the very same thyngge/ euen as though she were shauen. If the woman be not couered/let her also be shouen. If it be shame for a woman to be shouen of shauen/let her couer her heed.

A man ought not to couer his heed/for as moche as he is the ymage and gloze of God. The woman is the gloze of the man. For the man is not of the woman/ but the woman of the ma. Nether was the ma created for the woman sake: but the woman for the manes sake.

For this cause ought the woman to haue power on her heed/for the angels sakes. Neuer thelesse nether is the ma without the woman/ nether the woman without the ma in the Lorde. For as the woman is of the man/ euen so is the man by the woman: but all is of God.

Iudge in youre selues whether it be comely p a woman praye vnto God bare headed. O els doth not nature teach you/ & it is a shame for a man/ yf he haue longe heere: & a prayle to a woman/ yf she haue longe heere: for her heere is geue her to couer her withall. If ther be any man amonge you that lusteth to stryue let hym knowe p we haue no soche custome/ nether the congregacions of God.

This I warne you of/and commende not that ye come to gether: not after a better maner but after a worse. I saye of all when ye come to gether in the congregacio/ & heare there is dyfencyon amonge you: & partely beleue it. For ther must be secrets amonge you/ that they which are perfect amonge you/ myght be knowen. When ye come to gether/ a man can not eate the Lordes supper. For euery ma begynneth afore to eate his awne supper. And one is hogre/ & another is dryncke. Haue ye not houses to eate & to dryncke in? O els despyse ye the congregacio of God/ and shame them that haue not: what shall I saye vnto you? Shall I prayle you? In this prayle I you not.

I that which I deliuered vnto you I receaued of the Lorde. For the Lorde Iesus the same nyght in which he was betrayed/ toke bread: & thanked & brake/ & sayde. Take ye/ & eate ye: this is my body which is broken for you. This do ye in the remembrance of me. The ins- After the same maner he toke the cup/ when cyon of the supper was done/ sayinge: This do as oft as Sacrament ye dryncke it/ in remembrance of me. For as often as ye shall eate this brede/ and dryncke this cup ye shall shewe the Lordes deeth/ tyll he come. Wherfore whosoever shall eate of this brede/ or dryncke of the cup vnto worthely/ shalbe gylype of the body & bloude of the Lorde. Let a man therfore examen hym selfe / & so let hym eate of the brede & dryncke of the cup. For he that eateth of dryncketh vnto worthely/ eateth & dryncketh hys awne damnacyn/ because he maketh no differre of the Lordes body. I for this cause many are weakhe & syck amonge you/ & many slepe. If we haue truly iudged oure selues/ we shuld not haue bene iudged. But when we are iudged of the Lorde we are chastened/ because we shulde not be damned with the worlde. Wherfore my brethren wher ye come to gether to eate/ & saye one another. If any ma hogre/let him eate at home/ & ye come not to gether vnto condemnacio. Other thynges will I set in order wher I come.

The dyfetyer of the gyftes of the holy goost/ send to the confort & edyfyng of one another/ & the members of a mans body serue one another.

The .xii. Chapter.

Spirituall thynges brethren I wolde not haue you ignorant. Only the spirit teacheth that I ye knowe that ye were gentyls/ & went youre wayes vnto domine ydols/ eue as ye were ledde. Wherfore I declare vnto you p no ma speaking in the wyete of God/ befieth Iesus. Also no man can saye that Iesus is the Lorde: but the holy goost. Ther are dyfetyes of gyftes berely/ yet but one sprete. And ther are dyfetyes of admyning/ yet but one Lorde. And ther are dyfetyes of divers manners of operations / & yet but one God whereby worketh all thynges that are wrought in all creatures. The gyftes of * & p spete are given to every man / to profit the congregation. To one is given to knowe the spete / the utterance of wisdom. To another is given the utterance of knowledge by the same spete. To another is geue sayth by the same spete. To another the gyftes of helpinge by the same spete. To another power to do miracles. To another prophesye.

To another iudgement of spetes. To a nother diuers tnges. To a nother & interpretation of tonges. And these all worketh euen the selfe same spete / deuidynge to euery ma seuerall gyftes / euen as he will. ¶

¶ For as the body is one / & hath many members / and all & members of one body though they be many / yet are but one body: eue so is Christ. For in one spete are we all baptysed to make one body / whether we be Jewes or Gentyls / whether we be bonde or fre / & have all dronke of one spete. For the body is not one member / but many. ¶ I & sote saye: I am not the hande / therfore I am not of the body: is he therfore not of the body? And yet I care saye: I am not the eye: therfore I am not of body: is he therfore not of & body? ¶ All the body were an eye / where were then the feet?
¶ All where hearinge: where were the hande lynges? But now hath God disposed the members every one of the in & body / at his owne pleasure. ¶ If they were all one member: where were the body? ¶ Now are there many members / yet but one body. And the eye can not saye vnto & hand / I have no neede of the: noz the heed also to & feet / I have no neede of you.
¶ Yet rather a great deale those members of body whereby seeme to be most feble / are most necessary. And vnto those members of & body which we thinke least honest / put we most honestie on. And our ingodlye parties haue most beauty on. ¶ For our honest members neede it not. But God hath so disposed & body / that he hath geue most honour to & parte whereby laked / lest there shuld be eny stryfe in & body: but that the members shuld indifferently care one for another. And yet one member suffer / all suffer with him: yet one member be had in honour / all members be glad also.

¶ Ye are & body of Christ / & members one of another. And God hath also ordeyned in the congregation / first the Apostles / secondarily prophetes / thridly teachers / then them that do miracles: after that / the gyftes of hea-lyng / helpers / gouerners / diuersite of edges.
¶ Are all Apostles? Are all Prophetes? Are all teachers? Are all doers of mirack? ¶ Haue all the gyftes of healyng? Do all speake in tonges? Do all interpret? ¶ Couet after the excellent waye.

¶ The nature and condicions of loue.

The xiiij. Chapter.

¶ Though I speake with the tonges of men & angels / & yet had no loue / I were eue as soundyng brasse: or as a tymbyng cymball. And though I coude prophesye / & vnderstande all secretes / and all knowledge: yet / yet I had not all sayth / to & I coude moue mountayns oute of their places / & yet had no loue / I were nothyng.
And though I bestowd all my good / to fede the poore and though I gaue my body euen that I burned / & yet had no loue / it profiteth me nothyng.

Loue suffreth longe & is courteous. Loue enuyeth not. Loue doth not frowardly / swelleth not / dealeth not dishonestly / seeth not her a wrong / is not prouoked to anger / thinke not euill / reioyseth not in iniquite: but reioyseth in the truth / suffreth all thyngs / beleueth all thyngs / hopeth all thyngs / endureth in all thyngs. ¶ Though & prophesyinge saye / other tonges shall cease / or knowledge vnto nysse awaye / yet loue falleth neuer awaye.

¶ For our knowledge is imperfect & our prophesyinge is imperfect. But which of which is perfect / is come / then that which is imperfect / shall be done awaye. ¶ When I was a childe / I speake as a childe / I vnderstande as a childe / I ymagined as a childe. But as I was a man / I put awaye chyldishnes.
¶ Now we se in a glasse / euen in a darke speakinge: but then shall we se face to face. ¶ Now I knowe imperfectly: but then shall I knowe euen as I am known. ¶ Now abydeth sayth / hope / and loue / euen these thye: but & these of these is loue.

¶ Paul the apostle of proper interpretation or preachinge excellently the gyftes of tonges / and how they ought to be used.

The xiiij. Chapter.

¶ About for loue & conet spiritual gyftes: and most chieffly for to prophesye. For he that speaketh in tonges / speaketh not vnto men / but vnto God. For no man heareth him. ¶ Now beit in the spete he speaketh misteries. But he that & prophesie / speaketh vnto men / to edifyinge / to exhortacion and to comforte.
¶ He that speaketh with tonges / profiteth him selfe: he that prophesie / edifieth the congregacion. ¶ I wolde that ye all spake in tonges: but rather that ye prophesied. For greater is he that prophesie / then he that speaketh in tonges / except he expounde it also: that the congregation maye haue edifyinge. ¶ Now brethren / yet I come vnto you speakinge with tonges: what shall I profit you / except I speake

speake to you / other by reuelacion or knowledge / or prophesyinge / or doctrine.

¶ Forouer what thing without lyfe: geue sounded: whether it be a pype or an harpe: except they make a distinction in the soundes: how shall it be known what is pyped or harped? And also if the trompe geue an vncertaine voyce / who shall prepare hym selfe to frighte? ¶ Euen so lykwys when ye spake in tonges / except ye speake wordes that haue signification / how shall it be vnderstande what is spoken? ¶ For ye shall but speake in the ayer.

¶ Many kyndes of voyces are in & world / and none of them are without signification.
¶ If I knowe not what the voyce meaneth / I shall be vnto him that speaketh / an alien / a stranger / as moche as ye couet spiritual gif-tes / see that ye maye haue plenty vnto the edifyinge of the congregation.

¶ Wherefore let him that speaketh with tonges praye that he maye interpret also. ¶ If I praye in tonges my spete prayeth: but my mynde is without frute. ¶ What is it then? ¶ I will praye with the & spete / & myll praye with mynde also. ¶ I will synge with the spete / and myll synge with the mynde also.

¶ For els when thou bledest with the spete / how shall he that occupieth the roume of the heart / saye: And at the geuyng of thankes / saye he vnderstandeth not what thou sayest. ¶ Thou verely grieuest thines well / but the other is not edified. ¶ Thank my God / I speake with tonges more then ye all. ¶ Yet I leue I leue in the congregation / to speake true wordes with my mynde to the informacion of other rather then ten thousand wordes with the tonges.

¶ Brethren / be not chyldren in wytte. ¶ Now be it as concerning malicioussnes / be chyldish but in wytte be perfect. ¶ In & lawe it is written with other tonges / and with other styppes wylly I speake vnto this people / & yet for all that / will they not heare me / sayth the Lord.
¶ Wherefore / tonges are for a sygne / not to the that beleue: but to them that beleue not. ¶ Contrary wyse / prophesyinge serueth not for the that beleue not: but for them whereby beleue.

¶ If therfore when all the congregation is gathered come to gether / and all speake with tonges / ther come in they that are vnlearned or they which beleue not: will they not saye & ye are out of youre wises? ¶ But & yet all prophesye / and ther come in one & beleue not / or one vnlearned / he is rebuked of all men / & is iudged of every man: & so are the secretes of his heart opened / and so falleth he doune on his face / and worshippeth God / and sayth that God is with you in dede.

How is it then brethren? ¶ When ye come to gether / euery man hath his songe / hath his doctrine / hath his songe / hath his reuelacion / hath his interpretation. ¶ Let all thyngs be done vnto edifyinge. ¶ If eny man speake with ton-ges / let it be two at once or at the most thye at once and that by course / and lett another interpret it. ¶ But yet ther be no interpreter / lett him kepe silence in the congregation / & lett him speake to him selfe and to God.

¶ Let the prophetes speake two at once / or thye at once / & lett the other iudge. ¶ If eny re-uelacion be made to another that sitteth by / lett the first holde his peace. ¶ For ye maye all prophesye one by one / that all maye learne: & all maye haue comforte. ¶ For the spetes of & prophetes are in the power of & Prophetes.
¶ For God is not cauiler of stryfe: but of peace / as he is in all other congregacions of & saynct.

¶ Let your wyues kepe silence in the congregacions. ¶ For it is not permitted vnto the to speake: but let they be vnder obedience / as sayth & lawe. ¶ If they wyl learne eny thinge / lett the aske their husbandes at home. ¶ For it is a shame for women to speake in the congregacion. ¶ Pronge the worde of God vnto you: ¶ Whether came it vnto you only? ¶ If eny man thin-ke hym selfe a prophet / either spiritual: lett him vnderstande / what thynges I wyte vnto you. ¶ For they are & commaundmentes of the Lord. ¶ But & yet eny man be ignorant / lett hym be ignorant. ¶ Wherefore brethren couet to prophesye / & forbyd not to speake with tonges.
¶ And lett all thyngs be done honestly & in order.

The xv. Chapter.

¶ Brethren as pertaininge to & god: I will whych I preached vnto you / which ye haue also accepted / and in the whych ye continue / by the which also ye are saved: ¶ do you to wit / acter what maner I preached vnto you / yet ye kepe it / except ye haue beleued in bayne.

¶ For first of all I deliuered vnto you that the first ym-which I receaued: how & Christ dyed for our tye of oure synnes / agreeynge to the scriptures: and that he was buried / & & he arose agayne & thirde daye accordyng to the scriptures: and that he was sene of Cephas / then of the twelue. ¶ After that ter that he was sene of moothen fyue hundred brethren: after that of which many remayne vnto this daye / and many are fallen a slepe.
¶ After that appered he to James / then to all the Apostles.

¶ And last of all he was sene of me / as of one that was borne oute of due tyme. ¶ For I am left of all the apostles / which am not wo-thy to be called an Apostle / because I perfe-ctured the congregation of God. ¶ But by the grace of God I am that I am. ¶ And his grace which is in me/was not in bayne: & but I laboied more abundantly then they all/yet not I/ but by grace of God which is with me. whether it were I or they/ so we plea-che/and so haue ye beleued.

Resurrection. If Christ be preached how that he rose from the dead: how saye some that are amonge you/that there is no resurrection of the dead?
If there be no rylfynge agayne of the dead: then is Christ not rylfen. If Christ be not rylfen/then is oure preaching bayne/ & your fayth is also in bayne. Ye and we are founde false wytneffes of God. For we haue testified of God/ how that he ryled by Christ whom he ryled not by/ yf it be so that the dead ryle not agayne. For yf the dead ryle not agayne/ then is Christ not rylfen agayne. If it be so that Christ rose not/ then is poure fayth in bayne/& yet are ye in poure synnes. And therto they which are fallen a slepe in Christ are perished. If in this lyfe only we beleue on Christ/then are we of all men the miserablest.

Christ rylfen. But now is Christ rylfen from the dead/ & is be come the fyrst frutes of them that slepe.
For by a man came deeth/ and by a man came the resurrection of the dead. For as by Adam all dye: euen so by Christ/ shall all be made alyue/ and euerie man in his owne order.
The fyrst is Christ/ then they that are Christ-is at his comyng. Then cometh the ende/when he hath deliuered by the kyngdome to God the father/ when he hath put doune all rule/ auctorite & power. For he must raygne tyll he haue put all his enemyes vnder his fete. The last enemye that shalbe destroyed/is deeth. For he hath put all thinges vnder his fete. But when he sayth/ all thinges are put vnder him/ it is not as if he had receyved/which dyd put all thinges vnder him. When all thinges are subouged vnto him: then shall the sonne also him selfe be subiect vnto him that put thinges vnder him/ that God maye be all in all thinges. Other els what do they whych are baptysed ouer the dead/ yf the dead ryle not at all? Why are they then baptysed ouer the dead? Ye & why stonde we in leoper-dy euerie houre? By oure reioysyng which I haue in Christ Iesu oure Lorde/ I dye day-ly. What I haue fought to beastes at Ephesus after the maner of men/ what awantageth it me/ yf the dead ryle not agayne? Lett us eate and dryncke to morrow we shall dye.
Be not deceived: malitious speakinge/ corrupte good maners/ awake truely out of sle-pe/ & synne not. For some haue not the knowledge of God. I speake this to poure rebuke.

But some man will saye: how aryle the dead?
with what bodies come they in? Thou saile/that which thou sowest is not quickened except it dye. And what sowest thou? Thou so-west not that body that shalbe: but bare come (I meane ether of wheat/ or of some other) and God geueth it a body at his pleasure/ to euerie seed a seuerall body.

All flesh is not one manner of flesh but there is one manner flesh of man/ a nother manner flesh of beast/ & a nother manner flesh of synners/ & a nother of byrdes. Ther are celestiall bodies/ & ther are vodies terrestriall.
But the glory of the celestiall is one/ & the glory of the terrestriall is a nother. Ther is one manner glory of the sunne/ & a nother glory of the moone/ & a nother glory of the starres. For one starre differeth fro a nother in glory. So is the resurrection of the dead. It is sowen in corruption/ and rylfeth in incorruption. It is sowen in dishonoure/ & rylfeth in honoure. It is sowen in weaknes/ and rylfeth in power. It is sowen a naturall body/ and rylfeth a spyrituall body. Ther is a naturall bodye and ther is a spyrituall bodye: as it is wyrted: the fyrste man Adam was made a quynge soule: and the last Adam was made a quynge soule. How be it/ that is not the fyrst which is spyrituall: but the which is naturall/ & then the which is spyr-tuall. The fyrst man is of the earth/ earthy: the seconde man is the Lorde from heauē. As is the earthly/ soche are they that are earthy. And as is the heuēly/ soche are they that are heuēly.
And as we haue borne the ymage of the earthy/so shall we beare the ymage of the heuēly.

This saye I by brethren/ & flesh & blood cannot inheret the kyngdome of God. Neither doth corruption inheret incorruption. Behold I shewe you a mystry. We shall not all slepe: but we shall all be chaunged/ & that in a momēt/ & in the twinklinge of an eye/ at the sownde of the last trompe. For the trope shall blow/ & the dead shall ryle incorruptible/ & we shall be chaunged. For this corruptible must put on incorruptibilite: & this mortall must put on immortallite.

When this corruptible hath put on incorruptibilite & this mortall hath put on immor-tallite: then shall be brought to passe the sayinge that is wyrted. Deeth is consumed into victory. Deeth where is thy synge? Hell where is thy victo-ry? The synge of deeth is synne: & the strength of synne is the lawe. But thankes be vnto God which hath genen us victo-ry/thorow oure Lorde Iesus Christ. Therefore my deare brethren/ be ye steadfast and immouable/ alwayes ryche in the woordes of the Lorde/ for as moche as ye knowe how that poure labour is not in bayne in the Lorde.

The putte them in remembrance of the gathering/his Epistle with the salutations of certayne louyng brethren.

Of the

To the Corinthians.

Lxxiii.

The seconde epistle of Saynet Paul the Apostle to the Corinthians.

The consolation of God in trouble. The love of Paul toward the Corinthians/ and his excuse that he came not vnto them.

The fyrste Chapter.

Paul an Apostle of Ie-su Christ by the wyll of God/and brother Timotheus.
vnto the congregacion of God/ which is at Corinthum with all the sayntes which are in all Achaia. Grace be with you & peace from God oure father/ and from the Lorde Iesus Christ.

Blessed be God the father of oure Lorde Iesus Christ/ the father of mercy/ & the God of all comforte/ whych comforteth us in all oure tribulacion/ in so moche that we are able to comforte the which are troubled/ in whatsoeuer tribulacion it be/ with the same com-forte/ wherewith we oure selues are comforted of God. For as the afflictions of Christ are plenteous in us/ euen so is oure consciacion plenteous by Christ.

Whether we be troubled for poure consolacion & saluacion/ whych saluacion sheweth her power in us/ soffre the same afflictions/whych we also suffre: or whether we be comforted for poure consolacion & saluacion: yet our hope is stedfast for you/ in as moche as we know how that as ye haue your parte in affliccions/ so shall ye be partakers of consolacion.

Brethren I wolde not haue you ignorante of oure trouble/ whych happened vnto us in Asia. For we were greued oute of measure passyng strength/ so greatly that we despayred euen of lyfe. Also we receaued an answer of deeth in oure selues/ & that because we shuld not put oure trust in our selues: but in God/whych ryled the dead to lyfe agayne/ & whych deliuered us fro so great a deeth/ and both de-liuer. On whom we trust/ that yet here after he will deliuer/ by the helpe of poure prayer for us/ & by the meanes of many occasions/thankes maye be geuen of many on oure behalfe/ for the grace geuen vnto us.

Oure reioysyng is this/ the testimony of oure conscience/ that in synghenes and godly purenes & not in fleshy wyldom/ but by the grace of God/ we haue had oure conuersaciō in the world/ & most of all to you wardes. We wyrt no nother thinges vnto you/ then that ye reade & also knowe. Ye and I trust ye shall synde us vnto the ende/ eue as ye haue soffre us partly: for we are poure reioysyng/ euen as ye are oures in the daye of the Lorde Iesus.
Amen.

Paul the gatheringe for the sayntes/as I haue ordeyned in the congrega-cions of Galacia/ euen so do ye. vpon some sondaye let euerie one of you put a lyde at home & laye by whatsoeuer he thinketh mete/ that ther be no gathe-ryngs when I come. When I am come/ whosoeuer ye shall allowe by poure letters/ them will I sende to bringe poure liberalite vnto Jerusalem. And yf it be mete that I go/ they shall go with me. I will come vnto you after I haue gone ouer Macedonia. For I will go thorow out Macedonia. With you parauen-ture I will abyde a whyle: or els wynter/ & ye maye bringe me on my waye whithersoeuer I go.

I will not se you now in my passage: but I trust to abyde a whyle with you/ yf God shall suffre me. I will tary at Ephesus un-tyll whistontyde. For a greate doxe & a frute full is opened vnto me: & ther are many ad-uersaries. If Timotheus come/ se he be id-out seare to you. For he worketh the worke of the Lorde as I do: let no man despyle him: but conuaye hym forthe in peace/ that he maye come vnto me. For I loke for hym to the brethren.

To speake of brother Apollo: I greatly desired him to come vnto you with the brethren/but his mynde was not all to come at this tyme. How be it he will come when he shall haue conuenient tyme. Watche ye/ stonde fast in the sayth/ quyte you lyke men/ & be stryde.
Let all poure busynesse be done in loue.

Brethren/ ye knowe the house of Stephana/ how they are the fyrst frutes of Achaia/and that they haue appoynted the selues to mystrye vnto the sayntes: I beseeche you that ye be obedient vnto soche & to all that helpe and laboure. I am gladd of the comyng of Stephana/ Fortunatus and Achaicus: for that whych was lackyng on poure parte/they haue supplied. They haue comforted my spyte and poures. Loke therfore that ye know them that are soche.

The congregacions of Asia salute you.
Aquila and Priscilla salute you moche in the Lorde and so doeth the congregacion that is in their house. All the brethren grete you. Grete ye one another with an holy kysse. The salu-tacion of me Paul with myne awne hande.
If any man loue not the Lorde Iesus Christ/the same be Anathema maranatha. The grace of the Lorde Iesus Christ be with you all.
My loue be to you all in Christ Iesu Amen.

The end of the fyrst epistle to the Corinthians.
Sent from Philippios/ by Stephana and Fortunatus/ & Achaicus/and Timotheus.

The thirde
chapter of the seconde epistle of Paul the apostle to the Corinthians.

The.ii. Epistle

And in this confidence was I mynded the other tyme to haue come vnto you / that ye myght haue had yet one pleasure moare / & to haue passed by you into Macedonia / & to haue come agayne oute of Macedonia vnto you / and to haue bene ledde forth to Icthyre warde of you. When I thus wyle was mynded: did I ble lyghtnes? Or thinke I carnally those thinges which I thinke: that with me shuld be? yee yee / & naye naye. God is saythfull: for oure preaching to you / was not yee & naye. For Gods sonne Iesus Christ which was preached amonge you by vs (that is to saye / by me and Siluanius and Timotheus) was not yee and naye: but in him it was yee: & for all the promises of God / in him are yee: and are in him Amen / vnto the laboure of God thowome vs. For it is God which stablished vs and you in Christ / & hath annoynted vs / which hath also sealed vs / & hath giuen the earnest of the sprete into oure hertes.

He sheweth the cause of his absence and exhorteth them to forgiue the man that was fallen: & to receiue him agayne with loue.

The.ii. Chapter.

I Call God for a recorde vnto my soule / & for to saue you wyth all that came not eny moare vnto Corinthum. Not that we be lordes ouer your sayth: but helpers of your loye. For by sayth ye stande. But I determined this in my selfe / that I wold not come agayne to you in heuynes. For yf I make you loye / who is it that shuld make me glad / but & same whych is made loye by me? And I wrote this same epistle vnto you / lest yf I came / I shuld take heuynes of the / of whom I ought to reioyce. Certainly this confidence haue I in you all / & my loye is & loye of you all. For in great affliction and anguyshe of hert I wrote vnto you with many teares: not to make you loye / but that ye myght perceaue the loue whych I haue / most specially vnto you.

If eny man hath caused sorow / the same hath not made me loye / but partly: lest I shuld greue you all. It is sufficient vnto the same man that he was rebuked of many. So & now contrarie wyle ye ought to to forgiue him and comforte him: lest that same persone shuld be swallowed by wyth oure moche heuynes. Wherefore I exhort you & loue maye haue strenght ouer him. For this cause here I ydred I wyte / that I myght knowe & proue of you / whether ye shuld be obedient in all thynges. To whom ye forgiue eny thyng / & forgiue also. And hereby yf I forgaue eny thyng / to whome I forgaue it / for your sakes forgaue I it / in the roume of Christ / lest Satan shuld pteuent vs. For his thoughtes are not vnknown vnto vs.

where I was come to Troada for Christes Gospels sake (& a great doze was opened vnto me of the Lord) I had no rest in my sprete / because I founde not Titus my brother: but toke my leaue of them and went awaye into Macedonia. & thence he vnto God whych alwayes geueth vs the victorie in Christ / & openeth the sauer of his knowledge by vs in every place. For we are vnto God the sweete sauoure of Christ / both amonge the that are sauerd / & also amonge the which perishe. To the one parte are we & sauour of deeth vnto deeth. And vnto & other part are we & sauour of lyfe vnto lyfe. And who is mete vnto these thynges? For we are not as many are which choppe & chawge with the woide of God: but euil out of purenes / & by the power of God / & in & syght of God / so speake we in Christ. He prayeth the preaching of the Gospel about & preaching of the lawe.

The.iii. Chapter.

I began to prayse oure selues agayne. Wee we as some oth / of Epistles of recommendacion vnto you: or letters of recommendacion from you: ye are oure epistle wytted in oure hertes / which is vnderstande & red of all men / in that ye are known / how that ye are the epistle of Christ / mynistred by vs and wytted / not with ynke: but with the sprete of the lypinge God / not in tables of stone: but in fleshy tables of the herte. Suche trust haue we thowome Christ to God wath / not that we are sufficient of oure selues to thynke eny thyng as it were of our selues but oure abienes commeth of God / which hath made vs able to minister & newe testamēt / not of & letter / but of & sprete. For & letter killeth / but & sprete geueth lyfe. For the mynistacion of deeth thowome the letters figured in stones was glorious / so & the chyldren of Israel coude not beholde the face of Moses for & gloze of his countenaunce: which gloze neuerthelesse is done awaye / why shall not & mynistacion of & sprete be moche moze glorious? For yf & mynistange of & obediēciacion be glorious: moche moze doth & mynistacion of ryghtewynnes excede in gloze. For no dout & which was there glorified is not once glorified in respecte of this excedinge gloze. When yf & which is de tropt was glorious: moche moze shall & which remayneth / be glorious.

Seyng then that we haue soche trust / we ble great boldnes & do not as Moyses / which put a bayle ouer his face that the chyldren of Israel shuld not se for what purpose that seruēd which is put awaye. But these myndes were blinded for vntill this daye remayneth the same coueringe vntill awaye in & olde & which is testament

To the Corinthyans.

the very con testant when they reade it / which in Christ is put awaye. But euē vnto this daye when Moyses is redde / & bayle bageh before their hertes. Neuerthelesse whē they come to the Lord / the bayle shalbe taken awaye. The Lord no dout is a sprete. And where & sprete of the Lord is / there is libertie. But we all beholde the gloze of the Lord with his face open / and are chaunged vnto the same similitude / from gloze to gloze / euē of the sprete of the Lord.

A true preacher is diligent / he corrupteth not the woide of God: he preacheth not him selfe / but truly the honours of Christ yee though it be with the perill of his lyfe.

The.iiii. Chapter.

I herfore tryng that we haue soche an offyce / euē as mercy is come on vs / we saynte not: but haue cast fro vs the clothes of vnholynesse / & walke not in craftynes neither corrupte we the woide of God: but walke in open truth / & reposit oure selues to euery mannes conscience in the syght of God. If oure Gospel be yet hyd / it is hyd amonge the & are lost / in myndes of the which beleue not / lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ which is the ymage of God shulde shyne vnto them. For we preache not our selues / but Christ Iesus to be & Lord / and oure selues your seruantes / for Iesus sake. For it is God & commanded the lyght to shyne out of darknes / which hath shyned in oure hertes / for to geue the lyght of the knowledge of the gloze of God / in the face of Iesus Christ.

But we haue this treasure in erthly vessels / the excellent power of it myght appere to be of God / and not of vs. We are troubled on euery syde / yet are we not without hope. We are in pouertie: but not utterly without comfort. We are persecuted: but are not forsaken. We are cast doune: neuerthelesse we perseuereth the help of God. And we all wayes beare in our bodies & dynges of the Lord Iesus / & the lyfe of Iesu myght appere in oure bodies. For we which lyue / are alwayes deliuered vnto deeth for Iesus sake / that the lyfe also of Iesu myght appere in oure mortall fleshe. So then deeth wozyeth in vs / & lyfe in you. Seyng then that we haue & same sprete of sayth / accordyng as it is wytted: I beleue / and therfore haue I spoken. We also be lene / & therfore speake. For we knowe & he which is rayfed by the Lord Iesus / shall rayse vs also by the mynistacion of Iesus / and shall set vs vp with you. For all thyngs do I for your sakes / that the plenteous grace by thanches of God. What geuen of many / maye redounde to the prayse of God.

wherefore we are not wretched / but though oure outward man perishe / yet the inward man is renewed daye by daye. For oure creature tribulacion which is momentary and lyght / prepareth an excedyng & an eternall waight of gloze vnto vs / whill we loke not on the thinges which are sene / but on & thinges which are not sene. For thynges which are sene / are temporall: but thynges which are not sene / are eternall.

The rewards for suffering trouble

The.v. Chapter.

I knowe slyly yf oure erthly mansion / wherein we now dwell were destroyed / that we haue a buildinge ordeyned of God / an habitacon not made with handes / but eternall in heauen. And herfore I gygh we / despying to be clothed with oure mansion which is from heauē: so yet yf that we be founde clothed / and not naked. For as long as we are in this tabernacle / we gygh and are greued / for we wold not be vnclouthed / but wold be clothed byon / & mortallite myght be swallowed by of lyfe. We & hath ordeyned vs for this thyng / is God: which very same hath geue vnto vs & earnest of the sprete.

Wherefore we are alwaye of good chere / & knowe well that as long as we are at home in the body / we are absent from God. For we walke in sayth and se not. Neuerthelesse we are of good comfort / and had leuer to be absent from the body and to be present with the Lord. Wherefore / whether we be at home or vnto home we endeuoure oure selues to please him. For we must all appere before & iudgemente seate of Christ / & euery man maye receaue the wozyes of his body accordyng to that he hath done / whether it be good or bad.

Seyng then that we knowe / how the Lord is to be feared / & we are saynt wyth men. For we are knowne well ynough vnto God. I trust also that we are knowe in your consciences.

We prayse not oure selues agayne vnto you / but geue you an occasyon to reioyce of vs / & ye maye haue some what agayn the / which reioyce in the face / & not in the herte. For yf we be to seruēt / to God are we to seruēt. If we hepe measure / for your cause we measure. For the loue of Christ constraineth vs / because we thus iudge / yf one be deed for all / & then are all deed / & & he died for all / that they which lyue / shuld not hence forth lyue vnto them selues / but vnto hym which dyed for them and rose agayne. Wherefore henceforth knowe we no man after the fleshe. In somothe though we haue knowne Christ after the fleshe / now hence forth knowe we him so no moare. Wherefore yf our but at him.

Christen see / vnto us / we knowe him / and / lyue not / for he knowe we him so no moare. Wherefore yf our but at him.

The.ij. Epistle

any man be in Christ, he is a new creature. All thynges are passed awaye/ beholde all thynges are become newe. Nevertheless all thynges are of God/ which hath reconciled vs unto him selfe by Iesus Christ/ & hath geue[n] vnto vs the office to preache & attone[m]ent. For God was in Christ/ and made agrement wth the world & him selfe/ and imputed to preache. Not their synnes vnto them: & hath committed to vs the preachinge of the attone[m]ent. Now then are we messengers in & rounne of Christe/ as though Godd had besetche you thowto be atone with God: for he hath made hym to be synne for vs/ which knew no synne/ that we by his meanes shuld be that ryghte-nes which before God is allowed.

¶ An exhortacion to receaue the worde of God with thankfulness. The Corinthians are comend[ed] for their obedience and loue towardes Paul.

¶ The.iiij. Chapter.

¶ As helpers therfore exhorter you/ that ye receaue not grace of God in bayne. For he saith: I haue heard the in a tyme accepted: and in the daye of saluacion/ haue I sickered the. Beholde now is & well accepted tyme: beholde now is that daye of saluacion. Let vs geue no man occasion of euill/ that in oure office be founde no fault: but in all thynges let vs behaue oure selues as the mynistrers of God.

¶ In moche pacie[n]ce/ in affliction/ in necessite/ in anguyshe/ in streyes/ in p[er]sonal/ in streye/ in laboure/ in watching/ in fasting/ in purenes/ in knowlege/ in longe suffering in hope/ in & holy good/ in loue vnspayed/ in the wordes of trouth/ in & power of God/ by the armour* of rightewesnes of & ryghte hande & on the lyfte/ in honoure & dishonour/ in euill repute & good repute/ as defraile/ as uers & yet true/ as vnknewen/ & yet knowen: as dyinge/ & beholde we yet lyue: as chastised/ & not killed: as sozowng/ & yet alwaye merry: as poore/ & yet make many riche: as hatinge no thyng/ & yet possesse all thynges.

¶ O ye Corinthians/ oure mouth is open vnto you. Oure hert is made large: ye are in no straye in vs/ but are in a straye in youre owne bowelles: I promyse you lyke reward to me/ as to my childre. Set your selues therfore at large/ & I heare not a strangeres voke with & vnbeleuers. For what fellowship hath ryghtewesnes with vnyghtewesnes? What company hath light with darcknes? What corde hath Christ with Bellial? ether what part hath he that beleueth/ with an infidell? how agreeth the temple of God with ymages? And ye are the temple of that lyuinge God/ as sayde God. * I wyll dwell amonge them &

walke amonge them/ & wyll be their God: & they shalbe my people. Therfore come out fro amonge the/ and separate youre selues (sayth the Lorde) and touche none vnclene thinge: so wyll I receaue you/ and will be a father vnto you/ and ye shalbe my sonnes and daughters/ sayth the Lorde almyghty.

The exhorteth them to receaue the promyses of God thankfully. The Corinthians are comend[ed] for their obedience and loue towardes Paul.

The.iiij. Chapter.

¶ Exhorter that we haue soche promyses derely beloued/ lett vs cleanse oure selues fro all filthynes of the fleshe & spere/ & growe by to full holynes in the feare of God. Understand vs/ we haue hurte no man: we haue corrupte no man: we haue defrauded no man. I speake not this to condemne you: for I haue shewed you before that ye are in oure hert/ to be & lyue wth you. I am very bolde ouer you/ & reioyce greatly in you. I am fylled with comfote & am excedyng sopeful in all oure tribulacions. For when we were come into Macedonia/ oure fleshe had no rest/ but we were troubled on euery syde. Outwarde was fightinge/ inward was feare. Nevertheless God that comforteth the abjecte/ comforted vs at the comynge of Titus.

And not with his comynge only: but also with the consolacion wherwith he was comforted of you. For he tolde vs youre desyre/ youre mourning/ youre feruent mynde to me ward: so that I now reioyce & moze. Wherfore though I made you sozowly with a letter/ I repent not: though I dyd rep[er]t. For I perceaue that & same epistle made you sozowly/ though it were but for a season. But I now reioyce/ not that ye were sozowly/ but that ye sozowed that ye repented. For ye sozowed godly: so & in nothyng ye were hurte by vs. For godly sozowe causeth repentaunce vnto saluacion not to be repented of: when woefully sozow causeth deeth.

Beholde what diligence thys godly sozowe that ye toke/ hath wrought in you: ye it caused you to cleare youre selues. It caused indignacion/ it caused feare/ it caused desyre/ it caused a feruent mynde/ it caused punishment: for in all thynges ye haue shewed your selues that ye were cleare in that matter. Wherfore though I wrote vnto you/ I did it not for hys cause that dyd hurte/ neither for hys cause that was hurte: but that oure good mynde whych we haue towardes you in the sight of God/ myght appere vnto you.

Therfore we are comforted/ because ye are comforted: yet and excedyngly & moare ioyed we/ for the tope that Titus had: he cause hys spere was refreshed of you all. I am therfore for/ not now a shamed though I boasted my selfe to him of you. For as all thynges which I preached vnto you are true/ eue so is oure boasting/ that I boasted my selfe to Titus in all/ founde true. And now is his inward affection moare abundant towardes you/ wher he remembreth the obedience of euery one of you: how with feare and trembling ye receaued him. I reioyce that I maye beholde ouer you in all thynges.

The putteth the in remembrance to helpe the poore synners at Jerusalem/ accordyng as & Macedonia dyd.

The.iiij. Chapter.

¶ Do you to wit b[re]th[er]e/ of & grace of God which is geuen in the congregacions of Macedonia/ how & the aboundance of their reioysing is/ & they are tryed with moche tribulacion. And therfore though they were excedyng poore yet haue they geuen excedyng richly/ & that in synghenes. For to their powers (I beate the corde) ye and beynde their power/ they were wyllynge of their owne recorde/ & prayed vs with great instance/ that we wolde recorde their benefite/ and suffice them to be partakers wth other in ministringe to the synners. And thys they dyd/ not as we looked for: but gaue their owne selues first to the Lorde/ & after vnto vs by the wyll of God: so that we coulde not but desyre Titus to accompysh the same beniuolence amonge you also/ eue as he had begonne.

Now therfore/ as ye are ryche in all parties/ in sayth/ in worde/ in knowlege/ in all feruentnes/ & in loue/ which ye haue to vs: eue so let that ye be plenteous in this beniuolence. This saye I not as commaundyng: but because other are so feruent/ therfore proue your loue/ whether it be perseyt or no. Ye knowe the lyberalite of oure Lorde Iesus Christ/ which though he were ryche yet for youre sakes he came poore: that ye thowto his pouertie/ myght be made ryche.

And I geue counsell here to. For thys is excedyng good for you/ which beganne/ not to do on ly: but also to wyll a yere a go. Now therfore performe the dede: that as ther was in you a redyng to wyll/ euen so ye maye performe & dede/ of & which ye haue. For yf ther be synners a wyllynge mynde/ it is accepted accordyng to that a man hath/ & not accordyng to that he hath not.

It is not my mynde that other be set at ease/ and ye brought into comb[us]tion: but that ther be equalite now at this tyme/ that your aboundance sucke their lacke: & their aboundance maye supplie your lacke: that ther maye be equalite/ agreyng to that which is writen. * He that gathered moche had neuer the more aboundance/ & he that gathered ly-tell had neuer the lesse. Whates be vnto God/ which put in the hert of Titus the same good mynde towardes you. For he accepted the request ye rather he was so well willing/ that of his owne accorde/ came vnto you.

We haue sent with him & brother/ whose laude is in the gospel thowto out all the congregacions: & not so only/ but is also chosen of the congregacions to be a felowe with vs in oure tomye concernyng this beniuolence & is mynistrer by vs vnto the prayse of the Lorde and to stee by youre prompt mynde.

For thys we extue/ that any man shulde rebuke vs in this plenteous distribucio[n] that is mynistrer by vs/ and therfore make prop[er]tion for honest thynges/ not in the sight of God only/ but also in the sight of men.

We haue sent with the a brother of oures whom we haue ofte tymes proued diliget in many thynges/ but now moche moze diliget. The grete confidence which I haue in you/ hath caused me thys to do: partly for Titus sake which is my felowe and helper as concernyng you/ partly because of other which are oure b[re]th[er]en and the messengers of the congregacions/ & the gloze of Christ. Wherfore shewe vnto them proufe of youre loue/ & of the reioysyng that we haue of you/ that the congregacions maye se it.

In this Chapter both he the same that he dyd in the Chapter goyng before/ that is/ moueth them to helpe & poore b[re]th[er]en at Jerusalem.

The.ij. Chapter.

¶ If the ministringe to & synners is but superfluous for me to write vnto you. For I knowe youre redyngnes of mynde/ wherof I boast my selfe vnto the of Macedonia/ & say & Achaya was prepared a yere a go/ & your feruentnes hath prouoked many. Nevertheless yet haue I sent these b[re]th[er]en/ lest oure reioysyng ouer you shulde be in bayne in this behalfe/ and that ye (as I haue sayde) prepare your selues lest parauenture yf they of Macedonia come with me/ and fynde you vnprepared/ the booke & I made in this matter/ shuld be a shame to vs. I saye not vnto you.

Wherfore I thought it necessary to exhorter the b[re]th[er]en/ to come before hande vnto you for to prepare your good blessinge promysed & soze/ that it myght be redy: so that it be a blessinge/ & not a defraudinge. For his yet remember/ howe that he whych soweth lytell/ shall reape lytell/ & he & soweth plenteously shall reape plenteously. And let euery man do accordyng as he hath purposed in his hert/ not growyngly/ or of necessity. For God lo- ueth a chearfull geuer.

God is able to make you ryche in all graces/ that ye in all thynges hauinge sufficient unto a benediction/may the riches be unto all manner good work/as it is written. * He hath sparsed abroad and hath given to the poor/his righteousness remaineth for ever. He is syn-deth the lower seed / shall multiply breed for seed / & shall multiply your seed & increase the fruites of your righteousness. * That on all parties/ye may be made rich in all syn-glenes/ which causeth thozow us / thanks giving unto God.

For the office of this ministracion/not only supplyeth the neede of the sayntes/but also is aboundant here in/that for this laudable ministringe/thanks myght be given to God of many/which prayse God for the obedience of your professinge the Gospell of Christ/& for your singlenes in distributynge to the & to all men/& in their prayers to God for you/longe after you/for the aboundant grace of God given unto you. Chances be unto God for his bountifull grace.

He toucheth the false Apostles/& defendeth his au-thorite and callinge.

The i. Chapter.

Paul my selfe beseeche you by the meekenes & softnes of Christ which when I am present amonge you am of no reputacion/ but am bold towards you beinge absent. I beseeche you & I neede not to be bolde when I am present/ in that same confidence/wherewith I am supposed to be bolde/ agaynst some which repete as though we walked carnally. Neuerthelesse though we walke copased with fleshe/yet we warre not fleshye. For the weapons of our warre are not carnall thynges/ but thynges mighty in God/to cast downe stronge holdes/wherewith we overthrowe ymagina-cions/and every hye thyng that exalteth it selfe agaynst the knowledge of God & bringe into captiuitie all vnderstandynge to the obedience of Christ/& are redy to take vengeance on all disobedience/when your obedience is fulfilled. Like ye on thynges after & better apperaunce.

If any man trust in him selfe & he is Christes/let the same also confesse of hym selfe/& as he is Christes/euen so are we Christes.
And though I shuld boast my selfe some what more of our auctorite which & Lord hath given us to edifie and not to destroye you/it shulde not be to my shame. This saye I / lest I shuld seme as though I went about to make you a straye with letters. For the epistles (sayth he) are stronge/but his bodily presence is weakke/& his speache is rude. Let hym that is soke thinke on this wyse/that as we are in wordes by letters when we are absent soke are we in dedes when we are present.

For we cannot fynde in our hartes to make our selues of the nombre of the / or to compare our selues to the / which laude the sel-ues/neverthelesse whill they measure the sel-ues to the selues/& compare the selues with the selues/they vnderstande nought. But we will not reioyce aboute measure: but according to the quantite of the measure which God hath distributed vnto vs/a measure that reacheth euen to you. For we stretche not out our selues beyonde measure as though we had not reached vnto you. For euen to you haue we come with the gospell of Christ/& we boast not our selues out of measure in other mens labours. For we hope/when your sayth is increased amonge you/to be magnified accor-dyng to our measure/more largely/and to preache the gospell in those regions which are beyonde you:& not to reioyce of that which is by another mans measure prepared all redy. Let hym & reioyceth/reioyce in & * Lord.

For he that praiseth him selfe/is not allowed:
but he whom the Lord praiseth.

Paul (vnder suffer aunce) commendeth him selfe/and defendeth his auctorite agaynst the false prophetes.

The ii. Chapter.

Wide to God/ye coulde suffre me a lytell in my folowes/ye & I praye you for beare me. For I am gelous ouer you with godly gelousy. For I coupled you to one man/to make you a chastite virgyn to Christ. But I feare lest as I set pent begyled eue thozow his subtiltie/euen so your wythes shuld be corrupte wth & sin-glenes that is in Christ. For yf he & cometh/preache a nother Jesus then him whome we preached: or yf ye receaue another spytethen by which ye haue receaued: either another gos-pell then & ye haue receaued/ye myght right well haue bene content. I suppose & I was not behynde the chiefe Apostles. Though I be rude in speakinge/yet I am not so in knowledge. How be it amonge you we are knoweto the utmost what we are in all thyngs. Wd thezin synne/be cause I submyted my selfe/& ye might be exalted / & because I preached to you the gospell of God fre: I robbed other cōgregacions/& toke wages of the to do your seruice wth all. And whil I was present wth you/& had neede/ I was greuous to no man for which was lackinge vnto me / the byrth which cam from Macedonia/supplied: & in all thynges I kept my selfe that I shuld not be greuous to you:& so will I kepe my selfe.

If the truely of Christ be in me / this re-ioyng shall not be takē from me in the regions of Achaia. Wherfore? Because I loue you not? God knoweth. Neuerthelesse what I do / that wyll I do to cutt away occasions from them which desyre occasion / that they myght be founde lyke vnto vs in that wherin they

they reioyce. For these false apostles are dis-creetfull wo:kers/and fasten thyn selues lyke vnto & Apostles of Christ. And no manuayle/for Satan him selfe is chaunged into the fasten of an angell of lycht. Wherfore it is no great thinge/though his ministers fasten thyn selues as though they were the ministers of ryghtewlnes: whose ende shalbe accorpyng to their dedes.

I saye agayne/lest any man thinke & I am follysh: or els eue now take me as a follysh I maye boast my selfe a lytell. That I speake I speake it not after the wayes of the world but as it were follyshly/whill we are now to me to boasting. Wherfore that many reioyce after the fleshe/I will reioyce also. For ye suffre soles gladly/because that ye your sel-ues are wise. For ye suffre eue yf a man bringe you into bondage: yf a man deuoure: yf a man take: yf a man exalt him selfe: yf a man synne you on the face. I speake as concerninge rebuke/as though we had bene weakke.

How be it wherin soeuer any man dare be bolde/I speake follyshly/I dare be bolde also.
They are Chyres/so am I: they are Israelltes/eue so am I. They are the seede of Abrahham/eue so am I. They are the ministers of Christ/I speake as a follysh/I am more: In labours more aboundant: In stryppes aboute measure: In prison more plenteously: In deeth ofte. Of the 3 times I was recea-ued I every tyme. I stryppes saue one. Christe was I beten with roddes. I was once stoned I suffered thynge whypwache. Night & daye haue I bene in the depe of the see. In sometynges often: in perils of waters: in perils of robbers: in perils of myne owne nacion in leopordies amonge the hethen. I haue bene in perils in cities/in perils in wilderness in perils in the see/in perils amonge false brythens/in labours & trouble/in watchynge often/in hunger in thynge/in fastynge often in colde & in nakednes. And beynde & thynges which outwardly happen vnto me/I am confessed daily/& do care for al cōgregacions/who is sicke/& I am not sicke: who is hurte in & sayth & my hart burneth not: I must neede reioyce/I will reioyce of myne infirmities.

Paul is taken vp into the thyrde heauen/& heareth wordes not to be spoken of.

The iii. Chapter.

He God and father of our Lord Jesus Christ/whych is blessed for euermore/knoweth that I lye not.
In the cite of Damascus/& gouerner of the people vnder kynge Aretas/I layde watche in the cite of the Damascens/and wolde haue caught me/and at a wyndo-we was I let downe in a basket thozow the wall/and so escaped bys handes.

It is not expedient for me now to reioyce Neuerthelesse I will come to visions & reue-lacions of the Lord. I knowe a man in Christ aboue. xiiij. yeres agoe (whether he were in the body I cannot tell/ or whether he were out of the body I cannot tell (God knoweth) whych was taken vp in to the thyrde heauen.
And I knowe the same man (whether in the body/ or out of the body. I cannot tell (God knoweth) how that he was takē vp into heauyn: and hearde wordes not to be spoken/whych no man can utter. Of this man will I reioyce/ of my selfe will I not reioyce/ excepte it be of myne infirmities. And yet though I wolde reioyce/ I shulde not be a follysh: for I wolde saye & trouble. Neuerthelesse I spare/lest any man shulde thinke of me aboute that he seyth me to be/ or heareth of me.

And lest I shuld be exalted out of measure thozow the aboundance of reuelacions/ther was geue vnto me. * Vnquyetnes of & fleshe he/ the messenger of Satan to buffet me: because I shulde not be exalted out of measure.
For this thinge besought I the Lord thynge that it myght departe from me. And he sayde vnto me: my grace is sufficient for the. For my strength is made perfect thozow weaknes: in which I glory gladly therfore wth I reioyce of my weaknes/that the strength of Christ maye dwell in me. Wherfore haue I delectacion in infirmities in rebukes/ in neede/ in persecucions in angust/ for Christes sake. For when I am weakke/then am I stronge.

I am made a follysh in boasting my selfe. Ye haue compelled me: I ought to haue bene comended of you. For in nothyng was I unterified vnto the chiefe Apostles/ though I be no thyng: yet the tokens of an Apostle were wrought amonge you in all patience/ wth signes & wonders/& mighty dedes. For what is it wherin ye were inferiours vnto other congregacions excepte it be therein that I was not greuous vnto you. For geue me this to longe done vnto you. Beholde now the thyde tyme I am redy to come vnto you: & yet wyll I not be greuous vnto you. For I seke not yours/but you. Also the chyldren ought not to lare by for the fathers and mothers: but the fathers and mothers for the chyldren.

I will very gladly bestowe/& wishe bestowed for your soules: though the more I loue you/ & lesse I am loued agayne. But he it & I geued you not: neuerthelesse I was crafty to take you in gyle. Wd I fill you by any of them which I sent vnto you? I desired Ci-tus/& with him I sent a brother. Wd Citus defraude you of any thyng? walked we not in one spyte? walked we not in like steppe?
Agayne thinke ye & we excuse our selues:
we speake in Christ in the sight of God.

about rebuketh the because they were fallen awaye from the Gospell. Where his awne conversion may witness his office and Apostolhippe and declareth him self to be equal with the true Apostles.

The Fifth Chapter.

Doul an apostle not of men; neither by man, but by Jesus Christ; and by God the father which rayled him from deeth: and all þyethzē which are with me.

unto the congregations of Galacia.

Grace be wth you and peace from God the father/ and from oure Lozde Iesus Ch^{ist}; wh^{ch} gaue him selfe fo^r oure synnes/ to de-liuer vs from this p^{re}sente euill wo^{rl}d/ thoro^ugh the will of God oure father/ to whom be p^{ra}ys^e fo^r eu^{er} and eu^{er}. Amen.

¶ marvaile that ye are so soon turned fro him that called you in the grace of Christ, on to another Gospell: whych is nothyng els, but that ther be some which trouble you/and intende to peruert the Gospell of Christ. Ne-uertheless though we our selues/oz an angell from heauen/ preache any other Gospell vnto you/then that which we haue preached hnto you, holde hym as a curfed. As I sayde before, fo saye I now agayne, yf eny man preache eny other thinge hnto you, then that ye haue receaued, holde hf accursed. Preache I man's doctrine o; Gods? Other go I about to please men? If I flodped to please men, I were not the seruaunt of Chzist.

7 I certifie you brethren, & the Gospell which was preached of me, was not after the manner of men, neither received I it of man neither

But we do all thinges heartly deuoured for your edifyinge. For I feare lest it come to passe/ that when I come/ I shall not fynde you soche as I wolde: & I shall sounde vnto you soche as I wolde not: I feare lest ther be sounde amōge you debate/ enuynges/ wach stryte / backbytnges / whysspernges / swelinges and discorde. I feare lest when I come agayne/ God brynge me towe amōge you/ & I be constrained to bewayle many of them whiche haue synned all redy/ and haue not repentēd of the vnclennes/ fornicacion & wantannes which they haue committed.

¶ He promyleth to come vnto them and exhorteth the to to orde them selues th at he may synde them par-fecte: and of one mynde.

The xix. Chapter.

Now come I the thyrd tyme into you* in þe mouth of two or thye wit-nelles shall euery thinge stande. I told you befoze/ & tell you befoze: & as I sayde whē I was present with you þe seconde tyme/ so wyte I now bringe absent to thē whych in tyme past haue synned/ & to all other: þe yf I come agayne/ I will not spare/ tēge that ye seeke experyence of Christ which speaketh in me/ which amonge you is not weake/ but is mighty in you. And verely though it came of weaknes that he was crucified, yet sheweth he thowgh the power of God.
And we no dout are weake in hē: but we shal liue wth him/ by þe myght of God amōge you.

Prove your selves whether ye are in the faith or not. Examine your owne selves: knowe ye not your owne selves howe ¶ Jesus Christ is in you / except ye be cast awa-yes? ¶ I trust that ye shall knowe ¶ we are not cast awaies. ¶ I desyre before God ¶ ye do no evill / not that we shuld seme commendable but ¶ ye shuld do that which is honest: a let us be counted as leaue persons. We can do nothinge agaynst ¶ strueth / but for ¶ strueth.
We are glad wh^{er} we are weak / a ye ströge.

Whys also we will be soz/ euen that ye were perfect. Therfore wryte I these thinge/ being absent/ lest when I am p'sent/ I shuld be sharpenes accordeynge to the power whych I orde hath geuen me/ to edifye/ & not to betroye. Finallye brethren fare ye well/ be perfect/ be of good comforte/ be of one mynde/lyue in peace/ & ꝑ God of loue a peace/ walke with you. Greete one another in an holy kisse.

6. Lorde Iesus Christ/a the loue of God/a the fellowshippe of h holy good be to you al Ameen.

neither was I taught it: but receiued it by ¶ reuelaciō of Iehus Chriſt. For ye haue heard of my conuerſacion in tyme paſt/ in the Jewes wayes/ how I beyonde meaſure I perſecuted the congregacion of God/ & ſpoiled it: and preuailed in the Jewes ſaye/ aboue many of my cōpanions/ which were of mine owne nacion/ and was a moche more ſeruēt māyntēet of the tradicions of the elders.

But whē it pleased God/ which seperated me from my mother & wombe/ & called me by his grace/ for to declare his sonne by me/ & I shuld preache him amonge the heethen: inmediatly I comened not of p^r matter w^hat he and bloud/ nether returned to Ierusalem to them whych were Apostles befoze me: but went my wayes into Arabia/ & came agayne unto Damasco. Then after thye yeare/ I returned to Ierusalem to se Peter/ and abode with hym. 15. dayes: no nother of the Apostles sawe I/ save James the Lordes brother.
The thinges whych I write/ beholde/ God knoweth I lye not.

After that I went into the costes of Syria & Cilicia: & was unknowne as touching my person vnto the congregacions of Jewrye/which were in Christ. But they heard only that he which persecuted vs in tyme past/now preacheth the sayth which before he destroyed.
 And they glorified God on my behalfe. ¶

The witnesseth Peter in the face/and proueth that the lawes circumcison are not necessary to saluatio.

The H. Chapter.

Then. thus. peares ther after / I wet bp agayne to Ierusalē with Barnabas / and toke wth me Titus also. Ye & I were bp hy reuelacion & comend wth the / of the Gospell which I preache amonge the Gentylis: but betwene oure selues / wth them whych were counted chese / lest it shuld haue bene thought that I shuld runne o; had runne in bayne. Also Titus whych was wth me / though he were a Greke / yet was not cōpelled to be circiscised & that because of incōmers beyng falsse bzethzen whych came in amōge other to tpye out oure libertie whych we haue in Christ Iesus that they myght bringe vs into bondage. To whō we gaue no tōume / no nor so; & space of an houre / as concerninge to be brought into subleccyon: and that because that the trueth of the Gospell myght continue wth you.

Of the which seemed to be great (what they were in tyme passed it maketh no matter to me: God looketh on no mans person) neuertheless they which seemed great / added nothing to me. But contrary wyle / when they sawe the Gospell ouer the bndictiō was committed vnto me / as the Gospel ouer the circumcission was vnto Peter: so he that was myghty in Peter in the Apostleshippe ouer the circuityon; the same was myghty in me amonge the Gentyls: and therfore whē they pcecaused the grace that was geuē vnto me/then James/ Cephas & John/ whych seemed to be pylers/ gaue to me and Barnabas the ryght handes and agreed with vs/ þat we shuld pzeache amonge the Genten/ & they amonge the Iewes: warninge only that we shulde re member the poore. whych thinge also I was diligent to do.

And when Peter was come to Antioche/ to I withstode him in the face/soz he was woꝝ to thy to be blamed./soz per that certayne came to from James/he ate wyth the Gentylis. But to when they were come/he withdrew and sepa- to rated him selfe/fearynge the whych were of to the circumcisyon. And the other Jewes dis- to sembled lykewyse/in so moche that Barna- to bas was bzought into their simulaciō also. to But when I sawe/þ they went not the right to waye after the trueth of the Gospell/I sayde to vnto Peter befoze all men/ yf thou beynge to a Jewe/lyuest after the māner of the Gētyls to and not as do the Jewes:why causest thou þ to Gentylis to lyue as do the Jewes? the which to are Jewes by nature/and not synners of the to Gentylis/ knowe that a man is not iustified to by the dedes of the lawe: but by the sayth of to Iesus Chyist. And therfoze we haue beleued to on Iesus Chyist/ that we myght be iustified to by the sayth of Chyist/and not by the dedes of to the lawe:becaūse that by the dedes of þ lawe to no fleshe can be iustified.

If then whyll we seke to be made ryghtewes by Christ/we oure selues are founde sinners, is that then Christ & minister of synne?
God forbyd. For yf I bylde agayne & whych I destroyed, then make I my selfe a treaspa-ser.  But I thozow the lawe/ am deerd to the lawe: that I might lyeue vnto God. I am crucifyed with Christ. I liue betterly: yet now not I/ but Christ lyueth in me. For & lyfe whych I now lyeue in the flesche/ I lyue by the fayth of the sonne of God/ which loued me/ & gaue hym selfe for me. I despyle not the grace of God. For yf ryghtewelnes come of & lawe/then Christ dyed in vayne.

Jacob. 2. 2.

The lawe cursed: but, sayth
blessed.

(For sayth) on the lawe is not of sayth: but the man that fulfill-eth the thynges contayned in the lawe, shall be blessed.

Child was resurrected for our sakes: that is,
every one that hangech on tree,
that is, blessed was puny-
shed and flayn
for our synnes.

The lawe geueth no life: but threateneth
death.

knowe/ that after ye haue begonne in the fleshe ye wolde nioe ende in the fleshe?
So many thynges ye haue suffered in bayne/ye that be bayne, which ministred to you the fleshe/and woeth myacles amonge you doth he it thozow the dedes of the lawe/oz by preachynge of the sayth? *Euen as Abrahā beleued God/and it was ascribed to hym for ryghtewesnes. Vnderstande therfore that they whych are of sayth/the same are & chyldren of Abrahā.

For the scripture saue afoze hande/that God wolde iustifye the Hethen thozow sayth and therfore shewed before hande gladynges vnto Abrahā: In the shall all na-tyons be blessed. So then they whych be of sayth/are blessed wth saythfull Abrahā.

For as many as are vnder & dedes of the la-we/are vnder malediccyon. For it is wrytten that sayth cursed is every man that contemneth not in all thynges which are wrytten in the boke of the lawe/to fulfill them. That no man is ius-tified by the lawe in the sight of God/is eu-dent. For the iuste shall lyue by sayth. The lawe maketh the lawe is not of sayth: but the man that fulfill-eth the thynges contayned in the lawe, shall lyue in them. But Christ hath deliuered vs from the curse of the lawe/and was made a curse for vs. For it is wrytten: cursed is every one that hangeth on tree/that is, bles-

ue. & Before that sayth came/we were kept vnder the lawe/unto & sayth which shuld afterwarde be declared.

Wherfore the lawe was oure scolemaster vnto the tyme of Christ/that we myght be made ryghtewes by sayth. But after that sayth is come/now are we no leger. *Vnder a scolemaster. For ye are all & sonnes of God by the sayth whych is in Christ Iesus. For all ye that are baptised/haue put on Christ.
Now is ther no Jewe neyther Gentyl: ther is neither bondener fre: ther is neyther man neer woman: but ye are all one thyng in Christ Iesu. If ye be Christes/then are ye Abrahā's seed/and heyes by promes.

Paul sheweth that thozow Christ we be deliuered from the lawe and rebueth the vnthankfulnes of the Galathians.

The iij. Chapter.

As I saye that the heye as longe as he is a chylde/ differeth not from a seruaunt/ though he be Loyde of all/ but is vnder puters and gouer-ners/ vntill the tyme appointed of & father.
Euen so we/ as longe as we were chyldren/ were in bondage vnder the ordinaunces of & woylde. But whē the *tyme was full come/God sent his sonne bozne of a womā & made bonden vnto the lawe/ to redeme them whych were vnder the lawe: that by thozow electiō myght receaue the inheritaunce that belongeth vnto & naturall sonnes. Because ye are sonnes/ God hath sent the sprete of his sonne into oure hertes/ whych cryeth Abba father.
Wherfore now/ thou art not a seruast/ but a sonne. If thou be the sonne/ thou arte also the heye of God thozow Christ.

For withstandinge/ when ye knewe not God ye dyd seruite vnto them/ whych by nature were no Goodes. But now saynge ye knowe God/ye rather are knowne of God.
How is it & ye tourne agayne vnto & weake and beggarly ceremonyes, wher vnto agayne ye desyre afreshe to be in bondage? Ye ob-serue dayes/ and monethes/ & tymes/ & yeres I am in care of you/ lest I haue bestowed on you labour in bayne.

Wherfore I beseech you/ be ye as I am: for I am as ye are. Ye haue not hurte me at all.
Ye knowe/ how thozow infirmitie of & fles-he/ I preached the Gospell vnto you at the temptacion whych I suffered by reason of my fleshe/ ye despyled not neyther abhorred: but receaued me as an Angell of God: yee as Christ Iesus. How happy were ye then? For I heare you recozde, that ye had bene possible ye wolde haue plucked out poure awne eyes/ and haue geuen thē to me.
Am I therfore become poure enemy/ because I tell you the trueth.

For the lawe is not of sayth: but the man that fulfill-eth the thynges contayned in the lawe, shall
lyue in them. But Christ hath deliuered vs
from the curse of the lawe/and was made a curse for vs. For it is wrytten: cursed is

Wedgatyng
ceremonyes

They are gelous ouer you amiste. Yee/ they intende to exclude you/ that ye shuld be feruent to them warde. It is good alwayes to be feruent/ so it be in a good thyng/ and not only when I am present with you.

Whych I tell chyldren (of whom I traueyle in bary agayne/ vntill Christ be fastened in
you) I wolde I were with you now/ & coule chaunge my boyce: for I stande in a doute of you. Tell me ye & desyre to be vnder the lawe?

For it is wrytten that Abrahā had two sonnes/ the one by a bode mayde/ & other by a fre womā.
Yee and he whych was of the bonde woman was bozne after & fleshe: but he whych was of the fre woman/ was bozne by promes.

Whych thynges betoken mystry. For these women are two testaments/ the one from & mounce Syna/ whych genyeth vnto bondage/ whych is Agayn. For mounce Syna is called Agayn in Arabia/ and bozdyeth vpon & cille/ whych is now Ierusalem/ and is in bondage with her chyldren.

But Ierusalem/ whych is a boue/ is fre: whych is the mother of vs all. For it is wrytten: reioyce thou baren/ that bearest no chyldren/ bryake forth & crye/ thou & trauelest not. For the desolate hath many moo chyldren then she whych hath an husband. Wherfore we are after the maner of Isaac/ chyldren of promes. But as then he & was bozne carnally/ persecuted hym that was bozne spirytually. Euen so is it now. Neuerthelesse what sayth the scripture: put awaye the bonde woman and her sonne. For the sonne of the bonde woman shall not be heye wth the sonne of & fre womā.
So then byethen we are not chyldren of the bonde woman: but of the fre woman.

For the lawe is not of sayth: but the man that fulfill-eth the thynges contayned in the lawe, shall
lyue in them. But Christ hath deliuered vs
from the curse of the lawe/and was made a curse for vs. For it is wrytten: cursed is uen doth leuen the whole lomp of doore.

I haue trust towarde you in the lawe/ that ye wyl be none other wyse mynded. He that troubleth you/ shall beare his iudgement whatsoeuer he be. Wherfore ye I yet preache circumcysion: whych do I then yet suffer perse-cucion? For then had the offence whych the crosse geueth/ ceased. I wolde to God they were seperated from you/ whych trouble you Wherfore ye were called into (libertye) only let not poure libertye be an occasiō vnto the fleshe/ but in loue serue one another. For al the lawe is fulfilled in one woide/ whych is this: thou shalt loue thyne neyghbour as thy selfe. If ye byte & deuoure one another: take hede lest ye be consumed one of another.

I saye walke in the sprete/ and fulfill not the lustes of the fleshe. For the fleshe lyueth contrary to the sprete/ and the sprete contrary to the fleshe. These are contrary one to the other/ so that ye cannot do that whych ye wolde. But and ye be ledde of & sprete/ then are ye not vnder the lawe. The dedes of the fleshe are manifest/ whiche are these/ ad-

The Epistle of Saynet Paul the apostle unto the Ephesians.

The everlastinge dytynance and election of God in sou pinge all men thozow Christ Iesus his sonne.
We are ordered but o good wo:kes. The dominion of Christ.

The first chapter.

Paul an apostle of Iesu Christ by the will of God.
To the sayntes/which are at Ephesus/and to the which believe on Iesus Christ.

Grace be with you & peace from God our father/and from the Lorde Iesus Christ. Blessed be God the father of oure Lorde Iesus Christ/which hath blessed us with all manner of spirituall bledynges in heavenly thynges by Christ/acco:dyng as he had chosen us in hym/before the foundacion of the worlde was layde/that we shoulde be sayntes/and without blame before hym/thozow loue. And ordeyned us before thozow Iesus Christ to be hepyes unto him selfe/acco:dyng to the pleasure of his will to the prayse of the glo:ye of his grace where with he hath made us accepted in the beloved.

By whom we have redemption thozow his bloude/euē the forgyuenes of synnes/acco:dyng to the riches of his grace/which grace he shed in us abundantly in all wyldome/and prudence. And hath opened unto us the mystry of his wyll acco:dyng to his pleasure/a purposed & same in hym selfe/to have it declared whē the tyme were full come/that all that all thynges/bothe the thynges which are in heuen/and also the thynges which are in erthe/shoulde be gathered to gether/euen in Christ:that is to saye/in hym in whō we are made hepyes/a were thereto predestinate acco:dyng to the purpose of him which wo:keth all thynges after the purpose of his awne will:

that we which before beleued in Christ shoulde be unto the prayse of his glo:ye.

In whom also ye (after that ye hearde the wo:de of truth/I meane the Gospell of your saluacion/wherein ye beleued) were sealed with the holy sprete of promys/whych is the earnest of oure inheritaunce/to redeme the purchased possession/and that unto the laude of his glo:ye.

Wherefore euē I (after that I hearde of the sayth which ye haue in the Lorde Iesu/a loue unto all the sayntes) cease not to geue thankes for you/makinge mencion of you in my prayers/the god of our Lorde Iesus Christ and the father of glo:ye/might geue unto you the sprete of wyldome/and open to you the knowledge of hym selfe/and lychten the eyes of your myndes that ye myght knowe what that hope is/where unto he hath called you/what the riches of his glorious inheritaunce is upon the sayntes/a what is the exceeding greatnes of his power to us warde whych he beleue acco:dyng to the wo:kinge of the myghty power/which he wrought in Christ when he rayled him from the dead/a lycht hym on his ryght hande in heuēly thynges/aboue all rule/power/and myght and dominacion above all names that are named/not in this worlde only/but also in the worlde to come:
he hath put all thynges vnder his fete/a hath made hym aboue all thynges/the herd of the congregacyō whych is his bodye/a the fulnes of hym that fylleth all in all thynges.

Paul sheweth the what manner of people they were before their conuersion/a what they are now in Christ.

The ii. Chapter.

And you hath he quickened also when ye were dead in trespasses and synne/in the which in tyme passed ye walked/acco:dyng to the course of this worlde/a after the gouernment & ruleth in the ayr/the sprete that now wo:keth in the childre of vnbelyfe/amōge whych we also had oure conuersacion in tyme past/in the lustes of oure fleshe/and fulfilled the wyll of the fleshe/a of the mynde/and were naturally the childre of wyath/euen as well as other.

But God which is ryche in mercy thozow his greates loue wherewith he loued us/euen when we were dead by synne/hath quickened us to gether in Christ (for by grace are we saued) and hath rayled us vp to gether a made us sytte to gether in heuēly thynges thozow

Christ Iesus/for to shewe in tymes to come the exceeding riches of his grace/in hyndnes to us made in Christ Iesu. For by grace are we made safe thozow fapth/and that not of your selues. For it is the gyfte of God/and cometh not of wo:kes/lest any man shoulde boast hym selfe. For we are his wo:kinge/whych created in Christ Iesu vnto a good wo:kes/vnto the which God ordeyned us before/that we shoulde walke in them.

Wherefore remember that ye beyng in tyme passed geuys in the fleshe/a were called vnto circumcision to them which are called circū-cision in the fleshe/whych circumcision is made by handes: Remember I saye/that ye were at that tyme without Christ/a were reputed aliens frō the comen wyth of Israel/and were strangers from the testamētes of promys/a had no hope/a were with out God in this worlde. But now in Christ Iesu/ye which a while ago were farre of/are made nye by the bloude of Christ.

For he is oure peace/which hath made of both one/a hath broken downe the wall that was a stoppe betwene us/and hath also put away thozow his fleshe/the cause of hatred/that is to saye/the lawe of commaunde-mentes containyd in the lawe wyrtten/for to make of twayne one newe mā in hym selfe so makinge peace: and to recōde both vnto God in one bodye thozow his crose/and ac-twe haired therby: a came and preached peace to you which were a farre of/a to them that were nye. For thozow hym we both haue an open waye in/into one sprete vnto the father.

Now therfore ye are no moare strangers and forēers: but cytyzens wyth the sayntes/and of the housholde of God: a are bylt vpon the foundacō of the Apostles & Prophetes/Iesus Christ beyng the heed corner stone/in whom euery byldinge coupled to gether groweth vnto an holy temple in the Lorde/in whom ye also are bylt to gether/and made an habitacyon for God in the sprete.

He sheweth the cause of his prisonment/bespreth the not to saynte because of his trouble/and prayeth God to make them stedfast in his sprete.

The iii. Chapter.

In this cause I Paul am in prison of Iesus Christ for your sake/for the which are bethe: If ye haue hearde of the ministracyō of the grace of God which is geue me to you warde. For by reuelacion shewed he this mystry vnto me/as I wrote aboue in seauē wo:des/wherby whē ye rede/ye may knowe myne vnderstandinge in the mystry of Christ/whych mystry in tymes passed was opened vnto the sonnes of mā/as it is

The Epistle

To the Ephesians.

lxxi.

It is now declared into his holy Apostles & Prophets by the Spirit: that the Gentils shulde be inheritours also/ and of the same body/ and partetakers of his promises that is in Christ/ by the meanes of the Gospell/ whereof I am made a minister/ by the gyfte of the grace of God geuen vnto me thozow the wofhinge of his power.

Vnto me the lest of all saynctes is this grace geuen/ that I shulde preache amonge the Gentils the vnsearchable riches of Christ and to make all men se what the seylshipp of the mystery is/ which from the beginning of the worlde hath bene hyd in God whych made all thynges thozow Iesus Christ/ to the intent/ that now vnto the rulers and powers in heauen myght be knowne by the congregacion/ the manyfolde wysdome of God/ accordinge to the eternall purpose/ whych he purposed in Christ Iesu oure Lorde/ by whome we are bolde to shewe nye in the trust/ whych we haue by fayth on hym. Wherefore I beseeche that ye saynt not because of my tribulacions for your sake/ which is your prayse.

For this cause I bowe my knees vnto the father of oure Lorde Iesus Christ/ whych is father ouer all that is called father in heauen/ to the riches of his glorye/ that ye maye be strengthened with myght by his Spirit in the inner man/ that Christ maye dwell in your heartes/ fayth heretofore by sayth/ that ye beinge roted and grounded in loue/ myght be able to comprehend with all saynctes/ what is that breadth & length/ & depth/ & height/ and to knowe what is the loue of Christ/ whych loue passeth knowledge/ that ye myght be fulfilled with all manner of fulnes whych cometh of God.

Vnto hym that is able to do exceedinglye abundantlye aboue all that we aske or thinke accordinge to the power that worketh in vs by his prayse in the congregacion by Iesus Christ/ thozowout all generacions from tyme to tyme. Amen.

He exhorte them vnto mekenes longe sufferynge/ vnto loue and peace/ every one to serue and edifie another with the gyfte that God hath geuen hym/ to be ware of straunge doctrine/ to kepe alwey the olde conversation of grete/ & to walke in a new lyfe.

The. iij. Chapter.

Wherefore whych am in bondes for the Lorde sake/ exhorter you/ that ye walke worthy of the vocacion wherewith ye are called/ in all humylenes of mynde/ and mekenes/ & longe sufferynge/ forbearinge one another thozow loue/ and that ye be diligent to kepe the unitie of the Spirit in the bonde of peace/ beinge one body/ and one Spirit/ euen as ye are called in one hope of your callinge. Let there be but one Lorde/ one sayth/ one baptisme.

one God and father of all/ which is aboue all thozow all/ and in you all.

Vnto every one of vs is geuen grace accordinge to the measure of the gyfte of Christ. Wherefore he sayth/ He is gone by an hye and hath ledde captiuitie captiue/ and hath geuen gyftes vnto men. That he ascended/ what meaneth it/ but that he also descended fyrst into the lowest partyes of the erth/ He that descended/ is euen the same also that ascended by/ euen aboue all heauens/ to fulfill all thynges.

And the very same made some Apostles/ some Prophets/ some Euangelistes/ some Sheperdes/ and some Teachers/ that the saynctes myght haue all thynges necessarye to worke a minister with all/ to the edifyinge of the body of Christ/ tyll we eueny one in the unitie of sayth/ and knowledge of the sonne of God/ growe by vnto a perfecte man/ after the measure of the age of the fulnes of Christ. That we hence forth be no more chyliden/ waueringe and carped with every wynde of doctrine/ by the wylgnes of men & craftynes/ wherby they laye a wayte for vs to decaie vs. But let vs folowe the truth in loue/ and in all thynges growe in him which is the head/ that is to saye Christ/ in whome all the body is coupled and knet together in euery foynt wherewith one mynystrerth to another/ accordinge to the operacion as euery parte hath his measure/ and increaseth the body/ vnto the edifyinge of it selfe in loue.

This I saye therfore and testifie in the Lorde/ that ye hence forth walke not as other Gentils walke/ in banntye of their mynde/ blinded in their vnderstandinge/ beinge strangers fro the lyfe whych is in God thozow the ignorancye that is in thym/ because of the blindnes of their hartes/ which beinge past repentance/ haue geuen them selues vnto wantannes/ to worke all manner of vncleannes/ euen with greedines. But ye haue not so learned Christ/ as to be ye haue heard of him and are taught in hym/ euen as the truth is in Iesu. So then as concerninge the conuersacion in tyme past/ laye from you that olde man/ which is corrupte thozow the decaubleness/ & and be ye renewed in the Spirit of your myndes/ and put on that new man/ whych after the ymage of God is shapen in ryghtewlnes and true holynes.

Wherefore put awaye lyinge/ and speake euery man truth vnto his neyghbour/ for as moche as we are members one of another. Be angrey but synne not: let not the sonne go doune vpon your wrath/ neither geue place vnto the wrath. Let hym that stole/ steal no moare/ but let hym rather laboure with his handes some good thyng/ that he maye haue to geue vnto hym that needeth.

Let no

Let no filthy communicacion procede out of your mouthes: but that which is good to edifye with all/ when neede is: that it maye haue the fauour with the hearers. And greue not the holy Spirit of God/ by whome ye are sealed in paynte of redemption. Let all bitterness/ fearnes and wrath/ rorynge & curyspe/ be put awaye from you/ with all malitiousnes. Be ye courteous one to another/ and mercifull/ forgeyunge one another/ euen as God for Christes sake forgaue you.

Exhorteth them vnto loue/ warneth them to beware of vncleannes/ couetousnes/ folysh talkynge & false doctrine/ to be circumspecte/ to a voyde dyuetye/ to reioyse and to be thankfull towards God/ to submit the selues one to another. He teacheth how women shulde obeye their husbandes/ how strongly men ought to loue their wyues.

The. v. Chapter.

We folowers of God as dere chyliden/ & walke in loue euen as Christ loued vs/ & gaue hym selfe for vs/ an offeringe & a sacrifice of a sweete lauour to God. So the fornicaciō all vncleannes or couetousnes be not once named amonge you as it becometh saynctes: neither folyshnes/ neither folysh talkynge/ neither gestynge/ which are not coly: but rather geuynge of the hart. For this ye knowe that no whoremonger/ either vncleane person/ or couetous person/ which is the worshypper of ymages/ hath any inheritance in the kyngdome of Christ & of God. Let no man decaie you by bayle wordes. For thozow such thynges cometh the wrath of God vpon the chyliden of vnbelyfe. We not therfore copayons with the. Ye were once dercknes/ but are now lyght in the Lorde.

Walke as chyliden of lyght. For the fruite of the Spirit is in all goodnes/ ryghtewlnes & truth. Accept that which is pleasyng to the Lorde: & haue no fellowshipe with the vnfruitfull workes of dercknes: but rather rebuke them. For it is shame euen to name those thynges whych are done of the in secrete: but all thynges/ when they are rebuffed of the light/ are manifest. For whatsoeuer is manifest/ that same is lyght. Wherefore he sayth: awake thou that sleepest/ and stonde by from death/ and Christ shall geue the lyght.

Take heede therfore that ye walke circumspectlye/ not as folys: but as wyle/ redemyng the tyme: for the dayes are euill. Wherefore be ye not vnywylle/ but vnderstande what the will of the Lorde is/ & be not dysonckerd with hym in is excelle: but be fulfilled with the Spirit/ speakinge vnto your selues in psalmes & hymns/ & spiritual songes/ singinge & makinge melodye to the Lord in your hartes/ & geuyng thanks all wayes for all thynges vnto God the father/ in the name of oure Lorde Iesus Christ/ submitting your selues one to another in the feare of God.

Women submit your selues vnto your husbandes/ as vnto the Lorde. For the husbande is the wyues head euen as Christ is the head of the congregaciō/ & the same is the saueroure of the body. Therfore as the congregacion is in subiection to Christ/ likewise let the wyues be in subiection to their husbandes in all thynges. Husbandes loue your wyues euen as Christ loued the congregaciō/ & gaue hym selfe for it/ to sanctifye it/ & cleanse it in the word of water thozow the worde/ to make it vnto hym selfe/ a glorious congregacion without spot or wrinkle/ or any soche thing: but that it shuld be holpe without blame. So ought men to loue their wyues/ as their owne bodies. He that loueth his wyfe/ loueth hym selfe. For no man euer yet hated his owne fleshe: but nozifeth & cheriseth it/ euen as the Lorde doth the congregacion. For we are members of his body/ of his fleshe/ & of his bones. For this cause shall a man leaue father & mother/ and shall continue with his wyfe/ & two shalbe made one fleshe. This is a great secrete/ but I speake bitwene Christ and the congregacion. Nevertheless do ye so that euery one of you loue his wife truly euen as hym selfe. And let the wife se that she feare her husbande.

How chyliden shulde behaue the selues towards their fathers and mothers: like vnto the fathers towards their chyliden: seruantes towards their masters/ agayne masters towards their seruantes as exhortacion to the spiritual battayle/ and what weapons Christen men shulde fight with all.

The. vi. Chapter.

Chyliden obey your fathers & mothers in the Lorde: for so is it ryght. Honour thy father & mother/ & is the fyrst comaundment that hath any promys/ & thou mayst be in good estate/ and lyue longe on the erthe. And ye fathers moue not your chyliden to wrath: but bringe the by with the Lorde & informaciō of the Lorde. Seruantes be obedient vnto your carnall masters/ with feare & treblinge in singlenes of your hartes/ as vnto Christ: not with seruice in the eye syght/ as men pleasers: but as the seruantes of Christ/ doinge the wyll of God from the herte with good will/ seruinge the Lorde/ and not men. And remember that whatsoeuer good thyng ye maye doeth that Christ hath put shall be receaue agayne of the Lorde/ where he be bonde or fre. And ye masters/ do as for al thynges the same thynges vnto them/ puttinge awaye threateninges: and remember that euen your master also is in heauen/ neither is there any respecte of person with hym.

Finallye my brethren/ be stronge in the Lord & in the power of his myght. Put on the armour

I wolde ye understode brythren that my ashamed: but that wth all confidence/ as all wayes in tymes past/ euē so now Christ shal be magnified in my body/ whether it be tho row lyfe/ or els deeth. For Christ is to me lyfe/ and deeth is to me auantage.

If it chaunce me to lyue in the fleshe/ that is to me frutefull for to worche/ and what to choke I wote not/ I am constrained of two thynges: I desyre to be knowled and to be wth Christ/ which thinge is best of all. Neuerthe you. And this am I sure of/ f I shall abyde/& wth you all continue/ for the furtheraunce and lope of your sayth that ye maye moare aboundantly reioyce in Jesus Christ thozow me/ by my commynge to you agayne.

Only let your conuersacion be/ as it be

To the Colossians

lxxxiii.

of ye have herde/howe that it is preached amonge all creatures which are knoet here whereof I Paul am made a minister.

I Now I saye I in my sufferinges which I suffer for you/and fulfill that which is be- hynde of the passions of Christ in my fleshe for his bodyes sake which is the congregacio wherof I am made a minister accordinge to the ordinaunce of God/which ordinaunce was geuen me unto you warde/to fulfill & worde of God that my lye hysence the worlde be gaue/& sence the begynnyng of generacions: but now is opened to his sapnetes/to whom God wolde make knowne the glorious ryches of this mystry amonge the Gentys/whych ryches is Christ in you/the hope of glory/whom we preach/warnyng all men/& teachyng all men in all wysdome/to make all men perfect in Christ Iesu. Wherin I also labour and stryue/euen as farforth as hys workyng worketh in me myghtely.

I true Apostle wolde haue all men perfect in Christ Iesu. Wherin I also labour and stryue/euen as farforth as hys workyng worketh in me myghtely.

I What greute care I Paul toke for all congregacions. I exhorter them to be steadfast in Christ/as to beware of false teachers and worldly wysdome and desceyber & false propheetes.

The ii. Chapter.

I Wolde ye knewe what syghtyng I haue for your sakes and for the of Laodicia/and for as many as haue not sene my parson in fleshe/that their hertes myght be comforted and knet to gether in loue/& in all ryches of full vnderstandyng/for to knowe the mystry of God the father and of Christ/in whom are hys all the treasures of wysdome and know- ledge. Whis I saye lest eny man shuld begyle you with entyngyng wordes. For though I be absent in the fleshe,yet am I present with you in the spete/lovinge and beholdyng & order that ye kepe/& your steadfast sayth in Christ. As ye haue therfore receaued Christ Iesu the Lorde/euen so walke/rotd & vyle in him & steadfast in & sayth/as ye haue learned:& therein be plerous in geuyng chalyes.

I Beware lest eny man come and spoyle you thozow philosophy & disceatful banitie/thozow the tradycions of men/& ordinaunces after the worlde/and not after Christ. For in him dwelleth all & fulnes of & Godhead bodyly/and ye are complete in hym whych is the head of all ruse and power/in whom also is berely and in ye are circumcised with circumcysion made with out handes/by puttynge of the synfull body of the fleshe thozow the circumcysion & is in Christ/in that ye are buryed with hym thozow baptyme/in whom ye are also ryfen agayne thozome sayth/that is wrought by & operacio of God which rayed him fro deeth.

I And ye which weare deed in synne thozow the uncircumcysion of your fleshe/hath he

I quickened with hym and hath forgiven by wysdome. The all oure trespasses & hath put out the handwrytynge that was agaynst us/con- taryned in the lawe witten:and that hath he taken out of the waye and hath fastened it to his crose/and hath spoyled rule and power/and hath made a shewe of the openly/& hath triumphed ouer them in his awne person. Let no man therfore trouble your consciences aboute meate and dryncke or for a pece of an holy daye/as & holydaye of the newe mone/ or of the Saboth dayes/which are nothinge but shadowes of thynges to come:but the body is in Christ. Let no man make you shoke at a wydge mather which after his awne ymagination walketh in the humblenes & holynes of angels/thynges which he neuer sawe: causelesse putt by with his fleshy mynde/& holdeth not the heed/whereof all the body by joyntes and couples receaueth noifcoment and is knet to gether/and increaseth with & increasyng that cometh of God.

I quickened with hym and hath forgiven by wysdome. The all oure trespasses & hath put out the handwrytynge that was agaynst us/con- taryned in the lawe witten:and that hath he taken out of the waye and hath fastened it to his crose/and hath spoyled rule and power/and hath made a shewe of the openly/& hath triumphed ouer them in his awne person.

I Let no man therfore trouble your consciences aboute meate and dryncke or for a pece of an holy daye/as & holydaye of the newe mone/ or of the Saboth dayes/which are nothinge but shadowes of thynges to come:but the body is in Christ. I wherfore ye be deed with Christ from ordinaunces of the worlde/whych as though ye yet lured in the worlde/are ye ledde with tradycions of men that saye: & touche not/tast not/handell not:which all perit the with the bynyng of them and are after the commaund miers and doctrynes of men:which thynges haue the synpytude of wysdome in chosen holynes and humblenes/& in that they spare not the body/and do the fleshe no workyng into hys nyde.

I He putteth them in remembrance of the spiritual reuerence to kepe in all maner of corrupte synnyng to be frutefull in all godlynde and vertue/and sheweth all degrees their outye.

The iii. Chapter.

I ye be then ryfen agayne to Christ Iesu the Lorde/where Christ lyeth on the ryght hande of God. Set your affecps on thynges that are aboute/& not on thynges which are on the erth. For ye are deed/& your lyfe is hys in Christ in God. When Christ whych here after foloweth is our lyfe/shall shewe him selfe/then shall ye also appere with him in glory.

I Mortifye therfore your members which are on the erth/fornicacyon/bacennes/harsh natural lust/cupyl concupyscence/& couetousnes which is workyng of vholes: for which thynges sakes the wrath of God cometh on the chyldren of vnbelyfe. In whych thynges ye walked once/wher ye lured in the.

I But now put ye also awaye from you all thynges:wrath/tearlyn/malicious/cutted speechyng/sythyng speakyng out of your mouthes. Ye not one to another & the olde man with his workes be put of/and the newe put on/which is renewed in knowledge after the ymage

I Every man is Gentyle no Jew/circumcysion no/bac- cysion/Barbarous or Sythian/bonde or fre:but Christ is all in all thynges.

I Now therfore as electe of God/holy and beloued/put on tender mercye/humylties/humblenes of myndes/mechenies/longe suffring/forbearinge out another/& forgyng one another/yt any man haue a quarell to a no- ther:even as Christ forgave you/euen so do ye. About all these thynges put on loue/which is the bonde of perfectnes. And the pease of God rule in your hertes/to the which pease ye are called in one body. And se that ye be thankfull. Let the worde of Christ dwell in you plenteously in all wysdome. Teach and exhorte your awne selues/in psalmes/and hymnes/& spirituall songes which haue fauour with the/ingyng in your hertes to & Lorde. And all thynges (whatsoeuer ye do in worde or dede)do in the name of & Lorde Iesu/geuyng thakes to God & father by hym.

I Whych fulmyt your awne selues unto your awne husbandes/as it is comy in the Lorde. Husbandes loue your wyues and be not bytter vnto the. Chyldren obey your fathers and mothers in all thynges/for that is well pleasyng vnto the Lorde. Fathers rate not your chyliden/lest they be of a desperate mynde. Seruantes be obedynt vnto your bodyly masters in all thynges: not with eye seruyce as men pleasers/but in singlenes of herte/fearyng God. And whatsoeuer ye do/do it hertely/as though ye dyd it to & Lorde/& not vnto men:for as moche as ye knowe & of the Lorde ye shall receaue the reward of inheritaunce/for ye serue the Lorde Christ. But he that both wynges shall receaue for the wynges that he hath done:for there is no respect of persones with God. Ye masters do vnto your seruantes that which is iust and equal/teyng ye knowe that ye also haue a master in heauen.

I He exhorter them to be diligent in prayer/to walke humyly vnto them that are not yet come to the true knowledge of Christ/and salueth them.

The iiii. Chapter.

I Continue in prayer and watch in & praye to thankes geuyng/prayyng alle tyme/that God open vnto us the myre of viterance/& we maye speake the myre of Christ/wherfore I an also in bonds/that I maye better it/as it becometh me to speake. Walke wyfely to them that are without/and redeme the tyme. Let your speech be all wayes well fauon- red and potowen with salt/that ye maye knowe how to answer every man.

I The deare brother Archiscus shall tell you of all thynges/whych is a saythfull mynister and selowe seruante in the Lorde/whych I haue sent vnto you for the same purpose/that he myght knowe how ye do/and myght comfort your hertes/whych one Onesimus a saythfull and a beloued brother/whych is one of you. They shall shewe you of all thynges which are adoyng here.

I Archiscus my pson selowe saluteth you/& Marcus Barnabas cyters sonne/ touchyng whom ye receaued commaunde- mentes. If he come vnto you/receave hym: and Iesus which is called Justus/which are of the circumcysion. These only are my wo- kselowes vnto & I. Some of God/whych were vnto my consolacio. Epaphras the ser- uant of Christ/whych is one of you/salu- teth you/and allwayes laboureth feruently for you in prayers/that ye maye stande per- fect and full in all that is the wyll of God. I beare hym recorde & he hath a feruent mynde towarde you and towarde them of Laodicia and them of Hierapolis. Deare Lucas the physician greteyth you/and Demas. Salute the brythren whych are of Laodicia/and sa- lute Nymphas & the congregacion/whych is in his house. And wher I epistle is reed of you make that it be reed in the congregacyon of the Laodicyans also:and that ye lyke wyse reade the epistle of Laodicia. And saye to Archippus:take heed to the offyce that thou hast receaued in & Lorde/that thou fulfill it. The salutation by the hande of me Paul. Remem- ber my bondes. Grace be with you Amen.

The .i. Epistle

The fyrst epistle of Saynt Paul the Apostle to the thessalonians.

The thankeyth God for them/that they are to be saved in fapth and good woikes/ and receiue the Gospell with soch earnestnes.

The fyrst Chapter.

Paul Syluanns and Timotheus. vnto the congregation of the thessalonians/ in God the father/ and in the Lorde Iesus Christ.

Grace be with you/ & peace from God our father/ and from the Lorde Iesus Christ.

We geue God thankes all waye for you all/ makinge mencion of you in our prayes with out ceasinge/ & call to remembraunce your worke in the fapth/ & labour in loue/ & perseuerance in the hope of our Lorde Iesus Christ/ in the sight of God our father: because we knowe brythren beloued of God how that ye are electe. For our Gospell came not vnto you in worde only/ but also in power/ & also in the holy goost & in moche certayntye/ as ye knowe after what maner we behaued our selues amonge you/ for your sake. And ye became folowers of vs & of the Lorde/ & receaued the worde in moche affliction/ with lope of the holy goost/ so that ye were an ensample to all beleue in Macedonia & Achaia. For fro you sounded out the worde of the Lorde/ not in Macedonia & in Achaia only/ but your faith also which ye haue vnto God/ spread her selfe abroad in all quartars/ so greatly that it needeth not vs to speake any thinge at all. For they them selues shewe of you what maner of entrynge in we had vnto you & how ye turned to God from ymagis/for to serue the lyuinge and true God/ & for to loke for his sonne from heauen/ who he rayled fro deeth: I meane Iesus which dyueryth vs from the wyath to come.

We putte them in mynde of the godly conuersaciō that he led amonge them/ whē he preached the Gospell vnto them/ thankeyth God that they receaue his worde so frutefully and exulteth his abience.

The .ii. Chapter.

Our selues knowe brythren of our entraunce in vnto you/ how that it was not in bayne: but euen after that we had suffered before & were shamefully entreated at Philippos (as ye well knowe) then were we bolde in our God to speake vnto you the Gospell of God/ in moche stryunge. Our exhortacion was not to bynge you to erreure/ nor yet to vncieness/ nether was it in gyle: but as we were allowed of God/ that the Gospell shuld be cōmpted vnto vs: euen so we spake/ not as though we intended to please men/ but God/ which tryeth our hertes.

Nether was our conuersaciō at any tyme with flatterynge wordes/ as ye well knowe nether in cloked coueteousnes/ God is recozdemether sought we praye of men/ nether of you/ nor yet of any other/ when we myght haue bene chargeable/ as the Apostles of Christ but we were tender amonge you/ euen as a noyse chereleseth her chyldren/ so was our affectyon towardes you: our good wyll was to haue dealete vnto you/ not the Gospell of God only: but also our awne soull/ because ye were deare vnto vs.

Ye remember brythren our labour/ & trauayle. For we laboured daye & nyght because we wolde not be greuous vnto any of you/ and preached vnto you the Gospell of God. Ye are witness/ & so is God/ how holyly & iustly & vnblymeably we behaued our selues amonge you that beleue: as ye knowe how we exhorted & comforted and be sought euery one of you/ as a father his chyldren/ that ye wolde walke worthy of God/ which hath called you vnto his kyngdome and glory.

For this cause thāke we God with out ceasinge/ because that whē ye receaued of vs the worde wherewith God was preached/ ye receaued it not as the worde of man: but euen as it was in dede/ the worde of God/ which worketh in you & beleue. For ye brythren became folowers of the congregacyōs of God which in Iewry are in Christ Iesu: for ye haue suffered lyke thynges of your kynsmen/ as we our selues haue suffered of the Iewes. Which as they kylled the Lorde Iesus & their awne prophet/ eue so haue they persecuted vs: and God they please not/ and are contrary to all men and forbyddes to preache vnto the Gentyls

To the thessalonians.

Lxxxv.

Gentyls/ that they might be saued/ to fulfill their synnes all waye. For the wyath of God is come on them/ euen to the vtmost.

For as moche brythren as we are kept fro you for a season/ as concerninge the bodyly presence/ but not in the herte/ we enforssed & more to se you personally with great desyre. And therfore we wolde haue come vnto you/ & Paul once and agayne: but Satan withstode vs. For what is our hope or loye/ or crowne of reioysing: are not ye it in the presence of our Lorde Iesus Christ at his comynge: yes ye are our glory and loye.

For the which how greatly he was reioysed when Timothy tolde him of this fapth and loue.

The .iii. Chapter.

Wherfore sence we could no longer forbear/ it pleased vs to remayne at Athens alone/ and sent Timotheus our brother and minister of God/ and our labourer felowe in the Gospell of Christ/ to stablishe you and to comforte you ouer your fapth/ that no man shulde be moued in these afflictions. For ye your selues knowe that we are euen appointed there vnto. For herely when I was with you/ I tolde you before that we shuld suffer tribulacion/ euen as it came to passe/ & as ye knowe. For this cause whē I coulde no longer forbear/ I sent the I myght haue knowledge of your fapth/ lest haply the tempter had tempted you/ & that our labour had bene bestowed in bayne.

But now lately when Timotheus came from you vnto vs/ and declared to vs your fapth and your loue and how that ye haue good remembraunce of vs all wayes/ desyring to se vs as we desyre to se you. Therfore brythren we had consolacion in you/ in all our aduersyte and necedite/ through your faith. For now are we alpye/ yf we shalde stand fast in the Lorde. For what thankes can we recompence to God agayne for you/ ouer all the loye that we loye for your sake before our God: whyle we myghte and daye praye exceedingly that we might se you presently/ & myghte fulfill that which is lackynge in your fapth.

God him selfe our father/ and our Lorde Iesus Christ gyde our soules vnto you: and the Lorde increace you and make you growe ouer in loue one towardes a nother/ and towardes all men/ euen as we do towardes you/ to make your hertes stable & vnblymeable/ in holynes before God our father/ at the comynge of our Lorde Iesus Christ with all his sayntes.

He exhorteth the to steadfastnesse/ to kepe the selues fro synne & vncienly conuersaciō/ to loue one another: & to kepe theselues from speake of the resurrection.

The .iiii. Chapter.

Furthermore we beseeche you brythren/ and exhorte you in the Lorde Iesus/ that ye increace more and more/ euen as ye haue receaued of us/ how ye ought to walke & to please God. Ye remember what commaundementes we gaue you in our Lorde Iesu Christ. For this is the wyll of God/ eue that ye shuld be holy/ and that ye shuld abstayne from fornicaciō/ that euery one of you shulde knowe how to kepe his bestell in holynes & honoure/ & not in lust of concupiscence/ as do the which which know not God/ that no mā go to farre and defraude his brother in bargaynyng: because the Lorde is a venger of all suche thynges/ as we tolde you before time and testified. For God hath not called vs vnto vncienness: but vnto holynes. He therfore that despyseth/ despyseth not man/ but God/ which hath sent his holy sperte amonge you.

But as touchynge brotherly loue/ ye neede not that I wyte vnto you. For ye are taught of God to loue one another. Ye & that thyng herely ye do vnto all the brythren which are thowow out all Macedonia. We beseeche you brythren that ye increace more & more/ & that ye studye to be quyet/ & to medle with your awne handes/ as we commaunded you: that ye maye behaue your selues honestly towardes them that are without/ and that nothyng be lackynge vnto you.

We wolde not brythren haue you ignorant concerninge the which are fallen a slepe/ that ye sozowe not as other do which haue no hope. For yf we beleue that Iesus dyed & rose agayne: eue so the also which slepe by Iesus/ will God bryng agayne with him. And thus saye we vnto you in the worde of the Lorde/ that we which lyue & are remainynge in the comynge of the Lorde/ shall not come yet they which slepe. For the Lorde him selfe shall descende from heauen with a thowme and the boyce of the Archangell and trompe of God. And the deed in Christ shall aryse fyrst: then shall we which lyue and remayne/ be caught vp with them also in the cloudes/ to mete the Lorde in the ayer. And so shall we euer be with the Lorde. Wherfore comforte your selues one another with these wordes.

The enfourmeth them of the daye of dome and comynge of the Lorde/ exhorteth the to watch/ and to kepe garde soch as preach Gods worde amonge them.

The .v. Chapter.

If the tymes and seasons brythren ye haue no nede that I wyte vnto you: for ye your selues knowe perfectly/ & the daye of the Lorde shall come eue as a thefe in the nyght. When they shall saye peace & no daunger then cometh

L.b. on them

The seconde epistle
of Saynct Paul the Apostle to the Thessalonians.

He thanketh God for their faith and love & prayeth for the increase of the same.

The fyrst Chapter.

Paul / Syluanus and Timotheus.
Unto the congregacion of the Thessalonians which are in God our father / & in the Lorde Jesus Christ.

Grace be with you & peace from God our father / and from the Lorde Jesus Christ.

We are bounde to thanke God all wayes for you brethren / as it is mete / because that your faith groweth exceedingly / and every one of you swymmeth in love towardes another betwene your selues / so that we our selues reioyce of you in the congregacions of God / ouer your patience & faith in all your persecutions & tribulacions that ye suffer / which is a token * of the rychtwys iudgement of God / that ye are counted worthy of the kyngdom of God / for which ye also suffer. It is believe a rychtwys thyng with God to recompence tribulacion to them that trouble you / and to you which are troubled / rest with vs when the Lorde Jesus shall come him selfe from heauen with his myghty Angells / in flamyng fyre / rendyng vengeance vnto them that knowe not God / and to them that obeye not vnto the Gospell of our Lorde

Jesus Christ / which shalbe punished with euerlastyng damnacion / from the presence of the Lorde / & from the glory of his power / when he shall come to be glorified in his saynctes / & to be made manifest in all the that beleue / because our testimonie that we had to you / was belueued euen the same daye that we preached it. * Wherefore we praye all wayes for you & our God make you worthy of the callinge / and fulfill all delectacion of goodnes and the woorkes of faith / in power that the name of our Lorde Jesus Christ maye be glorified in you / & ye in him / thorow the grace of our God / and of the Lorde Jesus Christ.

He sheweth them that the daye of the Lorde shall not come / till the departing from the sayth come fyrst / & therefore he exhorteth them not to be discouraged / but to stande stedfast in the thynges that he hath taught them.

The.ij. Chapter.

We beseeche you brethren by the commyng of our Lorde Jesus Christ / and in that we shall assemble vnto him / that ye be not suddenly moued from

from

And your mynde & be not troubled neither by spyete / neither by wordes / nor yet by letter which shuld seme to come fro vs / as though the daye of Christ were at hand. * Let no man deceiue you by any meanes / for the Lorde cometh not / excepte ther come a departinge of him toke in / & that * & synfull man be opened / the sonne of perdition which is an aduersarie / & is exalted aboue all that is called God / or is worshipped: so that he shall * & as God in the temple of God / and shew him selfe as God.

Remember ye not / that when I was yet with you / I tolde you these thynges: And now ye knowe what myghty doeth: euen that he might be bittered at his tyme / for the mystery of & iniquite doeth all readye woorkes: till he which now only letteth / be take out of the waye. And then shall that which be bittered / whom the Lorde shall consume * with & spyete of his mouth / and shall be drope it with the aperaunce of his comyng / euen him whose comyng is by the woorkyng of Satan / with all * & lyng power / signes & wonders / in all deceauableness of vnryghtwysnes / amonge them that perishe: because they re-ceiued not the * loue of the truth / that they myght haue bene saued. And therefore God shall sende them strange delusion / that they shulde beleue lyes: & all they myght be damned which beleued not & truly / but had pleasure in vnryghtwysnes.

But we are bounde to geue thanks alwaye to God for you brethren beloved of & Lorde / for because that God hath from the begyn-nyng chosen you to saluacion / thorow sanctifyinge of the spyete / and thorow beleuynge the truth / wherunto he called you by our Gospell / to obtayne the glorye that cometh of our Lorde Jesus Christ.

Wherefore brethren stande fast / & kepe the ordinaunces which ye haue learned: whether it were by our preaching or by epistle. Our Lorde Jesus Christ him selfe / and God our father which hath loued vs / and hath geuen vs euerlastyng consolacion & good hope thorow grace / comforte your hertes / and stablyshe you in all doctryne & good doynges.

He beseecheth them to praye for him that the Gospell maye prosper / and geueth the waye to exhortation & prayer: and of theyr will not labour with their handes / that they shall not eate.

The.ij. Chapter.

Furthermore brethren praye for vs / that the woode of God maye haue fre passage and be glorified / as it is with you: & that we maye be be-lieued from vnreasonable and euill men. For all men haue not sayth: but & Lorde is sayth-full / which shall stablyshe you / & kepe you from euill. We haue confidence thorow the

from

Lorde to you warde / that ye both do / & will do / that which we commaunde you. And the Lorde geue your hertes to the loue of God and patience of Christ.

And we requyre you brethren in the name actum. 1. 1. 1.
of our Lorde Jesus Christ / & ye with vs / & your selues fro every brother that walketh inordinatly / & not after & institution which ye receaued of vs. Ye your selues know how ye ought to folowe vs. For we behaued not oure selues inordinatly amonge you. Neither toke we breed of any man for nought: but wrought with labour & trouayle night and daye / because we wolde not be greuous to any of you: * not but that we had auctorite: & bude to make our selues an ensample vnto you. Actum. 1. 1. 1.

you / to folowe vs. For when we were to you / this we warned you of / that if ther were any which wold not worke / that the same shuld not eate.

We haue heard saye no doute & ther are some which walke amonge you inordinatly / & worke not at all / but are besydbodies. They that are soche / we commaunde & exhorde by our Lorde Jesus Christ / that they worke with quyetnes / & eate their owne breed: * & they be not wery in well doynges. For if any man obey not our saynges / sende vs worde of him by a letter: & haue no companie with him / that he maye be a shamed. And coste hym not as an enemy: but warne him as a brother.

The very Lorde of peace geue you peace all wayes / by all meanes. The Lorde be with you all. The saluacion of me Paul / is myne owne hande. This is the token in all epistles

So I wyte. The grace of our Lorde Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

bailer. But I obtained mercy / because I did it ignorantly / thoze vnbelefe.ouer the later the grace of oure Lord was moare aboundant with sayth and loue which is in Christ Iesu.

* This is a true sayinge & by all meanes woorth to be receaued: & Christ Iesus came into the worlde to saue synners / of whome I am chefe. For withstandinge for this cause was mercy geue vnto me / that Iesus Christ shoulde fynde me on me all longe patience / vnto the ensample of the which shall in tyme to come beleue on hym vnto eternall lyfe.

So then vnto God hyng euerlastynge / immortal / inuisible / & wylle only / be honoure and prayse for euer and euer. Amen.

* This commaundement commit I vnto the sonne Timotheus / accorpyng to the prophecies which in tyme past were prophesied of the / that thou in them shouldest fynde a good fyght / haung sayth & good cōscience which some haue put awaye from them / & as cōcer-nyng sayth haue made wyrtwache. Of whose nombze is Timeneus & Alexander whych I haue deliuered vnto Satan / & they might be taught not to blaspheme.

* He exhorteth to praye for all men. He wylle not haue women to be ouerboldly arynged no to teache in the cōgregaciō / but to be in silence & obeye their husbandes.

The ii. Chapter.

Exhorte therfore / that aboute all thynges / prayers / supplications / intercessions & geuyng of thankes he had for all men: to; kynges / and for all that are in auctorite / that we maye lyue a quyet and a pealable lyfe / in all God-lynes and honestie. For that is good & accepted in the syght of God oure sauour / whych
* wylle haue all men sauē / and to come vnto the knowledge of the truthe. For ther is one God / and one (mediator) betwene God & mā / which is the man Christ Iesus / which gaue him selfe a ransome for all men / & it shoulde be testified at his tyme / where vnto I am or-dayned a preacher and an Apostle: I tell the truthe in Christ & I ye not being the teacher of the gentyls in sayth and veritie.

I wylle therfore that the men praye euer where / lytynge by pure handes without wath / or dowynge. I the wylle also the wemē that they araye them selues in comelye apparell with shamesfastnes & discrete behauiour / not with brydged heare other golde / or pear-les / or costly araye: but with suche as becommeth wemen that professe the woorthynesse of God thoze good woorkes: * Let the woman learne in silence with all subieccion. I suffere not a woman to teache / neither to haue auctorite ouer the man: but for to be in silence. For Adam was fyrste formed / and then Eue. Also Adam was not deceaued / but the woman was deceaued / and was in trasgres-sion. Not withstandinge thoze to bearyng of chylde: they shalbe saued / so they conty-nue in sayth / loue & holynes with discrecion.

* What manner a mā a bishopp or prest ought to be / and what condiciō his wyfe and chylde: en shuld haue The properties also requyrd in a deacon or mynistre and in his wyfe.

This is a true sayinge: If a man couer the office of a Bishope he de-spyth a good woorker. Ye & a Byshope must be faultlesse / the husband of one wyfe / sober / discrete / honestly appa-relled / barberous / apt to teache / not dyck / no fighter / not geuf to flythy lucre: but gentle / abhoryng synnyng / abhoryng coue-teousnes / and one that ruleth his awne house honestly / haung chylde: vnder obedience with all honestie. For yf a mā cannot rule his awne house / how shall he care for the congregaciō of God. He maye not be a yonger scolar / lest he swell and faule into the iudgement of the euill speaker. He must also be well reported of amonge them which are with out-forth / lest he fall into rebuke and snare of lyng neither to flythy lucre: but haung mustery of the sayth in pure conscience. And let them fynd be proued / and then let the ministre / yf they be founde faultlesse.

Euen so must their wyues be honest / not euill speakers: but sober and saythfull in all thynges. Let the deacons be the husbandes of one wyfe / and suche as rule their chylde: vnder well / and their awne householdes. For they that mynistre well / get them selues good begre and greate lybertie in the sayth / which is in Christ Iesu.

These thynges wryte I vnto the / trustinge to come shortly vnto the: but and yf I tarie longe / that then thou mayst yet haue knowledge how thou oughtest to be haue thy selfe in the house of God / which is a congregaciō of the lyuinge God / the pylar & grounde of truthe. And without naye great is a mystery of godlynes: God was shewed in a fleshe / was iustified in the spere / was sene of Angels / was preached vnto the gētyls / was be-lieued on in euery and receaued by in gloze.

The propheticke of the latter dayes exhorteth Ty-mothee to the diligent studyng of the holy scripture.

The iii. Chapter.

The spere speaketh euidently that in the later tymes some shall departe from the sayth / & shall geue hede vnto spertes of erroure / and bycelye the doctryne of them which speake falle thoze vpon / & haue their cōscie-ces marked with an hote yron / for bydyng to mary / & cōmaūdyng to abstayne from meates which God hath created to be recea-red with geuyng thankes / of them whych believe and knowe the truthe. For all the creatures of God are good and nothyng to be refused / yf it be receaued with thankesgeuyng.

For it is sanctified by the worde of God and prayer. If thou shalt put the byethzen in re-membraunce of these thynges / thou shalt be a good mynistre of Iesu Christ / whych hath bene nozifed by in the wordes of the sayth and good doctryne which doctryne thou hast continually folloved. But cast awaye vngodly and olde wyues fables.

Exerceyse thy selfe vnto godlynes. For bodely exercise profiteth lytel: but godlynes is good vnto all thing / as a thinge which hath promysed of the lyfe that is now / & of a lyfe to come. This is a true sayinge / & of all partyes woorth to be receaued. For therfore we laboure & suffice rebuke / because we beleue in a lyuinge God which is a sauoure of all men / but specially of those that beleue. Soche thynges cōmaūde a teache. Let no man despise thy youth: but be vnto the that beleue / an ensample / in woide / in cōuersaciō / in lyng /

loue / in spere / in sayth and in purenes.

* yf I come / geue attendaunce to reayng / to exhortaciō and to doctryne: & I wylle not that yfte that is in the / which was geue the thoze prophesie and with a laynge on of the handes of an elder. These thynges excuse / & geue thy selfe vnto the / that it maye be sene how thou profetest in all thynges.
Take hede vnto thy selfe and vnto learning / and contynue therein. For yf thou shalt do thou shalt saue thy selfe and the church.

The teacheth him how he shal behaue hym selfe in rebuke / all degrees. An a dye cōcernynge wy-dowes.

The b. Chapter.

Exhorte not an elder: but exhorte him as a father the yonger me as byethzen / the elder wemen as mothers / the yonger as sisters / wylle all purenes. Honoure wyddowes which are true wyddowes. If any wyddowe haue chylde / or neyues / lett them learne fyrst to rule their awne houses godly and to recompense their elders. For that is good and acceptable before God. She that is a very wyddowe & frendlesse / putteth her trust in God / and con-tynue in supplicaciō and prayer night & daye. But she that lyueth in pleasure / is de-ceued yet alwaye. And these thynges cōmaūde that they maye be without faule. If ther be any that proudeyth not for hys awne and namely for them of hys household / the same denyeth the sayth / and is woorth then an infybell.

Let no wyddowe be chosen vnder these core yre olde / and soche a one as was the wyfe of one man / & well reported of in good wokes: yf she haue nozifed chylde: yf she haue bene libell to straungers / yf she haue welshed the sayntes fete / yf she haue mynstred vnto them which were in aduersite / yf she were continually geuen vnto all maner good woorkes. The yonger wyddowes refuse. For when they haue begone to were wantone / to the dishonoure of Christ / then wylle they mary / haung a damnacon / because they haue broken their first sayth. And also they learne to goe from house to house yde: yee not yde only / but also flyng and bellybodes / speake thynges whych are not comyng.

I wylle therfore that the yonger wemen mary and beate chylde / and geue the house / and geue none occasiō to the aduersary to speake euill. For many of them are all redy turned backe / & are gone after Satan. And yf any man or woman that beleueth haue wyddowes / lett the mynistre vnto the / & lett not a congregaciō be charged: & ye maye haue sul-ficient for the that are wyddowes in dede.

The el-

The.ij. Epistle

Deut. xxi. b.
1. Cor. ix. a.
Eph. vi. b.
Rube. i. b.

The elders that rule well / are worthy of double honour / most specially they which labour in the worde & teachyng. For the scripture sayth: thou shalt not moulell & mouthe of the oxe that treadeth out the corne. And the labourer is worthy of his reward. Agaynst an elder receaue none accusation: but vnder two or thre wytnesses. Them that synne / rebuke openly / that other maye feare.

I testifie before God and the Lorde Iesus Christ & the electe angels / that thou obserue these thynges without hasty iudgement / & do nothinge parcially. Laye handes suddenly on no man / neither be partaker of other mens synnes: kepe thy selfe pure. Drink no longer water / but vse a lyttell wyne for thy stomaches sake and thyne often dyscaises.

Some mennes synnes are open before hande & go before vnto iudgement: some mennes synnes folowe after. A phewyle also good workes are manifest before hande and they that are other wyse / cannot be hyed.

The duty of seruantes towards their masters. Agaynst such as are not satisfied wth the worde of God. Agaynst couetousnes. A good lesson for ryche men.

The.ii. Chapter.

As many seruantes as are vnder the yoke / counte thair masters worthy of all honour / that the name of God & his doctryne be not euil spoken of. Se they which haue beleuynge masters / despyse them not because they are bzyeth: but so moche the rather do seruyce / for as moche as they are beleuynge & beloved and partakers of the benefite.

These thynges teache & exhorthe if any man teache other wyse / & is not content wth the wholesome word of oure Lorde Iesu Christ / & wth the doctryne of Godlynes / he is putte by and knoweth nothyng: but wasteth his byaynes about questions & stryfe of wordes wherof sprynge enuye / stryfe / raylynge / euill surmysynges & dayne dysputacions of men wth corrupte myndes and despyte of the trueth / which thinke that lucre is godlynes. From soche separate thy selfe. Godlynes is greates ryche / yf a man be content wth that he hath. For we brought nothyng into the worlde / and it is a playne case that we can carry nothyng out.

Job. i. b.
Eccl. ii. b.

When we haue fede & raynment / let vs be content. They that wyll be ryche / faule into temptation & snares / and into many folyshe & noysome lustes / which drownde men in perdition & destruction. For couetousnes is rote of all euill / which whyll some luste after / they erred from the sayth / and tangyd themselves wth many forowes. But thou which arte the man of God / vse soche thynges folowe ryghte welnes / godlynes / loue / pa-science and meeknes. Ryght the good fyght of sayth. Laye hand on eternall lyfe / wherunto thou arte called / & hast professed a good profession before many wytnesses.

I geue the charge in the fyght of God / which quickneth all thynges / & before Iesu Christ which vnder Pontius Pilate wytnessed a good wytnessyng / & thou kepe the comaundement / & be without spotte & vntrebukable / vntyll the apperynge of oure Lorde Iesus Christ / which apperyng / when the tyme is come / he shall shewe that is blessed & mighty only / kyng of kynges / and lorde of lordes / which only hath immortallite / and dwelleth in the lyght that no man can attayne / whom neuer man sawe / neither can se / vnto whom be honour and rule euerlastyng. Amen.

Charge them that are ryche in this worlde / that they be not excedyng wyse / & that they trust not in the vncertaine ryches / but in the lyuynge God / which geueth vs abundantly all thynges to enioye them / & that they do good / & be ryche in good workes / and redy to geue & distribute / laynge by in store for the felices a good foundacyon agaynst the tyme to come & they maye obtayne eternall lyfe.

Timothe saue that which is geue & to kepe / & auoyde vngodly vanities of boyces and oppoysions of science falsly so called / which science whyll some professed / they haue erred as concerning the sayth. Grace be wth the. Amen.

Paul exhorteth Timothe to steadfastnes & patience in persecution / and to continye in the doctryne he had taught him. A commendacion of Onesiphorus.

The.iii. Chapter.

Paul an Apostle of Iesu Christ / by the wyll of God / to preache & promys of lyfe / which lyfe is in Christ Iesu. To Timothee my beloved sonne.

Grace / mercy & peace / from God the father / and from Iesu Christ oure Lorde.

I thanke God / whom I serue wth myne elders to pure conscience / that without ceasinge I make mencion of the in my prayres day & nyght / desyryng to see the / myndfull of thy teares: so that I am filled wth ioye. mother Lois / and in thy mother Eunice: and am assure that it dwelleth in the also.

Wherfore I warne the that thou stee by the gyfte of God which is in the / by the puttyng on of my handes. For God hath not geue to vs the sperte of feare / but of power / and of loue / & of sobryenes of mynde. Be not ashamed to testifie oure Lorde / neither be ashamed of me / which am bounde for his sake: but suffer thou aduersite also wth the Gospel / thowowe the power of God / which saued vs / and called vs with an holy calling / not accordyng to oure dedes / but accordyng to his awne purpose and grace / which grace was geuen thowowe Christ Iesu before the worlde was: but is now declared openly by the apperynge of oure sauoure Iesu Christ which hath put away death / & hath brought lyfe & immortallite vnto lyght thowowe Gospel / wherunto I am apointed / & preacher and Apostle / and a teacher of the gentylis: for the which cause I also suffer these thynges. Neutrheles I am not ashamed. For I knowe whon I haue beleued / and am sure he is able to kepe that which I haue committed to his keepynge / agaynst that daye.

1. Tim. v. b.

Se thou haue the ensample of those holysome wordes which thou hearest of me in sayth & dyone wher is in Iesu Christ. That good thyng / which was committed to thy keepynge / kepe in the holy goost which dwelleth in vs. This thou knowest how that all they which are in Asia / be turned fro me. Of which sorte are Phygelos and Hermogenes. The Lorde geue mercy vnto the house of Onesiphorus: for he ofte refreshed me / and was not ashamed of my chayne: but when he was at Rome / he sought me oute very dyligently / and founde me. The Lorde graunt vnto him that he maye fynde mercy with the Lorde at that daye. And in how many thynges he ministered vnto me at Ephesus thou knowest very well.

The.ii. Chapter. / So here he exhorteth him to be constant in trouble / to suffer manly / and to hyde fast in the wholesome doctryne of oure Lorde Iesus Christ.

The.ii. Chapter.

Thou therfore my sonne / be stronge in the grace that is in Christ Iesu. And what thyng thou hast heard of me many bearyng wytnesses / the same deliuer to faithfull me / which are apte to teache other. Thou therfore suffer affliction as a good souldier of Iesu Christ. No man that warrer entanglyth him selfe wth wordes / lyfelynges / and that because he wolde please him that hath chosen him to be a souldier. And though a man stryue for a mastery / yet is he not crowned / except he stryue lawfully. The husbandman that laboureth must fyrst recea-ue of the frutes. Consider what I saye. The Lorde geue & vnderstandyng in all thynges. Remember that Iesus Christ beyng of the sede of Dauid / rose agayne from death accordyng to my Gospel / wher in I suffer trouble as an euill doer / euen vnto bondes. But the worde of God was not bounde. Beresore I suffer all thynges / for the electes sakes / that they myght also obtayne & saluacion which is in Christ Iesu / wth eternall glory.

It is a true saying / yf we be deed wth him we also shall lyue wth him. If we be patient / we shall also raygne wth him. If we denie him / he also shall denie vs. If we beleue not / yet abyde he saythail. He cannot denie him selfe. Of these thynges put them in remembrance / & testifie before the Lorde / & they stryue not about wordes / which is to no profit / but to peruerse the hearers.

Study to shewe thy selfe laudable vnto God a workman that needeth not to be ashamed / dyuidyng the worde of trueth lustly. Angostly and dayne boyces passe ouer. For they shall encrease vnto greater vngodlynes / and their wordes shall set euil as doeth a cancre: of whose nombze is Hymeneos and Philetos / which as concernyng the trueth haue erred / sayng that the resurrection is past all redy / and do destroye the sayth of dyuers persones.

But the sure grounde of God remaineth / and hath this scale: the Lorde knoweth them that are his / and let euery man that calleth on the name of Christ / depart fro iniquite. Not wthstanding in a greates house are not only belies of goude and of syluer: but also of wood and of erthe / some for honoure / & some vnto dishonoure. But yf a man purge hym selfe from such felowes / he shall be a bevell sanctified vnto honoure / mete for the Lorde / and prepared vnto all good workes.

Lustres of youth auoyde / & folowe righte welnes / sayth / loue / and peace / wth them that call on the Lorde wth pure herte. For of the vngodly and vnlearned questions put fro the / remembryng that they do but geuere stryfe. But the seruant of the Lorde must not stryue: but must be peacable vnto all men / and apte to teache / and one that can suffer the euill meeknes / and can informe them that respyt / yf that God at any tyme wyll geue them repentance for to knowe the trueth: that they maye come to them selues agayne out of the snare of the deuyl / which are now taken of hym at his wyll.

The prophesy of the perillous tymes / stteth oute vporities in their colours / telleth vs what they be wth in / for all their saye faces outwardly. Beresore cucion for the Gospel.

shuldest performe that which was lackyng / a shuldest ordeyne elders in euery cytie as I appoynted p. If eny be faultlesse / the husbād of one wyfe / haunge saythfull chyldren / which are not sclandred of ropte / neither are disobediēt. For a bishoppe must be fault-lesse / as it becometh the minister of God / not drunken / not angry / no broncharde / no frighter / not geue to flythy lucre : but herberous / one that loueth goodnes / sobre mynded righteous / humy / temperat & suche as cleueth vnto p true worde of doctrine / that he maye be able to exhorte with wholsome learyng / a to improue them that laye asyde it.

For there are many disobediēt & talkers of banise & dysceauers of myndes / namely they of the circumcission / whose mouthes must be stopped / whych peruert whole houses / teachynge thynges which they ought not because of flythy lucre. One beyng of the felices / which was a poete of their awne / sayde : The Cretians are all wayes lyars / euill beastes / a slowe belyes. This wyres is true / wherfore rebuile them sharply that they maye be founde in the sayth / and not takynge hede to femes fables and comāndementes of men that turne from the trueth. * vnto the pure / are all thynges pure : but vnto them that are defyled and vnbeleuyng / is nothyng pure : but euen the very myndes & consciences of them are defyled. They confesse p they know God : but with the dedes they denye him / and are abominable and disobediēt / and vnto all good wozeches discommendable.

He telleth hym how he shall teach all degrees to be hauing them selues.

The. ii. Chapter.

paciēce. And the elder women lyctwyse / p they be in suche rayment as be cometh holys-nes / not false accusars / not geuen to moche drynke / but teachers of honest thynges / to make the younge women sobremynde / to loue their husbandes / to loue their chyldren / to be discrete / chast / huswylly / good and obedient vnto their awne husbandes p the worde of God be not euill spoken of. Younge men lyctwyse exhorte that they be sobre mynde d.

A boue all thynges weue thy selfe an in-sample of good wozeches with vncorrupte doctryne with honestie / and with the wholsome worde which cannot be rebuiled / p he whych wythstandeth / maye be ashamed / hauing no thyng in you that he maye dyspraye. * The seruantes exhorte to be obediēt vnto their awne masters a to please in all thynges / not answering agayne / neither to be pickers / but that they weue all good saythfulnes / p they maye do woche ppe to p doctrine of oure sauoure God in all thynges. * For p grace of God / p bryngeth saluacion vnto all men / hath appered and teacheth vs that we shuld denye not of the dedes of ryghtewesnes whych we mought but of hys mercede he saued vs / by the fountayne of the newe byrth / & with the renuyng of the holy goost / which he shed on vs abundantly / thowoe Iesus Christ oure sauoure / that we once iustified by hys grace / shuld be hepyes of eternall lyfe / thowoe hope. ¶ This is a true saynge.

Of these thinges I wold thou shouldest certtifie/that they which beleue God/ myght be diligēt to go forwarde in good worke. These thinges are good and profitable vnto men.
Folow the questions and genealogies/ & brau-

¶ A the pall exhortation for all bishops and churche men and clauie to fede the flocke of Christ and what their duty is to be.
¶ what a ghaorde they shall haue if they be diligent.
¶ exhorteth pange persons to amayne them selues to the elder. every one to loue another to be sober and to watche that they maye resiste the enemye.

U. S. Chapter.

The elders which are amonge you / I exhozte / whych am also an elder and a wytnes of the afflictions of Christ / and also a partaker of the glory that shalbe opened: se that ye fede Christs flocke which is amonge you takynge cureright of them not as though ye were copelled thereto / but wyllyngly / not for the de-lyte of filthy lucre / but of a good mynde / not as though ye were lordes ouer the parishens:
 but that ye be an ensample to the flocke.

In to Cape/ And whē these they shall appere ye shall receaue an incorruptible crowne of glorie. Lephewle ye yonger submyt youre selues vnto the elder. Submyt youre selues euery man/ one to another/ knet youre selues to gether in lowlynes of minde. For God resisteth the proud/ and giveth grace to the humble. Submyt youre selues therfore vnder the myghty hande of God/ he maye exalt you/ when the tyme is come. Cast all youre care to him: for he careth for you.

Be sober and watch/ for youre aduersary the deuill as a roynge lyon walketh about/ sekynge whom he maye deuoure: whom resist stedfast in the fayth/ remembryng that ye do but fulfyll the same afflictions whych are apoynted to youre brythzen that are in the world. The God of all grace/ whiche called you vnto his eternall glory by Christ Iesus/ shall his owne selfe after ye haue suffered a litle affliction make you perfect: shall settle/ strenght and stablish you. To him be glory and dominion for ever/ and whyll the world endureth. Amen.

Why Siluanus a saythfull brother vnto you (as I suppose) haue I wyrtten bryef/ exhortynge and testifyng how that this is the true grace of God/ wherin ye stande. The companions of youre election that are of Babylon/ salute you/ and Marcus my sonne. Greete ye one another with the kyss of loue. Peace be with you all which are in Christ Iesus. Amen.

Why Siluanus a saythfull brother vnto you (as I suppose) haue I wyrtten bryef/ exhortynge and testifyng how that this is the true grace of God/ wherin ye stande. The companions of youre election that are of Babylon/ salute you/ and Marcus my sonne. Greete ye one another with the kyss of loue. Peace be with you all which are in Christ Iesus. Amen.

Grace with you/ and peace be multiplied in the knowledge of God and of Iesus oure Lord. Accordynge as his godly power hath geuen vnto vs all thynges that pertaine vnto lyfe and godlynes/ thorow the knowledge of him that hath called vs by vertue of glorie/ by the meanes wherof/ are geuen vnto vs excellent and moste greates promyses/ that by the helpe of them ye shuld be partakers of the godly nature/ in that ye shal the corrupcion of worldly lust.

And herunto geue all diligence: in youre sayth/ minister vertue & diuine knowledge/ and in knowledge temperance/ and in temperance patience/ in patience godlynes/ in godlynes brotherly kindnes/ in brotherly kindnes loue. For if these thynges be amōge you and are plenteous/ they will make you that ye nether shalbe ydle nor frustratefull in the knowledge of oure Lord Iesus Christ. But he that lacketh these thynges is blynde and gropeth for the waye with his hande/ & hath forgotten that he was purged fro bys olde synnes.

Herfore brythzen/ geue the moare diligence for to make your calling & election sure. For if ye do soche thynges/ ye shall neuer erre. Yee & by this meanes an entryng in shall be ministered vnto you abundantly vnto the euertlastynge kyngdome of oure Lord and sauoure Iesus Christ.

Wherfore I will not be negligent to put you all wayes in remembraunce of soche thinge though that ye knowe them youre selues & be also stablished in the present truth. Not withstandinge I thynke it mete/ as long as I am in this tabernacle/ to see you by puttynge you in remembraunce/ for as moche/ as I am sure how that the tyme is at hande that I must put of my tabernacle/ euen as oure Lord Iesus Christ hath shewed me. I will enforce therfore/ that on euery fyde ye myght haue wherwith to steere by the remembrance of these thynges/ after my departing.

For we folowed not deceivable sayles whē we opened vnto you the power & comynge of oure Lord Iesus Christ/ but with oure eyes we sawe his maiestie: euen then berely when he receaued of God the father honoure & glorie/ and when ther came to him a voyce to him fro the excellent glorie. This is my beloued sonne/ in whom I haue delecte. & his voyce we heard when it came from heauen/ beryng with him in the holy mounte.

We haue also a ryght sure worde of prophete wherunto ye take heede/ as vnto a light/ shyneth in a darcke place/ ye do well/ vntill the daye daune & the daye sterre apere in youre hertes. So that ye fynd know this: that no prophete in the scripture hath eny pruate interpretation. For the scripture came neuer by the wyll of man: but holy men of God spake as they were moued by the holy goost.

In to Cape/ And whē these they shall appere ye shall receaue an incorruptible crowne of glorie. Lephewle ye yonger submyt youre selues vnto the elder. True wpmelle of the everlastyng worde of God
The bloude of Christe is the purgacion from synne Roman is without synne.

The fyrst Chapter.

What whych was from

In the begynnyng / whych we in his gospell have heard / which we have in our eyes / whych we have looked upon / and our handes have handled / of the worde of the lyfe. For the lyfe appered / & we sayd that we have sene and heare wpmelle / and we have told you that eternall lyfe / which was with the father / and appered unto us. That which we have sene and herde / declare we unto you / that ye maye have fellowship with us & our felowship maye be with the father and his sonne Jesus Christ. And thus wrote we unto you / & your joye maye be full.

And this is the tryngynge whych we have hearde of him & declare unto you / that God is lycht and in him is no dercknes at all. If we saye that we have fellowship with him / and yet walke in dercknes / we lye / and do not the truth. But and if we walke in lycht / even as he is in lycht / then have we fellowship with him / and the bloude of Jesus Christ his sonne clenseth us from all synne.

If we saye that we have no synne / we de-ceave our selves and trouth is not in us. If we knowe our synnes / he is saythfull and iust / to forgive us our synnes / and to clenche us from all unryghtewynesse. If we saye we have not synned / we make him a lyar and his worde is not in us.

Of true love / and how it is tryed.

The. ii. Chapter.

Of synners

1. The. i.
Apoca. i. 1.
and. 1. 1.

* Neuerthelesse the daye of the Lorde will come as a thefe in the nyght / in the which daye the heavens shall peryshe with terrible noyse and the elementes shall melt with heat / and the earth with the workes that are therin shall burne.

If all these thynges shall peryshe / what maner persons ought ye to be in holy communion and godlynes: lohyng for a hastinge unto the commynge of the daye of God / in which the heavens shall peryshe with fyre / and the elementes shall be consumed with heate.

* Neuerthelesse we loke for a newe heaven & a newe earth accordyng to his promys / wher in dwelleth ryghtewynesse.

Wherfore dearly beloved / seynge that ye loke for soche thynges be diligent that ye maye be founde of hym in peace / without spotte and bndelyed. And suppose that the longe sufferynge of the Lorde is saluacion / even as our dearly beloved brother Paul / accordyng to the wysdome geuen unto him / wrote to you / yee / all moost in every epistle / speakyng of soche thynges: amonge which are many thynges harde to be understode / which they that are unlearned and unstable peruert / as they do other scriptures unto their owne destruction. Ye therfore beloved / seynge ye knowe it before hand / beware lest ye be also plucked awaye with the erreure of the wycked / and fall from youre owne sted-fastnes: but growe in grace / and in the knowledge of our Lorde and sauoure Jesus Christ. To whom be glory both
now and for ever.
Amen.

1. 2. 3.

My litle child / these thynges write I unto you / that ye synne not if any man synne / yet we have an advocate with the father / Jesus Christ / whych is ryghteous: and he it is that obteyneth grace for our synnes: not for our synnes only: but also for the synnes of all the worlde. And herby we are sure that we knowe hym / if we kepe his commaundementes. He that sayth I knowe hym / and kepeyth not his commaundementes is a lyar & the verite is not in hym. Whosoever kepeth his worde / in him is the love of God perfect in dede. And therby knowe we that we are in him. He that sayth he bydeth in hym / ought to walke even as he walked.

Wherfore I wrote no newe commaundemēt unto you: but that olde commaundemēt which ye hearde from the begynnyng. The olde comaundement is the worde whych ye hearde from the begynnyng. Agayne a newe comaundement I wrote unto you / a thyng & is true in him / & also in you: for the dercknes is past / & the true lycht now shyneth. He that sayth how that he is in the lycht / and yet ha-teth his brother / is in dercknes even untill this tyme. He that loveth his brother / aby-deth in the lycht and ther is none occasion of euill in hym. He that hateth his brother / is in dercknes / and walketh in dercknes: and cannot tell whether he goeth / because that dercknes hath bynded his eyes.

He that hateth
his brother is in dercknes
and walketh
in dercknes and cannot tell whether he goeth because that dercknes
hath bynded
his eyes.

Babes I wrote unto you how that your synnes are forgiven you for his names sake.
I wrote unto you fathers / how & ye knowe him that was frō the begynnyng. I wrote unto you younge men / how that ye have overcome the wicked. I wrote unto you litle chyldren / how that ye knowe the father. I wrote unto you fathers / how that ye knowe hym that was from the begynnyng. I wrote unto you younge men / how that ye are stronge & the worde of God abideth in you and ye have overcome that wycked.

He that ye love not the worlde / neither thynges that are in the worlde. If any man love the worlde / the love of the father is not in hym. For all that is in the worlde (as the lust of the fleshe / the lust of the eyes / and the pride of goodes) is not of the father / but of the worlde. And the worlde hangeth awaye and the lust therof: but he that fulfylleth the will of God / abydeth ever.

Write I unto you that the last tyme / and as ye have herde how & Antichrist shall come even now are there many Antichristes come allredy. Wherby we knowe that it is the last tyme. They went oute frō us / but they were not of us. For if they had bene of us / they wolde no dout / have continued with us. But

Of Antichrist

Chapter folowinge.

that fortuneth that it might appere / that they were not of us.

And ye have an oymnt of the holy goſt & ye knowe all thynges. I wrote not unto you / as though ye knewe not the trouth: but as though ye knewe it / and knowe also that no lye cometh of trouth. Who is a lyar but he that denieth that Jesus is Christ: the same is the Antichrist that denieth the father & the sonne. Whosoever denieth the sonne / the same hath not the father. Let therfore abyde in you that same which ye hearde frō the begynnyng. If that which ye hearde frō the begynnyng / shall remayne in you / ye also shall contynue in the sonne / and in the father. And this is the promys that he hath promised us even eternall lyfe.

This have I writte unto you / concerninge them that deceave you. And the annoyntinge whyche ye receaved of hym / dwelleth in you.
And ye nede not that any mā teache you: but as the annoyntinge teacheth you all thynges / and is true / and is no lye / & as it taught you even so byde therein. And nowe babes abyde in hym that when he shall appere / we maye be bolde and not be made ashamed of hym at his commynge: If ye knowe that he is ryghteous / knowe also that he whych soloweth ryghtewynesse / is borne of hym.

He that se that Christe is synne
can not dwell
to gether / for Christe spake
of synners
against synne.

The synnguler love of God toward us: and how we agayne oughte to love one another.

The. iii. Chapter.

I chose what love the father hath shewed on us that we should be called & sonnes of God. For this cause the worlde knoweth you not / because it knoweth not hym. Dearly beloved / now are we the sonnes of God / & yet it doth not appere what we shalbe. But we knowe that what it shall appere / we shalbe lyke him.
For we shall see him as he is. And every man that hath this hope in him / purgeth him selfe / even as he is pure. Whosoever committeth synne / committeth unryghtewynesse also / for synne is unryghtewynesse. And ye knowe we have appered to take awaye our synnes / and in hym is no synne. As many as byde in him synne not: whosoever synneth / hath not sene him / neither hath knowen hym.

Babes / let no man deceave you. He that doeth ryghtewynesse / is ryghteous / even as he is ryghteous. He that committeth synne / is of the deuyll: for the deuyll synneth since the begynnyng. For this purpose appered the sonne of God / to take awaye the synnes of the deuyll.
Whosoever is borne of God / synneth not: for his seed remayneth in him / & he cannot synne / because he is borne of God. In this are the signes.

He that loveth
the worlde
is not of God.
He that loveth
the worlde
is not of God.
He that loveth
the worlde
is not of God.

The seconde epi- le of Saynt John.

The wyrteth vnto a certayne lady/people that her childe walketh in the trueth/erhorteth them vnto loue/warne them to beware of such deceauers as deupe that Iesus Christ came in the flesh/prayeth them to continue in the doctrine of Christ & to haue nothinge to do with them that bringe not this lernynge.

Ihe elder to the electe lady & her chylde which I loue in the trueth: and not I only/but also all that knowe the trueth / for the truthe sake whych dwelleth in vs / and shalbe in vs for euer.

With you be grace / mercye / and peace fro God the father & fro the Lorde Iesus Christ the sonne of the father / in trueth and loue.

I reioyced greatly / that I founde of thy chylde walkinge in trueth / as we haue re-ceaued a commaundment of a father. And nowe beseeche I the lady / not as though I wrote a newe commaundment vnto y / but that same whych we had fro a begynnyng / I we shuld loue one another. And this is the loue / that we shuld walke after his commaundmentes.

This commaundment is / that as ye haue hearde from the begynnyng / ye shuld walke in it. For many deceauers are entred into the worlde / whiche confesse not that Iesus Christ is come in the flesh. This is a deceauer & an Antichrist. Take on your selues / I we loose not that we haue wrought: but that we may haue a full rewarde. Whosoever trasgreth & bydeth not in the doctrine of Christ / hath not God. He that endureth in the doctrine of Christ / hath bothe the father and the sonne.

If ther come any vnto you and bringe not this lernynge / him receaue not to house / nether byd him God speke. For he that bydeth him God speke / is partaker of his euyl dedes.
I had many thinges to wyte vnto you / neuer thelesse I wolde not wyte in paper & ynkes: but I trust to come vnto you / & speake to your mouth to mouth / that our loue maye be full.
The sonnes of the electe sister grete & Amen.

The thyrde epistle of saynt John.

He is glad of Saynt John that he walketh in the trueth / erhorteth them to be louynge vnto the poore Christe in their perfection / sheweth the unkynde dealinges of Diatrephen / and the good reperte of Demetrios.

Ihe elder vnto the beloued Saynt / whiche I loue in the trueth.
Beloued I wylle in all thynges y thou prosperedst & fastedst well out as thy soule prospereth / I reioyced greatly when

This Iesus Christ is he that cam by water and bloud / not by water only: but by water and bloud. And it is the sprete that beareth wytnes / because the sprete is trueth.

(For ther are thre whiche beare recorde in heauen / & a ther / & water / & whiche good. And these thre are one) Forther are thre whiche beare recorde (in erth) the sprete / and water / and bloud: and these thre are one. If we receaue the wytnes of men / the wytnes of God is greater. For thys is the wytnes of God / whych he testifed of hys sonne. He that beleueth on the sonne of God / hath a wytnes in hym selfe. I he that beleueth not God / hath made him a lyar / because he beleueth not the recorde that God gaue of hys sonne. And thys is that recorde / how that God hath geuen vnto vs eternall lyfe / and thys lyfe is in hys sonne. He y hath the sonne / hath lyfe: and he that hath not the sonne of God / hath not lyfe.

These thynges haue I wyrtten vnto you that beleue on the name of the sonne of God that ye maye knowe howe that ye haue eter-nall lyfe / and that ye maye beleue on the name of the sonne of God. And thys is the trust I we haue in hym: that yf we aske any thinge accorde to hys wyll / he heareth vs. And yf we knowe y he heare vs / whatsoeuer we aske / we knowe that we shal haue the peticions that we desyre of hym.

If any man se hys brother synne a synne that is not vnto deeth / let hym aske / and he shal geue hym lyfe for them that synne not vnto deeth. Ther is a synne vnto deeth / for whych I saye I not that a man shuld praye.
All unryghtewesnes is synne / & ther is synne not vnto deeth.

We knowe that whosoever is borne of God / synneth not: but he that is begotten of God kepeth hym selfe / and that wycked toucheth hym not. We knowe that we are of God / and that the worlde is all together see on wyckednes. We knowe that the sonne of God is come / and hath geuen vs a mynde to knowe hym whych is true: and we are in him that is true / though his sonne Iesus Christ. This same is bery God / and eternall lyfe. Whiche kepe youre selues fro ymages.

of the worlde / & therfore speake they of the worlde / & the worlde heareth the. We are of God. He y knoweth God / heareth vs: he that is not of God / heareth vs not. Derby knowe we y sprete of verite / & the sprete of erreure.
Beloued / let vs loue one another: for loue commeth of God. And euery one that loueth is borne of God / and knoweth God: he that loueth not / knoweth not God: & for God is loue. In this appered the loue of God to vs: ward / because that God sent his only begotten sonne into the worlde / that we might lue thorow him. Derin is loue / not that we loued God but that he loued vs / and sent his sonne to make agrement for oure synnes.

Beloued / yf God so loued vs / we ought also to loue one another. No man hath sene God at any tyme. If we loue one another / God dwelleth in vs / and his loue is perfect in vs.
Derby knowe we: that we dwell in hym / & he in vs: because he hath geuen vs of his sprete.
And we haue sene and do testifye that the father sent the sonne / whiche is the sauour of the worlde. Whosoever confesteth that Iesus is the sonne of God / in hym dwelleth God / and he in God. And we haue knowe and beleued the loue that God hath to vs.

God is loue / and he that dwelleth in loue / dwelleth in God / and God in hym. Derin is y loue perfect in vs / that we shuld haue trust in the daye of iudgement: for as he is / euen so are we in thys worlde. Ther is no feare in loue / but perfect loue casteth out all feare: for feare hath paynfullnes. He that feareth / is not perfect in loue.

We loue hym / for he loued vs fyrst. If a man saye / I loue God / & yet hate his brother he is a lyar. For how can he that loueth not his brother whome he hath sene / loue God whome
he hath not sene? And this commaundment haue we of hym: that he whych loueth God /
shuld loue his brother also. Amen.

We loue hym / for he loued vs fyrst. If a man saye / I loue God / & yet hate his brother
he is a lyar. For how can he that loueth not his brother whome he hath sene / loue God whome
he hath not sene? And this commaundment
haue we of hym: that he whych loueth God /
shuld loue his brother also. Amen.

To loue God / is to kepe hys commaundmentes.
Fayth ouercommeth the worlde. Euer lastynge lyfe is in the sonne of God. Of thys synne vnto deeth.

The .v. Chapter.

Whosoever beleueth that Iesus is Christ / is borne of God. And euery one that loueth hym whiche begat / loueth hym also whych was begot-te of him. In this we knowe that we loue the chylde of God / whome we loue God and kepe his commaundmentes. This is the loue of God that we kepe his commaundmentes / & his comaundmentes are not greuous. I. For all that is borne of God / ouercometh the worlde.
And this is the victoery that ouercometh the worlde / ouer sayth. Who is it that ouercometh the worlde / but he whych beleueth that Iesus is the sonne of God.

Chis

chylde of God knowen / and the chylde of the deuill. Whosoever doeth not ryghtewes-nes / is not of God / neither he that loueth not hys brother.

For this is the thinges / that ye heare fro the begynnyng: y ye shuld loue one another not as Capn which was of y which & selue his brother. And wherfore selue he him? Because his abyme workes were euyl / and hys brothers good. I. Wherfore not my brother? though the worlde hate you. We knowe y we are translated from deeth vnto lyfe / because we loue the brethren. He that loueth not hys brother / abydeh in deeth. Whoso-uer hateth hys brother / is a man clea. And ye knowe that no man clea / hath eternall lyfe abydyng in hym.

Derby perceaue we loue: that he gaue hys lyfe for vs: & therfore ought we also to geue oure liues for the brethren. Whosoever hath this worlde / good & seyth hys brother haue neede: & shutteth by his compassion from him: how dwelleth y loue of God in him? My babes / let vs not loue in worde / neither in toger: but with the debe & in verite. I. For therby we knowe that we are of the verite / and can before hym quyet oure hertes. But yf oure hertes cōdēpne vs / God is greater then oure hertes / & knoweth all thynges. Beloued / yf oure hertes cōdēpne vs not / then haue we trust to God warde: & whatsoeuer we aske we shal receaue of hym: because we kepe his commaundmentes / & do those thynges which are pleasyng in his syght.

Whiche hys is hys commaundment / that we beloue a name of his sonne Iesus Christ / and loue one another / as he gaue commaun-dement. And he that keepeth hys commaun-dement / dwelleth in hym / and he in hym: and God and hath therby we knowe that ther abydeh in hys of the sprete whiche he gaue vs.

Difference of sprete and howe the sprete of God maye be knowen fro the sprete of erreure. Of the loue of God and of oure neyghbours.

The .viii. Chapter.

Beloued / beleue not euery sprete but yzoue y spretes whether they are of God or not / for many false prophetes are gone out into the worlde. Derby shall ye knowe the sprete of God. Euery sprete that confesteth that Iesus Christ is come in the flesh / is of God. And euery sprete whiche confesteth not that Iesus Christ is come in the flesh / is not of God.

sely a many wayes / have comen to the fathers by p^rophetes but in these last dayes he hath spoken unto us by his sone / whom he hath made heyr of all thynges: by whom also he made worlde. Which sonne bringe the brightnes of his glory: a very ymage of his substance/bearinge by all thynges with the worde of his power / hath in his awne person purged many synnes: a is sytten on the right hande of the maieste on hye / and is moze excellent then the angels / in as moche as he hath by inherytance obteyned an excellent name then haue they.

For unto whych of the angels sayde he at any tyme: Thou arte my sonne / this daye begate I the: And agayne: I will be his father / and he shall be my sonne. And agayne whil he bringeth in the fyrst begotten sonne into the worlde / he sayth: And all the angels of God shall worshippe hym. And of the angels he sayth: He maketh his angels spyttes / a his ministres flammes of fyre. But unto his sonne he sayth: God / thy seate shall be forever a mercy. The scepter of thy kyngdome is a ryght scapter. Thou hast loved ryghtewisnes and hated iniquyte. Wherefore God whych is the God / hath anoynted the with the oyle of glad-nes above thy felowes.

And

And thou Lorde in the begynnyng hast layde the foundacyon of the erth. And the he-uens are the workes of thy hand. They shall peryshe / but thou shalt endure. They all shall be olde as doth a garment: and as a vesture shalt thou chaunge them / and they shall be chaunged. But thou arte all wayes / and thy yeres shall not faile. Unto which of the angels sayde he at any tyme: Syt on my ryght hande / tyll I make thine enemyes thy fote stole: Are they not all ministeryng spyttes / sent to ministrate / to the sonne / which shall be heyr of saluacion?
The synners be to be subiect unto the newe lawe which Christ hath geuen us and moche offendeth at the myghty and lowe degree of Christ / because he was necessary that for our sake he shoulde take such an humble state vpon hym / that he myght be lyke vnto his myghty.

The ii. Chapter.

Wherefore we ought to geue & more heede to the thynges we haue herde lest we peryshe. For yf the worde which was spoken by angels was steadfast: so that curse transgression & disobedience receaued a iust recompence to rewarde how shall we scape / yf we despayle so great of saluacion / which at first he began to be p^reached of the Lorde hym selfe / and afterwarde was confirmed vnto us by wordes / by them that hearde it / God bearyng witness thereto / ho-we the with synnes and wonders also / and with signes & myracles / a giftes of the holy gooste actyng vnto vs a wone will.
He hath not vnto the angels put in subiec-tion the worlde to come / wherof we speake.
But one in a certayne place wyrteth / sayinge. What is man / that thou arte myndfull of hym: After thou haddest for a season made hym lower then the angels: thou crow-nest hym with honour and glory: a hast set him aboue the workes of thy handes. Thou hast put all thynges in subiection vnder his fete. In that he put all thynges vnder him / he left nothyng that is not put vnder him. Ne-uerthelesse we yet se not all thynges subiect vnto hym / that was made lesse then the angels we se that it was Iesus / which is crowned with glory & honour for the sufferynge of deeth: & he by the grace of God / shuld cast of deeth for all men.

For it became him / for whi are all thynges and by whi are all thynges / after that he had brought many sonnes vnto glory: & he shuld make the Lorde of their saluacion perfecte thorow sufferynge. For he is sanctified / a they which are sanctified / are al of one. For which causes sake he is not ashamed to call the heyr / sayinge: I will declare thy name vnto my brethren / a in the myddes of the congregation will I prayse the. And agayne: I will put my trust in hym. And agayne: beholde here am I a the child which God hath geue me: For as moche then as the chyldren were partakers of fleshe and bloud / he also him selfe lyke wise toke parte with the / for to pur-dome thorow deeth / him that had lordshipp ouer deeth / that is to saye the deuyll / a that he myght deliuer them / which thorow feare of deeth were all there life tyme in badger of bondage. For he in no place taketh on hym angels: but the seed of Abraham taketh he on him. Wherefore in all thynges he came him to be made lyke vnto his brethren / that he might be mercifull / and a saythfull hye p^resse in thynges concernynge God / for to pouрге p^roples synnes. For in that he hym selfe suffered and was tempted / he is able to succure them that are tempted.

The requyeth vs to be obedynt vnto the worde of Christ / which is more worthy then Moses. The punishment of such as wil not obeye thes / varies.

The iii. Chapter.

Wherefore holy brethren / partakers of the celestiall callynge / cōsider & embassadours a hye p^rest of oure professio Christ Iesus / which was saythfull to him that made him / euen as was Moses in all his house. And yet was this ma-counted worthy of moze glory then Moses: In as moche as he whych hath p^rpared the house / hath most honoure in the house. Every house is prepared of some man. But he that ordyned all thynges / is God. And Moses be-rely was saythfull in all his house / as a ministre / to beare witness of the thynges whych shuld be spoken afterwarde. But Christ as a sonne / hath rule ouer the house / whose house are we / so that we holdfast the confydence & the restorynge of that hope / vnto the ende.

Wherefore as the holy goost sayth: to daye yf ye shall heare his voyce / harden not youre heertes / after the rebellion in the daye of tēp-tacio in the wyldernes / where youre fathers tēpted me / proued me / a sawe my workes. It not enter into my rest. Take heede brethren / that ye be in none of you an euill herte in bnbelefe / that he shuld departe fro the mynynge God: but exhort one another daye / whyll it is called to daye / lest any of you were hard-ned thorow the deceyfulnesse of tyme.

We are partakers of Christ yf we kepe fast vnto the fure vnto the ende the fyrst substance / so longe as as it is sayd: to daye yf ye heare his voyce / is by interpresacion kyng of rightwelsnes: after that he is kyng of Salem / that is to

If now therfore perfeccion came by the priesthod of the Levites (for vnder that priesthod the people receaued þe lawe) what neded it further moze that another priest shuld ryse/after the order of Melchisedech / & not after the order of Aaron? Now no dout / yf þe priesthod be translated / then of necessitye must the lawe be translated also.

For he of whom these thinges are spoken pertaineth vnto another trybe/ of whych neuer man serued at the aultre. For it is euident that our Lorde spooke of þe trybe of Iuda/ of whych trybe spake Moyses nothinge concer-ninge presthood. And it is yet a moze euident thinge/ yf after þe similitude of Melchisedech ther aryle another prest/ whych is not made after the lawe of the carnall comaundement: but after the power of the endlesse lyfe. (For he testifieth: thou arte a prest for euer / after the order of Melchisedech) When the coma-ndement that wet a foze/ is disannulled/ because of hyr weaknes and vnprofitableness. For the lawe made nothyng perfect: but was an introduccyon of a better hope/ by whych hope/ we dyaue nye vnto God.

And for this cause it is a better hope / that it was not promised without an othe. whose priests were made without an othe / but this priest with an othe / by hym that sayde vnto hym, The Lorde swaie / and will not repent.
Thou arte a priest for euer after the order of Melchisedech. And for that cause was Iesus a stablisher of a better testament.

And amonge them many were made pres-tes/ because they were not suffred to endure by the reason of death. But this mā/ because he endureth euer hath an euertlasting pre-

The Epistle

Soche an hys p[re]st it became us to haue which is holy/harmlesse/undefiled/separate from synners/and made hys then heauen.
Which nedeth not dayly (as p[re]st hys p[re]s-tes) to offer by sacrifice/for hys awne synnes/and then for the peoples synnes. For that d[eu]d he at once for all/wh[ic]h he offered by him selfe. For the lawe maketh men p[re]stes/wh[ic]h haue infirmities: but the worde of the othe that came sence the lawe/maketh the sonne p[re]st/wh[ic]h is perfecte for euermore.

The office of Christ is more worthy then p[re]st office of the olde lawe/wh[ic]h was imperfecte/and therefore abrogate.

The. viii. Chapter.

If the thing which we haue spokē this is the p[re]st: & we haue soche an hys p[re]st hys synnen on p[re]st h[ic]h of p[re]st of mat[er]ie in heauē & is a minister of holy thinges/ & of the very tabernacle which God p[re]st/and not man.
For euery hys p[re]st is ordeyned to offer gyf-tes and sacrifices: wherfore it is of necessitie that thys man haue some what also to offer.
For he were not a p[re]st/ yf he were on the erth where are p[re]stes that accorde to the lawe offer gyftes/wh[ic]h p[re]stes serue vnto ensample and shadowe of heauenly thinges: euen as the answer of God was geuen vnto Moses when he was about to synge the tabernacle. Take hede (sayde he) that thou make all thinges accorde to the patrone shewed to the in the mount.

Now hath he obtained a more excellent office/in as moche as he is the mediator of a better testamēt/wh[ic]h was made for better promyses. For yf that p[re]st testamēt had bene faultlesse: then shulde no place haue bene sought for the seconde. For in rebukinge th[is] he sayth: Beholde the dayes will come (sayth the Lorde) and I will synge the house of Israel: and vpon the house of Iuda/a ne-we testamēt: not lyke the testamēt that I made with their fathers at that tyme/when I toke them by the handes/to lede them oute of the lande of Egypte/for they continued not in my testamēt/and I regarded the not sayth the Lorde.

For this is the testamēt that I will make with the house of Israel: After those dayes sayth the Lorde: I will put my lawes in their myndes/and in their hertes I will wryte th[is]:
and I wyll be their God/and they shal be my people. And they shall not teache/ euery mā his neyghboure/and euery mā hys brother/sayng: knowe & Lorde: for they shall knowe me/ from the lef to the mosse of them: for I will be mercifull ouer their iniquities/ & on their synnes and on their iniquities. In p[re]st he sayth a new testamēt/ he hath abrogatē the olde. Now that which is bysamulles and wexen olde/ is redy to bannysh the awaye.

The p[re]st and worthynesse of the olde testamēt and howe farre the newe excelleth it.

The. ix. Chapter.

That p[re]st tabernacle werely had dinales/ & seruings of God/and wordly holynes. For ther was a soze tabernacle made/wherin was the candellike & a table/ & the shewe b[re]ad which is called holy. But with in p[re]st seconde bayle was ther a tabernacle/wh[ic]h is called holiest of all/wh[ic]h had the golden sencer & the arche of the testamēt ouerlayde round about with golde/wherin was the golde pot with Manna/and Aarons rodde that spr[un]ge and the tables of the testamēt.ouer p[re]st arche were the Cherubis of glory shadowyng the seate of grace. Of wh[ic]h thinges we will not now speake particularly.

When these thinges were thus ordeyned/the p[re]stes went all wayes into the p[re]st tabernacle & executed the seruice of God. But into the seconde wēt the hys p[re]st along/once euery yere:and not with out blood/wh[ic]h he offered for hys selfe/ & for the ignoraunce of the people. wherwith the holy goost thys signified that the waye of holy thinges/ was not yet opened/wh[ic]h as yet the p[re]st tabernacle was standyng. wh[ic]h was a synlitude for the tyme then present/and in wh[ic]h were offered gyftes & sacrifices that coulde not make the mynster perfecte/ as p[er]t[ai]n-yng to the conscience with only meates & drynkes/ & blunders welthynges & lustynges of the fleshe/ wh[ic]h were ordeyned vntill p[re]st tyme of refozmacyon.

But Christ bringe an hys p[re]st of good thinges to come/ came by a greater & a more perfecte tabernacle/ not made w[ith] handes:
that is to saye/ not of thys maner byldyng/nether by the blood of gores/ & calues: but by hys awne blood he entred in once for all into the holy place/ & founde eternal redem[pti]on.
For yf the blood of oxen and of gores and the aswes of an heyter/when it was sprynckled/purified the vnclene/ as touchyng the puri-fyng of the fleshe: how moche moare shall the blood of Christ (wh[ic]h th[is]ow p[re]st eternal sprynge/ offered him selfe without spot to God) pouge youre consciences from deeth wo[r]kes for to serue the liuinge God?

And for this cause is he the mediator of the newe testamēt/ & th[is]ow deeth wh[ic]h changed for the redem[pti]on of those transgressors that were in the p[re]st testamēt/ the wh[ic]h were called/ myght receaue the promys of eternal inheritaunce. For wher euer is a testamēt/ ther must also be the deeth of him that maketh the testamēt. For the teament taketh auctoritie wh[ic]h men are deo: for it is of no value as longe as he that made it/ is a liue. For wh[ic]h cause also/ nether p[re]st p[re]st testamēt was ordeyned with out blood.

For wh[ic]h all the commaundemēt[es] were redde of Moses to al the people/ he toke the blood of calues and of gores/ with water & purple woolle & ylope/ & sprynckled both the booke/& all the people/ sayng: this is the blood of the testamēt wh[ic]h God hath appoynted vnto you. wherfore/ he sprynckled the tabernacle with blood also/ & all p[re]st ministringe vessels. And also almost all thinges/ are by the lawe pouged with blood/ and with out shedding of blood is no remission.

It is then nede that the similitudes of hea-uenly thinges be purified with soche thin-ges: but the heauenly thinges the selues are purified w[ith] better sacrifices then are th[is]e.
For Christ is not entred into the holy place that are made with handes/ wh[ic]h are but symilitudes of true thinges: but is entred into very heauē/ for to appere now in the sight of God for us: not to offer hym selfe ofte/ as the hys p[re]st entred into p[re]st holy place euery yere with straige blood/ for then must he haue often suffered sence the wo[r]lde began. But now in the ende of p[re]st wo[r]lde/ hath he appered once/ to put synne to flight/ by the offeringe by of hym selfe: And as it is apoynted vnto me that they shall once dye/ and then cometh the iudgemēt/ & euen so Christ was once offered to take awaye the synnes of many/ & vnto them that loke for hym/ shall he appeare agayne without synne vnto saluacyon.

The olde lawe had no power to cleane awaye synne but Christ d[eu]d it with offeringe of his body once for all. An exhortacyon to receaue this goodnes of God thankfully with patience and a good sayth.

The. x. Chapter.

If the lawe wh[ic]h hath but p[re]st shewe of good thinges to come/ & not p[re]st thinges in their awne fashion can neuer with p[re]st sacrifices wh[ic]h they offer yere by yere continually/ make redem[pti]on ther vnto perfecte. For wold not then those sacrifices haue craied to haue bene offered/ because that the offerers once pouged shuld haue had no moare consciences of syn-nes. Neuerthelesse in those sacrifices is ther mencon made of synnes euery yere. For it is impossible that the blood of oxen and of gores shuld take awaye synnes.

wherfore wh[ic]h he cometh into the wo[r]lde/he sayth. Sacrifice & offeringe thou wol-me. In sacrifices and synneofferinges thou hast no lust. When I sayde: Lo I come/ in the cheft of the booke it is wrytten of me/ that I shuld do the will of God. I haue/ when he had saped sacrifice and offeringe/ & burnt sacrifyces and synneofferinges thou woldst not haue/ nether hast allowed (wh[ic]h yet are offered by the lawe) and then sayde: Lo I come to do the will of God: he taketh awaye the p[re]st to stabillise the latter. By p[re]st wh[ic]h will/ we are sanctified: by the offeringe of the body of Iesu Christe once for all.

And euery p[re]st is redy dayly ministringe/ & offe tymes offereth one maner of offeringe wh[ic]h can neuer take awaye synnes. But thys hys after he had offered one sacrifice for synnes/ sat hym doune for euer on the ryght hande of God/ and from hence forth targeth tyll his foes be made his fote stole. For with one offeringe hath he made perfecte for euer th[is] that are sanctified. And the holy goost also beareth us recozde of thys/ euen when he tolde befoze: This is the testamēt that I will make vnto them: after those dayes sayth the Lorde. I will put my lawes in their hertes & in their mynde I wyll wryte them/ and their synnes and iniquities wyll I remember no moare. And where remission of these thinges is/ ther is no moare offeringe for synne.

Seynge h[er]ethat that by the meanes of the blood of Iesu/ we maye be holde to enter into that holy place/ by the newe and lyuinge waye wh[ic]h he hath prepared for vs/ through the bayle/ that is to saye/ by hys fleshe. And ouer d[eu]t/ p[re]st seyng also that we haue an hys p[re]st wh[ic]h is ruler ouer the house of God/ let vs drawe nys with a true herte in a full satch/ spryncke led in oure hertes from an euill conscience/ & welshed in oure bodies with pure water: & let vs kepe the p[ro]fession of oure hope/ with out waueryng (for he is saythfull that p[ro]- mised) & let vs consider one another/ to p[ro]u-ce h[er]e vnto loue/ & to good wo[r]kes: & let vs not forsake the fellowship that we haue amonge oure selues/ as p[re]st maner of some is: but let vs exhorte one another/ & that so moche the more/ because ye se that the daye draweth nye.

For yf we synne willingly after that we haue receaued the knowlege of the truethe/ is the synne ther remaineth no moare sacrifice for synne but a fearfull lookinge for iudgemēt/ & biolēt fyr/ wh[ic]h shall deuoure & aduertatys. For that despyseth Moses lawe/ dyeth with out mercy vnder two o[r] thre wrytines. Of how moche sozer punyshment suppose ye shall be counted wo[r]thy/ wh[ic]h treadeth vnder fo-te the sonne of God: and counteth the bloude of the testamēt as an unholy thyng wherwith he was sanctified/ and both dishonoure to the spryng of grace. For we knowe hym that hath sayde: vengeaunce belongeth vnto me/ I will recompence sayth the Lorde. And agayne: the Lorde shall iudge hys people.

Call forme by the dayes that are passed/ in the which after ye had receaued light/ye endured a greate fight in aduersities/ part ly whyll all men wondred & galed at you for the same & trybulacyō that was done vnto you/ and partly whyll ye became cōpanyons of thē which so passed their tyme. For ye suffered also with my bondes/ and toke in worth the spoylinge of youre Goodes/ & that with gladnes: knowinge in youre selues how that ye had in heauen a better and an enduringe substance. Cast not awaye therfore youre confydence which hath great rewarde to recōpence. For ye haue neede of paciēce/ & after ye haue done & will of God/ ye might receaue the promes. For yet a very lytell whyle/ & he that shall come will come/ and will not tary.
But the lust shall lyue by fayth. And ye he

E * sayth is a sure cōfydēce of thinges which are hoped for: and a certayntie of thinges whych are not sene. By it the elders were well reposed of. Enoch sayth we vnderstāde that the worlde was ordeyned by the worde of God: & that thinges which are sene: were made of thinges which are not sene. By sayth Abel offered vnto God a moze plenteous sacrifice: then Cāyn: by which he obteyned withnes that he was righteous: God testifyinge of his giuings: by which also he beinge deeth: yet speaketh.

B * By sayth was Enoch translated that he shulde not se deeth: nether was he founde: for God had taken hym awaye. Before he was takē awaye: he was reposed of: that he had pleased God: but without sayth it is impossible to please him. If so he that cometh to God must beleue that God is: and that he is a rewarder of them that seke him.

By sayth Not honored God/after that he was warned of thinges which were not sen-

* By faith Abraham/when he was called obeyed/to go out into a place/which he should afterwaide receaue to inheritance/ & he went out/ not knowinge whether he should go.

By faith he removed into the lande & was promysed him/ag into a straunge cowntre/dwelt in tabernacles:and so dyd Isaac & Ia

Job heyyes with hym of the same promes.
 For he looked for a cite hauinge a foundaciō when she was past age/ because she iudged him earthfull which had p. 112.

And therefore I praye that / of one (or of one which was as good as deed) so many in multitude / as the starrs of the skye / and as the sonn of the see those which is innumerable.

And they all dyed in faith / & receaued not the promys; but saue them a farre of / & be-lieued them / and saluted them: and confessed that they were straungers and pilgrims on the earth. They that saye for the thynges / declare that they seke a countrie. Also yf they had bene myndfull of that countrie / from whence they came oute / they had leasure to haue re-

*By faith the harlot Raab perished not with the unbelievers; when she had restored the spies to lodginge peaceably.

And what shall I more saye / the tyme wolbe be to mozt for me to tell of Gedeon / o Barach / e of Sampson / e of Iephthah: also of Dauid a Samuel / and of the Prophetes: which thowowe sayth subdued kingdomes wrought righteousnes / obteyned e promptes stopped the mouthes of Lyons / quenched the holce of fyre / escaped the edge of e swerde of weake were made stronge / waxed ballene in fyght / turned to fygth the armyes of the alienres. And the women receaued their deers rased to lyfe agayne.

Other were racked/ & wolde not be deli-uered/ & they myght receaue a better resurrection. Other tasted of mockynges & scour-gynges/ mozeouer of bondes & p[re]sonment: were stoned/ were hewē a sunder/ were tēpted were slayne w[ith] sweardes/ walked by & bounē in thepes chynnes/ in gotes chynnes/ in nebetribulaciō & beracion which the worlde was not worthy of: they wandored in wildernes/ in moystaynes/ in derunes and caues of the erth.

And these all thozow sayth obtayned good repose/ & receaued not the p:omes/ God proudpyng a better thyng for vs/ that they with out vs shulde not be made perfecte.

An exhortacion to be patient & steadfast in trouble & aduersite. wth hope of euerglastinge rewardes. A sermon bayon of the new Testament aboue the oide.

The 11th Chapter

Wherfore let vs also (syrng that we are copaled with so great a multtude of witness) laye awaye al þ pyneth downe/ & the synne that ha geth on/ & let vs runne with patience vnto þ battayle that is set before vs/ tokyng vnto Iesus the auctoz & synnisher of oure sayth/whiche for the soye that was set before hym/shode the crosse/ & despised the shame/ & is set dorne on the right hande of the trone of God.
Consider therfore how that he endured suche speakeynge agaynst hym of synners/ lest ye wolde be werryed & saynte in youre mynnes.

28 For ye haue not yet respyed vnto bloudsheddinge / stryfing agaynst synne. And haue for gottē & consolaciō / which spreketh vnto you as vnto chylde: my sorowe despyse not & chasteninge of the Lorde / nether saynt when thou arte rebuked of him: for whom the Lorde lo-ueth / him he chasteneth: yee / & he scourgeth euery sonne that he receaueth. Amos 3. 15.

He is sure that God loveth hime hath cha-sen hym to his loues bepe of euerslasinge ty-e.

If ye endure chastenynge/ God offereth hym selfe vnto you as vnto sonnes. What loue is that whō the father chasteneth not?
If ye be not binder correctiō (where of all are partakers) then are ye bastardes & not sons.
Wherefore some haue had chastenynge of our that the which corrected vs / and we gaue the reuerence: shulde we not moche rather be in subiectio vnto the father of spirituall gyftes that we myght haue? And they berely for a fewe dayes / nurrish vs after their awne pleasure: but he learneth vs vnto that which is profitable / that we myght receaue of his holynes. No manner chastitynge for the present tyme seemeth to be sorowful / but greuous: neuerthelesse afterwarde / it bringeth the quyet frute of ryghtewelsnes / vnto them which are therein exercised.

Stretch forth the therfore agayne the hand whych were let doune/ & the weake knees & le þe haue straght steppes vnto your sete/lest eny haltinge turne you out of the waye: per let it rather be healed. Embrace peace w all men & holynes: with out the which no ma shall se the Lorde. And loke to/ that no man be destitute of þe grace of God/ & that no rote of bitternes springe by a trouble/ and therby

4. 1. Rom. 8. 13.

¶ Pe se then that of deadnes a man is iustificed &c. that is/ is declared just as openly knownen to be ryghtwys: yf he be by the frutes the good tree is knownen for good. Other wyse maye not this sentence be interpreted. For ther coulde nothing be moore falsche than this saying of James/ of a man woulde thus interpret it: that no man obtayneth re-myssion of synnes/ but because his worsches are worthe of so great benefyte. This interpretacion who so sayeth forwardly by/ under-standeth not what remission of synnes is/; howe the conscience ought to be eased; wher it seyth that it wyngeth no worsches to God which are sufficient to please hym. And this interpretacion is cleare contrary to other open sayinges of the scripture/ which teache that remission of synnes cometh freely as the psalme sayeth. 3. Sayde/ I will knowledg myne offence and accuse my selfe unto the Lord/ and thou forguest me the wickednesse of my synne. And Rom. 11. 25. Althowgh that worscheth not/ but becometh on him that iustificeth the vngodly &c. what can be moore plainly spoken/ than that synnes are forgiven to a wicked vngodly man that worscheth not/ that is/ not for any of his worsches but freely. To conclude/ of the Gospell forgue not synnes/but for oure good worsches sake/ for oure worschyness: it differeth nothing from the lawe/ it oweth no moore then the lawe. Althowgh I trust wyl suffyse the good and wyse. For as touching them that luyng nothing vnto this cause but a wyl to braue and chynge/ wyl neuer suffer them feltes to be iustificed. And yet of we woulde contend by the numbre of Authorities/ this one place of James is overthrowen with many witnessess, of whiche euery man wyl vnderstande by iustificacion all one thing in them both. Therefore when Paul sayth/ sayth iusti-fyeth: vnderstande therby/ sayth causeth/ he be called just/ repeated ryghtwys/ and that oure synnes are not imputed vnto vs/ but forgouen vs for Christes sake. When James sayth/ worsches iustifye/ he meaneth thus/ worsches declare vs iust and shewe evidently that we are ryghtwys. Thus that thou make them accord. I lase especially me here/ (I reuerend) rather then tyme be wyl/ or elles woulde I yet haue spoken moore of this thyng.

¶ What good and euill cometh thoro the tongue.
The dutie of such as be learned. The difference betwixte the wysdome of the Gospell and the wysdome of the world.

16th Chapter.

My brethren / be not euery mā a master / remēbyringe how that we shal receaue the moze dānacion: for in many thinges we synne all. If a man synne not in woode / & same is a perfecte man / & able to tame al the body. Beholde we put bittes into the hoxles mouthes that they shuld obeye vs / & we turne aboute all the body. Beholde also the sypptes / whych though they be so gret / & are agayn of scarce windes / yet are they turned about with a very smalle helme / whyther soeuer the biolece of the gouernier wyl. Euen so the tonge is a lyttell member / and bolleth great thynges.

Beholde how gret a thyng a fyttell fyze kyndleth/and the tonge is fyze/and a woꝛlde of wyckednes. So is the tonge set amonge oure membez/that it de fyeth the whole body/a letteth a fyze al that we haue of nature and is it selfe set a fyze euē of hell.

All the natures of beastes/and of byrdes/and of serpentes & thinges of the see are me-ked and tamed of the nature of man. But the toge can no mā tame. It is an vniuersely cruel full of deadly poyson. Therwith blesse we God the father/and therwith curse we men which are made after the similitude of God.
Out of one mouth pzoceadeth blessinge and curlynge. Wy byethen these thinges ought not so to be. Both a fountayne sende sozth at one place swete water & bytter also. Can the fygge tree/ my byethen/ beare olyue berres:
pther a byne beare fygges? So can no fountayne geue bothe salt water & frefwe also.
If eny mā be wyse & endued with learnynge amonge you/ let him shewe the woorkes of his good conuersaciō in mekenes that is coupled with wysdome.

But yf ye haue hytter enyng and styffe in youre hertes/relouce not:neither be lyars agaynst the trueth:this wysdome descendeth not from aboue:but is erthy/ and* naturall/and diuellishe. For to here enyng & styffe is/there is vnstablenes & all maner of euyl workes. But the wysdome that is frō aboue is fyfth pure/then peaseable/gentle/& easy to be entreated/full of mercy and good frutes/without kynginge/and without simulation: pee/and the frute of ryghtewesnes is sowen in peace/of them that mayntene peace.

A Warres fightyng cometh of vainptiousnesse. The friendshipe of the worlde is emptye before God. An ex hortacion to flye sleaunders & the damage of thyrselvs.

Chap. v. Chapter.
Goto now ye ryche men, wepe/and howle on youre wretchednes that shal come vpon you. Your ryches is corrupte/your garments are mo theaten. Your golde and your syluer are cankred/and the rust of them shalbe a wyt-nes vnto you/and shal eat youre fleshe as it were fyre. Ye haue heaped treasure together in youre last dayes: Beholde the fyre of þe labourers whych haue reaped doune youre feldes (whych fyre is of you kept backe by fraude) cryeth: and the cryes of them whych haue reaped are entred into the eares of the Lorde Sabbaoth. Ye haue lured in pleasure on the earth and in wantonnes. Ye haue noysshed youre hertes/as in a daye of slaughter. Ye haue condemned and haue killed þe iust and he hath not respyed you.

¶ We pacient therfore bʒethzen/ vnto the comynge of the Lorde. Beholde the husbande man wayteth for the pʒecious frute of the erth/ a hath longe pacience ther vpon/ vntyll he receaue* the cryp and the latter rayne. We ye also pacient therfore and settle youre vertes/ for the comynge of the Lorde draweth npe. Brudge not one agaynst another bʒe-thzen/ lest ye be dampned. Beholde the iudge standeth before the doore. Take (my bʒethzen) the Pʒophets for an ensample of sufferinge, aduertise/ a of longe pacience/ which spake in the name of ꝑ Lorde. ¶ Beholde we cosite them happy which endure. Ye haue hearde of the pacience of Job/ and haue knowen what ende the Lorde made. For the Lorde is very pitisull and mercifull.

But about all thinges my brythe / I sweare not nether by heuē / nether by earth / nether by eny other othe. Let your^e pee be pee / a you-re naye naye: lest ye saule into ypocrecy. If any of you be euell bered / let hym praye. If eny of you be mery / let him synge Psalmes.
If eny be diseased amonge you / let hym call for the elders of the congregacio / and let the praye ouer him / and anointe hym with oyle in the name of the Lorde: & the prayer of faith shall saue the sycke / and the Lorde shall raise him vp: & if he haue comytted synnes / they shall be forgiven hym.

¶ Knowledge youre lautes one to another: & praye one for another/that ye maye be healed. The prayer of a righteous man availeth muche/ if it be feruēt. Helias was a mā mo-tall euen as we are & he prayed in his prayer that it myght not rayne: & it rayned not on þe erth by the space of thye years & syke monethes.
 And he prayed agayne/ & the heuē gaue

 Wherefore if any of you erre fro the truth and another couert him/ let the same knowe that he which conuerted the synner from goynge & straye out of hys waye/shall saue a soule from deeth/and shall hyde the multitude of synnes.

The Epistle of Saynt Iudas.

He rebuketh such as beynge blinded with their own lustes/they the crueth: and that the more knowe them the better/they sayeth they be such as synne against nature and despyle rulers. &c. He exhorteth us to edifye one another/so praye in the holy goost to compynne in loue/so loke for the commynge of the Lozde/and one to helpe another out of the fyre.

Iudas the seruant of Iesus Christ/the brother of James. To them which are called and sanctified in God the father/and preferred in Iesu Christ. Mercy vnto you and peace and loue be multiplied.

Beloued/when I gaue all diligence to wyte vnto you of the comen saluacyon it was nedfull for me to wyte vnto you/so exhort you/that ye shuld continually labour in the fayth which was once geuen vnto the sayntes. For ther are certayne craftily crept in/of which it was witten a fore tyme vnto the iudgement. They are vngodly and turne the grace of our God vnto wantonnes/and denye God the only Lozde/and our Lozde Iesus Christ.

My mynde is therfore to put you in remembrance/for as moche as ye once knowe this how that the Lozde (after that he had deliuered the people out of Egypt) destroyed them which afterwarde beleued not. The angels also which kept not their fyrst estate: but lette their awne habytacyon: he hath reserved in euerylastynge chaynes vnder darchnes vnto the iudgement of the grete daye: such as Sodom and Gomorrah/the cytyes aboute them (which in lyke maner despyled themselves with fornicacyon/and folowed strange fleshe) are set forth for an ensample/so suffer the vengeance of eternall fyre. Lyke wyse these dreamers desile the fleshe/despise rulers and speake euill of the that are in auctorite.

Yet Michael the archangell when he strove agaynst the deuyl/and disputed about the body of Moyses/durst not geue rayfynge sentence/ but sayde: the Lozde rebuke the. But these speake euill of those thynges which they knowe not: what thynges they knowe naturally/as beastes which are without reason/in those thynges they corrupte themselves. Who be vnto them/for they haue folowed the waye of Cayn and are bitterly geuen to the erreure of Balam for luhers sake/and perished in the treason of Coze.

These are spottes which of poure kindnes feast together/with out feare/ledynge themselves. Cloudes they are with out water/carped about of wyndes/and trees with out frute at gadrynge tyme/they be dead and plucked by the rotes. They are the ragynge waues of the see/compynge out their awne name. They are wandrynge starres to whiche is reserved the myst of darchnes for euer.

Enoch the seuenth from Adam prophesied before of such saynges. Beholde/our Lozde shall come with thousands of sayntes/to geue iudgement agaynst all men/and to rebuke all that are vngodly amonge them of all their vngodly dedes/which they haue vngodly committed/and of all their cruell saynges/which vngodly synners haue spoken agaynst hym.

These are murmurers/complainers/malicious after their awne lustes/whose mouthes speake proude thynges. They haue made in grete reuerence because of a bauntage. But ye beloued/remember the wordes which were spoken before of the Apostles of our Lozde Iesus Christ/that they tolde you that ther shulde be beggers in the last tyme/which shuld walke after their awne vngodly lustes. These are makers of sectes/they haue no spete.

But ye deuyse beloued/edifye poure selues in poure most holy fayth/prayinge in the holy goost/and kepe poure selues in the loue of God/lokyng for the mercy of our Lozde Iesus Christ/vnto eternall life. And haue compassion of some/separatyng them: so other saue with feare/pullyng the out of the fyre/and hate the fylthy bellure of the fleshe.

Vnto him that is able to kepe you/that ye faule not/and to present you faultlesse before the presence of his glory with hope/that is to saye/to God pure saue our which only is wyse/be glory/majesty/dominion/and power/now and for euer. Amen.

The Reuelacion
of saynt John the deuine.

Happy are they that heare the woide of God and kepe it. He wyte to the seven congregacions in Asia/ seyth seuen candelliches/ and in the myddes of them/ one lyke vnto the sonne of man.

The first Chapter.

The reuelacion of Iesus Christ/which God gaue vnto hym/for to shewe vnto his seruantes thyngs which must shortly come to passe.

And he sent and shewed by his angell vnto his seruant John/which bare recorde of the woide of God/and of the testimony of Iesus Christ/and of all thyngs that he sawe. Happy is he that readeth/and they that heare the wordes of the prophesie/and kepe those thynges which are writte therein. For the tyme is at hande.

John to the vii. congregacions in Asia. Grace be with you and peace/from him which is and which was/and which is to come/and fro the vii. spetes which are present before his throne/and fro Iesus Christ which is a faythfull wytnes/and fyrst begotten of the deede/and Lozde ouer the kynges of the erth. Vnto him that loved vs/and washed vs from synnes in his awne bloude/and made vs kynges and prestes vnto God his father by glory/and dominion for euermore. Amen.

Beholde he cometh with cloudes/and all eyes shall se hym: and they also which pierced hym. And all hymners of the beestes of the erth shall waiyle. Euen so: Amen. I am the fyrst and the last/and the begynnyng and the endynge/sayth the Lozde almyghty/which is a which was and which is to come.

John poure brother & companion in tribulacion/and in the kyngdome & pacience which is in Iesu Christ/was in the yle of Barchin for the woide of God/and for the wytnessing of Iesu Christ. I was in the cytye on a sondaye/and here behinde me a grete voyce/as it had bene of a trompe sayng: I am Alpha & Omega/the fyrst and the laste. That thou seyst/wyrt in a booke/and sende it vnto the congregacions which are in Asia/vnto Ephesus/and vnto Smyrna/and vnto Pergamos/and vnto Thyatira/and vnto Sardis/and vnto Philadelphia/and vnto Laodicia.

The first Chapter.

And I turned backe to se the voyce that spake to me. And when I was turned/ I sawe vii. golden candelliches/and in the myddes of the candelliches/one lyke vnto the sonne of man/clothed with a lynne garment downe to the ground/and girt about the pappes with a golden gyrdle. His heed/and his heares were wyte/as wyte woll/and as snowe: and his eyes were as a flame of fyre: and his fete lyke vnto brylliant as though they were in a fornaice/and his voyce as the voyce of many waters. And he had in his ryghte hande vii. starres. And out of his mouth went a sharpe two edged swerde. And his face shone euen as the sonne in his strength.

And when I saw him/I fell at his fete/euen as dead. And he layde his ryghte hande vpon me/saying vnto me: feare not. I am the fyrst and the laste/and am a lyue/and was dead. And beholde I am a lyue for euermore/and haue the keyes of hell and of deeth. Wherfore the thynges which thou hast sene/and the thynges which are/and the thynges which shalbe fulfilled here after/and the mystery of the vii. starres which thou sawest in my ryghte hande/and the vii. golden candelliches. The vii. starres are the messengers chers.

The candle of the .vij. congregacions. And the .vij. candles are the .vij. congregacions.

The .vij. congregacions to amende / and the reward of him that overcometh.

The .ij. Chapter.

The messenger is the preacher of the congregacion.

Unto the messenger of the congregacion of Ephesus wyte: these thynges sayth he that holdeth the .vij. starres in his right hande / and walketh in the myddes of the .vij. golden candlestiches. I knowe thy wothes / and thy laboure / and thy patience / and how thou canest not forbeare them which are euyl: and examined them which saye they are Apostles / and are not: and hast founde them liars and best wast the thy selfe. And hast patience: for my names sake hast labored / and hast not fainted. Neuertheles I haue somewhat agaynst the: for thou hast leste thy fyrst loue. Remembre therfore from whence thou art fallen: and repent / and do the fyrst wothes. And I will come vnto the shortly / and will remoue thy candlestiche out of his place / except thou repent. But this thou hast because thou hast leste the dekes of the Nicolaitans / which dekes I also hate. Lett him that hath eares heare / what the spete sayth vnto the congregacions. To him that overcometh / will I geue to eate of the tree of lyfe / which is in the myddes of the Paradise of God.

before the chylde of Israel / that they shoulde eate of meate dedicat vnto ydoles / and commit fornicacion. Euen so hast thou them that mayntayne the doctrine of the Nicolaitans / which thinge I hate. But be conuerted / or else I will come vnto the shortly / and will fight agaynst the with the swearde of my mouth. Lett him that hath eares / heare what the spete sayth vnto the congregacions. To him that overcometh will I geue to eate of the tree of lyfe / which is in the Paradise of God. not: Beholde a lyon beinge of the tribe of Juda the rott of Dauid hath obtained to open the booke / & to loſe the .viij. ſeales therof. And I behelde / & lo in þe myddes of the ſeate / & of the .liij. beſtes / & in the myddes of the elders / ſode a lambe as though he had bene kyled / whiche had .viij. hornes & .viij. eyes / which are the ſp;rites of God ſent into all the worlde.
And he came & toke the booke out of þe right hande of him that ſate vpon the ſeate.

C And whē he had takē þe booke/the .xiiij. bestes

And I behelde / and I hearde þe voyce of many angels about the throne / and about the bestes & þe elders / & I hearde thousand thousandes / sayinge in a lowde voyce: Worthy is the lambe þe was kylled to receaue power / & ryches/ & wyldome/ & strenghte/ & honour/ & gloze/ & blesynge. And all þe creatures whiche are in heuē/ & on þe erth/ & vnder the erth/ & in the see/ & all þe are in the herde I sayinge: blesynge/ honour/ gloze/ & power be vnto him that sitteth vpon the seate/ & vnto the lambe for euermore. And the.iiii. helles sayd Amen.

And the. xiiii. elders fell vpon their faces/& worshipped him that lyueth for euermore.
¶ At the same tyme the.iiii. helles and many thyng folowe the openinge of the rol.

● The bi. Chapter.

And I sawe whe the lambe opened one of þe scales / & I herde one of þe lives. bestes saye / as it were þe noyle of thonder / come & se: and I sawe.
And beholde ther was a whyte horse / and he þe sat on him / had a bowe / and a croune was geuē vnto him / & he went forth conqueringe & for to overcome. And when he opened the seconde scale / I herde the seconde beste saye: come & se. And ther went oute another horse þe was redb / & power was geuen to him that satte thereon / to take peace fro the erthe / & þe they shuld kyl one another. * And ther was geuē vnto him a great sweade.

And whē he opened þe thirde seale / I herde þe thirde beste saye: come & se. And I behelde / a lo / a blacke horse: & he þe sate on him / had a payre of balances in his hāde. And I herde a voyce in þe myddel of þe .iiii. bestes saye: a measure of wheat for a peny / and .iiii. measures of bary for a peny: & oyle & wyne se thou hurte not. And when he opened the fourth seale / I herde the voyce of þe fourth beste saye: come & se: & I lokeð. And beholde a grene horse / his name that sate on him / was death / & he folowd after him / & power was gūe vnto them

them ouer the fourth parte of þe erth / to byll with swearde / and with hunger / & with deeth that cometh of bermen of the erth.

And when he opened þe lytle scale / I saw vnder the aultre / the soules of them þe were kylled for þe woꝛde of God / & for the testimony which they had / & they cryed with a lowde voyce saying: how longe tarpest thou Lord holpe & true / to iudge & to avenge oure blood on the þe dwell on the earth? And longe wyte garmentes were geueþ vnto euery one of the.
And it was sayde vnto the þe they shulde rest

The 6th Chapter

After that / I sawe .iij. Angels stande on the .iij. corners of the erth / holdynge the .iij. wyndes of the erth / that the wyndes shuld not blowe on the erth / nether on the see / nether on any tree. ⁊ And I sawe a nother angell ascende from the risyng of the sunne: which had the seale of the lyving God / and he cryed with a loud voyce to the .iij. Angels (to whom power was geuen to hurt the erth & the see) sayng : hurt not the erth nether the see / ne-

After this I behelde / and lo a gret multitude / (which nomis could be nombre of all nacids) and people / and tonges / stode before the seate / before the lambe / clothed with longe white garmentes / and palmes in their handes / and cryed with a lowde voyce / sayinge: saluacion of oure God / and vnto the lambe. And all the angels stode in the compase of the seate / of the elders / of the. iij. bestes / and fell before the seate on their faces / and worshipped God / sayinge: Ame: Blessinge and gloyp wylcome and thakes / a honour / a power / a myght / be vnto oure God for euermore. Amen.

And one of the elders answered / sayinge vnto me: what are these which are arrayed in longe whyte garmentes / and whence came they? And I sayde vnto hym: Lord thou wotest. And he sayde to me: these are they which cam out of great tribulacion and made their garmentes large / and made them whyte in the bloude of the lambe: therefore are they in the presence of the seate of God / a serue hym daye and nyght in his temple / and he that syteth in the seate wyl dwell amoge the. They shall hunger no more / neither thurst / neither shall the sunne / lyghte on the / neither any heate / for the lambe which is in the myddes of the seate / shall fede them / and shall leade the vnto fountaynes of lyfynge water / a God shall wype awaye all teares from their eyes.

The fourth scale is opened / there is sygne in heauyn / the foure angels blowe their trompettes / and grente plages folowe vpon the earth.

The. iij. Chapter.

And when he had opened the fourth scale / ther was syence in heauyn / aboute the space of halfe an houre. And I sawe angelles standyng before God / and to them were geuen. iij. trompettes. And another angell came a stode before the aulke haungynge a golden sencer / and to the of odoures was geuen vnto him / that he shulde offre of the prayers of all saynctes vpon the golden aulter / which was before the seate. And the smoke of the odoures which cam of the prayers of all saynctes / ascended vnto the seate of God out of the Angelles hande. And the Angell took the sencer and fylled it with fyre of the aulter and caste it into the erth / and voyces were made / a thondrynges and lyghtnynges / and erth quake.

And the. iij. Angels which had the. iij. rdd pettes prepared them selues to blowe. The first Angell blew / a there was made hayle and fyre / which were myngled with bloud / a they were caste into the erthe: and the thirde parte of trees was burnt / a all grene grasse was bynt. And the seconde Angell blew: a as it were a gret mountayne burnyng with fyre was caste into the see / a the thirde parte of the see tourmed to bloude / and the thirde parte of the creatures which had lyfe / dyed / and the thirde parte of theyppes we destroyed.

And the thirde Angell blew / and ther fell a gret starre from heuen burnyng as it were a lampe / and it fell into the thirde parte of the ryuers / and into fountaynes of waters / a the name of the starre is called wormwood. And the thirde parte was turned to wormwood. And many men dyed of the waters because they were made bytter. And the fourth Angell blew / and the thirde parte of the sunne was smytten / and the thirde parte of the mone / a the thirde parte of the starres: so that the thirde part of the was darckned. And the daye was smytten that the thirde part of it shulde not shyne / a lyke wyle the nyght. And I behelde and heide an Angell flyng thorow the myddes of heauen / sayinge with a lowde voyce: woe / woe to the inhabytens of the erth because of the voyces to come of the trompe of the. iij. Angels which were yet to blowe.

The

Of S. John.

Liut.

The fifth & syfte Angell blowe their trompettes: the starre fallith from heuen: the locusts come out of the smoke: The first two is past: the foure angels that were bounde are loosed / and the thirde parte of men is helich.

The. v. gure.

The. ix. Chapter.

And the syfte Angell blew / and I sawe a starre fall fro heuen vnto the erth. And to him was geuen the hape of the bottomlesse pytt. And he opened the bottomlesse pytt / a ther arose the smoke of a gret fornaice. And the sunne a the ayer were darckned by the reason of the smoke of the pytt. And there came out of the smoke locusts vpon the erth: and vnto them was geuen power as the scorpions of the erth haue power. And it was comaunded them / that they shuld not hurt the grasse of the erth: neither any grene thynge / neither any tree: but only those men which haue not the seale in their foreheades. And to the was comaunded that they shulde not kyll them / but that they shulde be bered. b. monethes / a their payne was as the payne that cometh of a scorpid / when he hath stonge a man. And in those dayes shall men seke deeth / a shall not fynde it / and shall desyre to dye / a deeth shall flye from them.

And the synnitude of the locusts was lyke vnto horses prepared vnto battayll / and on their heades were as it were crownes / lyke vnto golde: a their faces were as it had bene the faces of men. And they had hearre as the hearre of women. And their teethe were as the teethe of lyons. And they had habbergions / as it were habbergions of pyon. And the sounde of their wynges / was as the sounde of charrettes when many horses runne to gether to battayle. And they had sayles lyke vnto sco piens / a there were drynges in their sayles. And their power was to hurt men. b. monethes. And they had a kyng ouer the / which is the angell of the bottomlesse pytt / whose name in the hebrewe tonge is Abaddon: but in the greke tonge / Apollyon. One was past / a beholde two moore come after this.

The. ix. gure.

And the syfte Angell blew / and I herde a voyce from the. iij. corners of the golden aulter / which is before God / sayinge to the syfte Angell / which had the trompe: Loose the. iij. Angelles / which are bounde in the grete ryuer Euphrates. And the. iij. Angelles were loosed which were prepared for an houre / for a daye / for a moneth / a for a yere / for to see the. iij. part of men. And the nombre of hostmen of warre were. xx. tymes. x. And I herde the nombre of the / and thus I sawe the horses in a bilton / a them that late on them / haungynge by habbergions of a facincte colour / a byrmstone / a the heades of the horses were as the heades of lyons. And out of their mouthes went forth fyre and smoke a byrmstone. And of these. iij. was the. iij. part of men helich: that is to saye / of fyre / smoke / a byrmstone / which proceeded out of the mouthes of them: for their power was in their mouthes and in their sayles: for their sayles were lyke vnto serpentes / and had heades / a with them they shuld hurt. And the remanunt of the men which were not killed by these plages / repented not of the dedes of their handes that they shulde not wyschippe deupls / and ymagens of golde / and syluer / and byrre / a stone / and of wydd / which nether can se / nether heare / nether go. Also they repented not of their murth / and of their locerpy nether of their fornicacion nether of their theste.

The

The Angell hath the booke open: he sweareth there shalbe nomore tyme: he geueth the booke vnto John/ which causeth it vp.

The .i. Chapter.

And I saw another myghty angell come downe from heuen clothed with a cloude/ and the rayne bowe vpon his heed. And his face as it were the sunne/ & his fete as it were pylars of fyre/ and he had in his hande a lytel booke open: and he put his ryght fote vpon the see/ and his lyfte fote on the erth. And cryed with a lowde voyce / as when a lyon roareth. And when he had cryed/ seue thousandes spake their voyces. And whē the .viij. thousandes had spokē their voyces/ I was aboute to wyte. And I herde a voyce from heauen sayinge vnto me/ seale vp those thynges which the .viij. thousandes spake/ and wyte them not.

And the Angell which I sawe stonde vpon the see/ and vpon the erth/ lyfte vp his hande to heuen & swaie by him that I wote for euer moze/ which created heuen/ and the thynges that therein are/ and the see / and the thynges which therein are: & there shulde be no longer tyme: but in the dayes of the voyce of the seuen Angell/ whē he shalbe begyn to blowe: euen the mistery of God shalbe synnished as he preached by his seruantes the prophetes.

And the voyce which I herde from heuen/ spake vnto me agayne/ & sayd: go and take the lytel booke which is open in the hande of the angell which standeth vpon the see/ & vpon the erth. And I went vnto the angell/ & sayde to him: geue me the lytel booke / and he sayde vnto me: take it / & eate it vp / & it shall make thy belly bytter / but it shalbe in thy mouth as swete as honey. And I toke the lytel booke out of his hande/ and eate it vp / & it was in my mouth as swete as honey: and as sone as I had eaten it/ my belly was bytter. And he sayde vnto me: thou muste prophesy agayne amonge the people/ and nations/ & tonges/ and to many kynges.

The temple is measured. The seconde two is past.

The .ii. Chapter.

And then was geue me a reed/ & he sayde vnto me: a reed/ and it was sayde vnto me: Ryle and meate the temple of God/ and the auter/ and them that worshippeth therein/ and the quere which is in the temple/ cast oute and meate it not: for it is geuen vnto the Gentyles/ & the holy cytie shall they treade vnder fote. .xliij. monethes. And I wyl geue power vnto my two wyrtneres/ and they shall prophesy a thousande two hundredes and .lx. dayes / clothed in sacke clothe. These are the two olyue trees / and the two candelstykes / standynge before the God of the erth.

And yf any man wyll hurt them / fyre shall procede out of their mouthes / and consume their enemyes. And yf any man wyll hurt the thys wyse muste he be kylled. These haue power to shut heuen/ that it rayne not in .iij. dayes of their prophesying: and haue power ouer waters to turne them to bloude / and to smyte & erth with all maner plagis / as oft as they wyll.

And when they haue synnished thes testymony/ the beast that came out of the bottomlesse pyt / shall make warre agaynst them & shall overcome them/ and kylle the. And thes bodies shall lye in the stretes of the greates cytie/ which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypte / where oure Lord was crucified. And

And they of the people & kindred / & tonges / and they of the nations / shall se their bodies .iij. dayes & an halfe / & shall not suffre their bodies to be put in graues. And they shal dwell vpon the erth / shall reioyce ouer them and be gladd / & shall sende gystes one to another for these two prophetes byed them that dwell on the erth.

And after .iij. dayes and an halfe the sperte of lyfe from God/ entered into them. And they stode vp vpon their fete: & a grete seare came vpon them which sawe them. And they herde a grete voyce from heauen / sayinge vnto them. Come vp hysder. And they ascended vp into heauen in a cloude/ and their enemyes sawe them. And the same houre was ther a grete earthquake/ and the tenth parte of the cytie fell/ and in the earthquake were slayne names of men seuen. .x. and the remnant were feared/ & gaue glozy to God of heauen.

The seconde two is past / & beholde the thyrde two wyl come anon.

And the seuen angell blewe / & ther were made grete voyces in heauen / sayinge: the kyngdomes of this worlde are oure lordes & his Christes / & he shall raygne for euer moze. And the .xiiij. thers / which syt before God on their seates / fell vpon their faces / & worshipped God sayinge: we geue the thankes Lord God almyghte: which arte a wast / and arte to come / for thou haste receaued thy grete myght/ and hast raygned. And the nations were angry / & thy wrath is come / and the tyme of the dede that they shuld be iudged & that thou shuldest geue rewarde vnto thy seruantes the prophetes and sayntes / & to them that feare thy name small & great and shuldest destroye them / which destroye the erth. And the temple of God was opened in heuē / and ther was sene in his temple / the ark of his testament: & ther folowed lightnynges/ and voyces / and thousandes and earthquake/ and moche hayle.

The seuen angell bloweth his trompet. There appeareth in heuen a woman clothed with the sunne / Michael fighteth with the dragon / which persecuteth the woman.

The .iii. Chapter.

And ther appered a gret wonder in heauē: & a woman clothed with the sunne / & the moone vnder her fete / and vpon her heed a croune of .xiiij. starres. And she was with chyld / & cryed traualynge in byrth / and payned redy to be deliuered. And ther appered another wonder in heauen / for beholde a gret red dragon / havyng .viij. heddes / and ten hornes & crounes vpon his heades: and his eyle hys the chyldre parte of the starres / and cast them to the erth.

The .iii. Chapter.

And the dragon stode before the woman / whych was redy to be deliuered: for to deuoure her chyldre as sone as it were borne. And she brought forth a man chyldre / whych shulde rule all nacyns with a rode of yron. And her soune was taken vp vnto God / & to his seate. And the woman fled into wyldernes / where she had a place / prepared of God / that they shulde fede her there a. .xiiij. hundred and .lx. dayes.

And ther was a gret battayll in heauen / Michael & his Angells fought with the dragon / & the dragon fought & his angells / and preuailed not: neither was there place fouden any moze in heauen. And the gret dragon / that olde serpent called the deuyl and Sathanas was cast out. Which deceaueth all the worlde. And he was cast into the erth / & his angells were cast out also.

And I hearde a lowde voyce sayinge: in heuen is now made saluacyon & strengthe & the kyngdome of oure God / and the power of his Christ. For he is cast doune which accused them before God daye and nyght. And they ouercame him by the bloude of the lambe / and by the woode of their testimony / and they loued not their lyues vnto & death. Therefore reioyce heuens / and ye that dwell in them. I woo to the inhabytters of the erth / & of the see / for the deuyl is come doune vnto you / whych hath gret wrath / because he knoweth that he hath but a short tyme.

And when the dragon sawe / that he was cast into the erth / he persecuted the woman / whych brought forth the man chyldre. And to the woman were geue two wynges of a gret eagle / that she myght flye into the wyldernes / into her place / where she is noryshed for a tyme.

the mount Sion / & with hym an C. & xliiii. thousande hauinge by fathers name wypte in their forheades. And I herde a voyce fro heuen / as the sounde of many waters / and as the voyce of a gret thounde. And I herde þe voyce of harpers harpyng with their harpes. And they songe as it were a newe songe / befoze the seate / & befoze þe foure bestes / & the elders / and no man coulde learne that songe / but þe

of S. John.

¶ These folowe the lambe whither soeuer he goeth. These were redeemed fro men beinge the byle of sinners into God and to the lambe/and in their mouthes was founde no gyle.
For they are without spot before the throne of God.

And I sawe an angell ste in the myddes of heauē hauyng an euēlastyng gospell/ to preache into them that sūt and dwel on the erth/ and to all nacōns/ /lyngues/ and tonges

God/ and geue honour to hym/ for I haue his iudgement/ (some and wo) to paye hym/that made heauen and erth/ & the see/ & foun-taynes of water. And there foloweth a nother angell/ sayng: * Babylon is fallen is fallen that greates cyte/ * for she made all nacōns dryncke of the wyne of her fornicacion.

And the third angel bloweth the trumpet with a loud voice: If any man worshipping the beast & his image / receive his mark in his forehead / or on his hand / the same shall travaille the worme of the wrath of God / which is poured in the cuppe of his wrath, And he shall be purged in fire and bymstone / before the holy angels / and before the lambe.

And the smoke of their torments ascendeth by evermore. And they have no rest day nor night; which was prophesied by a his phariseus who formerly recouring the name of Ihu said, I will be the partner of thy throne. I will sit with thee that thou shalt be the head of the tribe of Judah.

And I heare a voyce from heauen saye vnto me; saye: Write vnto the churche; saye: I will be

The Reuelacyon

Mat. 18. 6
Hier. 5. 1.

glasse see, hauinge the harpes of God/ and they longe the longe of Moyses the seruante of God/ and the longe of the lambe/ sayinge: Greet and maruelous are thy woikes: * Lord God almyghty/ true and true are thy wayes/ kyng of Sanctes. Who shall not feare o Lord/ and glorify thy name? For thou only arte holy/ and all gentyls shall come & worshippe before the/ for thy iudgements are made manifeste.

And after that/ I looked/ and beholde the temple of the tabernacle of testimony was open in heauen/ and the seven Angels came out of the temple/ whych had the seven plagges/ clothed in pure and byght linnen/ and hauinge their byestes girded with golden girdels. And one of the four beestes gaue vnto the seven Angels. by golden vialles/ full of wrath of God/ which flueth for euer more. And the temple was full of the smoke of the glory of God and of his power/ and no man was able to entre into the temple/ tyll the seven plagges of the seven Angels were fulfilled.

The Angels poure out their vialles full of wrath.

The xvi. Chapter.

And I herde a great voyce out of the temple sayinge to the vii. Angels: go your wayes/ poure out your vialles of wrath vpon the erth. And the first went/ and poured out his blail vpon the erth/ and there fell anoyntment and a soze hotche vpon the men whych had the marke of the best/ and vpon them which worshippen his image. And the seconde Angel went out his blail vpon the see/ and it turned as it were into the bloud of a deerd man: & every lusinge thing dyed in the see. And the thyrde Angel shed out his blail vpon the ryuers and foun- taynes of waters/ and they turned to bloud. And I herde an Angell saye: Aoyde tolych arte and wast/ thou arte ryghteous and holy/ because thou hast geuen to the iudgements for they shed out the bloud of sayntes/ and Prophetes/ and therefore hast thou geuen the bloud to drynke: for they are worthy. And I herde another out of the aultre saye: euen so Aoyde God almyghty true and ryghteous are thy iudgements.

And the fourth Angell poured out his blail on the sunne/ & power was geuen vnto hym to bere men with heate of fyre. And the men ragged in gret heate/ & spake euyl of the name of God which hath power ouer those plagges/ and they repented not/ to geue hym glory. And the fyfte Angell poured out his viall vpon the seace of the beste/ & his kyngdome waxed derke/ and they gnawe their tonges for sozowe/ & blasphemed the God of heauen for sozowe and payne of their sozes/ and repented not of their dedes.

And the sytte Angell poured out his blail vpon the gret ryuer Euphrates/ & the water dyd drye/ that the wayes of the kynges of the este shoulde be prepared. And I sawe thye bi- cleue spretes lyke frogges come out of the mouth of the dragon/ & out of the mouth of the beste/ & out of the mouth of the false Prophete. For they are the spretes of deuyls working myracles/ to go out vnto the kyngs of the erth and of the whole world/ to gaddye them to the battayle of that gret daye of God almyghty. Beholde I come as a thefe. Wap- py is he that watcheth/ and heperth bys gar- mentes/ lest he be founde naked/ and men se his synnynges. And he gathered them toge- ther into a place called in the Hebrue tonge Armagedon.

And the seventh Angell poured out his blail in to the ayre. And ther cam a voyce out of heauen from the seate/ sayinge: it is done. And ther folowed voyces thondrynges/ and lightnynges/ & ther was a gret earthquake/ soche as was not sence men were vpon the erth/ so myghty an earthquake and so gret. And the greate cytye was dryged into thre parties/ and the cytyes of all nacjons fell. And gret Babylon came in remembraunce before God/ to geue vnto hye the cuppe of the wyne of the fearenes of his wrath. Every yle fled away/ & the mountaynes were not founde. And ther fell a gret hayle/ as it had bene talentes/ out of heauen vpon the men/ and the men blasphemed God: because of the plage of the hayle/ for it was gret & the plage of the soze.

The descryber the woman synnyng vpon the best with ten harnes.

Of S. John.

Chap.

The xvi. Chapter.

And ther came one of the seven An- gels/ which had the seven vialles/ and talked with me/ sayinge vnto me: come I will shewe the the iud- gement of the gret wyche that synneth vpon many natyons/ with whiche have comitted for- nicacion the kynges of the erth/ in that the inhabytters of the erth/ are drynchen with the wyne of hys fornicacion. And he caryed me awaye into the wyldernes in the sprete. And I sawe a woman syt vpon a roke colozed be- full of names of blasphemye which had ten hornes. And the woman was arrayed in purple and roze coloure and decked with golde/ pre- cious stonys/ and pearles/ and had a cup of golde in her hand/ full of a domynacion & fil- lynes of her fornicacion. And in her right hand was a name written/ a mystry/ gret Babylon the mother of whoredoms/ and a domynat- cion of the erth. And I sawe the wyche drynchen with the bloud of sayntes/ & with the bloud of the wyrtues of the sayntes. And when I sawe her/ I wonderd with gret myrwayne.

And the Angell saide vnto me: wherfore marvellest thou? I will shewe the the myste- ry of the woman/ whiche is the gret cytye/ whiche hath seven hilles/ and an hornes. And she is the gret cytye/ whiche was/ and is not/ & shall be no more/ out of the bottomlesse pye/ and shall be drynchen with the wyne of the fornicacion/ and they that dwell on the erth shall worshippe (whose names are not written in the booke of the life) the begin- nyng of the wyche/ when they beholde the best that was & is not. And here is a my- stry/ whiche hath wisdom.

The seven heales are seven mountaynes/ on which the woman synneth: they are also seuen kynges. And she is the gret cytye/ & she is not yet come. When he cometh he will continue a space. And the best that was/ & is not/ is the best/ & is one of the best/ & shall go into destruction. And I sawe harnes which thou seest/ are ten kynges/ which have receaved no kyngdome/ but shall receave po- wer as kynges at one houre with the best. These have one mynde/ and shall geue their power & strenght vnto the best. These shall fight with the lambe/ & the lambe shall over- come them. For he is Lord of lordes/ & kyng of kynges & they that are called/ and chosen and sayntes.

And he sayde vnto me: the waters which thou sawest/ where the wyche synneth/ are people/ & folke/ and nacjons/ and tinges. And the ten hornes/ which thou sawest vpon the best/ are they that shall hate the wyche/ and shall make her desolate & naked/ & shall burne her with fyre. For God hath put in their hertes to fulfill his wyll/ & to do with one consent/ for to geue her kyng- dome vnto the best/ vntill the wyches of God be destroyed. And the woman which thou sawest/ is a gret cytye/ which raggeth ouer the kynges of the erth.

The hilles of the woman are sayntes for the fall of the best/ & they that be of God have comitted for- nicacion with her.

The xviii. Chapter.

And after that/ I sawe another An- gell come from heauen/ hauinge gret power/ and the erth was troubled with his byghtnes. And he cryed mightily with a strong voyce sayinge: Great Babylon is fallen/ is fallen: and is become the habytacion of deuyls/ and the holde of all folwe by thes. a cage of all vncleane & bare. full by des. for all nacions haue dyonken of the wyne of the wrath of her fornicaciō. And the hynges of the erth haue comitted fornicaciō with her. & her marchauntes are waxed ryche of the aboundaunce of her pleasures.

And I herde a nother voyce from heauen/ saye: come away fro her my people/ that ye be not partekers in her synnes. that ye receaue not of her plagues. For her synnes are gon up to heuen/ & God hath remembred her wylledones. Rewarde her euen as she rewarded you/ & geue her double accordyng to her wyrt. And poure in double to her in the same cuppe which she filled vnto you. And as moche as she glorified her selfe & lured wyltany to moche poure ye in for her of purgament. and sozowe/ for she sayde in her selfe: * I syt beynge a quene & am no wydow & shall se no sozowe. Therfore shall her plagues come at one daye, deeth/ & sozowe/ & hunger/ and she shall be bynt with fyre: for stronge is the Lord God which iudgeth her.

And the hynges of the erth shall wepe her and waille ouer her, whych haue comitted fornicaciō with her/ & haue lured wantonly with her/ when they shall se the smoke of her burnynge/ & shall stande a farre of/ for feare of her punishment/ sayinge. * Alas/ Alas that gret cite Babylō/ that mighty cite: for at one houre is her iudgement come. And the marchauntes of the erth shall wepe & waille in them selues/ for no man myll bye their wares enymore/ the wares of golde and siluer/ and p'ecious stones/ nether of pearle/ & raynes/ & purple/ & charlet/ & all thyne wodde and all maner bestels of puer/ & all maner bestels of most p'ecious wodde/ and of byade and yzon/ and synamon/ and odours/ & oynemētes/ and franchysence/ & wyne/ and oyle and fyne floure/ and wheate/ bestes/ and shepe/ and hoyses/ and charetes/ and bodyes and soules of men.

And the apples that the soule lusted after are departed from the. And all thynges which were deynlie/ and had in p'pce are departed fro the/ & thou shalt fynde the no moze. The marchauntes of these thynges whych were waxed ryche/ shall stande a farre of from her/ for feare of the punishment of her/ wepyng & wailing/ & sayinge: * Alas/ alas/ that gret cite/ that was clothed in raynes & purple/ and scarlet/ and decked with golde/ and p'ecious stones/ & pearles: for at one houre so great riches is come to nought.

And every wyppre gouernour/ & all they that occupied wyppes/ and wyppes which woike in the see/ & were a farre of/ & cryed/ when they sawe the smoke of her burnynge/ sayinge: what cite is like vnto this gret cite? And they call dust on their heddes/ & cryed wepyng/ and waynyng/ & sayde: * Alas/ alas/ that gret cite/ wherein were made in the all that had wyppes in the see/ by the reason of her costlynge/ for at one houre is she made desolate.

Reioyce ouer her thou heauen/ & ye holy Apostles and Prophetes: for God hath geue youre iudgement ouer her. And a mighty angell toke by a stone lyke a gret myllstone/ & cast it into the see/ sayinge: with such violence shall that gret cite Babylō be cast/ & shall be founde no moze. And the voyce of harpers/ & musycians/ and of p'pys/ & trompetters shall be herde no moze in the: & no crafter mē/ of whatsoever craft he be/ shall be founde enymore in the. And the sounde of a myll shall be herde no moze in the/ & the voyce of the bydgrome and of the byde/ shall be herde no moze in the/ for the marchauntes were the gret men of the erth. And with thyne inchauntment were deceaued all nacions: & in her was founde the bloude of the Prophetes/ & of the sayntes/ & of all that were slayne by the erth.

¶ I prayd as thames are geue vnto God for iudginge the wyche/ & for ouercomynge the bloude of his seruantes. The Angell myll not be worshypped. The soules and bydes are called to the slaughter.

The xix. Chapter.

¶ And after that I herde the voyce of moche people in heauen sayinge: Alleluya. Saluacion and gloze & honour and power be ascribed to the Lord oure God/ for true & righteous are his iudgements/ for he hath iudged the gret wyche which did corrupt the erth by her fornicaciō/ & hath auenged the bloude of his seruantes of his hand. And agayne they sayde: Alleluya. And smoke rose by for euermore. And the xxiiij. elders/ & the liij. bestes fell doune/ & worshypped God that sat on the seate sayinge: Amen/ Alleluya. And a voyce came oute of the seate/ sayinge: praye oure Lord God all ye that are his seruantes/ and ye that feare hym both small and gret.

And I herde the voyce of moche people/ euen as the voyce of many waters/ and as the voyce of stronge thond'nynges/ sayinge: Alleluya/ for God omnipotent raygneth. Let vs be glad and reioyce and geue honoure to hym: for the mariage of the lambe is come/ and his wyfe made herselfe redy. And to be was graunted/ that she shoulde be arrayed with pure and golde raynes. For the raynes is the ryghtewynesse of sayntes. And he sayde vnto me/ * happy are they whych are called vnto the lambes supper. And he sayde vnto me: these are the true saynges of God. And I fell at his fete/ to worshypp hym. And he sayde vnto me/ se thou do it not it not for I am thy selowe seruaunt/ & one of thy byrth/ and of them that haue the testimony of Iesus. Worshypp God. For the testimony of Iesus is the sp'ite of prophesy.

¶ And I sawe heauen open/ & beholde a wythe hoysse: and he that sat vpon him was saythull and true/ and in ryghtewynesse did iudge and make battayle. Hys eyes were as a flame of fyre: and on his heed were many crownes: & he had a name wyrtten/ that noman knowe but he him selfe. * And he was clothed with a besture dypt in bloud/ and his name is called the wyrd of God. And the warriors whych were in heauen/ folowed hym vpon wythe hoyses/ clothed with white & pure raynes: & out of his mouth went out a sharpe sword/ that with it he shoulde smyte the herthen. And he shall rule them with a rodde of yron/ & he trode the wyne sat of fearnes and wrath of almighty God. And hath on his besture & on his thigh a name wyrtten: kynge of kynges/ and Lord of Lordes.

¶ And I sawe an Angell stande in the sunne/ and he cryed with a lowde voyce/ sayinge to all the fowles that flye by the middes of heauē/ come and gather youre selues to gether vnto the supper of the gret God that ye maye eate the fleshe of kynges/ and of the captaynes/ and the fleshe of myghty men/ & the fleshe of hoyses/ and of them that cryt on them/ and the fleshe of all free men & bond men/ & of small and gret. And I sawe the beast & the kynges of the erth/ & their warriors gathered to gether to make battayle agaynst hym that sat on the hoysse and agaynst his souldiers.

¶ And the beast was taken & with hym that false prophet that wrought myracles before hym/ with which he deceaued them that recea ued the beetes marke/ & them that worshypped his ymage. These both were cast into a pyre of fyre burnynge w' bym stone: & the remaunt were slayne with the swearde of hym that sat vpon the hoysse/ which swearde proceded out of his mouth/ & all the foules were fulfilled with their fleshe.

¶ The dragon is bounde for a thousande yeres. The beyl myle and receaue iudgement.

The xx. Chapter.

¶ And I sawe an Angell come doune from heauen/ hauinge the keye of the bottomlesse pit/ & a gret chayn in his hand. And he toke the dragon that olde serpent/ which is the deuill & satanas/ & he bounde him a thousande yeres: & cast him into the bottomlesse pit/ & he bounde hym/ and set a seale on him/ that he shoulde deceaue the people no moare/ till the thousande yeres were fulfilled: And after that he must be loosed for a lytell season.

¶ And I sawe seates & they sat vpon them/ iudgement was geuen vnto them: & I sawe the soules of them that were beheaded for the wyrtnes of Iesu/ and for the wyrd of God/ whych had not worshypped the beast/ nether his ymage/ nether had taken hys marke vpon their foreheades/ or on their handes: and they luyd/ & raygned with Christ a. 1000. yere: but the other of the ded men luyd not agayne/ untill the thousand yere were finished. & this is that fyrst resurrecciō. Blessed and holy is he that hath parte in the fyrst resurrecciō. For on such shall the seconde deeth haue no power/ for they shall be the p'etres of God and of Christ/ and shall raygne with hym a. 1000. yere.

The xii gates were xii pearles every gate was of one pearle and the strete of the citie was pure golde as thorow the thynnyng glasse. And ther was no temple therein. For our Lorde God almighty and the lambe are the temple of it. and the citie hath no nede of the sonne neither of the mone to lyghten it. For the bryghtnes of God drew lyght it; and the lambe was the lyght of it. And the people whiche are saved shall walke in the lyght of it; and the kynges of the earth shall bringe their glory unto it. And the gates of it are not shut by daye. For ther shall be no night there. And ther shall entre into it none unclene thyng: neither whatsoeuer worketh abomination or maketh lyes: but they only which are written in the lambs booke of lyfe.

The ryuer of the water of life the fruitfulnessse & lyght of the rtye of God. The Lord gyveth ever his seruauntes warninge of thinges for to come, the angel will not be worshipped. To the worde of God maye no-thinge be added nor mynished therefrom.

The.rrii.Chapter.

And he shewed me a pure ryuer of water of lyfe cleere as Cristall: procedynge oute of the seate of God and of the lambe. In the myddes of the strete of it/ and of ether syde of the ryuer was ther woode of lyfe: which bare xiiij. manner of frutes: and gabe frute euery moneth; and the lyes of the woode serued to heale þ people wpyth all. And ther shal be no more curse but þ seate of God & the lambe shal be in it: and hys seruautes shal serue hym. And they shal see his face and his name shal be in their forheddes.* And there shal be no nyght there and they neede no candle, nether light of the sunne: for the Lorde Geueth them light and they shall raygne for evermore.

And he sayde unto me: these sayinges are saythfull and true. And the Lord God of Daynetes and Prophtes sent hys angel to shewe unto his seabautes the thinges which muste shortly be fulfilled. Beholde I come shortly.* Happp is he that kepeth the saying of h prophecy of this boke. I am John which sawe these thinges and herbe them. And wh^e I had herbe and sene.* I sell donne to wor-shippe before the sete of the Angel which shewd me these thinges. And he sayde unto me se thou do it not for I am thy felowe seruant and the felowe seruant of thy brethren the Prophtes & of them which kepe the saying of this boke. But worshippe God.

And he saide vnto me; seale not þe sayings of the prophetie of this booke. For the tyme is at hande. We that doete euill let hym do euill still: and he which is filthie let him be filthie still: & he that is righteous let hym be more righteous: & he that is holy let him be more holy. And beholde I come shortly and my re warde with me to geue euery man accord inge as hys deedes shall be. I am alpha and omega the beginninge and the ende: the first and the last. Blessed are they that do his com maundementes that their power maye be in the tree of lyfe and maye entre in thorow gates into the citie.* For withoute shal be dog ges and inchauters and whoremongers and murtherers and idolaters and whosoever lobeth or maketh thinges.

I Iesus sent mine angel to testify unto you these things in the congregacions. I am the root and the generation of David and the bright morninge starre. And the spere and the hyde false come. And let hym that heareth saie also come. And let him that is athirst come. And let whosoever will take of the water of lyfe fre.

I testifie unto every man that heareth wordes of the prophesie of this booke: if any man shall adde unto these thinges, God shall adde unto him the plagues that are written in this booke. And if any man shall minishe of the wordes of the booke of this prophesie, God shall take away his parte out of the booke of life and out of the holy cite and fro the things which are written in this booke. He which testifieth these things saith; he is.
